

The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

Father's Day was a delightful experience for us. We received a kiss from the wife and a request for a left-handed baseball glove from our son. But it could have been worse. We could have received the usual gift of a tie followed by a bill for it on July 1st.

Men are what women marry, a reader of this pillar of "this and that" writes us. And, continuing, we learn that they have two hands, two feet and sometimes two wives, but never more than one dollar or one idea at a time. Like Turkish cigarettes, they are all made of the same material, the only difference is some are better disguised than others.

Generally speaking, we are told, they may be divided into three classes: Husbands, bachelors and widowers. A bachelor is a negligible mass of obstinacy entirely surrounded by suspicion. Husbands are three types: Prizes, surprises and consolation prizes. Making a husband out of a man is one of the highest forms of plastic art known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, faith, hope and charity (mostly charity). It is a psychological marvel that a small, tender, soft, violet-scented thing would enjoy kissing a big, awkward, stubby-chinned, tobacco and bay rum-scented thing like a man.

If you flatter a man, you frighten him to death. If you don't, you bore him to death. If you permit him to make love to you, he gets tired of you in the end, and if you don't, he gets tired of you in the beginning. If you believe him in everything, you cease to charm him. If you believe all he tells you, he thinks you are a fool. If you don't, he thinks you are a cynic.

If you wear gay colors, rouge and a startling hat, he hesitates to take you out, but you wear a brown beret and a tailor-made suit, he takes you out and stares all evening at a woman in gay colors, rouge and a startling hat. If you are silly, he longs for a bright mate; if you are brilliant and intellectual, he longs for a playmate. Men are just a worm in the dust. He comes along, wiggles around for a while and finally some chicken gets him.

Many fathers with daughters either planning or having passed through the experience of a June wedding will appreciate the observation of a certain Dad who was horrified at the cost of a wedding gown. "Well," he said, "I don't mind giving her in marriage—but it is necessary that she be gift wrapped?"

Little Johnny fought hard to keep from going to the dentist but by main strength and awkwardness, his mother dragged the youngster into the dental office. The next problem came when the dentist tried to get him to open his mouth. This took patience plus bribing and finally the mouth came open just long enough for the dentist to get his finger in the boy's mouth. That's where he made his mistake as from the adjoining office we heard his mother say: "Johnny, be a good boy and say 'Ah-h-h' so the nice doctor can get his finger out of your mouth."

Maybe the sign that appears in a certain Pentagon office should be placed near your own mirror, it reads: "If you could kick the person responsible for most of your troubles, you wouldn't be able to sit down for six months."

Two old timers were discussing one of their buddies, when one remarked: "He's so old fashioned he expects his wife to help with the dishes."

We always thought we'd like to own a billion dollars but we have lost our interest in it since we learned that it would be a pile of $1,000 bills—111 feet higher than the Washington Monument—since we wouldn't have any place to store it. We are crowded for space now.

Just to make sure that crime doesn't pay, the government should take it over and try to run it.

A farmer was plowing in his bottom land the other afternoon and stopped to mop his brow, exclaiming aloud: "It's sure hot today." One of his mules, looking back, replied: "Yep, it sure is." The astonished farmer looked down at his dog and said: "Well, that's the first time I ever heard a mule talk." The dog looked from the mule to the farmer and replied: "It's the first time for me, too." And we have the word of a well-known liar to prove it, too.

Back-fence gossip to a neighbor: "Now listen carefully, because I can only tell this once. I promised on a stack of Bibles this high that I would not repeat it."

A man who knows tells us that from his studies he has found that women have three ways to meet a domestic crisis: Sue for divorce, have a good cry or rearrange the furniture in the living-room.

The housewife was looking over the display of fruit at the super market. "I want some grapes for my sick husband," she explained to the clerk. "Do you know if there has been any poison sprayed on these of yours?" "No, ma'am, you'll have to get poison at the druggist," was the reply.

MACMILLAN GETS DEGREE—The temperature hovers around 90 degrees as Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, right, receives an honorary doctor of laws degree from Dr. Russell Humbert of DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind. Macmillan, in this country for talks with President Eisenhower, gave the major speech to the graduating class and guests. Indiana is his mother's native state.

Todd Urges Support Agricultural Measure

General Farm Bill Would Provide For New Three-Year Cotton Program

State Commissioner of Agriculture and Industries A. W. Todd has called upon the members of the Alabama delegation in Washington to use their influence in behalf of the new Farm Bill entitled "The Agricultural Income Equality Act of 1958," introduced in Congress by Senator Herman E. Talmadge of Georgia and Rep. William Colmer of Mississippi. This bill would allow farmers to grow any crop and sell it as he pleases. Todd said that this Bill would let the farmer farm and would bring about a better farm economy to our farmers as well as stop the move of Alabama farmers from the soil. He said that this Bill would give the depressed farm situation in Alabama a shot in the arm that it so badly needs and, too, that it should help bring together the long divided Farm Bloc in Washington.

Under the Talmadge Farm Plan, the farmer would be permitted to grow as much of any basic commodity as he pleases and to sell it as he pleases.

This bill would provide for the payment by the Federal Government to the farmers for the difference between the price he receives and 100% of parity on that portion of his crop which would be consumed in this country. Other provisions for inclusion in a general farm bill that the Cotton Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture has approved, include a new three-year cotton program, setting the national acreage allotment in 1959, 1960, 1961 at no less than the requirements for domestic consumption and export which is about 17,700,000 acres for 1959. This bill would give the Secretary of Agriculture the power to give the farmer a choice between two proposals.

The first proposal would allow the farmer to remain within his original cotton allotment and receive price supports in 1959 at no less than the support level in 1958 which is expected to be about 84 percent of parity, in 1960 at 80 percent of parity, and in 1961 at 75 percent of parity.

Choice B would allow the farmer to plant up to 33 1/3 percent above his original allotment and receive price support on all the cotton he produces at no less than 60 percent of parity. The Secretary would then determine in each of the next three years the percentage which farmers under this plan could increase their acreage above original allotments. The price support level for Choice B farmers would be set at some level not below 60 percent of parity.

The proposed new program would terminate after 1961. It would continue in effect the four-acre minimum allotment provisions which now are due to expire with this year's crop.

HOWARD ASSUMES AIRPORT DUTY
John Howell has assumed the duties of manager of the Muscle Shoals Airport. Howell is from the Tennessee Valley Flight Service which has been given a one-year contract to manage the local airport.

Operating of the local airport by the Tennessee Valley Flight Service will become effective June 15.

Open house will be held at the Muscle Shoals CAA Traffic Control Station Sunday from 1 to 5 p. m.

Station personnel will be on hand during the open house hours to explain the inner workings of air traffic control and the work being done at the Muscle Shoals station.

Fairgrounds To Be Scene Of Annual Horse Show July 5

American Legion and Muscle Shoals Riding Club Sponsor Event

The second annual Muscle Shoals Horse Show, under the sponsorship of Florence-Lauderdale Post No. 11, American Legion and the Muscle Shoals Riding Club will be held at the North Alabama State fairgrounds Saturday, July 5 at 7:30 p. m., N. R. Starkey and Claude Wear, co-chairmen, announce.

With the very successful horse show held last Fourth of July, the local sponsors began immediately to plan for the second such event for this year and the response to the announcement indicates that an even larger show will result, Mr. Starkey said.

Aver $2,000 in cash prizes are being offered, plus the usual ribbons giving the local show one of the top prize figures offered in this part of the South being surpassed by only the long featured events of Middle Tennessee and Kentucky. This large sum offered at prizes, Mr. Starkey said, has already attracted sufficient entries to guarantee this year's event to surpass any ever held in this part of Alabama.

