The Passing Parade

1884 - 1959
By HAROLD S. MAY

Our good friend, Emerson Lucas, calls our attention to the fact that it was just 75 years ago that Frank James, the notorious outlaw, and his gang robbed the paymaster at Lock Six, Muscle Shoals Canal, of $7,200 and on Feb. 16, 1884, was brought through Florence enroute to Huntsville for trial. (He was acquitted of the charge because the jurors were afraid to convict for fear of reprisals by his gang.) However, we want to make it plain that although The Herald was founded on or about that date three-quarters of a century ago that no part of the loot was used in getting this newspaper started. We might add that there is little doubt but that those dollars would have been helpful to the enterprise.

It's odd what a switch in the nature of comment being made today on the life and works of John Foster Dulles. Caustic remarks have changed to praise and much concern over his condition. But that's human nature—when a man's physical condition is such that he can't fight back, we have nothing but commendation for him. Yes, we always speak well of the "dead."

There's only two things to do with dirt, a well-informed woman tells us—either pass it over a bridge table or sweep it under a rug.

The other night a contestant on an audience participating TV show missed a simple question in geography. Our eight-year-old Cub Scout couldn't understand it. "Anyone in our third grade class could have answered that," was his remark. And yet the contestant received a silver dollar. How can children have an incentive to study when they see adults paid for missing a question that would be easy for them?

Has your wife ever told you that she was going across the street to visit a neighbor for a minute and then add: "Keep an eye on the stew and stir it every half hour!"

The fresh young bride was showing her pals all her wedding gifts. As she gushed over each and her visitors oh'd and ah'd as they looked them over, the bride remarked that the gifts she liked best were the personalized ones like towels and pillow cases embroidered HIS and HERS. "But the best personalized one of all," she explained, "was the gift sent by two of Tom's old Army buddies." And she held up an olive-drab blanket on which the letters US were stamped in the middle.

Late movies on TV are just like furniture—they're either early American or old English.

Sitting at home, having a quiet evening, were two spinster sisters. Suddenly one looked up from the paper she was reading and commented: "There's an article here telling of the death of a woman's third husband. She has had all three of them cremated." "Isn't that life for you?" said the other. "Some of us can't get a husband without others have husbands to burn."

Which reminds us of the two drunks visiting in New York. They passed an imposing building on which was a sign: "New York Crematory." Not being able to see too plainly, both were puzzled as to what type of institution it might be. One decided that the only way to find out was to enter the building and ask questions. He wobbled in on unsteady legs and saw a small group gathered around a glass urn as it rested atop a majestic table. He tottered over to the group, stuck his head between the shoulders of two of the mourners, and in a too loud voice asked: "What's cooking?"

Study Of Highway Costs Ordered By Englehardt

Britt Advises Estimates To Be Made As Soon As Weather Permits Survey

State Highway Director Sam Englehardt has requested a survey and estimate of costs of construction of proposed Alabama - Tennessee Scenic Highway.

A. L. Britt, state highway engineer in charge of the local office and director of highway and road construction in Lauderdale County, advises that District Engineer H. D. Burnham has passed on to him Mr. Englehardt's request and states that the survey will get underway as soon as weather conditions permit.

In a letter to President Berl Harrison of the Waterloo Lions Club, Mr. Englehardt expressed his deep interest in the proposed highway that would open up the western part of Lauderdale County to tourist travel and economic development and immediately directed that a rough estimate of costs of this highway be made. Officials of Hardin County, Tenn., have pledged that full cooperation will be given in building their portion of the highway that will link Waterloo and the north approach to the new Pickwick Landing Dam highway bridge that has been authorized.

Mr. Britt said that although the cost of the highway might be considered high, say from $80,000 to $100,000 per mile, that it can be made one of the most beautiful highways in the entire nation as it winds its way along a right-of-way that overlooks the Tennessee River at one of its most majestic sections. The owners of all privately owned property along the proposed right-of-way have been contacted by officials of the Lions Club and have offered to cooperate fully in this project.

A. D. Ray, Jr., chairman of the organization committee, advised today that a formal announcement of the organization meeting of the Alabama - Tennessee Scenic Highway Association scheduled at the Waterloo High School auditorium Thursday, March 5, at 7 p. m. will go forward within the next few days. Numerous leaders throughout the area will be invited to join with interested officials and residents of Hardin County to perfect the organization.

It is hoped, Mr. Ray said, that Mr. Englehardt can be present at this meeting and if his busy schedule permits he is expected to attend.

E. W. Givens Joins Real Estate Firm

Announcement was made this week by Valley Realty Company of the association of E. W. Givens with the firm. Mr. Givens, who has been a partner with Aaron Wilson since the company was formed last year, will now give full time to the business which specializes in real estate, mortgage loans and insurance. For the past 11 years Mr. Givens has been active in real estate in the Tri-Cities area and for the past three years has been managing a retail furniture and appliance store. He is a native of Lauderdale County and a graduate of Central High School. He served in the U. S. Navy during the Korean War.

He attended the Larimore Business College where he completed the Weaver real estate course. He has served for the past year as president of the Merchants Retail Credit Association. He is a member of the American Legion and U. S. Naval Reserve.

The Givens reside on Stewart Avenue.

Drama Consultant To Visit Campus

Mrs. Robert I. Schwartz To Work With Students Of Library Science

Mrs. Robert I. Schwartz, child drama consultant, will be on the FSC campus on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 24, 25, as the guest of the department of Library science. Mrs. Schwartz is to work with students in library science, speech, and elementary education, in areas of creative dramatics and interpretation of literature for children.

Mrs. Schwartz is a graduate of Mississippi State College for Women and has the M. A. degree from the University of Alabama. She has been a student at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, and in institutes throughout the country.

As library chairman of the Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers, Mrs. Schwartz visited Florence in the fall of 1958, on the occasion of the District P-T. A. Conference.

Mrs. Schwartz is currently serving as president of the Alabama Speech Association; Director-elect of Children's Theatre Conference, a division of American Education; Theatre Association; board member, Jefferson County Coordinating Council, Birmingham Children's Aid Society, Birmingham Junior Programs, and Citizens Army Advisory Committee. She is active in Girl Scouts of America, Alabama Society for Mental Health and the Junior League.

Hospital Board Expresses Its Appreciation

Medical Staff, Nurses, Administrator Pleased With Rules Reaction

The members of the Board of Governors of Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital today expressed their appreciation for the manner in which the public has accepted and observed the new hospital rules for visiting that went into effect last week-end. Many expressions of commendation from patients and members of the families came to R. C. Barnes, administrator, for the newly instituted regulations that would protect the patients and aid in their recovery, it is reported.

The new visiting regulations, made necessary by the current expansion program and the practice of visitors crowding the rooms and halls during visiting hours, are devised simply for the benefit of the patients who are the first concern of the hospital, the doctors and the entire hospital staff, it was pointed out. It is hoped by hospital officials that all patrons of the institution will appreciate the importance of this move and will give full cooperation. The new rules are:

1. Visiting will be limited to immediate members of the family.
2. One member of the immediate family or a designated friend will be permitted to stay at the bedside of a surgical patient immediately before the operation and for the first 24 hours following the operation.
3. Two members of the family will be permitted at the bedside of infants and children at all times.

4. Visitors will not be permitted to stand in the halls.
5. No children under age 14 can visit in the hospital at any time. This is for their protection.

6. Strict observance of the visiting hours: 2:00 p. m. to 4:00 p. m. and from 7:00 p. m. to 8:00 p. m. Except in the cases stated above, no one will be allowed at the bedside of patients at other hours. Since only two can visit at any one time, the visits shall be reserved for members of the family.

7. The hospital officials will give a current report of the patient's condition at all times. If members of the immediate family require more specific information, they are directed to contact their physician at his office.

Education Board Sets AEA Holidays

The Lauderdale County Board of Education in session Saturday morning designated Thursday and Friday, March 12-13, as holidays for the rural schools so that the principals and teachers might attend the Education Association in Birmingham. Classes will be resumed the following Monday, Allen Thornton, superintendent, announced.

Miss Bess Crow, who has been a member of the faculty at Lauderdale County High School for many years, was granted a leave of absence. Miss Crow was injured in a fall some months ago. Mrs. Martha W. Edmondson was employed to teach Miss Crow.

Mr. Thornton, who had just returned from attending the national conference of school administrators at Atlantic City, reported on that meeting.

Krushchev Blasts Prospects Of Ministers' Conference On Berlin

Head Of Elksdom To Visit Florence Lodge March 9

Horace R. Wisely On Eleven Day Swing Through Southeast

Horace R. Wisely of Salinas, Calif., Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will make an official visit to Florence Elks Lodge Monday Evening, March 9, Exalted Ruler G. Perry English announced today. From here Mr. Wisely will motor to Cullman to address a luncheon meeting of that city's Elks Lodge on Tuesday, March 10, and that evening he will deliver the principal speech at a banquet of the Birmingham Lodge. On an eleven day swing through the South, the national Elks' leader will also visit lodges in Georgia, South Carolina and Florida.

Mr. Wisely, 55 year old businessman and civic leader, has been an Elk since 1931, when he joined Salinas Lodge. For many years Mr. Wisely has devoted nearly as much time helping his fellowmen, through Elk service programs, as he has to his own business affairs.

A major achievement that led to his election to Elksdom's highest office was his work as head of the committee that organized the California Elks Association's mobile therapy program for rehabilitation of cerebral palsied children, and directed the program its first four years. A staff of 27 trained therapists, traveling in specially equipped station wagons, visit homes of cerebral palsied patients. They treat the patients and, at the same time, teach parents how to apply the techniques, so that training goes on between visits of the therapists. The plan proved successful in speeding up the process of rehabilitation, and today the program has a case load of nearly 800 children who are being retrained for a useful place in society.

Sen. E. B. Haltom Is Exchange Speaker

Review Of Happenings During Special Session Of Legislature Given

Senator E. B. Haltom, Jr., a member of the Exchange Club, addressed the members at Tuesday's meeting at Hotel Reeder on the recent special session of the Alabama State Legislature. President Frank Mosier presented the speaker.

Senator Haltom reviewed the more important measures that came before the special session noting that the $60,000,000 road bond issue asked by Governor John Patterson passed with little delay. These matching funds, financed by current gasoline taxes, will bring to the state slightly more than $500,000,000 in road building money during the next four years. Alabama's total contribution to this sum will be $100,000,000.

Governor Patterson and Highway Director Sam Englehardt have pledged that these funds will be distributed fairly throughout the 67 counties.

The speaker praised the manner in which the current administration has gotten started and credited Governor Patterson with the selection of many fine men for his cabinet and advisers. He said that the leadership in both the House and the Senate was excellent. (Continued on Page 2)

Censure Vote Follows Charges Of Corruption

Action Taken After Denial Made By Officials; Jury May Get Case

A land condemnation case said to involve "serious implications of corruption" may be presented to a Mobile Grand Jury. Bringing the charges on the House floor Thursday was a freshman legislator, Charles C. Trimmer of Mobile who said that persons in Governor Patterson's administration are involved in the case.

On Friday the House voted a resolution of censure of Trimmer after Rep. Joseph M. Hocklander of Mobile read statements of denial by various county officials named by Trimmer. However Circuit Solicitor Carl M. Booth told newsmen that "it is the duty of the grand jury to investigate any situation where there is any reason to believe laws have been violated."

"In this case," Booth continued, "statements have been made that law violations may have occurred. Whether any violation actually did occur is a matter for the Grand Jury to determine." "Therefore, unless it is shown in the meantime that the allegations have no factual basis, it is my duty as circuit solicitor to call the matter to the attention of the grand jury."

The grand jury is scheduled to be called on April 7 to be empaneled.

The case in question involves land in West Mobile owned by E. E. Delaney, Mobile businessman who is constructing a shopping center. Trimmer contends that Delaney bought the land several years ago for $65,000. Acting for the state the Mobile County Revenue Board sought an easement from Delaney to permit dumping dirt and muck from an adjacent highway project. Delaney asked $250,000 damages for the dumping while it is said the Mobile Probate Court appraisal commissioners awarded him $1, which Delaney said he would appeal.

National 4-H Club Week Observed In Lauderdale

Recognition To Be Paid Alumni Throughout The Country Next Week

Late News

Two new bills were signed into law Tuesday by Governor John Patterson. One allows voter registration officials to throw away old records to keep civil rights agents from getting access to them; the other makes it unlawful to serve legal papers on house and senate members during a session of the legislature.

The American Bar Association Tuesday accused the U. S. Supreme Court of going easy on Communists and called on Congress to enact tougher legislation to deal with the situation. A 50-page resolution prepared by the ABA's special committee on Communist tactics and strategy, said the Supreme Court had weakened the nation's security by its rulings on 24 cases involving accused Communists or anti-subversive legislation. The resignation of Chief Justice Earl Warren from the ABA was reported Friday by the organization. No reason was given for Warren's resignation.

President Eisenhower at a news conference Wednesday struck back at critics of his defense program. The President fensed needs that the individual military service leaders. It was clear that he was aiming his remarks at Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and others who contend the United States defense program will permit this country to fall behind Russia in the production of intercontinental missiles.

Some of Texas' most prominent institutions of learning, including denominational Southern Methodist University, were accused Tuesday of teaching atheism. A group of four state representatives, which made the accusations, hinted at a legislative probe as church and education leaders denied or questioned the charges of godlessness.

