The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

Although our opinion of Vice-President Nixon has never been very high, we must say that his stock has risen several points with us in the manner in which he has met the indignities showered upon him by communistic inspired hoodlums during his travels in South America. The man is no coward, you can mark that down, and he has represented his country with dignity during this unfortunate sojourn. It is just more proof of the little regard many have for the generosity of the United States. President Eisenhower has acted wisely in sending troops to protect Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, although it is certain that this move will be misunderstood and stir up additional trouble. Maybe our national leaders will learn some day how to play with fire.

The old timer who said: "It is wise to give narrow-minded people a wide margin," knew of what he spoke.

We'll have to admit that today's kids are smart—but the only trouble is that all too often they don't smart in the right places... if you get what we mean. We have a youngster that proves our point.

After all these years, someone has discovered that the author whose famous lines read: "Backward, turn backward, O Time, in your flight!" had a note coming due at the bank.

Several times in life the average man faces the difficult problem of trying to decide which will cost less; to tell the truth, or hire a lawyer.

While it is not known positively, the suspicion is strong that the phrase Untold Wealth was coined immediately after the first income tax law went into effect.

So many people are going to Europe these days that we wonder if the various jokes on passport pictures are still making the rounds. However, the biggest laugh is on the person who sets up a howl when he first sees his picture attached to a passport—this person doesn't know that his friends have seen him just as his passport picture shows him and, as a result, have enjoyed many laughs at his expense.

We have often marveled at the manner in which men tackle hard jobs. They usually follow the process of dividing the large job into several small ones and lick each as they come to it. It's the same way that a man will start on a 2,000 mile auto trip in an outmoded car that you are certain can't possibly make the trip. But this man will think only 50 miles ahead—and most any car will run 50 miles without trouble. The long journey, then, is just divided into small runs of 50 miles each. And soon his destination is reached without mishap.

Often by failure to pay strict attention to remarks made to you, an embarrassing moment can result. Which reminds us of a case in point. A certain bank teller was taking a deposit from the wife of one of the county's largest poultrymen. While totaling the sizable deposit, he did not hear her say that the money had been raised at a supper recently held by the Women's Aid Society. When he had completed his counting, he smiled at her and said: "Well, I must say the old hens are doing a swell job." (The bank lost a customer.)

Possible the principal concern of mothers with grown children is, first, to get the daughters married; and, second, to delay the marriage of sons as long as possible. Between the two her work is well cut-out for her.

A hang-over is something that occupies the head you didn't use last night.

Military Units Planning For Armed Forces Day Ninth Observance To Be Marked In City With Parade, Open House

All local military reserve components and regular military personnel assigned to the Tri-Cities area will spearhead the observance of the ninth annual Armed Forces Day Saturday May 17. The national theme this year is "Power for Peace."

Commander T. R. Zickoos, of the Naval Reserve, Sheffield, is the coordinator of all local activities this year and an interesting program of events has been slated.

Local citizens are urged to turn out to observe the military facilities that will be open to the public. Tentative plans include military displays at various local business establishments, Saturday morning parades and open house festivities at all local military installations.

A military parade, directed by Captain B. P. Ward, ROTC staff, Florence State, designated the depot marsh, is scheduled for 10 a. m. in Florence and 11 a. m. in Sheffield and Tuscumbia. The parade will emphasize marching units. Marching detachments will be furnished by the Naval Reserve, National Guard and the ROTC units, including color and color guards from all units and a military band furnished by the ROTC unit. Other organizations to participate are the Air Force Reserve, Army Reserve, U. S. Coast Guard, U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force recruiters, Ground Observer Corp, three local high school bands, Civil Air Patrol, Kadets of America and all veterans organizations.

Throughout the United States all citizens are urged to display the American Flag on Armed Forces Day and all military installations, reserve components and auxiliaries are preparing to hold "open house" to celebrate the event.

The following local installations will be open to the public from 2 until 4 p. m. Saturday: The Naval Reserve Center, Sheffield; Army Reserve Center, West Rosier Street, Florence; National Guard Armories located on Oak Street, Florence, Whitest Street, Sheffield, and Cave Street, Tuscumbia.

Downtown Stores Honor Graduates

Lauderdale and Colbert High Schools' Seniors Saluted By Merchants

"A Salute to the High School Graduates of 1958" is the theme of Downtown Florence Days, scheduled Friday and Saturday of this week.

Members of the Florence Downtown Retail Merchants Assn., are providing silver loving cups to be presented to the valedictorians of each of the 17 high schools in Lauderdale and Colbert Counties, the presentations to be made by the school principals at the various graduation exercises. The handsome cups will be engraved with the recipient's name, name of the school, the date and name of the donor.

Another feature of the salute to the seniors will be the award of two $71.50 watches to a lucky boy and girl graduate of 1958. To be eligible for these awards, which will be made following a drawing during Downtown Florence Days, graduates, their families and friends may register the name of their Favorite Graduate at any store displaying the Downtown Florence Days insignia.

All firms participating in the current Downtown Florence Days will offer special prices on their merchandise during the two-day event.

Jewett T. Flagg Clarifies Report Of Stockholders

Administration Instructed To Make Necessary Moves For Profitable Operation

Denying reports that the Flag-Jewett Corporation, was planning to dispose of its knit goods division at Florence, Jewett T. Flagg, president, from his New York office, said: "The directors, in their meeting at the Empire State Club in New York City May 8, made plans to eliminate operations that do not bring a fair profit."

As was outlined in recent articles appearing in this newspaper, the scheduled stockholders' meeting, the Board of Directors, gave authority in two resolutions, passed by the stockholders: to dispose of any of the corporation's assets and also to purchase stockholders' common stock at $5 a share and preferred stock at $50 plus accrued dividends.

By one of the resolutions, the purposes of the corporation are broadened so as to permit it to engage in any type of lawful business from which it is deemed that a profitable operation may result. The reclassification of convertible second preferred stock to common stock at a 1 to 19 ratio was also authorized.

It is understood that every effort to place the facilities of the corporation into profitable operation is being made and various negotiations have been in effect.

PILLO CASES OVER U. S. SHOW DECLINE IN 1958

Two hundred and eighty cases of pillo were reported in the United States during the first 17 weeks of 1958. This is about 41 per cent of the number recorded during the same period last year, when the total was 672.

MAMA SAYS "NO!"—Salesgirl June Cooper, 16, of Sheffield, who was crowned "Miss England" will not be allowed to enter the Miss Europe and Miss Universe contests in Hollywood, her mother said. Hollywood is too sophisticated, Mrs. Marjorie Cooper explained, and there are too many cocktail parties. So the 35-23-36 beauty will have to be content with one title.

TVA Celebrating 25th Anniversary Of Service Sunday

Open House Being Held At All Installations Throughout Valley

The Tennessee Valley Authority today announced that it will hold "open house" for the general public at its principal installations throughout the Valley on its twenty-fifth anniversary, Sunday, May 18. TVA personnel will be on hand between 1 and 5 p. m. (local time) at dams, steam plants, the Fertilizer-Munitions Development Center at Muscle Shoals and the two forest nurseries to conduct the visitors through the plants and explain their operation. The conducted tours through the facilities will enable the public to see many features not ordinarily open to the public at other times.

Installations at which "open house" will be held include:

Colbert Steam Plant: Near highway 72 ten miles west of Tuscumbia. Stacks visible from the highway.

From the visitors lobby, the tour will include the balcony overlook of the generator floor, visit to the generator floor where the condenser pit and control room may be seen, then the boiler room and service shops. Visitors may go to the switchyard control room, a separate building, if they wish.

Fertilizer - Munitions Development Center: East of Sheffield, will be open from 1 to 4:30 p. m. only.

TVA guide cars will lead visitors in their autos on a non-stop motor tour which will pass through two of the major installations. Plants to be seen include the electric furnace for smelting rock phosphate, the nodulizing pit, phosphoric acid towers, metaphosphate unit, ammonia plant, nitric acid plant and the pilot plant building. In addition, chemists will conduct visitors through the research laboratories. The new color film "This Is TVA" will be shown at 40-minute intervals in the plant's auditorium.

Wilson Dam: East of Florence and Sheffield. Roadway crosses the dam.

From the reception room and overlook, an elevator will take visitors to the generator floor where Wilson's pre-TVA generators, and the new generators may be seen. The wheel pits below also will be shown. Wilson's power capability is the largest in the TVA hydro system.

Wilson Lock Construction: At the north end of the dam TVA is building the highest single-lift lock in the world. Since construction activity will not be in progress, visitors may walk across the construction bridge spanning the present lock to obtain a nearer view of the work. Personnel will be available to explain the construction. Another view may be obtained from the top of the dam.

Forest Nursery: On TVA property near Sheffield off Sheffield-Florence Highway.

In addition to the seed beds, pine seeds and equipment for planting, cultivating and extracting seedlings will be shown, as well as the shipping building. Unfortunately, the cold wet spring has retarded seedling growth about three weeks.

Wheeler Dam: From Florence, take U. S. 72 east 20 miles, then north on Highway 101. Highway crosses dam.

Wheeler's generators are not enclosed and may be seen from the dam. Visitors at the powerhouse (south end) will be shown the governor gallery and "pipe gallery" with the "wheel pits."

Florentine Faces 2 Counts In Death

Marvin Burns Was Driver Of Truck Which Struck Loaded School Bus

Facing charges of manslaughter and driving while intoxicated as the result of a crash involving his pick-up truck and an Alabama School bus loaded with ninth grade students, Marvin Hollis Burns, 31, of Florence, goes on trial in General Sessions Court in Fayetteville, Tenn., at 10 a. m. Monday.

Killed in the wreck caused, Tennessee Highway Patrolman said, when Burns' vehicle went across the center line and struck the bus was Ralph Reed, 27-year-old editor of the Arab (Ala.) Tribune. The accident occurred a mile north of the state line and 9 miles south of Fayetteville.