The judges for the show are Jack Darnall, of Huntsville, who will judge the walking horses, and Mike St. Charles, of Nashville, who will judge the galloped horses, hunters and jumpers. These two men are recognized as two of the best judges in horse show circles.

Emmett Guy, of Jackson, Tenn., will return as master of ceremonies. Those who attended last year's show will recall that Mr. Guy keeps the show going steadily and adds both interest and entertainment to the event. O'Neal Howell, of Memphis, will serve as ring master and Mrs. Carrie Neal Foy, of Memphis, will be at the organ. Dr. J. E. Cravette, of Florence, is official veterinarian and J. W. Hargrove, of Lewisburg, Tenn., is the farrier.

Box seats and reserved seats are now available from the office of the American Legion and from officials of the Riding Club. Persons interested in attending this big show and wish the best seats are urged to make their reservations immediately. Mr. Starkey and Mr. Wear stressed.

Pipeline Company Places Base Here

Local Economy Will Get Uplift By Addition Of 246 New Gas Families

C. Hewlett Jackson, Florence Chamber of Commerce manager, has announced that the local economy in the Tri-Cities area is in for another upturn with the establishing of base headquarters in Florence by the Western Pipeline Company of Austin, Texas.

The company is laying a pipeline from the Delta area in Louisiana and Mississippi to Portland, Tenn. At Portland, the new line will connect with existing main line facilities of Tennessee Gas & Transmission Company.

Mr. Jackson is hard at work trying to find furnished living accommodations for 150 families and house trailer parking accommodations for another 96 families.

He pointed out that the presence of these highly-paid people will help to boost business at least for a while.

County Divided Into 7 Divisions For Census Report

In a joint program with the State of Alabama and each of its counties, the Bureau of the Census is establishing areas known as "Census County Divisions," for use in statistical reporting. These areas will be used to replace the election precincts used as a census reporting unit.

Benjamin V. Reed, member of the Census staff, is here from Washington, D. C., to consult with county officials and to solicit their advice in regard to the proposed areas.

Census County Divisions should be particularly useful for local statistical purposes. For the most part, they are based on the population centers which serve as a focal point of each division. The statistical data collected for these divisions in coming censuses will serve to measure the sphere of influence exercised by the population centers. It is believed that the Census County Divisions will be a handy tool for the use of county officials, local newspapers, and business organizations.

Mr. Reed assures us that the county divisions set up by the Bureau of the Census will not interfere in any way with existing governmental units of the State or counties.

Lauderdale County has been divided into 7 Census County Divisions as follows: Waterloo, Oakland, Cloverdale, St. Florian, Killen, Lexington, and Rogersville.

Lincoln Scholar Speaks Tonight At Florence State

'The Gettysburg Address' Will Be Topic Of Talk In College Amphitheatre

Dr. R. Gerald McMurtry, a noted Lincoln Scholar, will speak at Florence State College tonight at 7:30.

DR. R. GERALD MCMURTRY

The subject of his address will be, "The Gettysburg Address."

Brought to the campus by the Danforth Committee, Dr. McMurtry is one of America's leading authorities on Abraham Lincoln.

Dr. McMurtry, a native of Kentucky, received his A.B. and Litt.D. degrees from Centre College and his LL.D. degree from Iowa Wesleyan. He is a director of the Lincoln National Life Foundation, is editor of two journals, Lincoln Herald and Lincoln Lore, and is author of 25 books and pamphlets and some 200 magazine articles.

The Lincoln scholar is a member of Civil War Round Table. He was appointed by President Eisenhower as a member of the National Lincoln Sesquicentennial Commission. An associate of Carl Sandburg, Allan Nevins, Bruce Catton, Irving Stone and other leading historical writers, he was featured in the February issue of Saturday Evening Post.

The public is invited to hear Dr. McMurtry speak in the college Amphitheatre tonight. In case of inclement weather, the program will be moved to Kilby auditorium.

Hospital Board Adds New Members

Mitchell, May Added Because Of Expansion Presently Taking Place

Appointments have been made by the county probate judge and the mayor of Florence of two new members to the Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital Board.

W. H. Mitchell, Jr., has been appointed by Mayor E. F. Martin to represent the city and Harold S. May has been appointed by Judge Herman K. Longshore to represent the county. These two new members give the hospital a total of 10 board members.

Other members of the board are Longshore, Martin, J. T. Flagg, Grady Williams, U. O. Redd, Orlan B. Hill, A. W. Darby and Dr. D. W. Hollingsworth.

The reason for the additional board members, Judge Longshore said, was that the hospital is growing. At the present, a $1.5 million expansion is underway at the hospital.

U.S. Might Send Troops To Help Quell Rebellion

Situation In Lebanon Critical As President Takes Part In Defense

Secretary of State John F. Dulles said Tuesday that the United States might send troops into Lebanon which has been torn by strife in a six-week-old rebellion. Dulles said the U. S. might take this action if the Lebanese situation became chaotic, if there were no effective action by the UN and if the Lebanese government asked for U. S. troops to restore order.

If Lebanon asked for U. S. troops, the request would be in line with the latest interpretation of the Eisenhower Middle East doctrine by the President and Dulles. A high spokesman for the Lebanon government said that his country would ask the United States and Britain to supply troops to protect Lebanese borders against infiltration of rebels from the rebels from the United Arab Republic if the UN fails to do the job.

Fighting In Lebanon
In fighting Monday, President Chamoun was reported to have fired a submachine gun himself on attacking rebels around the presidential palace.

Lebanon's Prime Minister, Sami Solh, and his family fled his home Saturday night when rebels looted, burned and dynamited it in the midst of bitter fighting.

Solh charged that the rebels took their cue from Cairo Radio, the voice of the United Arab Republic. He stated that the rebels to see that what Cairo Radio had reported would actually occur implemented what they had heard earlier from Cairo Radio.

The fighting was so furious that American embassy employees were given a choice of leaving the country at government expense. Also, such American concerns as the First National City Bank, Chase Manhattan Bank and Bank of America offered to evacuate families of American personnel at company expense. Speculation was that the 1800 marines with the U. S. 6th Fleet, which has been maneuvering in the eastern Mediterranean for the past two weeks might be called in to remove Americans if the six-week rebellion became more violent.

UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold arrived in Beirut Wednesday from New York to join UN observers sent in as a result of Lebanon's complaint of "massive interference" by the Syrian-Egyptian United Arab Republic. The complaint was lodged with the UN by Dr. Charles Malik, foreign minister of this tiny Christian Middle East nation.

Eisenhower Not To Fire Adams Press Is Told

President Eisenhower admitted that Sherman Adams was imprudent in his relations with Bernard Goldfine, wealthy Boston industrialist, but said, "I need him" to continue at his post as top presidential aide. Adams earlier this week admitted he had received gifts from Goldfine but denied any influence they might have had in Goldfine's dealings with the government.

President's Statement
In a prepared statement Mr. Eisenhower said Adams had been imprudent as Adams himself acknowledged in a testimony given Tuesday before a House investigating committee. However, despite that imprudence the President said he has reached these personal conclusions:

"1. I believe that the presentation by Gov. Adams to the congressional committee Tuesday truthfully represents the pertinent facts.

"2. I personally like Gov. Adams.

"3. I admire his abilities.

"4. I respect him because of his personal and official integrity.

"5. I need him."