The 15-year-old son of former Dodger catcher Roy Campanella and 17 others were arrested yesterday after a gang fight. David Campanella was charged with juvenile delinquency. Police said he was a leader of a gang called "The Chaplains," who challenged another gang to a fight over "rights" to hang around a bowling alley in Flushing, Queens, a New York suburb.

Ernest W. Schaw and Fitz L. Sargeant of Reynolds Metals Company, general managers of the southeastern and south central sales regions respectively, have been elected vice-presidents of Reynolds Aluminum Sales Company.

World Shocked By Soviet's Blunt Attack On West

More talks were being held Wednesday between Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev with the British diplomat in a mood for straight talking to determine whether his mission to Moscow has a chance of succeeding.

The 65-year-old veteran British diplomat was shocked by Khrushchev's caustic remarks during a cocktail party at the British Embassy Tuesday night, when the Soviet leader brushed aside as obsolete a Western proposal of a foreign ministers' conference on Germany.

Doubts Are Raised
The United States and Britain, commenting on Khrushchev's outburst said the Premier's action raised the gravest doubts whether an agreement could ever be reached to ban nuclear weapon tests. Khrushchev made his attack on the West during a political rally in the Kremlin while Macmillan was out of Moscow visiting an atomic research station at Dubna on the Volga River.

While he disposed of the possibility of a meeting over the Berlin crisis, the Soviet leader again advocated a summit meeting and offered Britain a non-aggression pact. He insisted that German reunification was a matter for the East and West German governments to decide and not the Western powers.

Macmillan Shocked
Macmillan, a trained diplomat was taken back at the Russian's blunt approach to the problems under discussion. "It set us back on our heels after days of backslapping," one British embassy official commented.

Macmillan emphasized six days ago that he had not come to Moscow to negotiate any treaties.

In Washington, U. S. officials were inclined to regard Khrushchev's speech as a political maneuver which did not slam the door on an eventual foreign ministers' conference on Germany.

Wright, Abroms Cancer Chairmen

Annual Fund Drive In Florence Scheduled For Month Of April

B. B. Wright and Adolph Abroms, both of Florence, have been named Lauderdale County chairmen and co-chairmen respectively of the American Cancer Society's 1959 crusade in April.

The annual campaign, held in April as "Cancer Control Month," raises funds for support of the ACS three-point program of education, research and service for the control of cancer. It also alerts the public to the cancer problem and cancer's danger signals.

Wright, who resides with his family at 2274 Norwood Blvd., is district manager for the Mutual Savings Life Insurance Co., Decatur. He has been associated with the company for the past 15 years as agent, superintendent, and field supervisor.

He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Elks Club, and the Church of Christ.

Abroms, a native of Mississippi, has made his home in Florence since boyhood. Attending public schools, he is a graduate of the Florence Military Academy. He attended Florence State College, Vanderbilt University and the University of Alabama.

Active in the leadership of the Boy Scouts of America, Abroms has served as president of the Florence Retail Merchants Association and as a member of the Chamber of Commerce. He belongs to the Florence - Lauderdale Post No. 1, American Legion.

Abroms is owner and manager of a women's apparel store and resides with his family at 412 River-view Circle.

Leaders Of The Future

Any boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 21 may join a 4-H Club. The emblem is the four-leaf clover, the four H's standing for Head, Heart, Hands and Health. It started fifty years ago in Alabama and was first known as the Boys Corn Club. Today, after a half-century of progress, 4-H Club work is a going organization in the 49 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. In that time it has helped develop nearly 20,000,000 boys and girls into useful citizens and leaders.

What are the 4-H clubs actually and what do they do? The answer is they are groups of principally rural young people who do many things through organized effort. They carry on a wide variety of activities such as farming, home-making, raising livestock and poultry, gardening, conserving soil and sewing, cooking, canning, forestry, etc.

The program is part of the national educational system of cooperative extension work in which the United States Department of Agriculture, the State land-grant colleges and counties share. The Federal Extension Service and the Dept. of Agriculture give national guidance and leadership, the State extension services state leadership.

Ten "guideposts" are used by cooperative extension workers and volunteer leaders to aid 4-H members in analyzing their situations, needs, and interests. These point the way to building programs that will prepare the young people for better living—physically, mentally, and spiritually:

1. Develop talents for greater usefulness.
2. Join with friends for work, fun, and fellowship.
3. Learn to live in a changing world.
4. Choose a way to earn a living.
5. Produce food and fiber for home and market.
6. Create better homes for better living.
7. Conserve nature's resources for security and happiness.
8. Build health for a strong America.
9. Share responsibilities for community improvement.
10. Serve as citizens in maintaining world peace.

There could certainly be no greater goal than living up to the 4-H Guideposts.

This newspaper salutes the members and alumni of the 4-H Clubs of Lauderdale County.

Acreage 'Leasing' Should Help

Under the cotton leasing acreage bill that is being vigorously supported by southern leaders both in and out of Congress, a farmer no longer able to farm could "lease" his abandoned cotton acreage to another farmer in the same county to be planted in cotton on the second farmer's own farm.

This disposal of idle acreage might boost Alabama's cotton crop by some 70,000 bales, according to a survey conducted by the Alabama Extension Service. The same survey shows that about 100,000 acres of Alabama's 1959 cotton allotment might be abandoned unless a cotton acreage transfer plan were put into effect this year. Alabama's 1959 allotment amounts to 985,191 acres.

The bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Sparkman has the active support of Governors Talmadge and Patterson. In commenting on the bill Sparkman said:

"We certainly ought to be able to dispose of our surpluses, when we consider the fact that perhaps three-quarters of the world is in short supply of the commodities we have in surplus supply."

Certainly something should be done to recover this acreage loss and the bills now pending in the Congress should have every consideration.

Exit Dave Beck

The Dave Beck trial and subsequent conviction on income tax evasion brings back memories of the Al Capone fiasco when the Chicago gangster's lawyers were able to circumvent convictions through the courts for every crime in the book except income tax evasion. It was the long arm of the U. S. Treasury Department that finally put this colorful public enemy behind bars.

And so Dave Beck, because he decided to cheat the government out of $240,000 in Federal income taxes, faces a prison sentence that could run five years and fines of $10,000 on each of six counts. Indeed this is small punishment for Dave Beck as an individual but it should serve as a warning that, while one might steal $300,000 of a union's funds, and get away with it by such tactics as hiding behind the Fifth Amendment, you cannot steal $240,000 from money-conscious Uncle Sam.

Moore Attends Credit Conference

L. Cris Moore, vice president of The First National Bank of Florence and manager of its North Florence Branch, has returned from the Agricultural Credit Conference of the Alabama Bankers Association.

This was the sixth such annual conference sponsored by the Association in cooperation with the Agriculture School at Auburn and the State Extension Service to keep the state bankers abreast of current agricultural problems and to foster sound financing for the local farm program.

Speakers included farmers, bankers and agricultural educators. The program covered not only items of finance, but also phases of agriculture essential to a good economy, such as crops, soil, fertility and forest products.

Machines have greatly affected dairy farm efficiency. With 80 percent of the operation mechanized on a typical dairy farm, one man can tend 40 milking cows. In Russia, with only the milking mechanized, one woman cares for about 12 animals.

In The Week's News

Negroes Denied Transfer

Seven Negroes were denied a transfer to white schools in Birmingham by Dr. L. Frazier Banks, superintendent of education. Parent of the children were notified by letter of the superintendent's decision. Under Alabama's placement law the parents may appeal to the Birmingham Board of Education.

Cyprus Becomes Republic

Britain has signed away her key Mediterranean colony on the island of Cyprus in a five-sided agreement reached last Thursday making the strife-torn island an independent republic. The agreement was initiated by Britain, Turkey and Greece, the three nations concerned in the crisis. The agreement ended a four-year long armed struggle which claimed hundreds of lives and increased tension in the Middle East.

Birmingham Officials Acquitted

The federal grand jury last week cleared Birmingham Commissioner Eugene Connor, Police Capt. G. L. Pattie and Lt. J. R. Davis of violating the civil rights of three Negro ministers last fall. The inquiry into the arrest of the three Negroes had been ordered by U. S. Attorney General William P. Rogers who stated at the time he thought it would be difficult to get indictments.

Warren Resigns From ABA

The American Bar Association Friday accepted the resignation of Earl Warren, chief justice of the U. S. Supreme Court. No reason was given for Warren's resignation.

Dulles Given X-Ray Treatment

John Foster Dulles began last Friday the second fight of his life against cancer. He took the first of a series of treatments under a million volt X-ray machine at Walter Reed Army Hospital. The treatments probably will continue daily, except Sunday, for three or four weeks. By the end of that period his doctors may be able to determine whether Dulles can return to active duty as Secretary of State.

Rioting Breaks Out In Lebanon

Pro-Nasser crowds battered and burned five street cars in downtown Beirut Sunday in an outburst of rioting that climaxed the city's celebration of the United Arab Republic's first anniversary. It was the first incident to mar the U.A.R. anniversary celebrations in Lebanon and the first major outburst in Beirut since the nation's civil strife ended last Autumn.

Tidelands Action Delayed

The Supreme Court Tuesday delayed action on the Gulf Coast tidelands oil dispute until next term. It set Oct. 12 as the date for arguments on the controversial case to begin. The government is seeking state ownership of the oil-rich under-seas area in the Gulf of Mexico confined to a 3-mile belt around the coastline. States want at least 10 1/2 miles out to sea. States involved are Louisiana, Texas, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi.

Strikers Battle Police In Pittsburgh

In a battle with Pittsburgh police 26 Allis Chalmers strikers were jailed Monday. Two policemen were treated for cuts and bruises and a picket treated for a back injury. More than 13,000 UAW members have been on strike at the eight Allis Chalmers plants since Feb. 2. Picket trouble began when strikers stopped a shifting locomotive from moving flatcars into the plant's warehouse.

Scout Exposition Will Be Held At Fairgrounds

Two-Day Event In April To Present All Phases Of Scouting By Members

The Boy Scouts of America, Muscle Shoals District, announces the plans for a Boy Scout Exposition, April 17-18, at the North Alabama Fair Grounds, sponsored by the Jaycees of Florence.

Heading the exposition as general chairman is Harold Carrico assisted by the following committee chairman:

John Smith, participation; Bill Buffalo, finance; Leon Edmons, attendance and ticket sales; Charles Langdon, publicity; Bill Elliott, physical arrangements; Ray Harris, program and staging. All other members of the Jaycees will serve on the above committees.

This will be the first time that an event of this nature has been held in this area. This will be a big fair type show of scouting in the unit. There will be over fifty Scout Troop, Pack, and Explorer Post with action exhibit. All of these will be in progress at the same time and will offer the public one of the most unusual shows ever to be held in this area.