Mr. Reed, whose wife is sponsor of the ninth grade at Union Grove (Ala.) junior high school, was one of several adults on the bus returning the students home after an excursion to Nashville and the Grand Ole Opry.

Also injured in the crash, which occurred about 1 a. m. Sunday, were 38 children from Union Grove school and six adults, including the wife of Mr. Reed. Six of the children were hospitalized and all were treated for some type of injury. Burns was taken to a Fayetteville hospital where his injuries were termed serious.

Burns told patrolmen he left Tuscumbia in the truck he drove for an industrial laundry and was en route to Nashville when he went to sleep at the wheel. He admitted having been drinking, and patrolmen said a test on a drunkometer showed the alcoholic content of Burns' blood to be .18. In Tennessee a content of .15 constitutes drunken driving.

Mental Health Study Scheduled At FSC June 9th

Offers Teachers Chance To Prepare To Meet Classroom Problems

Florence State College will offer a two-weeks' Institute on Mental Health in Education June 9-20. According to Otis L. Peacock, director of extension and institute coordinator for the college, the program is being held to offer Alabama teachers practical training in conducting positive mental health programs in their classrooms.

Through the experience gained teachers will have deeper understanding of mental and emotional problems and will be better prepared to help children develop healthy personalities and emotional security, Peacock said.

Col. H. Edmund Bullis, formerly secretary-general of the International Committee for Mental Hygiene, will direct the program. The associate director will be Mrs. Vera G. Bruhn, executive director of the Jefferson County Mental Health Association.

The institute staff will include members of the college faculty; Mrs. Ruth Arnett, director of the Muscle Shoals Mental Health Clinic; Dr. Margaret Quayle, Dr. William Wells and Dr. C. J. Rosier, clinical psychologists; Dr. John McKee, director of the state Division of Mental Health, and John K. Williams, director of the Alabama Association for Mental Health.

Teachers who wish to attend the institute may contact Otis L. Peacock, Florence State College, Florence, Alabama.

Lauderdale Counts 5th Traffic Victim

James W. McGee Dies 15 Hours After Wreck; Rites Held Tuesday

The fifth traffic fatality in Lauderdale County this year claimed the life of James W. McGee, 21-year-old resident of Florence, Rt. 1, when his car, traveling at extreme high speed, overturned on a county road north of Florence at 1:45 a. m. Sunday.

McGee's 1950 Oldsmobile crashed into a tree after it left the road, struck an embankment and overturned. He was thrown from the car. He was taken to ECM Hospital and died there about 15 hours after the accident.

Funeral services for Mr. McGee, a native and lifelong resident of Lauderdale County were conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Atlas Church of Christ near Killen with Aldon Hendrix officiating. Burial followed in adjoining cemetery.

Mr. McGee had attended Mars Hill Bible School and T. M. Rogers High School.

He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McGee of Rt. 1, Florence; a brother, Donnie Lee McGee, Rt. 1, Florence two sisters, Bonnie Joe McGee and Mrs. Billy Joe Robertson of Florence Rt. 1 and Florence Rt. 3, respectively, the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Coker, Florence Rt. 1.

FFA HAS STRAWBERRIES AS PRODUCTIVE PROJECT

Billy Lovell, a member of the Rogersville FFA chapter, has one acre of strawberries as his productive project. Billy plans to expand his strawberry enterprise to two acres this year because he cannot supply the demand.

He is a sophomore at L.C.H.S. and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Lovell of Rogersville, Rt. 3.

INSTITUTE SPECIALISTS—Shown are Mrs. Ruth Arnett, psychiatric social worker and director of Muscle Shoals Mental Health Clinic at Florence, and Dr. William Wells, clinical psychologist at the Muscle Shoals Clinic. Mrs. Arnett is coordinator of activities for the Institute on Mental Health to be held at Florence State College June 9-20, and Dr. Wells is a consultant for the Institute.

Board Elects Teachers, Rules Out Split Term

New Session Of Lauderdale Schools Begins Sept. 2, Will End On May 15

Late News

The trial of Charles Starkweather, alleged slayer of 11 persons, went on in a Nebraska court this week after his attorneys pleaded him not guilty by reason of insanity. A letter reportedly written by Starkweather and detailing one of the murders of which he is accused was introduced by the prosecution.

President Eisenhower said Wednesday that, as much as he deplores it, he would again use federal troops to enforce school integration if there is further defiance of court orders.

The House defeated efforts to cut a $3,603,000,000 foreign aid bill and predictions in Washington were that it would be passed. Opponents of the measure attacked it as wasteful and useless, pointing to the anti-American sentiment in South America, North Africa and the Mid-East.

The automotive "Big Three" turned down Walter Ruther's proposal that differences relating to a new contract between them and the United Auto Workers be arbitrated. It was the second setback in a month for Ruther. The "Big Three" on April 28 rejected his proposal to extend the current contract three months.

The Lauderdale County Board of Education Saturday voted unanimously against a split term for the next term, and elected teachers who will serve in the county system next year.

The split term—whereby students began classes in mid-summer, remained in school for about six weeks, and then recessed for the same period—was inaugurated during World War II, when cotton acreage was unlimited and farm labor was scarce. The split term enabled students to aid their families in gathering crops and proved beneficial, but with a reduced cotton acreage and a plentiful supply of farm help the interrupted schedule was no longer considered necessary.

Board members set Friday, August 29, as registration day for students who intend to enroll in county schools, with classes to begin Sept. 2. Thanksgiving holidays will be observed Nov. 27-28 and the Christmas vacation will begin Dec. 19 and end Dec. 28. The 1958-59 term will close on May 15.

The county board approved the purchase of eight new school buses from Perley A. Thomas, Inc., of High Point, N. C., whose bid of $3,624.66 totaled $28,997.28. The unit aid of the Thomas firm was only $2.44 above that of the Bluebird company and $38.50 more than that of the Superior company.

In electing teachers for the county school system next term the Board of Education filled two vacancies in the coaching ranks of the high schools. Robert Thorne, Red Bay native, was named to fill the position left vacant at Lauderdale County High at Rogersville by the resignation of Bimol Poole. Ralph Burleson will succeed Wes Thompson as coach at Central High.

Burleson, a veteran coach and teacher who was principal at Hackleburg for nine years before joining the Lauderdale County system, is the father of Max Burleson, outstanding FSC athlete now playing professional baseball with Montgomery.

Teachers elected by the board for the 1958-59 term include: Mrs. Neca Adams, Mrs. Era Green, Mrs. Birdie Shaw, Mrs. Willie Sue Smith, F. M. Holcombe, Mrs. Pearl Holcombe, Laymon Owens, Miss Rosalee Daly, Denny Thornton, Mrs. Edith Thornton; Mrs. Leona Howard, R. O. Y. Harrison, Mrs. Estella Grigsby, Mrs. Lura Harrison, George Tucker, Mrs. Autie Dickinson, Mrs. Oleta Tays, Mrs. Reba Tucker, Iley Freeman, Mrs. Lorene Freeman;

Mrs. Lavenia Blakely, Mrs. Lucile Hunt, W. L. Hofferbert, Mrs. Maurine Pittman, Miss Laura Thomas, Frank Smith, Mrs. Vera Kelly, Mrs. Althea Chowning, Mrs. Ruby Rhodes, Alvin Parker, James Patterson, Mrs. Ruth Patterson.

Foreign Aid Called Prime Defense Tool

President Eisenhower Wednesday blamed mob violence against Vice-president Richard Nixon in South America on Communist inspiration but also said there are economic factors involved.

The vice-president and Mrs. Nixon and their party, who leave for Washington Friday after a "good will" tour of South America, were stoned, jeered, spat upon and threatened in Peru, Colombia and Venezuela.

Mr. Eisenhower told his press conference Wednesday that the demonstrations against the vice-president in South America and the sacking of U. S. Information Agency offices in Algeria and Lebanon seem to be part of a concerted Communist move to turn other nations against this country.

However, he pointed out that the South American nations are no longer exporting to this country the quantity of goods they did during the war, and that this failure on the part of the U. S. to buy from them caused resentment. World trade and economic aid are as vital to this country, said the president, as is proper defense.

Meanwhile, Mr. Nixon, despite the unfriendliest reception in Venezuela of any he has received in South America, refused to cut short his tour. He was closely guarded in the U. S. embassy at Caracas, Venezuela, though, and the government of that country took extra precautions for his and Mrs. Nixon's safety. The howling mob in Caracas Tuesday covered him "with spit from head to foot," the vice-president said. Neither was injured, though glass in their car was broken.

Two companies of the 101st Airborne Division from Camp Campbell, Ky., were flown to U. S. bases in Puerto Rico and two companies of Marines were sent to Cuba in order to be in easy flying reach of Mr. Nixon and his party should further outbreaks occur.

There were sharp questions among the U. S. press and public whether Mr. Eisenhower's order to send the troops to the Caribbean would help or hinder our relations with the Latin American nations.

Malone To Speak At FSC Graduation

Florence Native Holds Top Position With Bell Telephone Company

Frank M. Malone, a native of Florence who is now operating vice-president of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., will give the commencement address at Florence State College Monday, May 26.

The announcement was made this week by FSC President E. B. Norton, who said that the baccalaureate sermon would be preached by Dr. Hudson Baggett, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Florence, on Sunday, May 25.

The baccalaureate service begins at 5 p. m. and the graduation exercises at 7 p. m. and will be held at the college Amphitheatre or, in case of rain, in Coffee High School auditorium.

Mr. Malone, who has had marked success with the huge Southern Bell company, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Malone of Florence. He is married to the former Mary Evans Bailes, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Bailes of Florence and the late Mr. Bailes.