Mr. Eisenhower also said, "admitting the lack of that careful prudence in this incident that Gov. Adams Tuesday referred to, I believe with my whole heart that he is an invaluable public servant, doing a difficult job efficiently, honestly and tirelessly." The President added that he would have nothing further to say about the Adams-Goldfine case, though he did reply several questions asked by newsmen before the conference ended.

At one point he was asked whether others in the government employ could do what Adams did and win White House approval. To this Mr. Eisenhower said he had always striven for the highest implecable standards in the case of White House staff members and the goal was the same for other agencies though he did not have as close a contact with them as he did his own staff. He said that such matters in other departments of the government were up to the various heads of those departments.

The news conference attracted 257 reporters.

Goldfine To Be Called
Rep. Owen Harris (D-Ark) said Wednesday that he would ask for testimony from Bernard Goldfine. Harris heads the House subcommittee which heard Adams testimony on Tuesday.

In an interview Harris said he would have preferred Adams testimony at a later date because congressmen have yet to complete another chapter in the Goldfine inquiry which is also said to involve Adams. Harris said his group also intends to get testimony from John Fox, publisher of the now defunct Boston Post in connection with the Adams-Goldfine case.

Wheat Harvesting Begins In County

Prices Being Paid For No. 1 Variety Equals $1.83 No. 2 Grain $1.82

Combining of wheat has begun in Lauderdale with the summation of less acreage but better quality wheat and higher prices to farmers. Lauderdale planted only 17,000 acres of wheat this year due to the bad weather.

H. O. Cross, Lauderdale Co.-Op Grain Elevator employee, said that night loads of wheat were processed last Thursday, the first of the season. Nine more loads came in Friday along with eight loads of oats. By Saturday activity was running heavy.

Prices being paid for No. 2 wheat in Florence per bushel was $1.82. No. 1 grain was bringing $1.83 per bushel.

Most of the wheat arriving at the Lauderdale County elevator came from the Bend of the River section, although some came from Colbert County.

Why Not Do It Now?

While big cities are not alone in their inability to solve the ever-growing parking problem, in the larger populated areas the compulsion to do something has resulted in drastic action to keep traffic moving.

As an example of such drastic action the city of Los Angeles and many other metropolitan areas have been forced to pass ordinances against parking on streets even in residential sections. This was unpopular at first but when it was seen how much more quickly traffic moved and how fewer accidents occurred the motoring public in those cities not only admits it was the thing to do but wonders why it was not done sooner.

Surely, the city fathers argued, if a family can spend three to four thousand dollars each for its one or more cars, then it can afford to build a garage or driveway to park them in or use the services of a public garage. In the downtown areas multi-storied parking garages with elevators and ramps have been built to take the shoppers and commuters cars off the streets though there is still an acute shortage of space for such buildings or parking lots in congested downtown sections of most of the larger cities.

In Florence there is not only an ever-growing parking problem in the business areas but a very acute and bazaarish problem in the residential areas. This is particularly bad where cars park opposite each other on such streets as North Cedar, Locust, Olive, or Irvine Avenue. Passing is not only impossible but in many cases barely enough room is left for a single car to pass between the vehicles. In many instances it would not be possible for fire trucks to get through to fight a fire until such vehicles could be moved and this occurring in the night could be disastrous.

On thoroughfares the hazard is multiplied because vehicles move with greater speed and this applies to Wood Avenue, Florence's most important "through" street, and to Jackson Road and Royal Avenue. All are too narrow to permit double parking and while some stretches along these streets have been marked against double parking there should be no parking at all.

Is it intelligent to wait until the problem becomes so bad we have to take action? Surely it is time to do something that will prevent further accidents to both motorists and pedestrians and allow traffic to move smoothly in both directions on these important thoroughfares as well as on all the streets in town.

The time is coming when parking on any street, business or residential, will be not only against the law, but impossible.

France And De Gaulle

The attention of the world for the moment is focused on De Gaulle as people of the free nations await with baited breath and prayerful hearts the outcome of his recommendations for France's far-flung colonial possessions.

While some call De Gaulle an enigma, and perhaps he is, France actually is more of an enigma. De Gaulle, it seems to the student of history, represents more of the old France than anyone else on the political scene in this strife-torn republic. It is true he proposes to rewrite the constitution and for a time dissolve parliament, but who can say he is not right on both counts. Certainly France needs a strong leader as never before and the free world certainly stands to benefit immeasurably if De Gaulle is the man to bring peace to Algeria and other danger spots under French mandate as well as bring order out of chaos within the French domestic scene.

Why would it be better for De Gaulle to do this than other Frenchmen, say perhaps Reynaud, who was premier longer than any other since the war? There are two valid reasons. Reynaud's government, like all the others did fail, and secondly because De Gaulle, who has no party, has a fresh approach and having been in exile has made few obligations.

De Gaulle will likely make mistakes but with full authority to act he will not have to bow to a political power in case he does. He can cut through Democracy's greatest weakness, the red tape of the bureaucrats and the pitfalls placed by political enemies.

If De Gaulle fails in Africa the free world's danger will be greatly multiplied. The Communists will move in as they always do when the door is left open.

And so it looks as if the free world's greatest hope today is De Gaulle, a man who thus far is making an effort to bring order out of chaos. History will record the result.

State Is Allocated Disaster Hospital

Unit For Civil Defense Also To Be Used For Any Natural Catastrophes

State Civil Defense Director, Pitt Tyson Maner, announced this week the Federal Civil Defense Administration had approved the seventh 200-bed Civil Defense emergency hospital unit for Alabama. It is to be located in Alexander City.

This unit brings the total of emergency hospital beds up to 1400 which are ready for utilization anywhere in the state that disaster emergency conditions require. Other units of 200 beds are stored at Citronelle, Luverne, Hartselle, Altoona, Hamilton and Camden.

While such emergency Civil Defense hospitals are allocated primarily as a means of civilian preparedness in time of war, they are also available for use in natural disasters such as tornadoes, cyclones, hurricanes, floods, fires, and other similar catastrophes that tend to endanger the lives and property of the people of Alabama.

In The Week's News

Genial Soviet Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov was recalled to Russia last week indicating that he may be in trouble. There had been demands in Washington for Menshikov's ouster because of his unusual actions which included appearances on television, visits to Congress and tours of the countryside.

Yugoslavia's dictator-president Tito Sunday declared "Yugoslavia shall fight" if necessary to preserve its independence policies against onslaughts of the Soviet bloc seeking to make Belgrade toe the mark. Tito blasted Russia's Premier Khrushchev in a stinging speech before 50,000 cheering Yugoslavian miners.

Sherman Adams, White House aide to President Eisenhower, admitted that a wealthy friend, Bernard Goldfine, paid his bills at a Boston Hotel, but said that Goldfine was treated no differently than anyone else in his troubles with the Federal Trade Commission. Mrs. Adams said the Adams and Goldfine families had exchanged gifts for years.

Wilburn E. Davison, 48, former Oklahoma resident, told officers in Los Angeles Saturday that he and an accomplice had planned the kidnapping of Bing Crosby's wife. He said they planned to hold her for $10,000 ransom but that he planned to have his niece stay with Mrs. Crosby during the time she was being held. The Sheriff's office stated Davison had a previous record of auto theft, armed robbery and forgery.

Tornadoic winds and torrential rains caused floods in Indiana during the past weekend. Tornadoes also swirled across the states of Illinois, Ohio and Indiana with some damage reported in those areas.