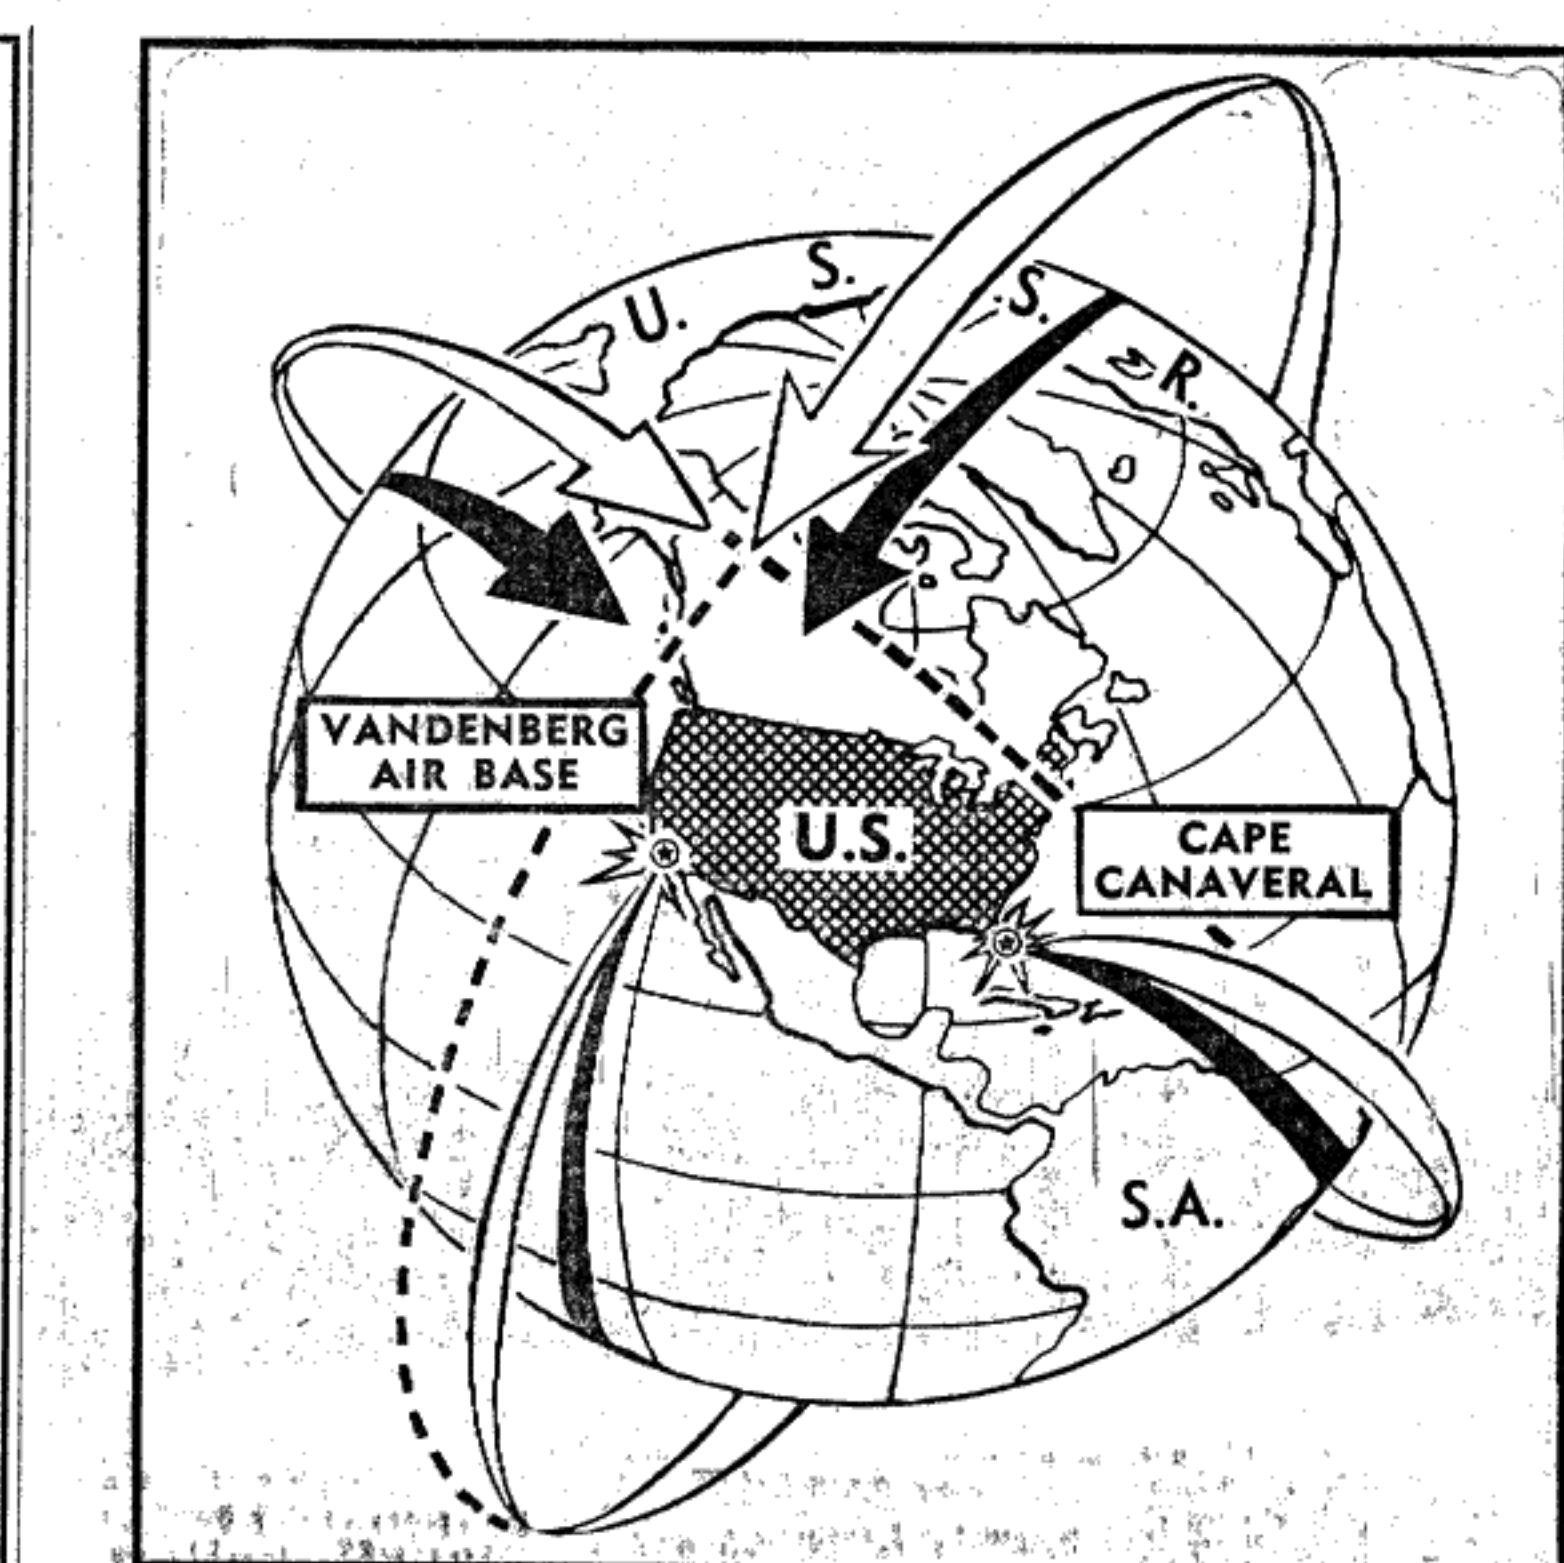

The purpose of this exposition is to provide the public an opportunity to see Scouting in Action, and to provide them with a better interpretation and understanding of the Scouting program. It will also provide the Scouts an opportunity to display their Scouting Skills, and special interest.

The Exposition will also give the Scout Unit the opportunity to earn money for their unit, since this is an admission type event. The Unit will get a commission on their total ticket sales. The balance of the net profit will go toward the purchase of new equipment for Westmoreland Scout Reservation. Admission will be 50c for students, $1.00 for adults, pre-school age children will be admitted free. Tickets will go on sale the first of March, and will be sold by the Scouts.

In addition to the cash commission that each unit will receive for their gross ticket sales, the Scouts will have an opportunity to earn over $200.00 in prizes for themselves. Of the 52 available booths, twenty two scout units have already reserved booths and are now working on their exhibits. A few of the many live exhibits to be seen at the Exposition include Indian dancing, photography, astronomy, beekeeping, pioneering, signaling, camping, puppets, motor mechanics, outboard motor mechanic, ham radio, weather study, wild life management, sea scouting, emergency service, cooking, nature, woodwork, circus, etc. It should be pointed out that these will be live demonstrations, and the public will have an opportunity

CLOTHING NEEDED BY SALVATION ARMY

Shoes and clothing of all kinds are needed badly by the Salvation Army, it was announced Wednesday by Lt. Wesley Mott. If those having usable items of clothing will call AT 2-4432 same will be picked up on Saturday mornings and Tuesday afternoons, Lt. Mott said.

UNCLE SAM ROCKETS AHEAD IN SPACE AGE—Coming up: from Cape Canaveral, Uncle Sam's pioneer rocket and missile base, another attempt to orbit the moon, and continued tests of intercontinental-type ballistic missiles on the long, overwater range. From Vandenberg Air Force Base, new, West Coast missile-space facility: launchings of test vehicles for "Project Discoverer." It will pave the way for recently announced "Project Mercury," the program to put a man-carrying satellite in orbit around the earth. Target date is two or more years away. Newsmap, above, shows general directions toward which satellite launchings take place from both bases. Vandenberg launchings of satellite vehicles would be over polar regions. Satellites would pass over portions of the earth not covered by Cape Canaveral launchings, which encompass a broad band north and south of the earth's equator.

BPW Clubs Hear Miss Blalock

Teller At First National Bank Gives Financial Report Of Pratt Fund

Miss Julia Blalock, president of Florence Business and Professional Women's Club and savings teller at The First National Bank of Florence, recently gave a financial report of the Pratt Fund to the winter board meeting of the Alabama Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club in Bessemer. Miss Blalock is trustee of the fund and Miss Mary Richardson, paying and receiving teller, at the First National Bank of Florence, is its treasurer. Both are state officers.

The John J. Pratt Memorial Scholarship Fund was set up at the Alabama State Convention of the BPW Clubs in 1921 as a memorial to Mr. Pratt, inventor of the typewriter. The fund was set up by $1.00 contributions from club members that had benefited from the use of the typewriter. Other gifts for this fund were six business college scholarships and a Hammond typewriter donated by the Hammond Typewriter Company of New York, who took over the Pratt machine. Now 25c of the dues from each club member goes into this fund.

The rules governing the granting of loans have been modified from time to time. Now the state elects one Pratt trustee and one Pratt treasurer, applications to be made through a federated B & PW club, which investigates the applicant and holds itself responsible for collecting the payments on the loans, which is secured by notes with endorsements. Most loans are made to persons preparing for business careers, teachers, and a few to college students.

Allen Participates In College Panel

Dean Turner W. Allen of Florence State has returned from Auburn where, with representatives from other colleges in the state, he participated in a panel discussion at a conference sponsored by the School of Engineering.

The purpose of this conference was to exchange ideas about mutual problems between the professional engineering school and those colleges providing one or more years of basic engineering preparation. Also participating were W. E. Glenn, Birmingham—Southern registrar, and two API faculty members, Fred H. Humphrey, dean of Engineering, Norman A. Britton, professor of English, and Joshua E. Hannum, director of Engineering.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Willie Ricketts Butler; three sons, Buford, Bill and Bobby, all of Florence; three brothers, Hewitt and Rufus of Florence, and William Troy Butler, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Funeral services for James Buford Butler, 58, of 514 Florida Avenue, Florence, were held at Brown Service Chapel Saturday at 2 p. m. with Rev. L. E. Kelley, pastor, Highland Baptist Church, officiating and interment in Tricities Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Butler died at ECM Hospital Thursday at 4:30 p. m. following an extended illness. A native of Lauderdale County, in the Pruitt community, he had lived in Florence for about 23 years. He had been employed by the L and N Railroad company for about 16 years in the maintenance department.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Willie Ricketts Butler; three sons, Buford, Bill and Bobby, all of Florence; three brothers, Hewitt and Rufus of Florence, and William Troy Butler, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Speaking in Washington Wednesday in behalf of the cotton acreage leasing bill were Rep. Bob Gilchrist of Morgan county, chairman of Alabama's Cotton Hardship Committee; Lt. Gov. Albert Boutwell, Sen. Walter Glynn and Ed Maudlin of Leighton. The view in Washington is said to be that the bill will ultimately be approved but prospects for passage in time for this season's planting are not good.

Gov. John Patterson wants the U. S. Congress to enact legislation benefiting the small cotton farmer in Alabama.

The governor has endorsed a bill providing for the transfer of cotton acreage allotments between farmers in the same county. This would make it possible for each county to plant its entire cotton quota each year.

Gov. Patterson announced he planned to go to Washington, D.C. if his schedule at the time will possibly permit—to testify in favor of the cotton legislation. It is now pending before House and Senate Agriculture Committees, which are expected to hold hearings shortly.

This legislation will bring more flexibility into the cotton acreage control program for Alabama," the governor said.

The legislation is known as the cotton acreage leasing bill. Under the bill, a farmer no longer able to farm could "lease" his abandoned cotton acreage to another farmer in the same county to be planted in cotton on the second farmer's own farm. The bill was introduced in the Senate by Sen. John Sparkman.

Gov. Patterson said the bill might boost the 1959 crop by as much as 70,000 bales.

He cited a recent statewide survey conducted by the Alabama Extension Service which indicated that about 100,000 acres of Alabama's 1959 cotton allotment might be abandoned unless a cotton acreage transfer plan were put into effect this year. Alabama's 1959 allotment amounts to 985,191 acres.

A decade ago, Alabama farmers realized $185 million from their 1948 cotton crop. In 1959, the value of the cotton crop was only $76 million although state farmers received $30 million from having placed 470,000 acres of cotton allotment in the Acreage Reserve.

Alabama farmers planted 1,925,000 acres of cotton in 1948—or almost one million more acres than the 1959 allotment.

Gov. Patterson has called on Alabama's congressmen and senators in Washington to push the cotton acreage transfer program.

The governor pointed out to the congressional delegation that while the nation as a whole has a 1959 cotton allotment amounting to 75.7 per cent of its 1950 allotment, Alabama has been assigned only 60.8 per cent of its 1950 allotment for 1959.

Senator Haltom reviewed a number of other measures before the Legislature as well as commenting briefly on interesting happenings during the special session concluding his remarks with a pledge of all-out efforts for the best interests of the two counties of Lauderdale and Limestone as their citizens.

Guest of the club included E. D. Kitchens, Harry White and Bill Jackson.

Rogers FFA-FHA Hold Banquet Meet

Splendid Program Marks Annual Event In School Cafeteria Monday Night

Annual observance of FFA-FHA Week by the Rogers High School chapters was a jointly sponsored event Monday night in honor of the parents of the members. More than 200 gathered in the school cafeteria at Greenhill for a splendid meal and an interesting program.

Presided over by FFA Chapter President Pat Ligon and FHA Chapter President Doris Jenkins, program of music and skits as well as the presentation of honors to a number of members featured the occasion.

A skit featuring Myron Crunk, Judy Mealy, Kenneth Smith and Judy Spears gave an impressive listing of the purposes, aims and activities of the local FFA-FHA chapters while a quartet composed of Myron Crunk, Ralph Cabler, Kenneth Smith and H. L. Gresham delighted the large audience with a number of selections of varied nature.

A trio, composed of Marie Gray, Sandra Goins and Glenda Liles sang an original composition that added much to the evening's entertainment.