BODY OF FISHERMAN RECOVERED FROM RIVER

The body of Phyllis Benjamin Polston, 40, a commercial fisherman of the Killen community, was recovered from the Tennessee River at the mouth of Shoals Creek Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Polston, wearing a raincoat and rubber boots, was seen to fall from his boat May 7 at almost the exact spot where searchers found his body.

The Invention Of The Century

It isn't often that The Herald opens its editorial columns to guests, but the comment which Rep. Robert E. Jones made on the approaching 25th anniversary of the Tennessee Valley Authority warrants special treatment. Terming TVA "The Invention of the Century," Rep. Jones wrote:

"A lot of water has gone over the TVA dams in its 25 years of life. Next in volume must be the amount of words produced in attacking and defending TVA.

"If TVA only prevented floods, saved precious crop lands, made wastelands bloom into gardens, produced cheap fertilizer for 35 states, eliminated malaria and other diseases and revitalized vast areas in 7 states, it would be hailed today as a superb achievement and accepted as Social Security. But TVA produces power at less than half the rate charged by private power companies. For this reason alone, it has been the target of unscrupulous, sordid attacks by the utility combines and their agents. They have enlisted the White House in this ruthless campaign, for the Administration for five years has been probing for ways to weaken and destroy TVA.

"But the TVA is its own best defense. Cold facts prove it has been a blessing for millions of citizens, a solid investment by Uncle Sam and one of the best salesmen for democracy in a world where democracy is challenged. Even 15 years ago, Julian Huxley, British scientist said: 'In almost every country, the initials TVA stand for the multiple use of a single river to meet all the needs of man.' John Gunther, the reporter and world observer comments: 'Quite possibly the TVA is the greatest single invention of the century, the biggest contribution the United States has made to society in the modern world.'

"Admiration for TVA in foreign countries is almost limitless, for 40 nations have imitations and complete copies of it and proudly call their installations, 'TVA's.' What astonishes foreigners more than anything else, is that a region is allowed to use federal funds, without federal dictatorship to develop its resources.

"Europe and Asia remember Lenin, who said: 'Electricity, plus Soviets, makes Communism.' Our TVA makes Lenin appear foolish, for it proves electricity plus democracy means progress, but not at the expense of human dignity and freedom. TVA transmits power and Americanism."

Too Much Taxation

A prominent industrialist said recently: Today's income tax structure is "highly and dangerously discriminatory" both against the public interest and the very economic forces which have lifted this country to such great heights. He continued: "It is impossible to over-emphasize the seriousness of this kind of taxation, striking as it does at the roots of the free capitalistic system."

We have become resigned to living and dying to some extent . . . with a tax system "dedicated to socialistic principles."

By means of a sort of socialistic smoke screen, tax fairness for many years has been related to what people have instead of what they produce . . . to a static notion of wealth and income. Because of this, small investments have been to a large degree stymied. People have little desire to see themselves raised to another income bracket where small additional earnings are wiped out by today's confiscatory taxation.

Taxes today also prevent the accumulation of capital by retarding savings out of current income although this venture or risk capital is indispensable to our national economy. It is indeed confiscatory when a government takes virtually 50 per cent of taxable income at $16,000 and goes on up to 91 per cent and the combined corporate rate of 52 per cent.

Congress will do well to look, not only at reducing the income tax, but to the consequences that will inevitably result if something drastic isn't done. This is the most direct cause of the current recession despite the fact that some of our well-meaning politicians would like to blame other causes.

Congress can do something else . . . it can reduce the size of government . . . today's government with its myriad of over-lapping agencies and wasteful duplications is too big. In another decade Congress may be incapable of making this correction.

A Gold Mine Of Informanion

The U. S. Patent Office, we note, has been donated a microfilm record of every catalog issued by Sears, Roebuck & Co., since the first thin volume of a few pages was distributed 64 years ago.

Primarily, this record will constitute a handy reference for patent attorneys and inventors in determining whether applications for design patents, particularly in the merchandising field, cover items already conceived. Such constant use has been made of the incomplete file of the actual catalogs on the Patent Office shelves that they have grown dog-eared.

Aside from the more practical use the microfilm will be to those wishing to check patents, it should be a gold mine of information for historians and others interested in Americana. Think of the items advertised in a Sears catalog of, say 1908, no longer found around the home or in the store a half century later. Some of the catalogs of an even earlier year should prove virtual museums-on-film to a younger generation.

It has always been our idea that the United States is passing up one of its finest potential propaganda weapons in not distributing the Sears, Roebuck & Co. catalogs broadside in the Iron Curtain countries. Few media would illustrate to the people of those countries life and conditions in America as well as these mail-order catalogs.

FSC SUMMER SESSION REGISTRATION JUNE 3

Registration for the summer session at Florence State College will be June 3 and regular classes will begin Wednesday, June 4. Registration for summer session closes June 7.

Two summer workshops will be held on the FSC campus. The school lunch workshop will be June 3-6 and the Alabama Institute on Mental Health will be June 9-20. Both are noncredit workshops.

In The Week's News

President Eisenhower ordered withdrawal of all federal troops enforcing school integration in the Little Rock Central High School at the end of this school term May 29. He added that he hoped it would not be necessary to return the soldiers at the start of the new term in September. The U. S. troops were ordered to Central High last September after outbreaks of violence at the school occurred when nine Negroes sought to enroll.

Twenty-four men, trapped more than 13 hours in a flooded coal mine at Sharples, W. Va., were brought to the surface unharmed and in good condition. Water from a rain-swollen pond above the mine broke through and jammed passageways with debris, cutting the men off from exits. A rescue party made its way to the trapped men through a section of the mine which had not been worked since the 1920's and led them to safety.

Some of this country's top businessmen, called to a conference in Hot Springs, Va., by Secretary of Commerce Weeks, were said to have advised against tax reduction as a quick antidote for the recession. However, they said an across-the-board income tax reduction might be appropriate if the slump continues. The assembled businessmen also gave their endorsement to the Eisenhower administration's Reciprocal Trade Agreement Act, soon to come up for a vote in Congress.

Selection of an Unknown Soldier of World War II went ahead this week with the selection of one of 13 caskets containing the remains of an unidentified American soldier killed in the European Theatre being picked by Gen. Edward O'Neill. The casket will join one picked similarly in the Pacific Theatre, with one of these to be chosen for burial at Arlington National Cemetery near Washington.

A sorrowing Red Skelton, movie and TV comedian, and his wife, Georgia, buried their nine-year-old son, Richard, in Hollywood this week following his death from leukemia. The boy had received wide publicity for his valiant fight against the disease, and his parents took him on a European tour several months ago to gratify one of his wishes. They requested friends send no flowers to the funeral but, instead, make donations in Richard's name to find a cure for the disease which killed him.

France was scheduled to get its 25th post-World War II premier this week as Pierre Pflimlin sought a confidence vote from the Chamber of Deputies. He presented the names of a coalition cabinet, and maintained his policy toward Algeria would be the same as that of his immediate predecessors: Algeria must be kept as a part of the Colonial empire, even if it means enlisting the aid of NATO allies to do so.

More Than 200 County Seniors Getting Diplomas

More than 200 seniors in five Lauderdale County high schools have received or will get diplomas this week and next.

Waterloo's class of 19 were handed their diplomas Wednesday night, while the 87 seniors at Lauderdale County High at Rogersville will receive the coveted certificates Friday night.

MY THANKS TO THE VOTERS

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the many people of Lauderdale County, District 3, who supported and voted for me in the May 6th election. This good support gave me the highest vote for my race and put me in the run-off.

I earnestly ask for your vote on June 3rd to re-elect me for a second term as your County Commissioner.

Thank You,

JAMES A. (Jimmy) BLALOCK

(Paid Pol. Adv. by James A. Blalock, Rt. 1, Florence, Ala.)

COMMUNITY PROGRAM FOR DELINQUENCY URGED

Community centered programs that will detect and deter potential juvenile delinquency are sorely needed in Alabama, according to University of Alabama criminologist Morris G. Caldwell.

Symptoms of delinquency are easily recognizable, Dr. Caldwell said. However, symptoms should not be confused with deep, underlying causes, the criminologist pointed out. He said, the delinquency disease is often highly contagious and may be acquired by a young person through association with others who are already confirmed delinquents.

Home Ceremony Unites

Jean Staggs, Joseph Sharp
Marked by a double ring ceremony on the evening of Saturday, May third, Miss Jean Staggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Staggs of Cloverdale Road, became the bride of Joseph Dickson Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Sharp in the presence of a guest company of family members and close friends. The home of the bride's parents was the setting.

Vows were exchanged before a mantel background centered with a fan-shaped arrangement of pink gladioli flanked by white wrought iron candelabra, branched, and entwined with English ivy and holding burning pink tapers. The Reverend J. E. Baker, minister of Underwood Baptist Church read the service. Candelighters were Miss Shirley Young in sky blue chiffon, and Jerome Staggs, brother of the bride.

Wearing white nylon dotted Swiss, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The fitted bodice was fashioned with sweetheart neckline and short sleeves and the tiers of the very full skirt were joined with bands of lace and bias folds. Her shoulder length veil was caught to a crown of starched lace and with her bride's Bible she carried white feathered carnations.

Serving as maid of honor, Miss Anna Gunselman wore pale pink glazed cotton designed with moulded bodice, sweetheart neckline and full pleated skirt complemented by a wide cummerbund of self-material. Pink asters tied with matching satin ribbon fashioned her bouquet.

Charles Winborn was the bridegroom's best man.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Staggs honored the bride couple, entertaining with an informal reception. Bows of pastel blossoms decorated the home and the lace-spread bride's table held for its central ornament a silver bowl of white gladioli with candles in silver holders alongside. The three-tiered cake, decorated with flowers and topped by a miniature bride and groom, was served by Mrs. Wallace Briggs while Miss Young presided at the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp are at home at 808 Nellie Avenue, Florence.