Gen. Rafael Trujillo, playboy son of the dictator of the Dominican Republic, who gave expensive automobiles and mink coats to Hollywood stars Kim Novak and Zsa Zsa Gabor, flunked his final exams at a U. S. Army staff school where he was in training. His failure to pass however will not affect his standing in his own country, it was stated. He will be given a post as chairman of chiefs of staff.

In view of so many aircraft collisions recently President Eisenhower last week asked Congress to speed up a plan to establish an all-powerful federal agency to establish and regulate definite flight lanes for all aircraft. He proposed that the new agency take over all the functions of the present CAA and the Airways Modernization board plus the safety regulations of the CAB, (the Civil Aeronautics Board.)

Edward H. Smoot Is Exchange Epeaker

Economic Situation Is Subject of Interesting Discussion By Banker

Edward H. Smoot, vice president of the First National Bank addressed the Florence Exchange Club at Hotel Reeder Tuesday noon on the current economic situation. Frank White had charge of program arrangements and presented the speaker. President-elect Robert H. Crumby presided. Mr. Smoot said that a banker cannot be a pessimist or else his community will suffer; he can not be too much of an optimist or else his bank might suffer. Therefore, he said, a realistic view of existing economic conditions must be maintained and this is obtained through study, reading and evaluating every phase of the current trends.

Explaining the various functions of a bank, its relations with the Federal Reserve System and the securities being offered, Mr. Smoot gave an interesting insight to the current trends. Explaining the various functions of a bank, its relations with the Federal Reserve System and the securities being offered, Mr. Smoot gave an interesting insight to the current trends.

Pointing out that the gross national product has shown a downward trend for the past six months, the speaker stated that a slight upturn has been noted in manufacturing and trade recently and although added lay-offs are predicted for the summer months, indications are that a steady improvement may be expected in business in general during the fall.

With exports being down, Mr. Smoot said that imports should take the same trend to keep the economy in balance on that scale. He saw general strength in the thinking of business leaders for the future and predicted healthy conditions for business in general after this fall.

Of special interest was Mr. Smoot's explanation of the operation of the Federal Reserve System as it controls the money market. The manner in which this was achieved, Mr. Smoot pointed out, was in three ways: (1) By lowering reserve requirements, (2) Buying and selling securities in open market, and (3) Raising or lowering discount rates as the need may arise.

Guests of the club included "Tinker" Cheney and Scott Brown.

Electromet Holds Big Family Picnic

The employees and their families of Electro Metallurgical Company enjoyed their annual picnic Saturday, June 7 at Spring Park in Tusculum.

The festivities began at 10 a. m. with games and contests for the boys and girls. A fish pond was the attraction for the youngsters, while the parents played Bingo. Barbecue chicken plates, soft drinks and ice cream were served to over 1100 persons. After lunch a musical show featuring "The Spades" and the Masonia Brothers was presented. The afternoon was concluded with a comic fashion show of the current feminine styles.

Florence Lions Hold Carnival

Proceeds From Event Will Go To Worthy Community Projects

The annual Lions Carnival, which is the main source of revenue that the Florence club has for raising money for sight conservation, recreation and community betterment is now underway on the parking lot of the Seven Points Shopping Center in North Florence. The carnival will continue through Saturday night.

A new Ford will be given away Saturday at 11 p.m. A ticket is given for each dollar donated to help save the sight of some worthy person.

During the past fiscal year beginning June 1, the Florence club has donated $1,440.21 to the Alabama Sight Conservation Association. The aim of this organization is to offer eye care and eye correction to every indigent person in the state regardless of race, creed or color. Locally, the club has spent $3,297.18 for eye examinations and buying glasses for 300 persons throughout Lauderdale County.

Another program has been the testing of eyes of elementary school children in this area. Through February a total of 1400 children had had their eyes tested.

Other projects include sending serious eye cases for treatment, Glaucoma, and crossed eyes to Alabama Sight Clinic for treatment, sponsoring delegates to Girls' and Boys' State, sponsoring Florence Troop of Kadets of America, packing and distributing 24 Christmas baskets, contributing money to the veterans hospital and to the city-wide Christmas Decorations Fund and many more worthy projects.

Census Surveying Children Plans Of Working Mothers

Mrs. Adrienne Brown To Collect Information For Commerce Department

Employment and unemployment information will be collected locally and in 329 other areas of the country in the Current Population Survey during the week of June 16, it was announced by Supervisor Thomas W. McWhorter of the U. S. Census Bureau's regional office in Atlanta, Georgia, which will participate in the survey. Data from the local surveys will be used to obtain national estimates of employment and unemployment for June.

The June Current Population Survey will include two special inquiries, in addition to the regular questions on employment and unemployment—(1) on child-care arrangements of working mothers, and (2) on place of marriage of recently-married couples.

The current Population Survey information will be collected locally by Mrs. Adrienne Brown.

Late News

Two sections of a nearly finished six-lane bridge in Vancouver, B. C., collapsed mysteriously Tuesday in a tangled mass of steel, plunging at least 16 persons to their death. Two others were missing and 22 injured. Cause of the collapse was not known but was a damage estimated available. The giant two-mile bridge four miles from downtown Vancouver was more than two thirds finished and was to have been opened for travel in the autumn.

Relations between France and Tunisia are expected to improve with the withdrawal of a third of the French troops in this former protectorate and concentrate the rest at Bizerte. The agreement should also improve the West's position in the key North African republic of President Habib Bourguiba. Bourguiba has been handicapped in trying to keep Tunisia on a Pro-Western course by the troops' presence.

Hungary's ex-premier Imre Nagy has been executed along with three associates. Nagy was a moderate Communist who was ousted when Soviet forces crushed the 1956 Hungarian rebellion. The Russians had seized him as he left the refuge of the Yugoslav embassy in Budapest. The other three executed were Maj. Gen. Pal Maleter, Hungarian hero of the revolt, writers Miklos Gimes and Jozef Szilagyi.

Little Rock's school board has crossed verbal words for the first time with Gov. Orval Faubus on the integration plan of Little Rock. The board said Gov. Faubus praised its integration plan last fall and had predicted only minor incidents at Central High School. Supt. Virgil Blossom denied that he had told Faubus something had to be done to stop integration, that he feared violence at Central High, or that he asked Faubus for protection the day before school opened. Faubus makes these statements in a copyrighted interview with U. S. News & World Report this week.

Mayors Proclaim Area Aviation Day

June 23 Chosen As Day To Honor Twentieth Year Of Civil Aeronautics Act

The mayors of Florence, Sheffield, Tusculum and Muscle Shoals City have proclaimed June 23 as Civil Aviation Day. The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, the men and women of the Civil Aeronautics Administration are playing a major and indispensable role in the encouragement, development and progress of civil aeronautics; and

Whereas the Civil Aeronautics Administration, together with our aircraft and air transport industries, our private and business flyers, and other aviation interests, have been primarily responsible for the development of the world's outstanding system of airways and civil airports; and

Whereas the Civil Aeronautics Administration has made a major contribution to safety in aviation; and

Whereas American civil aviation is on the threshold of new frontiers of travel, comfort and safety as we prepare for the transition of our air transport fleets from piston-engined to jet-powered aircraft; and

Whereas current defense plans of our military establishments continue to place great reliance upon the Federal airways, air traffic control, and safe operation of all aircraft in the nation, all primary functions of the CAA; and

Whereas June 23, 1958, is the Twentieth Anniversary of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, bringing into being the Civil Aeronautics Administration; Now therefore, we, E. F. Martin, C. L. Beard, E. J. Henninger, and J. F. Homan, Mayors of Florence, Sheffield, Tusculum and Muscle Shoals City, do hereby proclaim June 23 as "Civil Aviation Day" and the week commencing on June 23 as "Civil Aviation Week."