As one feature, Nancy Clemmons was crowned as the local chapter's FFA sweetheart, while Edgar Ray Behel captured the honor of FFA's beau. By a vote of the members of the FFA chapter, Judy Cabler was crowned Miss FFA, an honor that apparently was a complete surprise to her.

Leonard Johnson, vice-president and manager of the Florence branch, State National Bank, representing the banks of Florence and the county, presented checks to the winners in the FFA chapter corn growing contest for the best yields. The winners and prizes were: First, Eugene Garmon, $12.50; and second, Rudolph Williams, $7.50.

Mrs. Dock Springer was honored with honorary membership in the FFA chapter and other ceremonies by the officers of the chapter awarded emblems to new members.

A. A. Thorne is vocational agriculture teacher at Rogers High and FFA adviser and Mrs. Marie Myrick is home ec. teacher and FFA adviser.

A Proclamation

By The Governing Bodies Of Lauderdale County And The City Of Florence

Whereas, the 131,085 Alabama 4-H Club boys and girls have made excellent contribution to the state's agriculture by pioneering in those farm and home practices that now are accepted methods on practically every farm; and

Whereas, this leadership in better agriculture and homemaking has been developed through work done by 4-H Club members in crop and livestock production and home economics under the direction of county Extension Service workers and local adult leaders in 3,062 communities in Alabama and based on scientific information developed by the Alabama Experiment Station system and carried to all farm people by the A. P. I. Extension Service; and

Whereas, the 4-H Club representatives are members of the Extension County Council, composed of farm and business leaders, and thereby are important in the planning of farm and home programs designed to further advance living on Alabama farms; and

Whereas, the County and all of its citizens are indebted for the fine service performed in the past and now being performed by 4-H Club members;

Now, therefore, we, the Governing Body of Lauderdale County, and The City of Florence do hereby designate the period of February 25 through March 7 as National 4-H Club Week when all citizens may be especially appreciative of the 4-H Club members, their parents, and their leaders.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands in the City of Florence, Lauderdale County, Alabama, on this the 26 day of February, 1959.

Bank Official Talks On Loans

Mrs. Lutie Mae Dzial, assistant cashier and head of the Installment Loan Department of The First National Bank of Florence, recently returned from the mid-winter meeting of the Installment Credit committee of the Alabama Bankers Association at Point Clear. Mrs. Dzial has served as a member of this committee for three years.

The Installment Loan committee is maintained by the state association as a part of its program of continuing education for bankers and serves as a clearing house for the exchange of ideas in the development of this phase of banking.

Mrs. Dzial spoke to the group on the subject of "Title One FHA and Property Improvement Loans." Automobile financing and other matters relating to the installment credit field were also discussed by outstanding bankers from Alabama and several other states.

Betty Lou Statom Bride

Earl Cherry Harrison, Jr.
The altar of Jackson Heights Church of Christ was aglow with myriad candles for the half past four o'clock ceremony on Saturday afternoon, February twenty-first, which marked nuptial vows for Betty Lou Statom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Charles Statom, and Earl Cherry Harrison, Jr., all of Florence.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cherry Harrison of Savannah Road.

Byron Davis, minister of Mars Hill Church of Christ, heard their pledges before an arch entwined with greenery and flanked by basket arrangements of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and pink and white carnations.

Vocal selections were presented by Miss Bonnie Wilkes, Miss Rita Graben, Robert Simmons and Linville Hanback.

Mr. Statom gave his daughter in marriage. Her waltz-length dress of Chantilly lace was fashioned over white satin and designed with fitted bodice and cloud - full skirt and detailed with long and tapering sleeves and scalloped neck and hemline. A bandeau of pearl florets held her shoulder-length veil of illusion and her necklace was single pearl on a golden chain. Lovers knots in satin streamers cascaded from the bouquet of white carnations and chrysanthemums carried with her white Bible.

Attendants were Mrs. William Gamble, matron of honor; Miss Ethel Harrison, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Pat Womble, bridesmaids; Miss Deborah Statom and Miss Sarah Jaynes, junior bridesmaids; and Sheila Statom, cousin of the bride, and Darlene Dupree, cousin of the bridegroom, flower girls. Their frocks, designed along princess lines, were fashioned of pale pink and blue velvet with overskirts of matching crystalet and tulle. Matching headbands and bouquets of pompons complemented their attire.

Serving as best man for his brother was William Neal Harrison and ushers were William Gamble, Glendon Jackson, London Jackson and Ralph Statom, brother of the bride. Candelights were Gerald Statom, also a brother of the bride, and Jack Harrison, brother of the bridegroom.

Jeffrey Statom, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were reception hosts at their home on North Wood Avenue. Veiled in white net over pink satin and centered with an arrangement of pink and blue carnations, the bride's table was lighted by white tapers in silver candelabra.

Assisting with the courtesies were Mrs. Earl Wilkes, Mrs. William Jaynes, Mrs. George Fogleman, Miss Rose Marie Vaughn, Miss Elaine Womble and Miss Joy Westmoreland.

Before leaving for their honeymoon, Mrs. Harrison changed to a jacketed sheath dress of toast linen with which she wore black accessories and, at her shoulder, carnations from her bouquet.

Returning today, they will be at home at 11-B Martin Apartments.

Miss Ann Carol Wade

Will Wed L. George

Heralding the forthcoming wedding of their daughter, Ann Carol, is the announcement which has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Wade of Hamilton, Alabama. Her fiancé is Alexander Larimore George, lieutenant, United States Army, son of Mrs. Alexander Larimore George, Sr., of Florence and the late Mr. George.

The bride - elect is the maternal granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Bishop of Hamilton and her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wade of Little Rock, Arkansas.

The bridegroom - elect is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. George of Florence and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Whitfield of Birmingham.

Miss Wade will be graduated from Florence State College with a BA degree in early Spring. Lt. George, who was graduated from Florence State and is a member of Kappa Mu Epsilon fraternity, is presently stationed at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma.

March twenty - eighth has been chosen as their wedding day.

Current Events Club

Meets At Country Club

During the business period at Current Events Club meeting on Thursday, February 19, the club's annual project of handling blind-made articles was discussed by the project chairman, Mrs. B. V. Bender, and plans were completed.

An entertaining program was given by Mrs. Hoyt Brock who chose for reviewing "The Great E. B." by Herman Kogan, whose story of Encyclopaedia Britannica begins with its first edition in 1771, and traces its subsequent purchase by Sears, Roebuck and Company and their eventual presentation of it, with all publication rights, to its present owner, the University of Chicago. Highlights from each of the fourteen editions added delightful interest.

Mrs. W. T. Musgrove was hostess at Florence Golf and Country Club. A salad course was served in the lounge to conclude the meeting.

Mrs. W. J. Calloway and Mrs. R. T. Simpson left Tuesday for Birmingham where they will visit their daughters, Mrs. David Donald and Mrs. Kenneth Daniel, and their families.

Daley-Bedingfield

At 4:00 p. m. on Saturday Miss Frances Rebecca Bedingfield, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Henry Bedingfield of Rogersville, became the bride of Joe Hansel Daley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Daley of Athens.

Rev. George Eady, pastor, officiated at the double - ring ceremony at the Methodist Church before an altar arranged with baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli flanked on either side by white tapers burning in branched candelabra entwined with ivy and white carnations.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Joyce Geddens, Childersburg, and Mark Roberson, Lexington.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned along princesslines, featuring a low V-neck with long sleeves, tapered to points at the hands, and a fingertip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of flowers.

She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations from which streamers tied in loveknots fell.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Patricia Ann Bedingfield; her maid of honor, in pink; Miss Peggy Daley of Athens, the groom's sister, and Miss Martha Howell, both in yellow. They wore waltz length frocks of taffeta featuring long necks, short sleeves and a cumberbund with very full skirts and carried a single long stemmed white rose. A matching headband completed their costumes.

Pamela White, a cousin of the bride, and Joan Gail Bedingfield, the bride's sister, wearing short blue taffeta dresses which featured a scalloped over-skirt with a rosebud in each scallop and a low round neck with collar, lighted the candles.

Rickey Hannah was ring bearer.

Ushers were John Daley of Athens, and Claude Aycock of Decatur.

B. L. Powers, a brother-in-law of Athens, served as best man.

The mothers of both the bride and the groom chose navy suits with pink accessories and carnations in corsage for the wedding. Before leaving for a southern wedding trip the lovely bride changed to a mint green suit with which she wore a white hat with black accessories and a white corsage.

Out - of - town guests were: Mrs. J. M. Geddens, Childersburg; Penny Spry, Linda Cobb and Mrs. J. W. Skipworth, Florence; Mrs. B. L. Powers and Miss Fay Chapman, Athens; Mrs. Delton Newton, Sheffield; Mrs. Joe Elliot, Decatur and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sylvester, Pulaski.

Week-end visitors in the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Conway Graden, Crest Street, were Mrs. Maurice Martin and children, Margaret Nell and Billy, of Clarksville, Tenn.

Mrs. Floyd Hill has returned from Melbourne, Fla., where she was a guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. W. R. Arthur, Mr. Arthur, and young David.

Mrs. Wm. J. Bryan visited briefly during the past week with her daughter, Mrs. D. T. Bryant, and family, in Birmingham.

Recent Bride

Is Party Feted

Delightful and informal was the courtesy extended by Miss Mary Brown Hassell to Mrs. James Foster (Glenda Davis), a recent bride.

Invitations to luncheon on Saturday at "Point Pleasant," lakeside home of the Hassells, were issued to a group of the honoree's friends including Betty Lynne Miller, Connie Davis, Donna Waite, Alice Coleman, Dianne Johnson, Carol Patton, Dottie Fisher, Susan Smith, Linda Bailey, Letha Smith, Dee Cunningham, Gail Gilbert, Barbara Williams, Pamela Bull and Nancy Berry.

Garden Clubs In

Homes Of Members

Mrs. Howard Hickman, president, presided during the February meeting of Edgemont Garden Club which took place in the home of Mrs. Velma Darby, with several items of business coming before the group.

Mrs. Curtis Baisden and Mrs. William Mahan were appointed in charge of a committee to make favors for the Easter trays at Mitchell-Hollingsworth Hospital; it was voted that arrangements would be entered in the May Flower Show and that the proceeds of a benefit bridge party which is being planned for April will go to aid retarded children. Mrs. Baisden and Mrs. Charles Anderson were appointed on these committees.

Mrs. J. W. Beasley assisted the hostess during the refreshment hour.

Hostess to the Wednesday, February 18th, meeting of Florence Garden Club, Mrs. I. N. Pitts also gave a portion of the program. Speaking on proper lighting for house plants, she demonstrated as she talked and gave advice about watering and feeding.

Mrs. Pitts' remarks were preceded by reports brought by Mrs. John McSwain from the State Garden School in Tuscaloosa. Tips on pruning and landscaping were also interestingly given.

Mrs. Charles Van Bibber presided during the business period when plans were made for the daffodil show in April and for the Federation Spring Show, "Enchanted Visions," on May 8-9. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Otto Kerr, 438 North Walnut.

A tea hour concluded the meeting.

Mrs. Potts Honored

With Tea Shower

A courtesy to Mrs. Don Potts, a recent bride, was the shower hosted by Mrs. Granville Whitten and Mrs. Willie Presley in the Whitten home at 423 Victoria Street.

Mrs. Potts and her mother, Mrs. Roy Sutton, welcomed guests informally with her husband's mother and grandmother, Mrs. William Potts and Mrs. J. W. West.

Valentine decorations were used throughout the party rooms and the tea-table, spread with white lace, was centered with an arrangement of red and white gladioli.

Mrs. Cranston Faulkner assisted in serving the forty - eight guests included on the invitation list.

Mrs. McIntosh Is

Hypatian Reviewer

Mrs. George Morris welcomed members of Hypatian Club to her home in Village One, Sheffield, on last Thursday afternoon and invited Mrs. Stewart Harvey as an additional guest.

For the program, Mrs. James McIntosh retold "The Cherokee Story," by John Parrish, adding a colorful description of the pageant, "Unto These Hills," which depicts the Indian story each Summer to thousands of North Carolina tourists.

Following the program, refreshments were served to the seventeen guests who were present.

Pierians Hear

Guest Speaker

Mrs. W. J. Bryan gave members of Pierian Study Club a preview of Spring when she was hostess to the February meeting at her home on Park Lane, using a profusion of jasmine and pussy willows throughout the reception rooms. Cohostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Hewlett Jackson and Mrs. E. B. Brunning.

Mrs. Ralph Dasher, vice-president, presided during a brief business period after which Miss Fannie Schmidt, introduced by Mrs. Louise Yates, gave a review of "The Edge of Darkness" by Mary Ellen Chase. Marked by philosophy and setting, characterization and beautiful style, the author presents reflections on the life of an elderly New Englander who is approaching "the edge."

Twenty guests enjoyed the program and the refreshment hour which followed.

Mrs. Maness Gives

The Life Of Kagawa

Mrs. W. F. McFarland was hostess to the February meeting of Twentieth Century Club on Tuesday afternoon, entertaining in her apartment at Keller Hall.

For the program, Mrs. George Maness delighted her listeners with a review of "A Seed Shall Serve," by Charlie May Simon, a Memphis, Tennesseean, whose biography of the Japanese Christian leader, Kagawa, was awarded the Albert Schweitzer Literary Award for 1958.