Dickerson-Holden Vows In Greenhill Church Setting

An eight o'clock ceremony on May third in Lone Cedar Church of Christ was the setting when Reeder Faye Dickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lee Dickerson, exchanged vows with Bobby Eugene Holden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holden, all of Greenhill.

The wedding tableau formed against a background of greenery and white gladioli with groupings of lighted candles interspersed. Nuptial music was by Manson, Foy, and Melvin Campbell, minister of Shiloh Church of Christ, officiated.

Mr. Dickerson gave his daughter in marriage. Her dress of white taffeta was designed with moulded bodice and V neckline. Her veil of nylon lace fell from a bandeau of pearls and with her bride's Bible she carried a bouquet of white roses and tuberose.

Attendants were Miss Joyce Dial, maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Louise Holden, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Lambert Behel, aunt of the bride. Their frocks were of blue embroidered organdie and their flowers were French bouquets of carnations. Flower girls Cathy Behel and Dorothy Dickerson were attired in white organdie.

Betty Holden, wearing pink organdie, and Charles Dickerson were candle lighters. Serving as best man was the bridegroom's father and ushers were Russell Dickerson and Hogan Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson honored the couple immediately after the wedding with a reception at their home.

For traveling the bride changed to a white sheath dress with white accessories. They have returned from their honeymoon and are at home at Killen, Route Two.

Billy James Phillips, Miss Curtis Will Wed

Miss Sue Nell Curtis, who will receive her Bachelor of Science Degree at Florence State College in early June, is engaged to wed Billy James Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Phillips of Florence. The announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Curtis of Savannah, Tennessee, parents of the bride-elect.

Mr. Phillips, a graduate of Coffee High School, received his Bachelor of Science Degree at Florence State College.

First Baptist Church of Savannah will be the scene of the May thirtieth nuptials.

Mary Emily Broadfoot's Engagement Announced

Foretelling a wedding of cordial interest is the announcement which has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reeder Broadfoot of the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Emily, to Waylon Dare Hawkins, son of Mrs. James Ing of Greenville, S. C., and of Vernon Bruce Hawkins of Huntsville.

Grandparents of the bride-to-be are Mrs. John Thomas Carroll and the late Mr. Carroll; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wesley Broadfoot, all of Florence.

Mr. Hawkins, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins of Union Grove, is a student at Florence State College.

A six o'clock ceremony on Saturday, June twenty-eighth, in Pleasant Hill Methodist Church will mark the nuptial vows.

Sylvia Towles Reveals Plans

An afternoon ceremony on Saturday, June fourteenth, will mark the exchange of vows between Sylvia Towles and William Fitzgerald Hill. She will be given in marriage by her father, Mack Towles, and her honor attendants will be Sue Smith and Mrs. Patrick Mills, both of Tuscumbia.

Bridesmaids will be Suzanne Caldwell of Humboldt, Tennessee, Mrs. Charles Anderson, Linder Boutwell of Birmingham, Marie Bryan of Florence and Kanasa City, Mrs. William Ray Roberson and Sylvia Sargent, Lexington.

Robert Hill, Jr., will serve his brother as best man and groomsmen will be John Archer, Don Patterson, Richard Goodsell, Pete Elebash, Charles Pritchard, all of Florence, Don Speed, Selma, and Carl Salter, Sheffield.

Nuptial music by Mrs. Shirley Lowery, organist, and Mrs. James Crabb, vocalist, will precede the half past five o'clock ceremony.

The bride's parents will entertain at The Town Club following the wedding in Florence First Methodist Church.

Prenuptial Fetes Virginia Perkins

At the home of Mrs. Andrew Thrasher, Savannah Road, bride-elect Virginia Perkins was honored on Tuesday evening, May sixth, when Mrs. Thrasher and her co-hostesses, Mrs. H. E. Hairell, Mrs. J. C. Seaton and Mrs. John Butler entertained with a shower.

Spring-blossoming shrubs and garden flowers adorned the party rooms and on the candle-light refreshment table the punch bowl was encircled by clusters of wild pink azaleas. A pink cloth completed the decorative theme.

Invitations were extended to about fifty friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Dickerson Honored At Tea

A courtesy to Mrs. Z. S. Dickerson who, with her family, will leave Florence in early June to make her home in Harrisonburg, Virginia, was the morning coffee to which Mrs. Charles Rasch, Mrs. Fulton Huff and Mrs. Frank Wilson were Saturday hostesses.

Entertaining at Rogers Hall on Florence State College campus, pink and white peonies were in arrangements about the spacious rooms. The honoree greeted guests standing near a large map upon which the route between Florence and Harrisonburg was marked with ribbon bows. The same route was defined on a globe which rested on a bank of pale blue and yellow iris mixed with white spirea to center the coffee table, and a dusty rose cloth completed the appointments.

Assisting with the courtesies were Mrs. E. B. Norton, Mrs. Turner Allen, Mrs. George Maness, Mrs. George Hoffmeister, Mrs. Roy Stevens, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Chester Aehart, Mrs. W. T. McElheny, Miss Julia Neal, Mrs. Hoyt Brock, Mrs. Noel Glasscock, Mrs. Otis Peacock, Mrs. Robert Fuller, Miss Ellen Moore, Mrs. John Rodman, Mrs. Orville Boes, Mrs. Rutland Cunningham, Miss Orpha Ann Culmer and Mrs. H. H. Floyd.

About one hundred twenty-five guests called during party hours.

Mrs. Allen, Miss Neal Firenze Club Hostesses

Mrs. Abel DeWitt was welcomed as a new member of Firenze Club at last Thursday's meeting in the Turner Allen home when Mrs. Allen and Miss Julia Neal were hostesses.

A brief business period, with Miss Pearl Sparks, president, in the chair, preceded the program. "Excerpts from Nineteenth Century Poets" was the subject with which Mrs. White delighted her listeners, reading from Longfellow, Wordsworth, Sidney Lanier and many others, as she made interesting comments.

Refreshments were served in the late afternoon by the hostesses.

Discussion Club's Music Programs End

Dr. Wayne Christeson brought to a close a series of programs on music appreciation on last Thursday afternoon, giving a comparison of nineteenth century and twentieth century music when Discussion Club members gathered for the May meeting.

One new member, Mrs. Thomas Harrell, was welcomed, and her mother, Mrs. C. I. Motte of Atlanta, was present as a guest.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. E. W. Gray and Mrs. Otho Peritt; the home of the former was the setting.

Mrs. Mims Rogers and Mrs. R. T. Simpson Johnson president at refreshment time, serving party plates from the teatable.

Mrs. Acker Club Hostess

Twentieth Century Club's concluding meeting of the season took place on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guy Acker, O'Neal Avenue.

For the program Miss Orpha Ann Culmer reviewed "The Woman in the Hall," by G. B. Sterne. "A haunting memory of this story has been with me since 1939, the year it was published," she told her listeners, and added that she had first reviewed it during that year, and in the home of Tuesday's hostess.

In addition to the club members, Mrs. D. J. Edwards was an invited guest.

Mrs. John Johnson and Mrs. W. F. McFarland presided at the teatable at the conclusion of the program.

Tom Harrell, Jr., a student at Georgia Tech, and Miss Mary Mac Witherspoon, a guest from Agnes Scott college, arrived on Friday from Atlanta to spend the Mother's Day weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrell.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Jackson left Monday for Belgium where Dr. Jackson will attend a meeting of International College of Surgeons in Brussels. Their itinerary will include Paris, Rome, Venice, Milan and London before they return to the States on June eighth.

Harold Doss, Jr., arrived last Thursday from Vanderbilt University to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Doss, Sanamer Avenue.

Mrs. Essie Knight returned Sunday from Greenville, S. C., where she was called by the illness of her sister.

Mrs. Owen Scott and Marvin Reeder, called to Florence by the illness of their father, Brown Reeder, have returned to their homes in Athens, Ga., and Chattanooga. Mr. Reeder, a patient at ECM Hospital, is reported to be in satisfactory condition.

James H. Johnson returned yesterday from Birmingham, leaving Mrs. Johnson and their son, Woody, who will remain for a longer visit to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Chunn Parsons.

Judge Robert T. Simpson has returned to his home in Montgomery after a visit in the home of his brother, Dr. Harry M. Simpson, and Mrs. Simpson, Sherrod Ave.

THE SPILLWAY

SHE'S YOUNG AND a charmer ...
She'll have a new house ...
And she's quoted as saying
"But I can spell MOUSE ..."

IT'S OUR CONUNDRUM for the week and ... in case we've been vague ... we'll just up and tell that the young charmer is Harriet Price ... daughter of Beverly and Lotta-folks-doctor Lance ("Buddy") Price ... The above quote came forth as Harriet poured over the next day's spellin' lesson and after patient poppa Lance had chided ... "I don't believe you can spell 'rat'" ... "I can't," admitted the TV devotee of Walt Disney's delightful antics ... "But I can spell M-O-U-S-E ..."

THE PRICES HAVE recently purchased the lovely new home in Hickory Hills which looks (at least to us) sorta like the beautiful Jester home on Riverview Drive ... On a corner lot and ... but you should really drive by ... You'll be glad you did ...

IN A CALYPSO atmosphere ... where we'd have liked to linger as did Odysseus ... the Coffee Hi senior banquet took place last Friday evening ... Midst unbelievably lovely decorations ... handmade by students ... down to the last leaf of the last tree ... the one hundred eighty members of the graduating class gathered ... Colorful parrots were suspended in cages throughout the dining hall and monkeys ... looking playful and pert ... hung from jungle-like trees ... A straw hat was filled with tropical fruit to center the table and miniature Latin American characters were in colorful attire to stand guard 'gainst miniature palms down the tables' length ... Place cards ... programs and favors were in delightful accord and we think we saw the capable direction of Mary Rogers and Viola Holder distinctly showing through ...