Social and Personal

MRS. GARLAND S. TAYLOR, Social Editor
Phone ATwater 2-3943

MRS. WILLIAM FITZGERALD HILL

A late afternoon ceremony in First Methodist Church of Florence was attended by family members and friends from the entire Southland when Sylvia Ellen Towles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Towles, became the bride of William Fitzgerald Hill, son of Judge and Mrs. Robert McClellan Hill, on Saturday, June fourteen.

Against a background of palms and ferns the candlelight altar was flanked by great fan-shaped arrangements of white carnations and white double stock with candles in pairs nestling with magnolia foliage to mark the stained glass windows.

Vows were repeated after Dr. Lambuth R. Archibald and the Reverend Shirley Lowery, ministers of the church, at half past five o'clock, following nuptial music presented by Mrs. Shirley Lowery, organist, and Mrs. James Crabb, vocalist.

Mr. Towles escorted his daughter and gave her in marriage. Her floor-length bridal gown was of Chantilly lace and tulle with cascaded from a crown of lace and pearls. Her bouquet of lilies of the valley and white delphinium was centered with a white orchid and showered with tuberoses.

Attendants were Mrs. Patrick Leonard Mills of Tuscaloosa, matron of honor, and Miss Sue Smith of Tusculum, honor maid; Miss Suzanne Caldwell of Humboldt, Tennessee, Miss Linder Boutwell of Birmingham, Miss Sylvia Sargent of Leighton, Miss Maris Bryant of Florence and Kansas City, Missouri, Mrs. Charles Cain Anderson and Mrs. William Ray Robertson of Florence were bridesmaids.

White taffeta fashioned their dresses designed with square necklines, cap sleeves and haron skirts, and pink roses formed the crowns of their fluted-brimmed tulle hats. Their nosegays were of matching roses tied with satin streamers.

Robert McClellan Hill, Jr., served his brother as best man and groomsmen were John Newton Archer, Donald Patterson, Peter Hall Elebash, Richard Goodsell, Carl Salter, Charles D. Pritchard, Bryant Gordon Speed of Selma.

Mr. and Mrs. Towles honored the bridal couple with a reception at The Town Club immediately after the ceremony. Tulle and lace over white satin fashioned the table's cover, caught at intervals with full-blown gardenias. An oblong bouquet of roses and gypsophilla centered the silver appointed table from which the bride's cake and punch were served at alternate ends.

Assisting were Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. Thomas Reeder, Mrs. Sewell Jones, Mrs. Walter Hugh Glenn, Mrs. Russell Hightower, Mrs. Julian Nance, Mrs. Russell Lewis, Mrs. Uhlend Redd, Mrs. Walter Matthews, Mrs. Harry Herndon, Mrs. William Barnett, Mrs. Frank Crow, Mrs. Jewell Archer, Mrs. Theodore Gerber, Mrs. Joseph McLester Meade, Sr., Mrs. Harold Barbour, Mrs. John Helton, Mrs. Richard Parker, Mrs. Bruce Edwards, Miss Wesley Smith, Miss Rosalyn Houghton, Mrs. John Archer, Mrs. Joe Sneed, Mrs. Byron Bower, Mrs. Richard Goodsell, Mrs. Charles Neece, Mrs. John Claunch.

For their trip to Treasure Island, Florida, the bride changed to a silk suit in British tan with which she wore beige accessories and matching hat of starched lace. At her shoulder she pinned the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Hill will be at home in Wildwood Terrace Apartments until Fall when they will go to Raleigh, North Carolina, where Mr. Hill will continue to pursue his studies at North Carolina State.

Gala Week Precedes Towles-Hill Wedding

Continuing through their wedding day the social calendar was full to overflowing for Sylvia Towles and Fitzgerald Hill.

Delightful was the dinner courtesy extended by Miss Sue Smith of Tusculum, who invited her guests to Bay View Inn on Tuesday evening, the tenth.

The bridal party was seated around a single long table centered with an arrangement of all-white blossoms. Guests on this occasion numbered fourteen.

Lovely indeed was the afternoon tea at Tennessee Valley Country Club on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Charles Anderson and her mother, Mrs. Harold Barbour, honored the popular bride-elect. Standing before the livingroom mantel where antique primed candle-stands held tall white tapers with an arrangement of yellow roses mingled with white blossoms at the mantel's center, the hostesses and their honoree received with her mother, Mrs. Mack Towles, and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Robert Hill.

The silver appointed teatable was centered with a large bowl of Majestic daisies and "baby's breath" and lighted by tapers in branched candelabra. Assisting were Mrs. Clyde Anderson, Mrs. John Helton, Mrs. Donald Hipp, Mrs. G. A. Box, Mrs. W. T. Musgrove, Mrs. John Archer, Mrs. James Crabb, Mrs. Charles Neece, Mrs. Sammie Barksdale, Mrs. Richard Parker, Miss Sylvia Sargent and Miss Wesley Smith.

More than one hundred guests called during party hours.

Charles Pritchard's supper party at his home on the lake was a delightful event of Thursday evening, and at one o'clock on Friday Miss Sylvia Sargent and Miss Wesley Smith entertained the bride's attendants at luncheon at The Town Club, including the mothers of the bridal pair in their invitations.

Judge and Mrs. Robert Hill were dinner hosts when they honored their son and his fiancée after the rehearsal of their wedding plans on Friday evening. The Town Club was the setting and all-white flowers were used about the rooms and on the buffet table where pale yellow candles burned in tall holders.

Mrs. Joseph McLester Meade and Mrs. Robert Martin of Gadsden, the bride's aunt, assisted the hosts.

Hostesses with Mrs. Walter Matthews at her home on North Wood Avenue at one o'clock on Saturday were Mrs. Sewell Jones and Mrs. Harry Herndon, who entertained out-of-town wedding guests at an informal luncheon, including in the courtesy members of the bridal party and members of the two families.

Pastel sweetpeas were mixed with "baby's breath" to center the buffet table and all-white garden flowers were arranged throughout the party rooms where the hostesses served their forty-five guests.

Peters-Brown Nuptials St. Michael's Church

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glenn Brown have returned from their wedding trip and are now at home in St. Florian. A five o'clock ceremony on Saturday, June seventh, in St. Michael's Catholic Church marked the exchange of vows as the bride, Joyce Delores Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Peters, Florence, Route One, was given in marriage by her father.

The Reverend Father Sylvester Fangman officiated, and music was presented by Mrs. William Meyer.

Designed with low scalloped neckline and long fitted sleeves the lace bodice of the bride's gown was attached to a floor length skirt of white satin which swept into a full train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a bonnet of shirred illusion, and her bouquet was of lilies of the valley and white carnations.

Miss Mary Grace Berrens, the bride's only attendant, was dressed in pale aqua net over taffeta and wore a crown of white roses with tiny aqua veil.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glenn Brown, the bridegroom was attended by Frederick Joseph McCluskey as best man.

At the reception which followed the ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Connolly, white and pale pink blossoms were used for decorations. The three-tiered wedding cake, embossed with spun sugar roses, was served from a candlelight table by Mrs. Bobby J. Chandler.

Others who assisted were Miss Simone Rasch and Mrs. William Sparkman.

Miss Carolyn Maris Sewell Will Have August Wedding

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Horace James Sewell, Savannah Road, of the approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Marie, to Melvin Solomon, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Solomon of Montgomery.

A graduate of Mars Hill Bible School, the bride-to-be attended Freed-Hardeman College, Henderson Tennessee.