Included with club members in the hospitality were the following guests: Mrs. E. B. Norton, Mrs. Hoyt Brock, Mrs. W. T. McElheny, Mrs. Robert Hudson, Mrs. Fulton Huff, Mrs. Turner Allen, Mrs. R. C. Fuller, Miss Julia Neal, Mrs. Pearl Moody and Mrs. Milo Long. Assisting with the courtesies of the tea hour were Mrs. J. V. C. Summerell, Mrs. C. B. Collier, Mrs. McElheny and Mrs. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom F. Smith and daughter, Miss Hunter Smith, spent the past week-end at Emory University in Atlanta where Miss Smith was a guest at a P. K. A. houseparty which her parents chaperoned. Her son, Terry, is a student at Emory.

Golden Wedding For

Mr. Mrs. Vaughn

More than seventy - five guests called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Burns, Savannah Highway, to honor Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vaughn who celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Sunday, February eighth.

Receiving guests with the honorees were their children, hosts, to the event, including Mr. and Mrs. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne West, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ernest, Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Vaughn and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. White of Atlanta, Ga.

Yellow ribbon bows caught the white net-over-satin cover to mark the corners of the refreshment table and bronze chrysanthemums filled a large bowl to fashion the centerpiece. A four - tiered cake, decorated with the numeral "50," was flanked by white tapers burning in brass candelstands to complete the festive setting.

Assisting were Miss Rosie Vaughn, Patricia, Ernest and Frances Burns; Glenda Vaughn, Janie White, Christine Redding and Mrs. Fay Miles.

Party hours were from one 'til four in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bobo (Kathy Springer) have returned from Auburn and are now at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Springer, 415 North Pine.

Mrs. Burgess Little is in Mobile for an annual Springtime visit with her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Stewart, and Mr. Stewart.

STRENGTHEN AMERICA'S PEACE POWER

"That this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

This is what keeping the peace is all about. And why every American should help in the job of strengthening America's Peace Power. Here's how you can help.

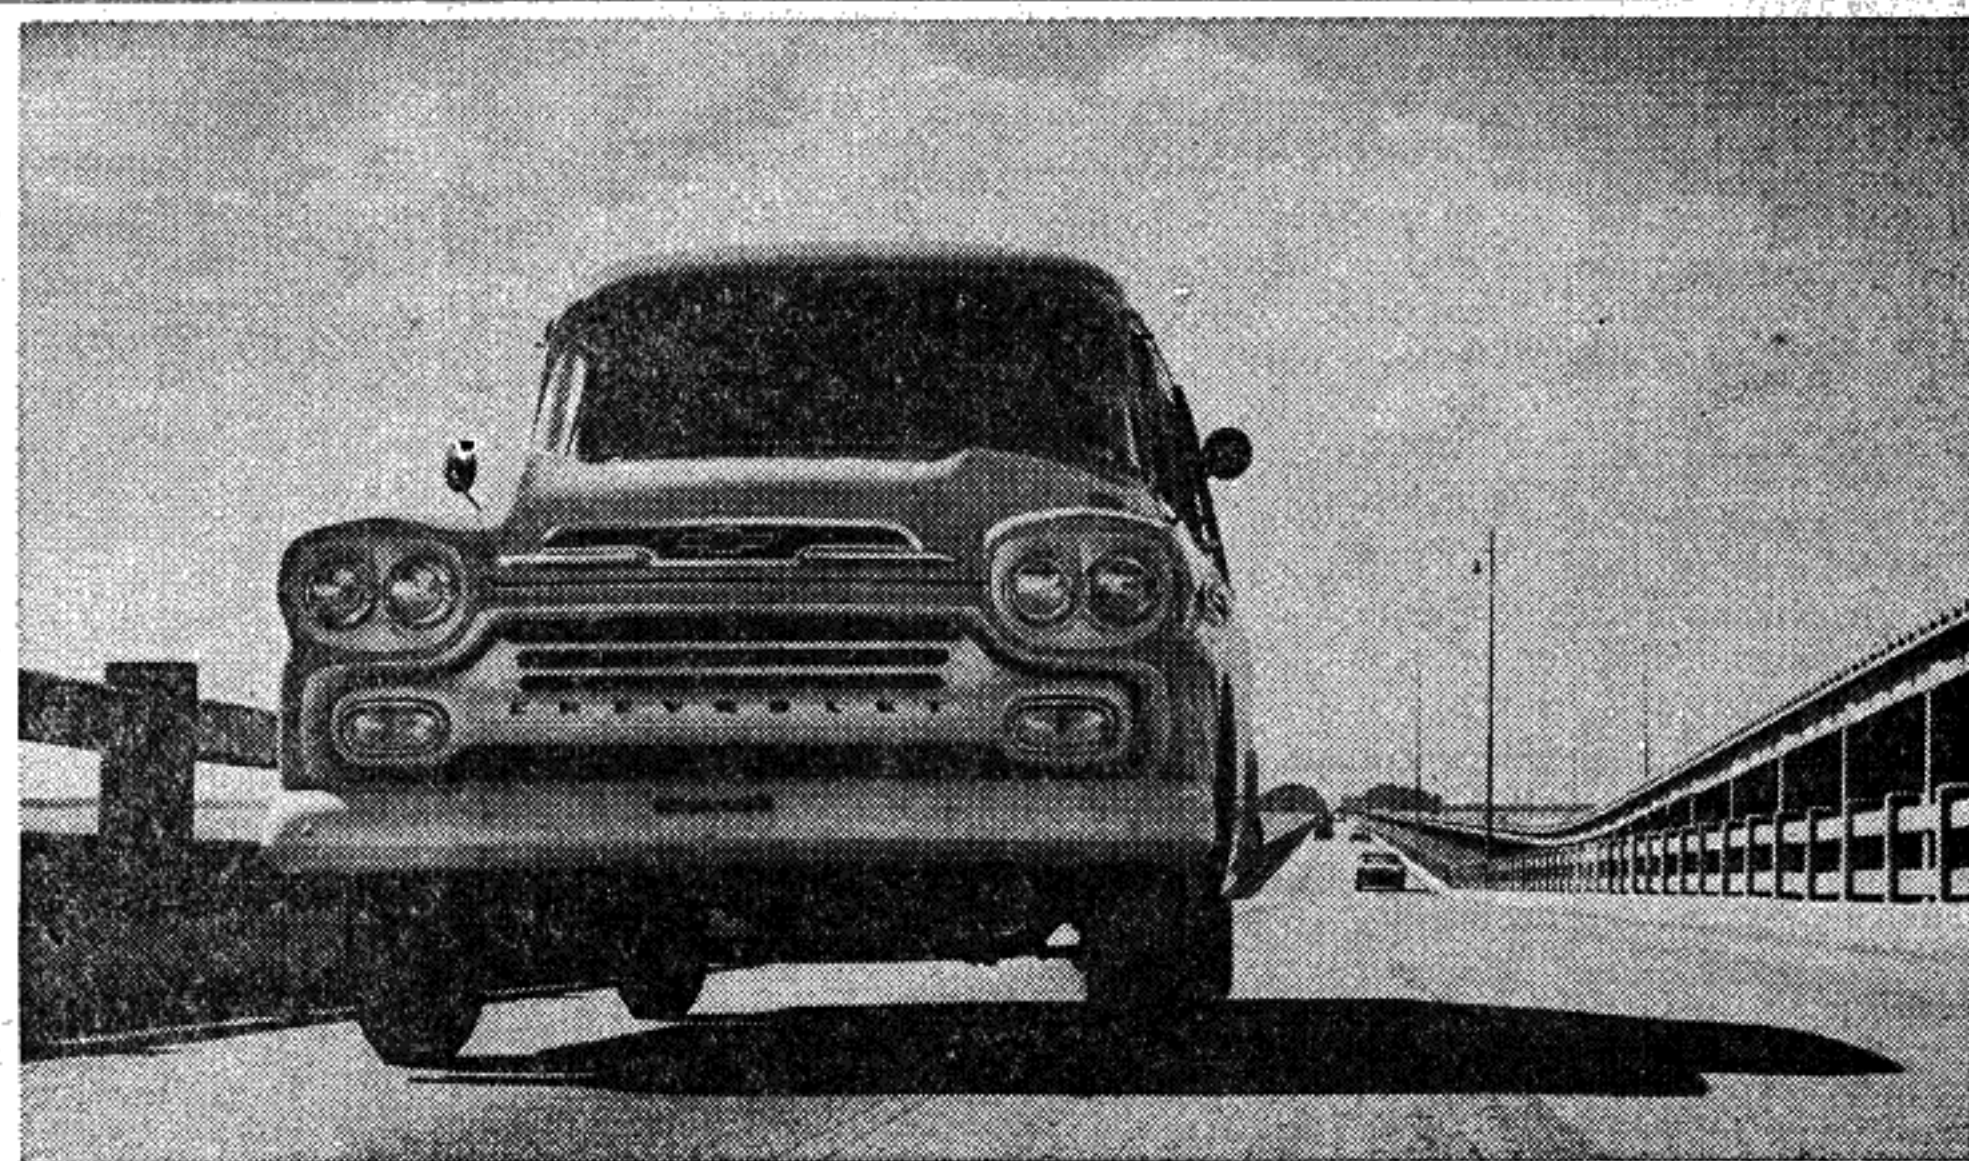

Peace costs money. Money for military and industrial strength to keep the peace. Money for science and education to help make peace lasting. And money saved by individuals to help keep our economy strong. So every U. S. Savings Bond you buy helps to pay the high cost of peace. Are you buying as many as you might?

This '59 Chevy panel is on the go, morning, noon and night; it covers as much as 587 miles a day... runs so constantly that its engine never cools off completely. Yet Mr. Clark Farber, the Tampa Tribune's circulation manager, reports that the truck is delivering 19.3 miles per gallon!

This year, the light, medium- and heavy-duty trucks of the 1959 Chevrolet Task-Force fleet are out to whip anything that comes their way—and they've got what it takes to do it!

Take the panel pictured above, for example. Powered by the '59 Thriftmaster 6 with new economy-contoured camshaft, it's building a sensational economy record, despite the sizzling pace of its work. That's typical of the way Chevrolets of all sizes are turning to on the most challenging jobs in America. ## Leo Views the College Campus

By Dottie McKee

Have you ever heard "The Raven" (which many people consider Poe's masterpiece) read with a slightly exaggerated southern drawl? David Hooks, the Shakespearean actor who visited the campus last week, thinks it is one of Poe's worst and was perhaps a little prejudiced in his reading. Needless to say, it was hilarious. Try it sometime.

Mr. Hooks contends, however, that since Poe was a southern poet, he should be read with at least a slight southern drawl. The effect is surprisingly graceful in "Annabelle Lee." David Hooks has been to the campus once before and was such a success that he was asked back—judging from his reception last week, he will probably be back for another visit next year.

He and Dr. A. S. Johnston, chairman of the English Department, were classmates and are still close friends; it was at Dr. Johnston's request, I believe, that Mr. Hooks read with all sorts of gravity. Edward Lear's "The Owl and the Pussy Cat." His Shakespearean readings were well done and his rendition of the Pyramus and Thisbe scene ridiculously funny. Almost everyone is glad that the trouble came up which resulted in the substitution of "Lili" for "The Story of Three Loves" in the film league program. For a while though, there were some worried expressions when the day set for the showing came with no film.

Stunt Night seems to be on the way to recovering its dignity after last year's inglorious flop. Eleven stunts have been planned; they may not all make it to the stage but that's a better start than last year's two. Keller Hall's fashion show and the Powers Hall "Evolution of the Do-Nut Machine" promise to be interesting.

The Alpha Frats installed new members (after a two day "hell week") at a banquet last week. Spring football training has started with Max Burleson back for his two remaining years of college eligibility.

the electric light

Just 80 years ago, Thomas Alva Edison invented the electric light bulb.

Today it stands as a proud symbol of man's harnessing the God-given gift of electricity. Since its invention, the electric industry has created hundreds of other electrical "tools." In fact, much of what we know as the American Way of Life depends on the appliances, motors and other tools that use electricity.

The men and women of the electric industry — manufacturers, appliance dealers, salesmen and electric power system employees — are a vital part of our economy. Locally, their products and payrolls are important to this community.

As your distributor of low-cost electricity, we gratefully salute Edison and his most famous invention as a milestone in the progress of mankind.

THE SPILLWAY

AT DINNER TIME they sit and chat
In very festive way . . .
Yet not one word can we repeat
Of all we hear them say . . .

THEY'RE CHATTING IN Spanish out at the David McKnight's these days . . . It's preparatory to a jaunt they plan to take down Mexico-way . . . come Summer . . . and the entire family practices around the dinner table . . . Going along for the fun will be (momma and poppa) Lee and David with chillsun Susan and Laurie . . . plus the Madam (that is . . . in case we're urged) . . . ALSO PLANNING A vacation trek to the same storied land are Celia and Fred Heil and the little Heils . . . It'll be a "back home" visit for this charming family . . . accompanied by our best wishes for fun and a SURE and QUICK return . . .

SMILES ARE NOTED on many faces as news spreads that ERIC HAS RETURNED . . . After completing a tour of United States Army duty . . . Eric Seigle is building a home — and a shop combination near the North Florence Shopping Center and . . . during the approaching Springtime . . . expects to say "those two little words" with blond and beautiful Gabrielle Bauerle (Gaby . . . for short) who will come from their native Esslingen — on the Neckar River, Germany, to join him here . . . "It happened like a flash," says Eric . . . who tells with relish of the just-around-the-corner friendship between the two families . . . and then "it was BINGO . . . just like that" . . . The future address will be 109 Central Avenue . . .