OLD MAN RIVER keeps a-callin' ... and answering his call during the weekend were Jeanie and Bill Paxton who stepped aboard an eight-man cruiser on Friday afternoon for two days of plying forth ... Ear to the ground and a' that ... we're still short on details ... but it sounds like a delightful and relaxing experience ... (We can go ... any ole time ...)

RUBBING SHOULDERS WITH the great and the near-great ... 'Twas our pleasure during the past weekend to meet and chat with Gerald Wallace ... brother of gubernatorial candidate George ... here for a short visit with ex-University classmates ... and spreading personality thick as hops wherever he happened to be ... A very nice-to-be-with person whom we hope you didn't fail to meet ...

A MOTHER'S DAY to remember was observed at the new Johnny McCrory home on Arnold Circle last Sunday ... what with Carolyn and Johnny and chillun being hosts to the Breaux and McCrory clans ... and maimmas Bess and Bert wearing smiles that not even the weather could dampen ... 'Twas mid-afternoon ere the Madam dropped by ... and joy continued reigneth-ing ...

LIKE FATHER ... LIKE SON We can't imagine a nicer happenin' in the Calhoun family ... News comes that Billy, Jr. ... son of Annie (Harlan) and (Col.) Billy ... has been accepted at West Point Military Academy and will enter there to be a member of the Class of '62 ... We tip our bonnet as we salute this young gent of sterling worth ...

ANOTHER SPECTACLE WE hope you didn't miss was May Day at Florence State College ... With all the ear-marks of tip-top professional training and directing ... and with lovely Queen Betty Gentry and her court moving with graceful charm as do May flowers in a gentle breeze. A scene which we'll close our eyes and drift back to again ... and again ...

IT'S NICE TO KNOW that (Captain) Tommy Ashcraft settled his house-hunting problem during his weekend jaunt to Florence ... He's purchased from Boyd Nabors, Jr., the two-story brick structure at 208 West Lelia Street and 'tis there that he and Jean will come about July first ...

EARLY SUMMER MOVING around on the lakefront will find Vivienne and Charlie Coldiron getting into their new home on The Creek ... and the Glenn Taylors into theirs on the Big Lake ... both very super places ...

HOW PROUD WE WILL be when Operating Vice-President of Southern Bell Tel and Tel ... Frank Malone ... steps to the fore to give the commencement address to FSC's graduating seniors ... Florence town's very own ... whom we'll never completely relinquish to Atlanta ... his home now for these many years ...

WELCOME NEWCOMER ... Barbara Ann Brooks ... daughter of Nancy and Bill ... who was born in Knoxville on May sixth ... Grandparents are former Florentines Marie (Cromwell) and Dude Brooks of Tuscaloosa ... and dearly loved Maggie Cromwell of 422 North Cedar Street is the great grandmother ...

AND NOW ... CHERIO and goodby ... until more news comes through The Spillway ...

Leo Views the College Campus By DOTTIE McRAE

The ROTC has been stirring around again—Thursday and Friday FSC's advanced cadets visited Fort Campbell. I'm not sure just what the purpose of the trip was, but that sounds like an interesting place to visit.

The big event last week was May Day—the weather was beautiful (for a change) and according to some of the students who have been around longer than I have, this year's celebration was even better than last year's. It began, Wednesday afternoon, with the entrance of the queen, Betty Gentry, and her court, preceded by two small heralds and accompanied by an entourage of small courtiers.

Entertainment in honor of Queen Betty consisted of dances (authentic folk dances of Sweden, Czechoslovakia, Russia, and the Germanies); music by a choral group, the band, and an accompanist at the piano; and an all-male rendition of the Pyrimus and Thisbe scene of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream."

I enjoyed the music and found the dances very interesting—the costumes, incidentally were all, with the exception of those worn by the students of Kilby, made by the FSC home economics classes—but Pyrimus and Thisbe took the cake; they were truly funny.

Joe Douglass, a Lawrenceburg junior, will represent Florence State next Sunday at the Big Spring Clothes Line Exhibit, sponsored by the Art League of Huntsville. The paintings will be on exhibit from 9 to 6, May 18 at the Huntsville Curb Market.

The "Ring Around the Moon" cast and crew had a scare last week—Robert Scogin, one of the leads, came down with the virus. He made it to dress rehearsal Saturday evening, though, so maybe he'll make it through the two day run of the play.

Plans for graduation celebrations are underway—the prom is set for May 23, the senior breakfast is shaping up, the graduation speaker, Mr. Frank M. Malone, has been provided.

Florence State is about to lose some of its faculty, of course they will be replaced, but we're going to miss Dr. and Mrs. Z. S. Dickerson, and Dr. Earnest Snyder.

The psychology department will have a new assistant professor next year—Mr. William L. Crocker—and Dr. Raymond Fisher, superintendent of schools in Jefferson County, will be at FSC to teach graduate courses in summer school.

No one would ever hire me for a sports writer—I have the sports situation, as far as I'm concerned, thoroughly muddled. It's not entirely my fault, though because I have accurate schedules, but they keep putting games off because of the rain; it's very confusing.

Dr. Archibald Is Exchange Speaker

Dr. R. Lambuth Archibald, Jr., pastor, First Methodist Church gave an interesting and instructive discussion of the Dead Sea Scrolls before the Florence Exchange Club at Hotel Reeder Tuesday noon. Bill Batson had charge of program arrangements and presented the speaker.

Dr. Archibald told of the finding of the 49 jars containing the long lost scrolls by a Bedouin boy who chanced upon the cave containing these religious treasures, while searching for a goat strayed from his flock.

His learned discussion, gleaned from the reports of religious leaders of Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths who have been studying these scrolls since their discovery, gave a new light into their meaning and proved of interest to the club members.

Dr. Archibald prefaced his address with a group of stories that delighted the members.

From The Simple Side

By THE FARMER'S WIFE

Perhaps this is the day, says the Farmer in his heart; the day when the sun will break through and come out to stay a while, drying the land in time for spring planting. With the sun shining down on his back there is peace within his heart again, and there is hope, too, and even a prayer for more days of sunshine and tranquil weather. But on his lips are few complaints (spoken that is), for he has long since learned to accept weather conditions as they come. Watching him, one is reminded of the words of Nepos, who said that "We value great men by their virtue and not by success," and with this thought comes another—that while all men may certainly not be farmers, surely the farmer is a great man, in his heart.

For who else faces life with the calm acceptance as does he? And though his success does not reach far, measured in material value, in his heart he has attained virtue. Knowing full well that his future depends upon his strength from within, and help from above as he goes forth to meet that future in a manly way.

Veterans Agency Officials To Go To State Meeting

W. O. Crumby, Sr., and Mrs. Christine Sanderson will attend an annual conference of the Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs which is to be held at Gulf Shores next week. The local office of the department will be closed for this reason on May 19, 20 and 21.

The conference, which is designed primarily as a school of instruction for the employees of the department, will attract a number of distinguished workers in the field of veteran rehabilitation from over the nation. In addition, representatives of all the major veterans organizations in Alabama will appear on the program, as will a number of representatives of the Veterans Administration Regional Office and hospitals. Chief topics will concern claims for compensation and pension of living veterans and a discussion of death benefits, burial allowances, educational benefits, loans and hospitalization.

Social

Mrs. D. L. Harrison and Mrs. Mary E. Wilson left Saturday for Sherman, Texas, where they were called by the illness of their sister, Mrs. Kate Reeder Sherrill.

Miss Martha Porterfield has returned from a stay of several weeks with Miss Gertrude Irwin in Savannah, Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Rushing of Orlando, Fla., are guests of her sister, Mrs. R. W. Drane, Mr. Drane, and their young son, Robert, Riverview Drive.

In Knoxville to spend Mother's Day with her son, Clarence B. Collier, and his family, was Mrs. C. B. Collier, Sherrod Ave.

S/3C Michael J. Mecke arrived from his base in Jacksonville, Fla., to spend the Mother's Day weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Mecke, Bailey Springs Road.

Misses Mary Lynn McGough and Mary Eckl, students at Sacred Heart Academy in Cullman, spent the past weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGough, Olive Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eckl, Nellie Ave.

Dr. John Rea and his son, Billy, returned Sunday from Ft. Morgan, where they spent four days fishing in the Gulf of Mexico.

Capt. Thomas Ashcraft left Saturday after a brief business sojourn in Florence during which time he was a guest of his sister, Mrs. James Gilbert, and Mr. Gilbert, Riverview Drive.

Arriving Saturday, Mrs. James Acker of Aberdeen, Mississippi, spent the Mother's Day weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Mims Rogers, and Mr. Rogers, Hawthorne Street.

Oscar Lewis is a patient at Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital. K. T. Tyree, Jr., returned yesterday from Miami where he represented Florence Housing Authority at a meeting of the Federal Housing group.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wallace and children of Memphis spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. and Mrs. Willie Wallace, of Central.

Mrs. R. B. Jones will leave Monday for her home in Pensacola, Fla., after an extended stay with her sister, Mrs. Guy Acker, and Mr. Acker, O'Neal Ave.

Honey production will be up this year, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Despite the late spring in the South, authorities say the honey crop will be around normal.

Let's Talk It Over

By SARA SAZE

Dear Sara Saze, We are a new family in the district, as are a number of others along our street, and we want to have pretty lawns as soon as possible. There is some grass out front of our place, but it's spotty. And there are seven families along here who would like to see some directions about how to start getting a green covering that really looks good.

Please help us! Home Owners. Dear Home Owners, You should have written at least a month sooner, though the rains would probably have delayed you even so.

I suggest that you keep whatever grass you have, feed it well from time to time with whatever fertilized your favorite seed store recommends, and work on the bald spots. These may be either sprigged or seeded, or you might try a combination of the two methods. And remember to use a turf builder on these areas, too. Well-fed lawns develop and hold a better color and have more resistance to Summer heat.