Mr. Solomon attended Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn and Massey Draughn Business College in Montgomery.

Early August plans will be announced.

MRS. DOUGLAS NEAL THOMPSON

The altar of Highland Baptist Church was spanned by a white wrought iron arch entwined with a tracery of green foliage when Mary Ann Koonce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harold Koonce, Savannah Road, and Douglas Neal Thompson, son of Mrs. Charles Wesley Thompson of Decatur, and the late Mr. Thompson, said their marriage vows on Sunday afternoon, June fifteenth. The Reverend Lewis E. Kelley, pastor, read the half past three o'clock service after nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Lon Harbin, organist, and Robert Sandlin, vocalist.

Wedding tapers delineated the smaller arches which flanked the central arrangement and burned amidst a profusion of lilies at the altar sides.

Wearing Brussels lace reem-broidered with rhinestones, the bride was given in marriage by her father. A molded bodice featured portrait neckline and long sleeves pointed at the hands, and the very full skirt swept into a chapel train. A jeweled tiara held her fingertip veil of illusion, and with her white Bible she carried a white orchid encircled by lilies of the valley.

Honor attendants were the wife's sister, Mrs. John Devon Landers of Auburn, and Miss Mary Emily Broadfoot; bridesmaids were Mrs. Roy Laughmiller of Decatur, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Charles Wesley Thompson, also of Decatur, Miss Joan Young, cousin of the bride, and Miss Faye Darby. The honor attendants wore white sheaths with the ice blue chiffon bodices, and the "maids" frocks were similarly fashioned and of ice blue lace. Their hats were of the material of their dresses, with streamers of blue satin ribbon in which shasta daisies were knotted. Their flowers were daisies tied with satin bows.

Serving as flower girl, Rhonda

THE SPILLWAY

HER BIRTHDAY'LL BE a happy time... We'd hoped we'd be included... (Oh help... help PLEASE... We need a rhyme... Oh yes...) We'd hoped... like you did...

WE'VE HEARD IT'LL be a sort of family affair... for the most part... when Irene Maples' birthday celebration takes place on Saturday (the 21st)... It'll be at her home... 618 North Wood... with her daughter Elizabeth... Lookout down from Chicago... and son Raymond here with his family from Selma... There'll be grandson John Malcolm Comer... and others... and it'll be a joyous occasion... The Madam tips her bonnet to a lovable character and throws a Happy Birthday kiss... WE REALLY THOUGHT of you... dear readers... on Friday the 13th... an regretted that we'd failed to sound a warnin'... We kept our fingers crossed and knocked on wood and... so far... we've heard of no serious mishaps... Come another such date you have our promise... We'll not let you down again... AN AURA OF SENTIMENT surrounded the middle-aisle event of Mary Ann Koonce and Douglas Neal Thompson which took place in Highland Baptist Church last Sunday... She was wearing the bridal gown previously worn by her sister... Martha Sue... when she became the bride of John Landers... The gold band on her third finger (right hand) was the wedding ring of her paternal grandmother... Mary Edna Koonce... at the date (June 15) is revered by family members and their many friends... It's the birthday of Susie Young... maternal grandmother of Sunday's bride... 'Twas an all-round wonderful occasion... and 'twill long be remembered as such... CLOSER AND CLOSER... That's the way we seem to feel 'bout the near-by city of Huntsville... what with a number of ex-Florentines (like frinistance Myrtle and Henry Hood... and others... having taken up residence there... We thought you'd like to know that this vere important SPACE city will soon unveil the vere FIRST "space" mural in the vere old First National Bank building... an edifice of hand-made brick and mortar... tall columns... stately vaulted ceilings... as soon as the "imported" artists finish the work... We think the place appropriate... and the timing good... we know those Martians will OH and AH when they satellite down for a look-see... We hear our august Alabama Historical Association

FLORENCE SEEN-ERY OF note includes the carport and terrace recently constructed at the home of Martha and Bob Griffin on Lorraine Parkway... Spacious and imposing are our impressions of the new additions... and lovely and artistic the new landscaping project now taking form... We think you'll want to drive by... You'll be glad you did... A WHING-DING OF A trip is being planned by Emily and Leonard Johnson... who'll go to Chicago on the 29th for four wonderful days at the simply super National Kiwanis Convention... then on to Canada... There'll be Quebec... Ottawa... and EVERY place... We're GREEN with envy... ABOUT TOWN IN A new buggy Cara and Bill (Doctor) Slaton have joined the small-car group and can now be seen a-touring in a cute white "job"... looking "chic" and very gay... and with a fearless glint about the eye as they dart in-and-out and 'round-and-about their big-brothers-of-the-road... His fraternity affiliations are Phi Sigma Alpha and Beta Beta Beta... The chapel of First Presbyterian Church in Dallas will be the scene of the August fifteenth ceremony... Miss Martha Almon has arrived from Hawaii to spend a Summer vacation with family members at her home, 1021 Jackson Road. She expects to return about August 30 to Kaneohe, Oahu, where she will resume her mission work with the Department of Religious Education of the Methodist Church.

Leo Views the College Campus

By Dottie McRae

Not quite maybe, but pretty close. Last time I checked at the registrar's office they hadn't finished tabulating the enrollment figures. Mr. Arhart said that this probably isn't the largest summer school enrollment but that it does look very good... There are over 70 students in the graduate school this year and Mrs. Louise Yates expects to receive Florence State's first masters degree... The Lion's Den seems to be about the most popular place on the campus now. That's almost the only place on the entire campus that is air conditioned—or nearly air conditioned. At the end of the spring semester the SGA had two units installed and once they begin to work properly, the Den really will be popular... Every Thursday night Willie Staggs and his "Off-Beats" play at the Den. The proceeds are, I believe, to help make the final payments on the air conditioners. The classes have elected their summer officers. Last week in a class meeting the seniors elected Tom Cotton, Brilliant, president; Gene Sanders, Huntsville, vice president; Jo Ann Whit, Ardmore, Tenn., secretary-treasurer; Billy Yarbrough, Florence, SGA representative; and Sarah Kitchens, Tanner, reporter... Representing the junior class are Larry Mitchell of Florence, president; Billy Joe Camp, Hanceville, vice president; Barbara Jones of Section, secretary-treasurer; Peggy Goode of Rogersville, SGA representative; and Betty McElyea, Athens, YWCA representative... The sophomore class chose Shyrion Worlund, New Market, president; James Cole, Addison, vice president; Janice Johnson, Flint, Michigan, secretary-treasurer; Dottie McRae, Florence, SGA representative; and Donna Worlund of New Market, WSGA representative... Freshman officers are Spruell Grissom of Spruce Pine, president; Bob Jones of Florence, vice president; Howard Hargett of Spruce Pine, secretary-treasurer; Ernestine McGuire, Haleyville, SGA representative; and Elaine Perkins of Centari, WSGA representative.

Miss Barbara Jean Lovelace Will Wed David L. Collum... The engagement of Miss Barbara Jean Lovelace to David L. Collum has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin B. Lovelace of Savannah Highway, Florence... ## H. Ryan Expands Area Supermarkets

E. W. Givens, manager of the H. Ryan Furniture Super-market Inc., in Sheffield, has announced that the firm has enjoyed a continuous growth in business volume since North Alabama's first furniture supermarket was opened in 1957. There has been an increase in sales of more than 50 percent.

Since the volume increase, H. Ryan now operates his own furniture vans direct from factory to store, offering one of the largest selections of furniture and appliances in the South.

