The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

● The announcement by Bob Jones, our able representative in the Congress, that we can be assured that the Alabama link of the Scenic Highway from Waterloo to the Tennessee state line will be started within the year and completed by the time the bridge over Pickwick Dam is ready for use, is certainly encouraging news for the western section of Lauderdale county, as well as the county as a whole. In his position with the Committee on Public Roads, he has first hand knowledge of aid to the development of our vast highway system and the manner in which this aid is made available.

● It was just before closing time when a sprightly elderly lady approached the meat counter of a certain grocery and asked to see a nice-sized hen. It so happened that the butcher had only one hen left. He went to the refrigerator and brought out the lone hen, placed it on the scale and said: "This one is $1.63." "Well," said the customer, "I really had something larger in mind." Thinking fast the butcher took the hen back to the refrigerator, stirred it around in the ice, and brought it back and placed it on the scale: "This one is $2.47." The woman thought for a second, then said: "I know what I'll do. I guess I'll take both of them."

● One of the biggest troubles with success these days is that its recipe is about the same as that for a nervous breakdown.

● Miss Gertrude Ebelow, of Chicago, who operates a health school in the Windy City has just returned from Russia. When interviewed, she said that the average Russian has a "sad, slouchy, bad posture — just like Americans." She added: "Russians, like Americans, don't know how to stand, sit or sleep properly and this has made both peoples a physiognomic mess." We knew something was causing the mess we are in.

● We believe that we would feel that we were getting ahead if we could just manage to stay even.

● The industrial plant had posted notices that a number of men would be employed the following day and long before sun-up a long line formed in the front of the employment office. Finally, late in the day, the man who was on the tail-end of the line reached the personnel manager: "Now tell me just why you want to work for us." "Well, sir," the applicant answered, "I got sick and went to my doctor. He gave me five pills and told me to take one after each meal. That was three days ago and I still have four pills left."

● There was a time when a fool and his money were soon parted. Now it happens to everybody.

● With Mr. K's visit to these shores, came a bumper crop of Russian stories, jokes and what have you. For instance, while Niki was bragging about the moon shot, Petrov, back behind the iron curtain, remarked to his friend: "If the Western Powers attack us, our agents will carry atom bombs concealed in suit cases to Paris, London, Rome, New York and all other big cities of the capitalist imperialists and destroy them." "Yes, Petrov," said Josef, "I guess we'll have enough bombs by then — but how about suit cases?"

● Following a $35,000 robbery, a Rockford, Ill., department store advertised that burglars preferred the quality of their merchandise, adding: "So will you, but we recommend the hours of 9:00 a. m. to 5 p. m. so we can serve you personally."

Wilson Dam Lock Will Be Dedicated On Nov. 10

Treasury Secretary Anderson To Speak; Many Notables To Attend

The Florence and Muscle Shoals Chambers of Commerce, cooperating with Tennessee Valley Authority, are busy making preparations for the big Nov. 10 program when the new $35,000,000 lock at Wilson Dam will be dedicated with Secretary of the U. S. Treasury Robert B. Anderson as principal speaker.

Additional locks are to be constructed at Wheeler Dam, Gunterville Dam and Hates Bar Dam, among others to rid the TVA district of additional bottlenecks.

Mayor C. L. Beard, of Sheffield and president of Citizens for TVA, Inc., will serve as general chairman in coordinating work of the Chambers with TVA in arranging the program and festivities.

The following committees were appointed by the two Chambers: INVITATION COMMITTEE: C. H. Jackson, Ed Deiter, Ben Craig, Tom Miller, G. W. Williams, W. D. Mosteller, Leonard Johnson. Reynolds Booster For River Canal

Estimates Show Local Aluminum Plant Could Save Many Millions

A demonstration given at Corpus Christi, Tex., on Friday, Oct. 9, illustrated why the Reynolds Metals Company at Listerhill and many other industries in the Tennessee Valley section of Alabama, is such a booster for construction of the proposed Tennessee-Tombigbee Canal.

The SS Richard, world's largest self-loading bauxite carrier, on that date completed her 100th voyage to Reynolds Metals Company's alumina plant near Corpus Christi.

It has been estimated that Reynolds operations at Listerhill alone would achieve freight savings in excess of one million dollars a year. The cost of the proposed $250,000,000 canal is constructed. Substantial savings would also accrue to other Muscle Shoals industries.