Begin immediately to control the weeds. There are products on the market to be used for this purpose and can, in some instances, be found combined with the fertilizer. There are also commercial products to rid of bugs and grubs.

And lastly, keep your mower sharp to prevent bruising and, although this bit seems superfluous now, keep a sprinkler busy when dry periods threaten.

Dear Sara Saze, I am a Britisher, living here for the nonce. Have heard and read of your Washington cherry trees and always wanted to see them in blossom. As I approached the capital city by plane a few weeks back I noticed in the paper I was reading that "a riot of blossoms" was being viewed by thousands. I deplaned for the day, took a cab, got the disappointment of my life. Only a few scattered blossoms, and a very scraggly sight. The cabbie was a noncommittal old chap. I'm curious to know if the view I had is considered unusually lovely by your countrymen. A Londoner.

Dear Londoner, I took time out to write a Washington cousin before answering you. She tells me that the cherry blossoms played capricious this year, coming out late and staying a very short time. Unfavorable weather conditions, she

My Sincere Appreciation

I am deeply grateful to you, my friends and supporters, for the wonderful vote for County Commissioner, District 3, that you gave me in the May 6th primary. Your vote and influence placed me in the run-off election to be held June 3 and I want each of you to know that I shall appreciate your continued efforts in my behalf.

In seeking the office of County Commissioner from my home district, I do so hoping that I might be of service to all of you who live in District 3 as well as in Lauderdale County as a whole. I realize the importance of the office and, if honored with election the first Tuesday in June, I promise you that I shall do everything I know how to serve you to your complete satisfaction and with honor to our county and to myself.

To those who supported candidates not now in this race, I sincerely solicit your vote and support assuring you that I shall deeply appreciate your consideration of my candidacy.

Faithfully yours,

Minister Walks Into Car's Path; Badly Injured

The Rev. Frank L. Hacker, a Lauderdale County minister, is recovering at ECM Hospital from serious injuries incurred when he walked into the path of an approaching car on Highway 20 about 10 miles west of Florence last Friday afternoon.

The driver of the car, Wayne W. Bevis, Cloverdale, Rt. 1, told investigating patrolmen the 63-year-old minister looked back at his approaching car, then cut diagonally across the road. Bevis veered his automobile to the left and struck an embankment in an effort to avoid hitting the Rev. Hacker.

Mr. Hacker was struck by the right side of the windshield, which was broken. He was rushed to the hospital where he was said to have suffered lacerations of the head, scalp and shoulders and a fractured left arm.

Walker Addresses Quarterback Club

Wade Walker, head coach at Mississippi State, was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Tri-Cities Quarterback Club at the Tennessee Valley Country Club Tuesday night. Charles Finney, program chairman, arranged the meeting.

Coach Walker said that he felt that the "rotating schedule system" as planned by the Southeastern Conference was a dead issue and that the SEC was one of the strongest conferences in the nation.

He predicted that Auburn would repeat as the conference champions and that Ole Miss would place second with Georgia Tech and Tennessee fighting for third place. He rated Florida, Mississippi State and Georgia in the next spots.

Bill (Spook) Murphy of Memphis State will address the June 3 meeting of the club.

Anderson, Collier Given Re-election

The Florence residents won election to the State Democratic Executive Committee from the Eighth Congressional District in the May 6 voting, while a third is in a run-off for the lone place unfilled in the primary last week.

Clyde W. Anderson and William I. Collier, both veteran members of the party group from this district, gained clear majorities May 6. They were elected along with W. W. Malone, Athens, also a long-time member of the state committee; Charles E. Carmichael, Jr., Tusculum; W. L. Chenault and Joe S. Elliott, Decatur, and Charles H. Cummings, Jr., Huntsville.

Dan Davis, Florence theatre operator, is opposed by Thomas D. McDonald of Huntsville for the unfilled eighth place on the committee from this district. All those named to the committee from the Eighth Congressional District on May 6, as well as Davis and McDonald, are party "Loyalists."

Frigid Dough Co. Plans Expansion

Southern Frigid Dough, Inc., Florence manufacturers of frozen fruit and meat pies and other products, will immediately undertake a $200,000 expansion program, Tom McCough, general manager and vice-president of the concern, announced this week.

The capacity of the plant here will be increased from its present production of 65,000 pies on one eight-hour shift to 86,000 pies on each of two eight-hour shifts, Mr. McCough said. By conversion of the present freezing facilities to producing fruit turnovers and frozen rolls, the capacity will, in effect, be tripled.

Southern Frigid Dough, which employs 90 persons and has an annual payroll of $250,000, distributes its products in more than 30 states. When the expansion is completed and in full production, the payroll is expected to increase from $400,000 to $500,000 yearly.

Petition Seeks Improvements In East Florence

A delegation from the East Florence—Weeden Heights section of Florence Tuesday night presented a petition to the Board of Commissioners requesting improvements for these areas.

Pointing to the growth of the eastern section of the city, the petition asked that street improvements, a whiteway lighting system and a new fire station be built to serve the area. The board said estimates of the requested improvements would be obtained and a later meeting would be scheduled with representatives of the East Florence-Weeden Heights neighborhoods.

Florence Docks Contract Given Official Approval

Following the completion of the first phase of the Florence Docks construction by Ballew and Roberts Construction Co., Sheffield on May 1, at a cost of $138,000, confirmation of the low bid of the same company in the amount of $42,000 for the second phase, consisting of transit shed and aprons to the dock, has been announced by Knox McRae of the State Docks department. The contract was awarded a short time ago following the opening of bids at the Florence municipal building.

H. M. Roberts, managing partner of the successful bidder, stated that work will begin on the new contract as soon as weather permits. The work is scheduled to be completed by early fall.

The railroad spur to serve the dock is being planned by John J. Harte Co., engineering firm of Atlanta, and will connect with both the L&N Railroad and Southern Railway System, it is stated.

U. S. production of vegetables this year is expected to be 15 percent below last year's figures.

BURGLAR GETS 11 YEARS ON PLEA OF GUILTY

Henry T. Summerhill, 23-year-old Negro resident of Florence, pleaded guilty to five cases of burglary of firms on South Court Street earlier this year, and was sentenced to 11 years imprisonment by Judge Robert M. Hill. Summerhill was arrested by city officers the latter part of March while in possession of a number of articles stolen from Florence business firms.

1960—to apply for GI loans under the Veterans Administration guaranty program.

Harley A. Smith, manager of the VA Regional Office in Montgomery, today said the extension is authorized by Public Law 85-364. The 1960 deadline does not apply to VA-guaranteed loans to Korean conflict veterans, who have until January 31, 1965, to use that benefit, Smith pointed out.

The Gallup Poll of American motorists clearly shows that the majority of drivers think a driver education course before getting a license and twice a year auto inspections would help reduce traffic accidents.

Alabama's Rivers

Resurvey Sought For Choctawhatchee-Pea

The junction of the Choctawhatchee and Pea Rivers at Geneva. The Pea River (left) joins the Choctawhatchee en route to Choctawhatchee Bay and the Gulf of Mexico. A part of downtown Geneva appears in the upper background.

The Pea and Choctawhatchee Rivers flow quietly or turbulently (in past years sometime disastrously) through Bullock, Barbour, Pike, Coffee, Dale, Henry and Geneva Counties in Alabama, to join at Geneva. Thence the Choctawhatchee flows across West Florida to Choctawhatchee Bay on the Gulf of Mexico.

Corps of Engineers' records indicate that the Choctawhatchee River was improved for navigation as early as 1833. An 1845 survey resulted in a favorable report. Later, in the seventies of the last century, the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers engaged in channel operations over a period of several years to bring a snag-free channel to Geneva. Even when the river was obstructed, however, steamboat traffic continued, and a wagon road through the woods around Buzzard Bar enabled shippers to transfer goods around the bar for trans-shipment.

That there was considerable traffic during this period is evident from the notations of steamboat wrecks which appear in the reports of the engineers. In 1877 part of the clearing operation consisted in removing three wrecks from the river. In 1880 they removed the greater part of the wreck of the steamer Boston.

In the 1880 report the captain in charge stated: "Since the improvement of the river began, and probably in great measure owing to its partially improved condition, there has been a marked increase in the commerce carried on . . . As to the amount of commerce . . . it is reported that there are now 25,000,000 cubic feet of timber annually transported down the river, and miscellaneous stores, cotton and grain, up and down, probably of nearly equal value."

Three quarters of a century later, in 1957, J. Clyde Lewis and other citizens of the Alabama-Florida area along the river organized the Choctawhatchee-Pea River Improvement Association to begin a new fight to return navigation to these rivers.

Their first objective is to secure an appropriation for a resurvey of the Choctawhatchee-Pea River Basin by the Corps of Engineers, to determine the feasibility of improving these rivers for modern barge transportation.

With the cooperation of the Florida Development Commission and the Alabama River Development Authority, a preliminary survey was made and published. This survey shows that more than 2,215,000 tons were shipped in the river basin during 1956.

Members of the association plan to appear before the subcommittees of the Appropriations Committees of House and Senate in behalf of the proposed resurvey of the basin. They are enthusiastic about the prospects of river improvement and industrial development for their area of Alabama.

The Conecuh River and like the Pea having its source in Bullock County, the Conecuh River runs in a generally southwesterly direction through Pike County, Crenshaw, Covington and Escambia. When it crosses the Florida line it becomes known as the Escambia River.

Once navigable as far as River Falls near Andalusia, the Conecuh River produces considerable hydroelectric power at two dams in Covington County above Andalusia. There is no appreciable navigation on this stream now. Minimum month-daily flow of the river in Escambia County is 310,200,000 gallons daily.