The second H. Ryan Furniture Supermarket was opened in Huntsville May 19. The Decatur store is undergoing a complete remodeling, which will open the third super-market for the chain on July 1.

About one-third of the cotton grown in the U. S. is exported.

In 1957, 1,330 Americans were killed in train-car crashes.

Employees Help Telephone System Win Honor Award

Florence Workers Do Not Lose Hours Due To Injuries, Says Reynolds

Telephone employees in Florence have again in 1957 helped Southern Bell and the Bell System win the National Safety Council's top award, the "Award of Honor." It was announced today.

The award, highest safety award in the nation, has gone to Southern Bell and Bell System employees for six out of the past seven years, according to P. Reynolds, Southern Bell Manager here.

There was not a single lost-time injury among telephone employees in the Florence exchange during 1957, not even among employees driving Company vehicles. More than 165,378 miles were driven without a lost-time injury.

"We are very proud of the safety record of Bell employees," Reynolds said, "and the part they had in winning this award."

Throughout the Southern Bell territory, there were only 54 lost-time injuries per million man-hours of operation. And there were no fatal on-the-job accidents. The Bell System's safety record makes the communications industry the safest of all industries, according to the National Safety Council.

Billy Neal Lumpkin
Weds Huntsville

Of interest in Florence is the wedding which took place in Holmes Street Methodist Church, Huntsville, on Sunday afternoon, June eighth when Peggy Ann Parks became the bride of Billy Neal Lumpkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lumpkin, 1225 Evelyn Avenue, Florence.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey H. Parks of Huntsville.

Using the double ring ceremony the Reverend E. S. Jackson read the service at four o'clock, following nuptial music presented by Mrs. G. K. Fears and Robert Allen, the latter of Athens.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of antique taffeta was designed with floor-length skirt of nylon net and her veil of illusion fell from a crown of leaves and seed pearls. For "something old" she wore a family heirloom ring and "something new" was a drop pearl necklace, the bridegroom's gift. Her prayer book was carried with a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Elbow lace mitts completed her attire.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Bill Phillips of Florence, and 'maids were Miss Velda Huggins, Huntsville, and Miss Barbara Owens, Town Creek. Their frocks of yellow taffeta were worn with matching accessories and they carried Shasta daisies tied with green ribbons.

Junior attendants were Barbara Ann Lumpkin, sister of the groom, and Mary Louise McClure, cousin of the bride. They wore pale green organdie, as did flower girl Pamela Ann Wilcoxson of Galatin, niece of the groom.

Charles Lumpkin of Decatur was his brother's best man and ushers were Osbie Linville and William Phillips of Florence, William Parks and John David McClure, brother and cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks honored the bridal couple immediately after the ceremony with a reception in the church parlor. Later, on leaving for a honeymoon in Daytona Beach, Florida, Mrs. Lumpkin was wearing a navy blue silk shantung suit, white accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

Upon their return they will be at home in Florence until Fall when Mr. Lumpkin will go into training for professional football with the New York Giants.

Minor-Cagle Vows In Jackson Heights Church

For the occasion of her wedding to Billy Ray Cagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cagle of Anderson, Hazel Minor chose a gown of white nylon lace and tulle over satin.

Jackson Heights Church of Christ was the setting for the seven o'clock ceremony on Saturday, June seventh, which took place before an altar massed with greenery and interspersed with baskets of white gladioli and branched candle-stands holding wedding tapers.

Gilbert Kretzer read the service following nuptial selections by a chorus of voices.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Minor, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her veil of silk illusion was caught to a coronet of pearl studded ornaments and atop her white Bible she carried an orchid and stephanotis fringed with white tulle.

Misses Faye and Janie Minor were their sister's attendants, wearing dresses of nylon lace over taffeta fashioned identical to the bride's and with headresses of rosebuds and tulle to match their bouquets.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, James Cagle, and ushers were Larry and Garry Gooch.

tion hosts at their home on North Royal Avenue immediately after the ceremony. The four-tiered wedding cake, encircled with pink rosebuds, was served from a table spread with lace and lighted by tapers in crystal candelabra. Assisting were Mrs. Dale Minor, Mrs. Hugh Brown, Mrs. Roland Behel and Mrs. Hershel Pigg.

For travel the bride wore a flowered dress of pink and white with pink accessories and, at her shoulder, flowers from her bouquet.

They have returned and are now at home in Huntsville.

Miss Broadfoot
Announces Plans

When Mary Emily Broadfoot becomes the bride of Waylon Dare Hawkins in Pleasant Hill Methodist Church on Saturday, June twenty-eighth, she will be given in marriage by her father, Floyd Reeder Broadfoot.

The Reverend Chester Dobbs, minister of the church, will officiate, and nuptial music will be presented by Mrs. Lon Harbin and Mrs. William T. Phillips.

Attending her will be her sister, matron of honor Mrs. James Palmer, and honor maid Miss Mary Ann Koonce; bridesmaids Misses Peggy Wright, Faye Darby, Biddy Blessing Broadfoot, all of Florence, and Betty Jean Brooks, cousin of the bridegroom-elect, of Union Grove.

Attending Mr. Hawkins as best man will be his father, ushers will include James Hayes, James Palmer, Florence; Robert Womble, Ronald Marks and Pete Bridges of Huntsville; Douglas Thompson of Decatur. Serving as flower girl and ringbearer will be Carolyn Hawkins, sister of the bridegroom, and Gary Broadfoot, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Broadfoot will host the bridal couple with a reception in the church parlors.

Prenuptials during recent days include the courtesy extended by Mrs. Carl Haddock at her home in Central Heights when she entertained in honor of the popular bride-elect with an afternoon tea.

Pink was the party color, used in the appointments of her testable and in the flowering background of the party rooms.

Assisting her were Mrs. James H. Koonce and her daughter, Miss Mary Ann Koonce, also a bride-elect.

Delightfully informal was the occasion when Miss Joan Young entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edgar Young, on Wildwood Park Road, asking Miss Mary Ann Koonce to share honors with Miss Broadfoot.

Garden flowers in charming arrangements decorated the rooms of the home where the hostess was assisted by her mother and her sister, Mrs. Billy Joe Kelley.

Guests included a group of the honorees' friends-from-childhood.

Also in honor of the bride-to-be was the linen shower tendered by Miss Rose Marie Vaughn and Miss Faye Palmer. At the Oakland home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Vaughn, pink carnations were used in the livingroom, and in the diningroom punch and dainties were served from a pink appointed table.

Ten close friends made up the guest company.

Parties Climax For Popular Bride-Elect

A COKE PARTY on Wednesday morning, June eleventh, continued the social whirl which preceded the Sunday, June fifteenth nuptials of Mary Ann Koonce and Douglas Near Thompson of Decatur. Mrs. Doyle Young and Mrs. R. D. Young were hostesses at the home of the former on Jackson Road, centering their lace-covered serving table with colorful garden flowers and using crystal candelabra of white tapers to light the scene. They were assisted in the courtesies by their daughters, Misses Janis and Susan Young, and Miss Koonce was presented a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

A KITCHEN SHOWER on Wednesday evening hosted by Miss Faye Palmer and her mother, Mrs. B. D. Palmer, at the family home in Central Heights. Pansies were arranged to center the refreshment table, covered with a yellow cutwork cloth and lighted by yellow tapers in crystal stands, and finger dainties in shades of yellow and green were served.