TRAVELIN' OUR CITY streets . . . we note Carolyn and Jimmy White . . . et cet . . . doin' the same in a new bus . . . (and we do mean BUS) . . . "We needed more room . . . 's what we were told by affable Jimmy . . . who's made the recent change from a previous station wagon . . .

AND AROUND ANOTHER corner we were brought up short by a friendly wave which emanated from a pretty — shade — of blue "miniature" as we souainted in the sunlight to recognize Nonnie Halton and her adorable not-yet-three Emily . . .

"WE WERE BUSY with business," says Ruth Haynes . . . charming manager of Kreisman's Women's Apparel Shop . . . who adds with a twinkle that "there's so MUCH to talk about after a week in The Big Town" . . . En route home from the Eastern buyer's market . . . Ruth and (Shirley's) Rosalie Bertel chatted too long in the Birmingham Airport before stepping out to step aboard a Muscle Shoals — bound Eastern Airliner . . . "There goes your plane . . . they were told by a uniformed attendant who pointed aloft to a receding figure as he advised our crest fallen duo of a later departure hour . . .

INTERESTING NEWS from schools and colleges . . . At Trinity School for Boys . . . (private . . . Episcopal . . . up New York way) . . . young and handsome Chalmers Hood (son of Elizabeth (Craig) and Ronald) is a schoolmate of Peter Gable (son of stage and television's Arlene Frances and Martin Gable) . . .

IT'S BACK HOME for Chuck Crabtree . . . son of Ruth and Roy of 809 Olive . . . who was accompanied to his native Milwaukee by his lovely (wife) Carolyn . . . where he is enrolled in the School of Fine Arts to continue his study of design engineering . . . We're told . . . too . . . that a dazzling piece de resistance is dangling in this talented gent's future which (regrettably) bears a distant home — address tag . . .

A BIG WELCOME HOME to Bill Boone . . . who is separated from the U. S. Army after completing his tour of duty . . . and has returned to our midst . . . We're told that he will be associated with First National Bank . . .

BACK FROM BASKING in Miami's sun . . . Alfred McCrosky, Jr., is sporting a becoming tan and getting numerous envious glances from those of us who've been wishing to do ditto . . .

IT'S WONDERFUL seeing Cathy (Springer) and Scott Bobo around again . . . Scott has transferred from API at Auburn to Florence State . . . a nice Springtime present to their many friends in these "ere parts" . . .

OLD SOUTH BALL . . . That's what the girls at FSC are calling the "appreciation" affair which they'll host in early March and . . . from our listening post . . . it sure "listens good" . . . The decorative theme will include such scenes as a Colonial mansion and fields ripe with cotton . . . The name — orchestra will furnish the turn-te-tum and all else will be equally lavish . . . There's ever-so-much more . . . But THAT would be TELLIN' . . .

CONGRATS TO Phil Olim . . . whose eighty-fourth milestone was marked on Sunday . . . February twenty — second . . . as family members and friends gathered 'round at his home on North Wood . . . "From now on I'll take a leaf from the book of the missile scientists at Cape Canaveral . . . I count backward" . . . remarked our favorite octogenarian . . . Madam will start early to practice the line . . . "We're glad you're eighty-three . . . for a February 1960 serenade . . .

Let's Talk
Over
By
ARA SAZE

Dear Sara Saze,
I have a problem that is worrying me all the time. And it is a woman who is in my house. I am a widow lady and I need more income than I have, so I rented a room to this woman. Now, I didn't know her at all and I thought a long time and decided it would be best this way. I may be queer, but I like my privacy and I thought a woman I didn't know wouldn't hang around me all day.

Well, that's where I was wrong. She only rents a room and bath but she uses my whole house. And she talks all day, even when she knows I'm trying to take a nap, and often calls and starts talking in the night. Now, I've never been one to hurt people and so I try to be friendly to her, but I don't believe I can keep this up. She's got me to where I wake up in the morning dreading the day. It looks like I've got to do something and I hope you can tell me if you think I should try to stick this out. I know they call me queer but I sure do like to have some time to myself.

Worried Widow.

Dear W. W.,
We live and learn, you know, and I think you might best mark this error off and start again. I see no reason for you to continuously subject yourself to twenty-four hour — a — day punishment. I may be scalped for mentioning it, but most of my acquaintances who rent — out their rooms do so only to young men.

I cringe to think how little gumption members of my own sex so often show. Your roomer has been thoughtless and inconsiderate, and you need not concern yourself too deeply about the stand I advise you take.

Only you can put a stop to these impositions, so get busy and give notice. Set a specified time when you'll want your room and don't weaken.

Just between us, your health may actually be at stake, but it would be unwise and unnecessarily unkind to admit this to her.

Try to part as friends, but by all means part.

I won a small contest prize a few years ago and I am continuing to get advertisements from publishers of books which tell how to write slogans, etc.

I would like to order a book of this nature but with so many to choose from, I'd need your advice.

Will you help me?

Dear E. C. L.,
Prices run high for some of these but a good inexpensive starter for you would be my advice.

"How to Win Big Contest Prizes," by William Summers can be had by sending 50c to Arco Publishing Co., 408 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y. It is 63 pages of good tips from one who has been a winner.

Telecast From Missile School Seen By Army

A live two-hour television course on guided missiles was transmitted by close-circuit last Wednesday morning from the Army Ordnance Guided Missile School in Huntsville to the Pentagon in Washington in a demonstration of educational techniques of the space age.

The telecast was the first such program on missiles ever transmitted by the Army to the Pentagon and over such a distance — 730 miles, according to Col. H. S. Newhall, commandant of the Missile School, which is the educational adjunct of the huge Redstone Arsenal rocket and guided missile center and the Army's only school devoted exclusively to missile training.

Arranged by the Army's Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, the program was viewed in a Pentagon theater by Secretary of the Army Wilbur M. Brucker and about 300 high-ranking officers of the Department of the Army.

Church

One hundred twenty attended Sunday school at the Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday morning, with others arriving for the 11 o'clock worship service. Fifty two were present for Training Union and evening worship. The Rev. McDougal filled his pulpit at both the morning and the evening worship hours.

On Tuesday evening the women of the WMU organization will attend a Mission Book Study at the church.

Members of the Brotherhood and the RA and GA groups are reminded that Saturday night is the regular monthly meeting night.

The Rev. McDougal is very interested in organizing what he terms a "walking blood bank" in our community. That is one in which all persons interested would have had their blood typed and would know their type of blood in case their friends or neighbors needed it, provided they could and would give blood of course. He also suggests that you have your blood typed, even though you could not give blood, in case there was a need of your own for blood. A list of these names and each person's type of blood would be left with the Rev. McDougal so that he might be of help in securing blood for those who need it. If you are interested in this very worthy endeavor and don't know your blood type you may have it typed at Jackson's hospital at your convenience without charge. Just explain your reason for having it typed and the doctor will see that the Rev. McDougal gets your name and your type. If you already know your blood type and would be interested in giving blood in case of a need you may give the Rev. your name and type of blood at any time.

We remind you once more of the P-T-A sponsored supper at Powell on Thursday night, Feb. 26. Plates are 75 and 50 cents and entertainment will be supplied by the Motordome quartet — formally known as the Jelly Five.

Jeannie's father is in Seoul, Korea.

Enjoying the occasion were Jackie and Barbara Trousdale, Florence, Sandra Trousdale, Anderson, Sue Hamilton, Vicki Howard, Gwendolyn Roberson, Sharon Hood, Ann Chandler, Phyllis Campbell, Becky Dollar, Helen Hunton, Dixie Lee Barnes, Marla Hamilton and Debbie and Renee Hamilton.

Beta Club Party

After a very successful presentation of the Beta Club play on Friday evening Mrs. Julia Jones, sponsor, entertained for the cast at her home on Wheeler Lake. Punch and cake were served.

Beta Club Initiation

Twenty — three new members were presented with pins and certificates of membership by their sponsor, Mrs. Julia Jones, in formal attire, on Wednesday morning in a formal initiation at the assembly period in the presence of the entire student body.

Jackie Barnett, chaplain, opened the meeting after which Brenda Crow, president, introduced the officers: Frances Beddingfield, vice-president; Linda Exall, recording secretary; Linda Thacker, corresponding secretary; Linda McCrary, secretary — treasurer.

The Mary Jo Randall GA's met in the home of Mrs. C. J. Pennington on Thursday evening for the study of "The Charlie Matthews Story" given by their hostess.

During the intermission supper was served buffet style.

Mrs. Fred Runyon of Maryville, Tenn., and Mrs. James King of Athens visited their uncle, Mr. W. L. Davis, in the home of Mrs. Inez Patterson on Saturday.

Mrs. Velma Nugent left Thursday for Birmingham. On Friday she will go with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nugent to Mobile and to Biloxi, Miss., to visit her brother, Jim Randolph, who was critically injured recently when he was struck by a falling pole while he was at work on another light pole.

Rev. J. C. Paulk of Gadsden was a visitor in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Harris on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pennington and children were guests of their respective parents in Columbus, Miss., over the week-end.

The Ellis Lentz family left Monday for Mobile following an extended visit in the home of Mrs. Lentz's mother, Mrs. Leo King.

Among the out — of — town relatives present for the funeral services of Mrs. Etta Ramsey on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Goodwin, Montgomery, Judge Rose, Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones, Huntsville.

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER—STAYS TOGETHER"

Who said there is no such thing as juvenile delinquency?

Look at the record! Millions of boys and girls under twenty-one in trouble with the police—dope traffic among teen-agers—organized crime by minors.

But this is not always juvenile delinquency. This is often the tragedy of ADULT DELINQUENCY. It is frequently the result of neglect, indifference, and lack of Christian training in our homes. It is the failure of parents that has led to the wreckage of many of these young lives.

Bring your child to Sunday School and Church. Give him the spiritual care that he wants and needs. Remember, Mother and Dad, we cannot always say, "juvenile delinquency." Be sure it is not your failure which may cause your child to ruin his life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THORNTON ATTENDS AASA CONVENTION

Allen Thornton attended the 91st Annual Convention of the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City.

For COLDS take 666

Feb. 14-18.

Mr. Thornton is one of more than 16,000 educators from every state and territory who took part in almost a full week of intensive study of school problems confronting American communities.

The humanities and creative arts as they relate to education received special attention. Other group meetings were focused on testing, transportation, curriculum planning, business management, school plant, finance, and other specific educational topics.

Corner on Cotton
BY BOB COLLINS

Don't lose cotton acreage by not planting it and not turning it in, if you are not going to plant all your choice "A" acreage, release it to your county committee for reassignment. You'll get credit for the acreage just as if you planted it. If the acreage is planted by someone else, it can be considered in the history of the state and county. If it is not planted, it's lost. Remember, you won't lose acreage history by turning it in, but everybody will lose if you don't. You can't turn in unplanted "B" acreage, however.

This is important to cotton and to you as a farmer, so don't let it happen. If you know of someone who isn't going to plant his allotment, talk with him. It could mean future money in your pocket if a bill is passed allowing you to sell or lease your allotment to someone else in your county or state.

Cotton Week
Cotton week is slated for May 18-23. Theme of the week is "It's Cotton Time U. S. A." National Cotton Council sponsors the program and can supply reminders with just about any kind of help that will sell cotton.

Texas Story
We've heard about a Texas cottonman who has stopped his friends from wearing synthetic shirts when they show up wearing the synthetic he just presents them with a wash and wear cotton shirt tells them to try it and then wear the better shirt. Says there's no problem thereafter.

We Insist
Despite what we recently said some farmers seem to think they can choose "B" plan and later get permission to switch to "A" if they get a poor stand or don't plant all their acreage. They are going to be disappointed. The law does give the Secretary of Agriculture permission to allow a switch to "A" but you can be certain he isn't going to permit changes unless you have conditions that will melt the heart of a wooden Indian.

Veto
People who know say President Eisenhower will veto any bill to make direct payments to farmer. Can the veto be overridden? If Congressional leaders feel it can, there'll be quite a fight in the not too distant future.

PORK CHOPS GALORE—Ray Cavender, hog marketing specialist, Auburn, holds a meat cutting demonstration using the carcasses of a meat and lard-type hog, to show the difference in the quality of meat from the two types of hogs. This demonstration was held last Friday for county farmers at a meeting on hog production and management at the Municipal Building, Florence. The meeting was held under the guidance of the Lauderdale County Extension Service, L. T. Wagon, county agent.—(Staff Photo)

Agricultural Reminders

By SAM EICH
Asst. County Agent

Some of the farmers in Lauderdale County that are using farrowing houses with concrete floors are losing pigs due to the need for additional iron in their systems. You can use a number of methods to supply pigs with iron to prevent anemia. For example, place clean sod in the pen; give iron pills by mouth; or apply liquid preparation to the sows udder.

These methods are effective but they take time, are inconvenient, and need to be repeated during the suckling period. An easier way is to inject two cubic centimeters of iron dextran when the pig is three days old.

Pigs have a limited iron supply. Anemia results from using up the iron in the body of the pig. Iron is needed to form the hemoglobin in the red blood cells. Hemoglobin carries oxygen throughout the body.