Roberson Draws Ten-Year Sentence

Second Week Circuit Court Will Convene Monday, November 2

This week, 21 defendants faced Circuit Court trials in Lauderdale as the first week of criminal proceedings in the semi-annual Court term got underway Monday, before Judge Robert M. Hill. Fifteen additional defendants, three of these charged with capital offenses, will be tried the second week scheduled to begin Monday, Nov. 2.

Included on the docket this week were a variety of grand larceny, forgery, burglary, and whisky cases.

Calvin Lee Roberson of Lauderdale County received the maximum sentence of 10 years in the penitentiary early Wednesday after he pled guilty in Circuit Court to first degree manslaughter in the auto-pedestrian death of Mrs. Monella Pauline Thompson of Rt. 2, Killen.

Roberson also had two cases of forgery pending against him and received a sentence of a year and a day in each of the cases.

The accident occurred when Roberson was traveling South in his automobile and hit Mrs. Thompson, knocking her into a ditch. She died two days later in ECM Hospital. At that time, Roberson was charged with driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident. The manslaughter charge followed the death of Mrs. Thompson.

'Just Year Away' Says Jones Of Scenic Hi'way

Seven Mile Island New Game Refuge

Resting Place For Water Fowl Requested By Sportsmen of Area

William C. Younger, Director of the State Department of Conservation, recently issued a state regulation establishing a new game refuge on Seven Mile Island west of Florence, Ala., on the Tennessee River.

Boundaries of the new refuge are on the north, the TVA Pickwick Reservation boundary; on the east by Cypress Creek; on the south by the Colbert-Lauderdale County line; and on the west beginning at the TVA boundary line on the east side of Section 34, Township 35, Range 12 West, thence south along the section line for a distance of eight-tenth mile, more or less, to the Lauderdale-Colbert line.

All hunting and trapping on the area is prohibited by the new regulation, but fishing may be continued in the waters of the area. Younger said the Seven Mile Island will be utilized as a resting area to hold waterfowl in Lauderdale County. In other similar areas, hunters have found that there is good shooting around refuge boundaries.

Sportsmen in the Tri-Cities area requested that the area be established as a refuge area, Younger said.

Receives Briefing
The distinguished guest of the Association was given a thorough briefing of the historical background of the proposed highway as well as the organization that now sponsors its development.

Congressman Jones was given a brief view of the Waterloo area and he was impressed with the beauty of the section that would benefit so greatly from the building of the scenic route.

Land Values Up
Expressing interest in the rapid increase in land values in the Waterloo area since efforts were first started to bring about the establishment of this new highway, Congressman Jones said that he could see the great economic value of the tourist trade that would roll through the Waterloo section as soon as the project was completed. He urged that the Association continue its work and added: "Your efforts are being well spent and you can be certain that the realization of the highway is only one year away."

Congressman Jones visited this newspaper for some time prior to the Waterloo meeting and received added information that he sought which would make it possible for him to render an even greater service to the project as well as to the people of the county. He was enthusiastic over the outcome of the efforts that have been made to bring about this needed development.

Rep. Robert E. (Bob) Jones, Eighth District Representative, while attending a meeting of officers and members of the Alabama-Tennessee Scenic Highway Association in the office of C. T. Wilson, president, at Waterloo Friday afternoon said: "You can be assured that the Alabama-Tennessee Scenic Highway will be started within a year and should be completed by the time the new bridge over Pickwick Dam is ready for use."

Committee Member
Representative Jones, who is chairman of the sub committee on roads, which is a sub committee of the Public Works Committee, has been working closely with both Alabama and Tennessee citizens in this very important link between Lauderdale County and that area in Hardin County, Tennessee in which Pickwick Dam and the site of the Tennessee River Pulp and Paper Co., now under construction, are located.

He discussed with the representatives of the Association the steps that have been taken to assure the construction of the bridge over Pickwick Dam, application for the necessary sum now having been made, and said that everyone in this area could be assured that the new highway, which will open up west Lauderdale county and give a direct route to the west, is a certainty and that only time would be required to bring it into being. He pledged his full support to seeing that everything would be done to speed up the establishment of this route.

"This new highway will mean a wonderful development of the area to be crossed and will open up a section that has not had the advantage of through travel," the Congressman said.

Speaking specifically on the subject of fertilizers, Mr. Boyd explained that unless the soil is tested fertilizing is guesswork. "Soil testing," he said, "pinpoints the right fertilizer to use." He stressed the importance of liming to get the full effects of fertilizing. He said figures showed 54 per cent of the soil in Lauderdale county tested low in lime and only 13 per cent tested high.