A MORNING BRUNCH at the Earl Haddock home was an event of Friday, the thirteenth, when Mrs. Haddock and her daughters, Mrs. Fred Montgomery and Mrs. John Waller of Auburn were hostesses. Early Summer flowers were about the party rooms and the serving table, covered with a pastel pink cloth, was centered with a silver bowl of pastel blossoms and lighted by pink tapers in silver holders. A delightful "snack" menu was served to the guests, and the hostesses presented a salad service to the honoree.

THE BRIDESMAIDS LUNCHEON was an event of Saturday noon when Miss Koonce entertained her attendants at The Town Club. The Old South Room was the setting and pale pink roses the centerpiece, with white tapers burning in silver holders. Places were marked with cards which continued the wedding theme and the bride-elect presented a gift of costume jewelry to each of her guests.

THE AFTER - REHEARSAL PARTY took place on the evening preceding the wedding at the Blackburn home on Jackson Road when hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Baron Blackburn and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stewart. A profusion of Summer blossoms in pastel shades dotted the spacious rooms and the serving table, appointed with a lace cloth over green satin, was lighted by tapers burning in branched candelabra. Traditional green-and-white was also present in the refreshments served by the hosts to members of the bridal party and to family members and arrivals from out-of-town.

Class Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barnard entertained Mrs. Barnard's Sunday School Class, the Homemakers, of the Baptist Church and their families at their lakeside home on Thursday evening.

Some enjoyed swimming while others relaxed and the children played.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Coy Michael and Dwight; Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburn and Tommie; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Waddell, Dickie, Kay and Melinda; Mrs. Glenn Campbell, Glenna, Dianne and Phyllis, Miss Estell Evans; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pennington and Stephen; Mrs. Stanfield and Dianne; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Overton, Frank, Hilliard and Tom.

Birthday Party

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Helen Waddell entertained at their home for their daughter, Cora Sue, who was celebrating her fifteenth birthday.

Supper was served picnic style in the yard to the fourteen present. Then they attended a television show in Florence, after which seven of the girls spent the night.

Garden Club Meets

The Elk River Park was the meeting place for an outing and a picnic supper on Thursday when the Rogersville Garden Club met with some twelve members present.

Mrs. Lonnie Ezell and Mrs. D. S.

Belew entertained for Miss Sherry Phillips, who is to be married to Gene Comer on June 28, at the Elgin Methodist Church, with a tea on Saturday evening on the lawn of the Belew home.

Misses Sherry and Judy Belew assisted with the gifts which were displayed on tables on the lawn. The honoree, wearing a beige tulle dress with white carnations, greeted the guests with Mrs. Belew, Mrs. Reeder Phillips, her mother, and Mrs. Almon Comer, Gene's mother.

Punch and blue and white individually iced cakes were served from an attractive tea table, the crystal punch bowl being encircled with blue hydrangeas.

A large number of guests called during the evening.

GA Outing

On Friday afternoon the Junior Girls' Auxiliary of the Baptist Church met for their program at the church and proceeded afterwards to Wheeler Park where they went for a hike, walked across the bridge and shared a picnic lunch, as a partial reward for work done on Forward Steps. Four girls appeared before the reviewing council on Wednesday to pass memory work.

Helen Calvert, a former member, was a guest.

Air Conditioners Need Proper Care

With warm weather here, it's a good idea to check air conditioners to see if they are operating properly.

Frequent causes of air conditioner troubles, says API Extension Engineer W. T. Cox, are dirty air filters and inadequate wiring. Machines with a three-fourths horsepower motor, or larger, should be run on a separate 230 volt circuit, he added.

Number 10 wire is large enough for any size up to one and one-half tons, but number 8 wire is best for a two-ton unit on long runs. And, said the specialist, the air filter should be cleaned and coated with the recommended material every two weeks.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ezell and boys of Jacksonville, Fla., spent last week visiting in the Will Burgess home here.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Proverbs	22	6
Monday	Psalm	103	1-5
Tuesday	Psalm	121	5-8
Wednesday	1 Samuel	2	18-20
Thursday	1 Samuel	3	5-9
Friday	1 Samuel	16	6-13
Saturday	1 Samuel	17	41-49

Buddy was going to the circus today, but he woke up with the sniffles this morning and the whole thing had to be called off!

While grown-ups learn to shrug off disappointments like that, it isn't easy for a child. Buddy's mother will soon come to the rescue with a special taffy pull or a favorite story-reading session, and that will help cushion the blow.

But there will be times when Buddy will have to stand up to far greater tests than this, and when he will have to take far greater disappointments in stride. That's one of the reasons his mother has started taking him to Church and Church School. It isn't that the Church serves as a cushion in times of stress . . . rather, it stands as a pillar of strength, lending support to all who come within it.

Farm Review and Forecast

Farmers Should Grow More Alfalfa

June Preparation Month For Fall Planting Of The King Of The Forage Crop

More farmers need to grow alfalfa for the livestock on their farms, says API Extension Agronomist O. N. Andrews.

This is particularly true of dairymen and hog growers, the feed and grazing crops specialists said in Auburn this week. Alfalfa is king of the forage crops. Properly handled, it makes top-quality hay, silage, or grazing.

"June is the month to start getting your land ready for planting alfalfa next fall," Andrews reminded. "Select well-drained, productive land. Soil that will make a bale of cotton or 50 bushels of corn per acre with good management will grow the best alfalfa. Some failures have resulted from planting alfalfa following legumes and small grains that were allowed to make seed.

"Lime and fertilize according to lime spread on the field 90 days soil test recommendations. Get before planting if possible. Break and disk land, thoroughly mixing lime with the soil. Disk land every two or three weeks, or as often as necessary to control weeds.

"Manage old stands of alfalfa properly," Andrews urged. "And don't overgraze. Cut alfalfa for hay or silage when plants are between one-tenth and full bloom stage, or when new shoots are one to two inches high. Watch for insects; blister beetles, aphids, and leaf hoppers can do lots of damage in a short period. Crops may require dusting."

Record Peach Crop Background For Clanton Festival

Event Will Be Held June 25 Chilton Farm Agent Glascock Says

A probable all-time record peach crop will be the background for this year's Peach Festival at Clanton, June 25.

This fact emerged at discussions during an organizational meeting this week in Clanton presided over by M. R. Glascock, Chilton County Farm Agent, who is this year's Festival chairman.

In number of trees, Chilton ranks 18th among all the peach-producing counties of the U. S. and the annual commercial production of peaches in Chilton County has increased about five times since 1950.

Leighton Grower Verbally Attacks Cotton Program

Ed. F. Mauldin, Leighton cotton grower, has leashed a verbal attack at the Federal cotton program for the closing of the Southern Cotton Oil Division's Sheffield plant which is closing due to the great reduction in cotton acreage by the Federal program.

Mauldin contrasted the closing of the local mill with the expansion and progress of the Anderson and Clayton Cotton Oil Mill at Lubbock, Tex., which is now processing four times as much seed as it was eight years ago when the cotton allotment began.

Mauldin blamed the loss on the unnecessary cotton acreage reductions, inequitable local allotments, and the Federal Soil Bank.

The Cotton Oil Division plant was the second farm-type industry to announce closing plans because of cotton acreage troubles, the first being the Florence Cotton Mills.

Rickard Lists Polling Places

L. H. Rickard, ASC office manager, has announced that farmers may vote on the marketing quota referendum on Friday at Belew's Store at Elgin Cross Roads; Co-op Building in Florence or at Smith's Store at Oakland. Balloting will begin at 8 a.m. and continue until 7 p.m.

Farmers eligible to vote will be those who will harvest over 15 acres of wheat in 1959. Farmers can plant up to 15 acres without being on an allotment basis.