Editors Note: This is the fifth of a series of articles on river improvement in Alabama. These articles were prepared for The Florence Herald by the staff of the Alabama River Development Authority. Next week: Success Story — The Warrior-Tombigbee Waterway.

News Of POWELL

By Mrs. J. N. Phillips

One hundred and seventy-eight attended Sunday School at the Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday morning. Following Sunday School there was a Mother's Day program presented under the direction of Mrs. Anna Doss. In the evening, 54 were present for Training Union and evening worship.

The G. A. girls of the Bethel Church will observe G. A. Focus Week this week. Sunday they were in charge of devotional and prayer prior to Sunday School and all the girls participated in the Mother's Day program. Tuesday they visited Dr. Jackson's Hospital, taking tray cards for the sick. Thursday they will meet at the home of one of the G. A. girls, Dianne Camp, for a weiner roast, and following that they will work on their forward steps. Dianne will be hostess to all the girls as overnight guests. Saturday they will visit a shut-in, Mrs. Roxie Middlebrooks. To get their week off to a good start they attended the G. A. coronation service in Rogersville on Sunday evening at the Baptist church. Every one is reminded again that next Sunday, May 18, is home coming at the Union Hill Church. Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Willard McConnell visited in the home of Mrs. W. E. Burgess and the M. C. Cockrell's Sunday.

The Clarence Knight family of Town Creek were Sunday dinner guests in the H. W. Phillips home Sunday. Members of the Phillips family were home also for dinner with their mother on Mother's Day, and Mrs. Phillips was most pleasantly surprised with flowers wired to her from a daughter in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Alton Bailey, and Mrs. Leo Bailey's mother of Birmingham visited them over the week-end. Funeral services for Mrs. Julie (Jones) Bailey were conducted in the Bethel Church Sunday, with the Rev. T. J. McConnell officiating.

The industry-operated American Tree Farm System of growing timber as a crop on taxpaying lands, through which small landowners are encouraged to reap steady income from their woodlots, is now active in 46 states with more than 45 million acres of timberlands enrolled.

Legal Notice

STATE OF ALABAMA, LAUDERDALE COUNTY, IN THE CIRCUIT COURT IN EQUITY NO. 4018.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF FLORENCE, a national banking corporation, as Trustee under the will of Samuel Adams, deceased

vs. The lot or parcel of land located on Tennessee Street in Florence, Lauderdale County, Alabama, particularly described below, et als

RESPONDENTS

NOTICE

M. R. OUSLEY, AMOS WYNN and W. B. GREENLOW whose addresses are unknown, if living, and the respective heirs or devisees of any of said named persons who may be deceased, M. W. LONG, if living, and his heirs or devisees, if dead, C. H. LONG, if living, and his heirs or devisees if dead, W. M. RICHARDSON, ALMA LONG, JANE LONG BENDALL, and FLORENCE INVESTMENT

COMPANY, and the unknown partners composing the firm of FLORENCE INVESTMENT COMPANY if same was a partnership and if it was a corporation its unknown stockholders, directors and trustees:

Take notice that in the Circuit Court of Lauderdale County, Alabama, in equity, there is pending a verified bill of complaint filed on April 29, 1958 by First National Bank of Florence, a national banking corporation, as Trustee under the will of Samuel Adams, deceased, against the following described real estate situated in Lauderdale County, Alabama, to-wit:

A part of Original Lots 101, 102, 103 and 104, City of Florence, Alabama, according to the map and survey of said City of Florence, made by the Cypress Land Company, more particularly described as beginning at a point on the southwardly line of Tennessee Street 50.0 feet westwardly of the westwardly line of an alley shown on said Cypress Land Company map, said point also being 121.25 feet from the eastwardly line of Cherry Street as the street now exists (70 feet wide); thence, at right angles to Tennessee Street southwardly a distance of 133.0 feet to the northwardly line of an alley as shown on plat made by Charles Boeckh, C. E., for the Florence Land Mining and Manufacturing Company, recorded in New Plat Book No. 1 Page 144, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Lauderdale County, Alabama; thence, eastwardly with the northwardly line of said alley 90.0 feet; thence, at right angles to the said alley, northwardly 133 feet to the southwardly line of Tennessee Street 90.0 feet to the point of beginning, and against those persons named above and any and all persons claiming any title to, interest in, lien or encumbrance on said real estate, or any part thereof.

Said bill seeks to establish the complainant's right and title to said real estate and clear up all doubts and disputes concerning the same. It appears from said bill that:

First National Bank of Florence, as said Trustee, owns and is in the actual, peaceable possession of said real estate; M. R. Ousley, Amos Wynn and W. B. Greenlow, if living, are all over the age of 21 years and their addresses are all unknown and cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry or, if any of them are dead, their respective heirs or devisees are unknown, and their names, ages and residences cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry. If the said M. W. Long and C. H. Long are dead, their respective heirs or devisees are unknown and their names, ages, and residences cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry. Alma S. Long is over 21 years of age, her address being Florence, Alabama; Jane Long Bendall is over 21 years of age, her address being Birmingham, Alabama; whether Florence Investment Company was a corporation or a partnership and the names and addresses of its successors, whether directors, stockholders or partners, are unknown and cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry.

Complainant acquired title to said lot by virtue of the will of Samuel Adams, deceased, which is recorded in the office of the Probate Judge of Lauderdale County, Alabama, in Will Book 6 on pages 297-299, having been admitted to probate on June 20, 1944. Said Samuel Adams acquired title to said property by deed duly executed by the City of Florence, Alabama, a municipal corporation, dated March 28, 1941, and recorded in said Probate Office in Book 311 pages 170-171. Complainant claims to own the fee simple title as Trustee under said will, by virtue of said will and deed and by virtue of its peaceable possession of said lot. Title to said lot now stands in the name of complainant on the records of the Probate Office of Lauderdale County, Alabama. No one except complainant and those through whom it claims has been assessing said lot for taxes or paying taxes thereon for more than ten years next preceding the filing of said bill of complaint. The above named respondents and unknown persons claim or are reputed to claim some right, title, interest in, lien or encumbrance upon said lot.

Therefore, the above named respondents, and any and all persons claiming any title to, interest in, lien or encumbrance upon said lot, or any part of said lot, are hereby given notice to appear in said cause and specify their title, claim, interest in, lien or encumbrance upon said lot, or any part thereof, and show how and by what instrument the same is derived or created, and plead, answer or demur to said bill of complaint by the 8th day of July, 1958, so that said claims may be adjudicated by the court, so as to clear up all doubts or disputes concerning the title to said lot, or otherwise a decree pro confesso may be taken against each of them, and said cause shall be submitted for final decree as provided under Article 2, Title 7, Sections 1116 and 1132, inclusive, of the 1940 Code of Alabama, as amended.

Done this the 7th day of May, 1958.

STATE OF ALABAMA
LAUDERDALE COUNTY
IN THE PROBATE COURT
LAUDERDALE COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION, Comdemnor

vs. MARGARET FUQUA, et als, Comdemnees

In the matter of the application of Lauderdale County Board of Education to condemn lands for public school purposes.

TO, Elisha Fuqua, and wife, Ruth Fuqua, 241 Chester Street, Buffalo, New York; Alice Fuqua Nance and husband, Chester Nance, 182 Bennett Street, Buffalo, New York; Dorothy Mae Fuqua Watkins and husband, Richard Watkins, 62 Terrace Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee; Delois Fuqua, 179 Chester Street, Buffalo, New York; and James Fuqua, Buffalo, New York to-gather with any unknown party or parties who may claim any right, title or interest in or lien upon the property hereinbelow described.

You will take notice that on the 21 day of April, 1958, an application was filed in this Court by Lauderdale County Board of Education setting forth its desire to condemn for public school purposes in District No. 1, Lauderdale County, Alabama, certain lands belonging to Margaret Fuqua, et als, situated in Lauderdale County, Alabama, and described as follows:

A part of the North East 1/4 of the Northwest 1/4 of Section 8, Township 3 S., Range 7 West, in Lauderdale County, Alabama, being more fully described as follows: Beginning at a point on the North line of said N. E. 1/4 of N. W. 1/4 of Section 8, 884 feet West of Northeast corner; thence West 272 feet; thence South 320 feet; thence East 272 feet; thence North 320 feet to the point of beginning, containing two acres, more or less.

Said applicant prays that this Court will make and enter an order appointing a day and time for the hearing of said application and for such other and further orders and procedures as may be necessary.

You will take further notice that the Court has appointed the 28 day of May, 1958, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. to hear said application at which time you may appear and contest the same, if you so desire to do so.

WITNESS my hand this 21 day of April, 1958.

Pastor's Conference

When the Rogersville Pastor's Association met at the Baptist Church on Monday Rev. George Eady presided.

A matter of business of public interest was the date for the Daily Vacation Bible Schools. The Methodist school will begin on May 26, lasting through May 30. The Baptist, Cumberland Presbyterian and Church of God will have their schools June 2-8.

Family Week Observances

At the Cumberland Presbyterian Church the film intended to be the program for their services on Wednesday did not arrive, but the church met together for dinner and a message by the pastor, Rev. Courtney Fooks, in keeping with Christian Family Week observance.

On Thursday evening the Church of God had their Christian Family Week observance with a fellowship dinner at the church with plans to institute it as a monthly affair with the Worker's Conference, Board of Trustees and Women's Missionary Society meeting during the evening.

Class Meeting

Mrs. Buford Mitchum and Mrs. Dave Scott entertained the Mildred Reed Beddingfield Sunday School Class in the home of the former when it met on Thursday evening.

Presiding was Mrs. Henry Hudson. The program, led by the hostesses, was "The Church and The Home." For the devotional Mrs. Hudson and Miss Sarah Fuqua led two responsive readings, "The Home" and "The Church," and read Psalm 127, "Your Home For God" was given by Mrs. Dave Scott, who used excerpts from an article by Mrs. Billy Graham.