Pigs are born with a limited supply of iron. No pig has enough iron to keep it growing at its maximum for more than 10 days to two weeks. In many cases the iron supply is dangerously low by two to three days after birth.

The sow's milk contains practically no iron. So in order to keep the pigs healthy and growing at their maximum rate, you must supply them with some form of iron. The treatment must last until pigs eat enough creep ration to fill their mineral needs if they are being raised on concrete floors.

The faster a pig grows the quicker his reserve supply of iron is used up and signs of anemia begin showing. Anemic pigs develop rough hair coats and wrinkled skin. Affected animals have mucous membrane of the mouth and pale colored skin. This is compared to a pinkish color in healthy pigs.

As the pig becomes more anemic, its heart beat and rate of breathing increase to make up for the lack of hemoglobin and reduced number of oxygen carrying blood cells. A little exercise leaves the pigs semi-exhausted.

Some pigs may die from anemia when three to four weeks old. But the main losses come from secondary effects such as stunted growth, scouring and pneumonia. An inexperienced producer may not realize that anemia is causing these problems.

Research over the past few years shows that you can prevent anemia by injecting pigs with one shot of an iron compound. This saves labor over the older methods used in the past.

Good Management Key To Hog Profits

Since the hog business is becoming more competitive every day, producers must work continuously toward more efficient operations.

That's the opinion of API Extension Hog Marketing Specialist Ray Cavender. "When prices get low, profits will be harder to come by," said Cavender. "It's during these periods of low prices that many hog producers fail. Then their investments in buildings and equipment lie idle, collecting rust and depreciation. However, the efficient producer, even when prices are at their lowest ebb, may be able to stay in the game, ride the storm, and be ready to take advantage of a rising market," continued the specialist.

Just how does he do it? The efficient hog producer knows how much it costs to put on a pound of pork. He takes care of little chores that seem unnecessary to the inefficient man — chores such as clipping needle teeth and creep-feeding. He also provides sanitary farrowing facilities for the sow and her litter.

Hog producers stand a better chance of meeting competition if they're growing quality hogs. For instance, the amount of feed seems to be directly related to the percentage of lean cuts. With each one percent increase in lean cuts, the animal will need about four pounds less feed per 100 pounds of gain. Recognizing the fact that some lard-type pigs may have rapid growth, but that this advantage could be lost with lower efficiency, results in savings for the hog producer.

Today's markets want and will pay top market prices for farmers who produce high quality, well-muscled toppers, because such animals have two to three times less fat than do lard-type hogs.

4-H Boys, Girls To Receive Chicks

Five 4-H boys and five girls will be selected in a few weeks to receive 100 chicks from the Sears Poultry Chain sponsored by Sears Roebuck Company with Lauderdale County Extension Service assisting.

The club member receiving the chicks agrees to properly care for the chicks and give back 12 laying hens from his or her flock next fall. The hens that are given back are judged and cash prizes are given to the winning flocks of hens.

Club members interested in this project should contact either Anne Phillips or Albert Heaslett at the county agent's office in Florence.

ACCIDENTS . . . ON THE FARM

are covered by

THE RURALITE
Emergency Protection Personal Accident Policy

designed especially for

The Florence Herald
Subscribers and Their Family Household Members

This outstanding policy will help to pay those unexpected expenses for bodily injury—whether simple or serious—when accidents strike without warning at work, on the farm, at home, at school, at play, or while traveling. Here is a modern, practical, essential and economical personal accident policy prepared to give the best possible protection at the lowest possible cost that will fit the pocketbook of every family.

Each member of the family—man, woman and child—regardless of age, residence, occupation or activity—is constantly exposed to accident hazards "around the clock" and "around the calendar" and should have this valuable and helpful protection which is now available through this newspaper because of the serious accident situation which exists everywhere today. Subject to the policy provisions, it includes indemnity for Loss of Life, Loss of Limb, Loss of Sight, Total Disability, First Aid, Ambulance, Hospital and X-Ray.

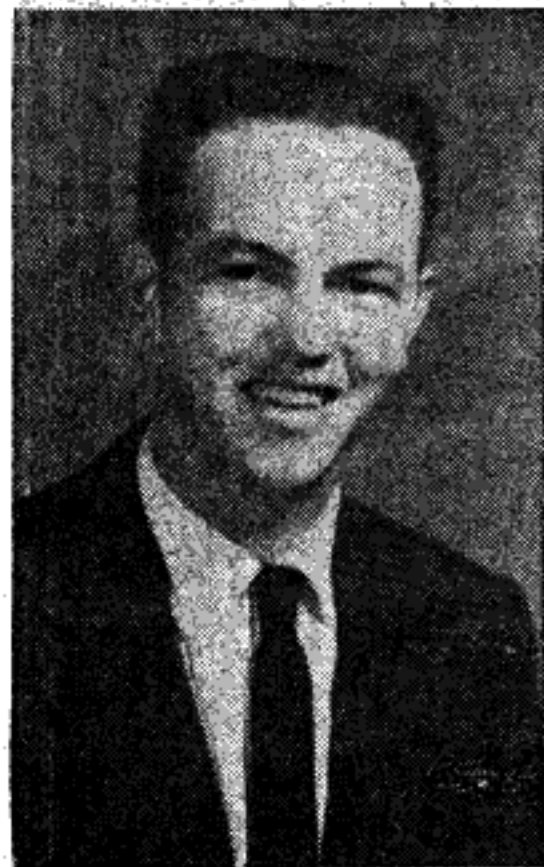

The policy is issued without medical examination. There are no age limits (specific loss and total disability indemnities are reduced fifty per cent (50%) when the Insured is or becomes age 70 and over). It costs only $5.00 per person per year, plus a first-year only registration fee of $1.00. This averages but slightly more than a penny a day for protection everyone needs and can afford to pay. It is issued by Old Republic Life Insurance Company, Chicago, Illinois.

Be Insured With This Helpful Protection!

Visit our newspaper office where a staff member will gladly assist you, or you may use the convenient application form printed elsewhere in this issue. Additional applications will be furnished upon request.

Edward Smoot Attends National Credit Conference

Current Economic Outlook Studied By Leaders In Banking

Edward H. Smoot, senior vice-president, the First National Bank of Florence, recently returned from the National Credit Conference of the American Bankers Association which met at the LaSalle Hotel in Chicago. Nearly 1,000 bankers from all parts of the nation attended this conference to study the current economic outlook as it relates to banking and business.

Mefford To Show Towle Sterling

The public is invited to attend Mefford's Towle Sterling Festival at the Hotel Reeder dining room on the afternoon of March 4, from 3 to 5 in the afternoon. Towle sterling is featured by Mefford's. In addition to the famous Towle museum collection of silver antiques including the first sterling spoon made by the famous Towle silversmiths, table settings of Towle sterling will be exhibited by students of the Florence State College Home Economics Classes.

Refreshments and door prizes will feature this unusual event.

Present at the Festival will be Raleigh Crawford, Towle factory representative and W. C. Hill, representing Tiffin crystal, another fine line featured by Mefford's.

LET THE HERALD PRINT IT!

Many outstanding businessmen, bankers, and economists from throughout the United States were on the program. The general economic and business outlook for 1959 was one of optimism, though Dr. Karl Bopp, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, very effectively pointed out the dangers of a continuing inflationary trend. If the trend continues, he stated, the position of persons on fixed income or annuities will greatly suffer. Dr. Bopp said that this trend could lead to a further serious deterioration in the value of the dollar, possible devaluation and the consequent loss of prestige and value of the dollar as stabilized currency throughout the world and thereby, weakening our position in foreign affairs.

Dr. H. E. Luedicke, editor of the Journal of Commerce, continued on this line of thought and emphasized some of the divergent viewpoints which come out of Washington, (and particularly the Congress) regarding the economy today.

A most interesting defense against those who would impose Federal controls on consumer credit was presented by Charles H. Kellstadt, president, Sears Roebuck and Company. Mr. Kellstadt admitted the great increase in the dollar amount of consumer installment credit outstanding, but emphasized that, though the amount of installment credit outstanding had doubled over the past few years, assets held by consumers had quadrupled. He said total estimated credit sales for his company in fiscal 1959 would be one billion, eight hundred sixty million dollars and this total would represent 47% of the company's total sales.

The value of electronic processing or automation was pointed out by Maxwell C. King, president, the Pacific Finance Corporation, the country's fifth largest finance company. Mr. King's company is now entering the first phase of electronic accounting and he expects to complete the program over a period of three years. During the course of his discussion he reiterated the viewpoint of Mr. Kellstadt regarding Federal consumer installment credit controls, feeling that no danger lies in the installment credit position in this country today. He emphasized the point that banks and finance companies must constantly seek out new services in the installment field. Sound practices and terms could be established by a better and continuing understanding and cooperation between banks and recognized finance companies, Mr. King pointed out.

For background material for his address, James A. Linen, publisher of Time Magazine, sent twenty of his reporters out into different sections of the country to talk to the people on the streets, in business, and in our colleges and universities, to determine what kind of public relations job the banks of the country are doing today. He reported an optimistic picture and that the banks as a whole are doing a much more effective job today than was being done even five years ago. The picture in our colleges and universities is much improved in relation to the number of college graduates choosing finance or banking as a career.

CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C.—Marine Pvt. Glenn T. Thigpen, son of Mrs. Mattie E. Thigpen of 819 N. Royal ave., Florence, graduated Feb. 24 from an intensive four-week infantry training course at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

During this period Marines live primarily in the field and take part in bivouacs, marches and muscle building exercises.

This training, followed by two weeks leave, completes the basic Marine Corps training. Graduates are then assigned to specialist schools or a permanent duty assignment.

FORTY VOICE CHOIR—The Southwestern Singers will perform in Florence during their twenty-second annual concert tour. The a cappella group, organized in 1935 by its present director, Dr. Burnet C. Tut-till, head of Southwestern's Department of Music, will sing Wednesday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church. The choir's repertoire includes the Southwestern Alma Mater, American spirituals, and a selection of sacred music from the ancient to the contemporary. The group's itinerary also includes Mobile, Montgomery, Prattville, and Birmingham.

Liberty National Increases Capital

Stockholders of Liberty National Life Insurance Company voted at their annual meeting to increase the company's capital from $6 million to $7½ million. President Frank P. Samford said that this move would further strengthen the company's capital structure. The additional $1½ million will be transferred to capital from the company's surplus and will be represented by 750,000 shares of new stock. The new stock will be distributed to stockholders on April 17, 1959 on the basis of one additional share for each four shares held. The directors declared a dividend of 34 cents a share on the company's stock payable March 10 to stockholders of record February 27.

In other action the stockholders elected Joseph L. Lanier of West Point, Georgia to the company's Board of Directors. Mr. Lanier is president of West Point Manufacturing Company, and a director of numerous other corporations including First National Bank of Atlanta, First National Bank of West Point, and Continental Gin Company. The other directors were all re-elected. They are Leo E. Bashinsky, Elmer A. Camp, Jr., Charles T. Clayton, Jack D. McSpadden, Arthur M. Mead, Frank P. Samford, Frank P. Samford, Jr., Yetta G. Samford, F. Page Seibert, and Frank E. Spain.

Mr. Samford's report to stockholders pointed out the company's continued growth during 1958. Insurance in force increased over $150 million to a new high of approximately $1½ billion. Assets increased a record $26½ million to over $262 million. More than half of this total was invested in residential mortgage loans insured or guaranteed by agencies of the Federal government.

The company continued to expand its operations. Mr. Samford said, increasing its field organization throughout the company's territory and establishing new district offices at Fairhope and at Crestview and Fort Pierce, Florida.

4-H Leaders Are Big Aid To Work

Some very important people in 4-H Club work are the local leaders in each club. These local leaders are busy teachers that meet with the local clubs each month and give help to 4-H members in their club work. Certainly they add a great deal to club work. For the girls clubs, they are Miss Pearl Lanier, Mrs. Mary Belle Eldridge and Mrs. Charles Packard from Lexington; Mrs. Mildred Stutts and Mrs. Louise Heath from Killen; Mrs. Vida Mae Owens, Grassy; Mrs. Autlie Dickinson, Elgin Crossroads; Mrs. Myrtle McPeters and Mrs. Dorsie Billingsley of Cloverdale; Mrs. Earl Ritter, Center Star.

Mrs. Katherine Yarbrough, Mrs. Ruth Coleman and Mrs. Wynna Koonce of Central; Mrs. Hilda Fincher and Miss Ruby Daly of Anderson; Mrs. W. M. Underwood, Mars Hill; Miss Eva Dendy and Mrs. Gladys Irions of Waterloo; Miss Belle Walker and Mrs. Ruth Patterson of Wilson; Mrs. G. A. Grigsby, Whitehead; Mrs. Rebecca Marshall, Underwood; Mrs. Minnie Irving, Mrs. Carl Dugan, Mrs. Bobby Sharp, Mrs. Hilda Grey and Mrs. Bertha Mae Curtis of Rogers; Mrs. Vera Kelley, Threets; Mrs. Edith Thornton, Springfield; Sister Cornelia, St. Michael; Mrs. Mary Grisham, Mrs. Helen Pilgrim of Rogersville; Mrs. Maurine Pittman, Rhodesville; Mrs. Walterene McCollough and Miss Earline Rice of Oakland; and Mrs. Lorene Freeman of McGee.