Mrs. Odie Harvey read "By Worshipping Him In His House." "The Church" was the subject of the concluding talk by Mrs. Buford Mitchum.

A dessert course was served by the hostesses.

Garden Club Meets

Mrs. Rex Roberson presided at the meeting of the Rogersville Garden Club on Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John Riddon.

Each member was to wear a flower from her garden in a corsage and to answer roll call with her favorite wild flower.

Mrs. Preston McCormick gave the study, "Unusual Flowers And Plants Of North America," with Mrs. Henry Hudson giving "Woodland Flowers."

The door prize, an iris for planting, was won by Mrs. Rex Roberson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hurn assisted Mrs. Riddon in serving a delightful refreshment.

Home Dedication

A service of great significance was that of the dedication on Sunday afternoon of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Beddingfield, in which they have recently moved.

Rev. Courtney Fooks, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, was in charge of the service. For his scripture he used Ephesians 3:14-21.

The family and guests participated in a responsive reading especially prepared for the occasion.

"Bless This House" was used in the program preceding the dedication prayer led by the pastor.

Gift bouquets of mixed blossoms were used throughout the house. From a lace draped table, centered with flowers and with silver and crystal appointments, punch and cake were served by Mrs. J. T. Whitehead, Jr., Mrs. Ruby Tipper and Mrs. Ishmael Perry.

Guests were registered by Mrs. George Sims.

Coronation Service

This week is Focus Week for Baptist Girl's Auxiliaries all over Southern Baptist territory. A coronation service on Sunday evening was the first in a series of events planned for the week in Rogersville.

The program opened with the singing of the GA hymn, "We've A Story To Tell To The Nation." Rev. Ralph Wilson read the scripture.

Miss Linda Ezell, who had done the required work to become a queen, was preceded by her court, maidens Jimmie Doris Dixon, Brenda South, Barbara Springer and Glenn Campbell, to the altar where she knelt to be crowned by Mrs. Hollis Kitchen of Valley Grove, Associational G. A. director.

Flower girls were Doris Ann and Caralee Wilson, crown-bearer, James Wilson.

Mrs. C. J. Pennington, Intermediate director and WMU president, presided with Mary Lou Waddell at the piano.

Immediately following the service refreshments were served in the basement.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Hollis Kitchen, Misses Betty Lackey and Tyler Isbell of Valley Grove, Tusculum; Mrs. Robert Earl Dean, Cullman, and Mrs. Flossie Gullett, Mrs. Emmett Camp and several G. A. girls from Bethel Church.

Home Demonstration Club Mrs. Odell Howard was the hostess when the North Rogersville Home Demonstration club met on Friday.

The devotional was given by the president, Mrs. Kelmer Weathers.

"Jams Without Cooking" was the subject for study and jams without cooking were made by Miss Farris Prickett, using frozen boysenberries.

Cumberland WMS Mrs. Walter Ingle and Mrs. Martha Jackson were hostesses to the Women's Missionary Society when it met in the home of Mrs. Ingle on Monday evening.

Mrs. J. R. Waddell presided over the program, "Pattern Of Things To Come In China," the devotional being given by Mrs. Buford Mitchum, who used thoughts in keeping with National Family Week.

"Opportunity, Goal, Native Church and An Adequate Ministry" were discussed by Mesdames Helen Waddell and Hubert Beddingfield.

In the business plans were made for attending the Assembly at East Lake Church in Birmingham in June.

A delightful refreshment was served by the hostesses.

Baptist WMS The Baptist ladies went to the home of Mrs. Coy Michael in Cross Roads for their program, "The Doors South," on Monday.

Sweeney-Weathers

A marriage of interest to this community was that of Miss Louie Sweeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sweeney, of Athens, and Julian Weathers, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weathers, formerly of Rogersville.

The vows were read by Rev. A. Terry in a simple but impressive double ring ceremony at the Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church near Athens on Wednesday, May 7, at 6 p. m. in the presence of immediate family members and friends.

After a honeymoon in Michigan they will make their home in Athens.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lockers and family of Florence were guests for the week-end with the Buford Mitchums.

In the Lanier Calvert home for a visit with their new grandson, Michael Perry, were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hayes of Holly Pond. Mrs. Hayes remained for a week.

In Heflin for the holiday week-end with relatives were the A. H. Overtons.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stutts of Florence and Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Ramsey and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weathers of Athens were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Waddell and Mrs. Etta Ramsey.

Mrs. Ramsey is visiting this week in the Stutts home.

Miss Hilda White Waddell of Atlanta is visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Waddell, for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McEmore and son of Nashville were guests on Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Farris Cooper.

More than 95 percent of vehicles involved in fatal accidents on U. S. highways in 1957 were in apparently good condition.

Come to Church for Services

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER—STAYS TOGETHER"

Love and marriage—one of the thresholds of life. Approaching it are the happy strides of youth. Beyond it, joy for some, sorrow for others.

And how long the world has searched for a formula that would test the quality of love . . . a standard that would assure happiness in marriage.

Until finally, with remarkable wisdom, we've begun to realize that it all depends on the individuals themselves.

But, of course, there are two individuals! How can we provide both with the qualities of character that will enrich their marriage?

The Church believes the answer lies in continuous religious training and wholesome boy and girl activities. With deep concern for the individual, the couple, and the community, it is building the character of America's youth . . . safeguarding for tomorrow as well as today the sanctity of marriage, home and family.

Have you a son or daughter? Have they a church?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Farmers May Sign For Cotton Test

Nearly All 1957 Crop
Officially Classed By Government Graders

A new record was made last year when 87 per cent of the cotton crop was classed under the Smith-Doxey Act for the 1957 crop. Cotton improvement associations are urged by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to file applications early this year for its free classing and market news service. This way, growers will be assured of getting their cotton officially classed soon after their crops have been ginned.

Cotton classed for members of improvement groups under the Smith-Doxey Act for the 1957 crop totaled nearly 9,500,000 bales, or about 87 per cent of the crop. This was the largest proportion classed since the service became available in 1938. Cotton classed in Alabama under this program totaled nearly 403,000 bales, or about 76 per cent of the state's crop.

As API Extension Agronomist Jasper Jernigan explained it, the Smith-Doxey program requires wholly new sign-ups each year. Groups of producers organized to promote the improvement of cotton are eligible, if they meet certain requirements, for the classing and market news services. The classing service enables farmers to know the exact grade and staple of their cotton, said the cotton expert.

Instructions and applications for grower groups will be available at county agents' offices and at cotton classing offices of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service at Birmingham and Montgomery May 15. Deadline date for filing applications in Alabama is Aug. 1, said Jernigan.

List 3 Materials For Good Gardens

Auburn Expert Advises
Weapons To Be Used
In Fighting Insects

Many Alabamians have a hobby of growing a row or two of vegetables or flowers. So they are probably well acquainted with insects—very unwelcome guests around home gardens.

While speaking in Auburn this week, API Extension Entomologist W. A. Ruffin explained his methods of controlling insect pests in his own garden.

"One thing I use and keep at home at all times," said Ruffin, "is Auburn-approved garden dust, a material containing one per cent rotenone and six per cent zinc. I spray my garden once a week with this chemical, primarily my turnip salad, beans, cabbages and tomatoes."

"A material which has recently come on the market, five per cent malathion dust, is relatively harmless to warm-blooded animals, in spite of the fact that it is one of the so-called phosphorus compounds. It will control aphids, lice and Mexican bean beetles, and is the only material I would advise the layman to use in dusting flowers or vegetables for control of red spiders. The material should be applied every three or four days until you get rid of the pests, and it can be used up until three days before harvest."

"Another material I keep at my house for use in the vegetable and flower garden is a dust containing 20 per cent toxaphene. This dust is commonly used over Alabama for controlling cotton insects. It is excellent for control of the Mexican bean beetle."

"I would say you definitely need these three materials—Auburn-approved garden dust, five per cent malathion, and 20 per cent toxaphene—for use in the vegetable and flower garden," Ruffin concluded.

Ten Word INTELLIGRAM

Check the correct word:

Mississippi Joins Compact On Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway

WATERWAY COMPACT SIGNED—Mississippi's Governor J. P. Coleman (left) signs act ratifying compact with Alabama to promote the Tennessee-Tombigbee canal in ceremonies at Columbus, Miss., last week. Lt. Governor Carroll Gartin of Mississippi (center) and Alabama's Governor James E. Folsom watch as Coleman affixes his signature to the compact.

Alabama and Mississippi are now joined in a compact to promote the construction of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway.

Alabama's Governor James E. Folsom flew to Columbus, Miss., to witness the signing by Governor John P. Coleman of the legislation which authorized Mississippi's participation in the compact and appropriated $80,000.00 as Mississippi's share in financing the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway Authority which will be created jointly by the two states. The Alabama legislature had already appropriated money for the purpose during the 1957 session.

The companion Senate and House bills were signed into law by Governor Coleman on May 2 in the historic First Christian Church of Columbus, which had served briefly as capitol of Mississippi during the War Between the States.

Governor Folsom stated that the opening of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Canal would be a great thing for Alabama and Mississippi and for the nation at large. He forecast that heavy barge traffic would move past Columbus on this proposed waterway which would connect the Ohio River, the Great Lakes and the Upper Mississippi with the Port of Mobile.

It was reported that preliminary estimates of the freight potential for the Tennessee-Tombigbee Canal totaled 70,000,000 tons of diversified freight. This is before screening by the Corps of Engineers, and the tonnage figure will be reduced as the Engineers eliminate those commodities which are considered unlikely to move on this waterway.

Governor Folsom told reporters that the people of Alabama had overwhelmingly endorsed a program of river development last December, including the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway. He expressed confidence that this new partnership of Alabama and Mississippi in this compact would get results and lead to the construction of the proposed canal.