Local leaders in the boys clubs are Layman Owens, Powell, F. M. Holcombe, Center Star; W. L. Hoffert, Rhodesville; Denny Thornton, Springfield; Douglas Varnell, Whitehead; George Tucker, Elgin Crossroads; Iley Freeman, McGee; Frank Smith, Threets; Alvin Parker and James Patterson, Wilson; Mrs. Thelma McGee, Underwood; Bimol Poole and Mrs. Jewell Brooks, Oakland; Albert McGraw, Mrs. Cazel Beddingfield, Mrs. Susie Hamilton and Miss Cleo Givens, Anderson; Miss Lillian Haygood and J. T. Mays, Cloverdale; Albert Muse and Mrs. Barbara Poole, Killen; Mrs. Betty Jean Wooten and Mrs. Maymie Bevis, Waterloo; Gilbert Butler, Mrs. Eunice Mae White and Mrs. Vernice Truitt, Lexington; John P. Roberson and Mrs. Annabel Parker, Rogersville; Elbert Lewis, Earl Koonce, Mrs. Aileen Berry and Miss Clara Howard, Central; E. R. Bruce, Mars Hill; and Miss Katherine Walker, Mrs. Clara Stutts, Mrs. Ruth Redding, Miss Ola Lentz and Mrs. Mattie Lou Lumpkin, Rogers.

Eliminations In Contest Planned

Revenes To Be Held In March And April To Select County Winners

Project eliminations will be held during the spring months in 4-H Club work. During March local dress, skirt, and apron revenues will be held in each of the clubs in Lauderdale County. On Thursday night, April 30, the county dress revenue will be held at the Recreation Center in Florence. Winners in the local clubs will compete in the county contest. A county winner in the apron division, skirt division and junior and senior dress division will be selected at this time. A local fabric shop will donate prizes to these winners. The winner in the senior dress division will compete in district eliminations. Last year Eva Ann Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Montgomery, of Central, was Lauderdale County's winner and also won in district competition.

Foods contest will be held on county level on Saturday, March 28, at the Home Demonstration Kitchen, on Seminary Street in Florence. At this time girls in the senior clubs will give either dairy food or yeast bread demonstration—winner will be chosen in each. Patsy Watkins daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer T. Watkins, was chosen county and district winner in yeast bread competition last year.

Complete Security Available To All Paul Wavro Says

True security is a present possibility, Paul K. Wavro of Jacksonville, Florida, told an audience here Monday evening, February 23rd.

Everyone can find freedom from fear, anxiety, and want in proportion to his spiritual understanding at this time, Four - H members write an essay or theme about safety. These essays are judged in four divisions—boys junior and senior and girls junior and senior. The county winners in the senior contest will compete in a state contest. The state winner is awarded $100 and a free trip to the State 4-H leadership short course that will be held in Auburn during July.

The co-op essay contest was held February 12 at Underwood School. Martha Smith and Louie Robertson of Waterloo were chosen county winners. They will compete in district elimination in Decatur the later part of June.

A county talent program will be held on Tuesday night, March 31 at the Recreation Center in Florence. Winner in junior and senior division will be selected. Talent acts from the local clubs will be selected to enter this county program. "The Upsetters" a band from Lexington were county, district, and state winners in the talent contest last year.

Contests are certainly not the most important phase of 4-H work but they do add to the program.

of the real nature of God and man in God's likeness, Mr. Wavro stated.

It is through scientific prayer, he said, that true health, abundance, and well - being are established in daily living.

Mr. Wavro spoke in Christian Science Church Edifice, 202 East Seventh Street, Sheffield, under the auspices of Christian Science Society of Sheffield. A member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, he was introduced by Mr. Harry F. Woodruff, a member of the Christian Science Society of Sheffield. "Christian Science: The Revelation of True Security" was the subject of his address.

Taking note of the uncertain and insecure aspects of human experience, the lecturer said that "lack of security stems from mankind's reliance upon material means for health, harmony, supply, and well - being."

Editors Predict Coming Changes

Prices of everyday necessities will settle down for the next six to nine months, predict the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine. There may be mild increases in the price of hi-fi, shoes and plumbing equipment, but reduction in such important areas as food and textile items will keep living costs in check.

Borrowing money, however, is going to be another story. It will get tougher. The screws are being tightened to contract the money supply available for lending as an anti-inflationary move. You'll feel the effects should you shop for a mortgage or attempt to finance a car. Prospective borrowers might as well face it — they will have trouble finding money and more trouble getting a loan at an interest rate within their expectations.

Telephone Talk

by
FORREST W. BRICE
Your Telephone Manager

I WAS THINKING the other day about the progress and development in the Art of Telephony which has taken place in just a little more than a generation — during the lives of most of us. In 1915, the first transcontinental telephone conversation took place. In 1927, the first transoceanic conversation was held, with all kinds of refinements in between and since. Did you know that you could talk with over 96 per cent of the telephones in the world right from your home or office here in the Tri-Cities? It's now easier to talk with a friend or relative in California or London than it was to call your next door neighbor about the time of World War I. And — your service continues to be improved as to speed, quality of transmission, and freedom from mechanical troubles — all this through the research of Bell Telephone Laboratories, the developments of which are applied by your local telephone folks. Your telephone service is kept as modern as tomorrow by scientific research and development. Through telephone communications, the horizons of the world have been brought into your living room right here in the Tri-Cities.

FEBRUARY was once described as "the greyest month of the year." Sometimes the lingering cold winter days seem depressing, and we feel that spring will never come. Well, here's a suggestion for spreading a little good cheer. Just pick up your phone and make a Long Distance call to that very special person. Just the sound of your voice can brighten their day, and the cost is small for the happiness you give. Remember — it's always cheaper to call Station-to-Station — that's when you'll talk to anyone who answers at the number you're calling. You save, too, by calling after six P.M. or anytime on Sundays. Why not make someone's grey day "rosy" by Long Distance today!

COULD BE—Its huge, metal-plate feet braced on lunar soil, this space vehicle, with living quarters in the sphere atop the fuel tanks, could serve as headquarters for the first men on the moon. At least, that is how artists see it, as depicted in a film report on space prepared by an aircraft manufacturer. Recent space investigations in Washington by a House committee indicate that scientists foresee a moon landing some time in the 1970s.

News Of ANDERSON

By Myrtle McGraw

The Anderson Home Demonstration Club met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Harold Sinyard with the Home Demonstration Agent and twelve members and one visitor present. Miss Connor gave the demonstration on Family Budget planning. After the regular business session the hostess served delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Hobert Ridgeway. Mrs. Jewel Williams and Mrs. Valeria Ridgeway attended the last leadership meeting. The club will have its regular white elephant sale at the next meeting.

PONTIAC NAMED CAR OF THE YEAR

"Pontiac with wide-track wheels is the best combination of ride... handling... performance and styling of any '59 car" —The Editors of Motor Trend Magazine

In making its annual automotive award, the staff of Motor Trend Magazine, leading automotive publication, tests and evaluates all new cars. Here are quotations from the April 1959 issue:

"The stability of the 1959 Pontiac is the outstanding automotive advance of the year. Everyone considering a new car should experience it."

"It's the best balanced passenger car in America. We firmly believe that in moving the wheels farther apart, to develop the widest stance of any American car, Pontiac has created an entirely new sense of balance and handling security."

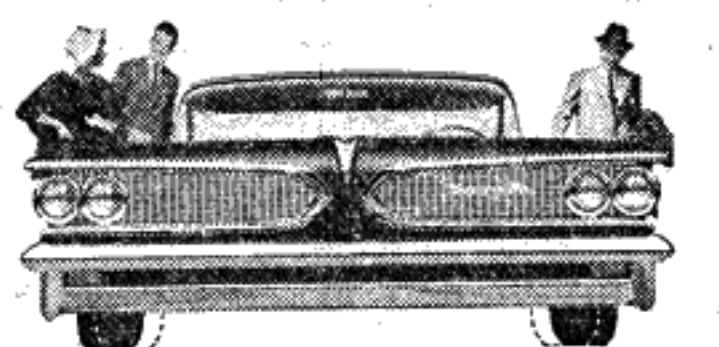

"Pontiac's lines are clean, simple and beautiful. It has a fleet look, a trim appearance. The wide wheel design contributes greatly to its over-all integrated styling. Any comparison with narrower track cars readily shows the difference."

"For the economy-minded, an efficient new engine. The new 420E Tempest economy engine offers remarkable performance along with exceptionally high mileage while operating on regular grade gasoline."

"Pontiac is again tops in performance, based on our extensive road testing. Acceleration is outstanding, yet the engine is unusually quiet and smooth."

Your nearest Pontiac dealer will be glad to let you road-test this award-winning automobile on your own. You'll see why it's the year's most talked-about car!

THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens only the stance, not the car. Pontiac takes a better grip on the road, hugs tighter on curves and corners. Sway and lean disappear, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier. Handling is easier. You drive with a new confidence, a comforting security. Pontiac gives you roadability no "narrow range" car can offer.

FREE! If you would like a reprint of the complete, illustrated article with all the tests and evaluations on which Motor Trend judged Pontiac "Car of the Year"—see your Pontiac dealer or simply send your name and address on a postcard to Pontiac Motor Division, Department 10, Pontiac, Michigan.

SALUTE TO LAUDERDALE 4-H BOYS, GIRLS AND ALUMNI

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT 4-H CLUB WORK

4-H CLUB EMBLEM

The National 4-H Club Emblem is the 4-Leaf Clover with the letter H in each leaflet. The 4-H's represent the equal training of the Head, Heart, Hands, and Health. The 4-Leaf Clover signifies "Good Luck" and "Achievement."

THE PLEDGE

I pledge
My Head to clearer thinking,
My Heart to greater loyalty,
My Hands to larger service, and
My Health to better living,
For my Club, my Community, and my Country.

4-H CLUB MOTTO

As in the case of the 4-H Club pledge, much emphasis is placed on the 4-H Club motto—TO MAKE THE BEST BETTER—not only in the building of character and citizenship but in the raising of project standards. TO MAKE THE BEST BETTER should be the aim of every club member and should be used as his guide in daily living.

PURPOSE OF 4-H CLUB WORK

The purpose of 4-H Club work is to train all rural boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 21 in better methods of farm and home practices and to develop those traits of leadership and citizenship that will be useful to them regardless of occupation in later years.

TODAY'S YOUTH... TOMORROW'S LEADERS

SEVEN KEYS TO SUCCESS IN 4-H CLUB WORK

FIRST KEY—The right attitude

You must know that you really want to be a 4-H'er, and you must join the group with all your enthusiasm and energy aimed at being the best club member you can be.

SECOND KEY—Determination

After you do join, you must always try to do the good job that is expected of you. Attend all meetings, and participate in special events.

THIRD KEY—A good project

The third key is a first-class 4-H Club project. Start with just one project and do a good job on it. Without this key you can never unlock the door to 4-H success.

FOURTH KEY—Resourcefulness

A fourth key is doing the best that you can with what you have to work with.

FIFTH KEY—Leadership

A leader is friendly, sincere, dependable, and skilled at getting other people to enter and work on group activities.

SIXTH KEY—Records

Neat, concise, and accurate records of all 4-H projects, leadership activities, speeches, exhibits, programs, demonstrations, and offices held are essential in 4-H program.

SEVENTH KEY—Work

Hard work day by day will bring success in nearly any enterprise. Combine this key with all the others, and you will unlock the big door to success in 4-H Club work.

Happy Hands make
Happy Homes

WHAT 4-H CLUB MEMBERS DO

Members of 4-H Clubs carry on widely varied projects in farming, homemaking, community service, and other activities. They raise livestock and poultry, grow gardens and field crops, conserve the soil, sew, cook, preserve food, and improve their homes in rural or non-rural areas. In keeping with their motto, they strive "to make the best better." For a well-rounded life, they enjoy play and recreation as well as interesting, worthwhile work. Character development and good citizenship are their most significant goals.

Through their club programs, they learn: A sense of home and community responsibility, habits and attitudes of good citizenship, skills for useful and productive work, application of science to everyday farming and homemaking, the business side of efficient farming, sources of reliable information about their problems, practice of good health principles, art of getting along with people, happy home living, and congenial family relations.

NATIONAL 4-H CLUB WEEK

FEBRUARY 28 - MARCH 7

— 1959 —

TRIBUTE PAID TO 4-H ALUMNI

4-H alumni now number some 20 million, and special tribute will be paid to them during National 4-H Club Week, February 28-March 7.

"Salute to 4-H Alumni" is the slogan that will be echoed throughout the 49 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, during that week. Emphasis will be on the national 4-H Alumni Recognition program which is designed to honor outstanding men and women who have continued to live by their 4-H ideals.

In Washington, D.C., two 4-H alumni—a man and a woman—will join six 4-H'ers chosen to represent more than two million members in ceremonies commemorating Club Week. They will also accompany the young people to the White House where the 4-H report to the nation will be presented to President Eisenhower along with a personal gift from 4-H'ers everywhere.

The 4-H Alumni Recognition program was launched seven years ago through the combined efforts of the Extension Service and the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. Purpose of the program is to inspire today's youth to greater accomplishments by giving well deserved recognition to adults who have leaned heavily on their own 4-H training and experience to become useful, purposeful citizens.

Along with liberty goes the responsibility of providing security for one's own family. Most people seek this security through life insurance. Naturally they try to choose a company in which they can have absolute confidence. Perhaps this is one of the reasons why more and more people each year buy their life insurance from Liberty National.