Through soil testing for super yields, we can increase farm income in Lauderdale County more than a million dollars," Mr. Boyd declared. Comparing farming with industry, he said, "there's a smokestack on every farm in Lauderdale county . . . all we need to do is fire the furnaces." Mr. Wagon said the program would set a minimum of 3000 samples to be taken before the December 15 deadline. An account will be set up at a bank and farmers can make out their checks for soil tests to the Soil Fertility Program where a complete record will be kept and the money deposited daily. After December 15 (Continued on Page 2)

Lauderdale County's annual income can be increased by more than a million dollars soil testing," Frank Boyd, Auburn extension agronomist and president of the Virginia Chemical Corporation some fifty-five Lauderdale county farmers and agricultural leaders at Underwood Tuesday night.

Attending enjoyed a delicious chicken barbecue dinner served from the school kitchen after which Lauderdale County Agent L. T. Wagon recognized the representatives of the various groups and business firms interested in the soil testing program, and explained the importance of getting the program under way.

The nucleus of the program, Mr. Wagon explained, was the contribution of $600 by number of business firms in the county to implement dealers, clubs and so on, making it possible to give Lauderdale County farmers who take advantage of the soil testing program, 600 free tests at $1.00 per soil sample. In other words if a farmer has ten soil samples taken he will get one free and have the postage paid on the others since the local tractor dealers have agreed to furnish the truck to take the samples to the laboratory at Auburn on December 15, the concluding date for the current program. Mr. Wagon said he hoped there would be 3000 samples taken from Lauderdale County farms.

"We are here to start a program to improve our farm income," Mr. Wagon said, "by balancing the soil with the plant food it needs." Mr. Wagon said that in 1958 only 92 farmers had their soil tested taking 198 samples. In 1959 the picture was a little better with 135 farmers taking 324 samples.

"We must talk soil testing, we must think soil testing and we must promote soil testing," Mr. Wagon said.

J. C. Lowery, extension agronomist from Auburn, spoke on the vital need for soil testing to raise farm income and the standard of living on Alabama's farms. He made a number of interesting comparisons with farming practices in the west and other sections where he said careful attention is given to small details, in other words the finer points of farming. He said these practices have paid off.

"We are going to have to wake up and change some of our practices," Mr. Lowery said, adding, "we can't do much about our waste supply but we can about the plant food supply."

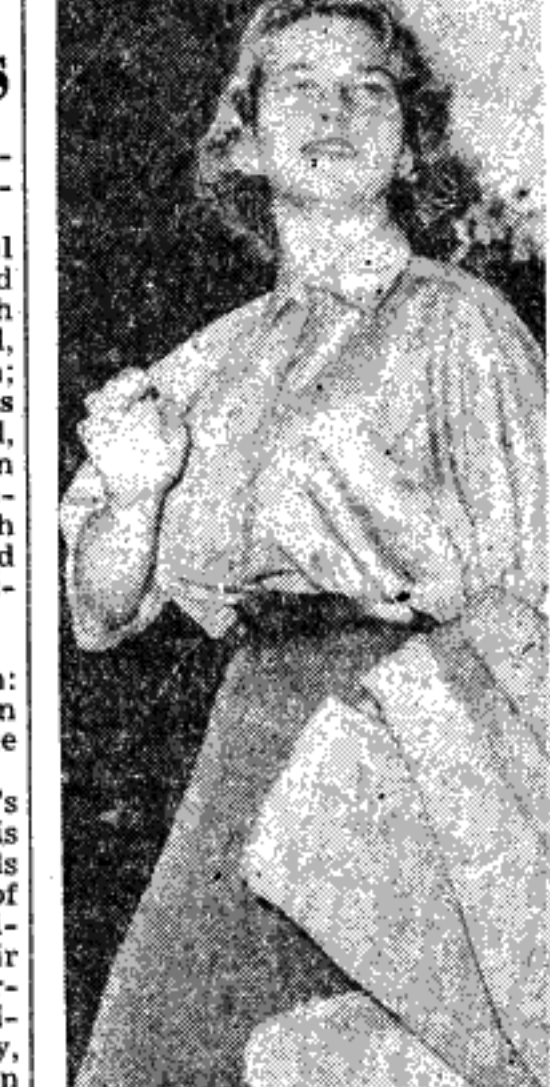

The key thing we can control through use of lime and fertilizer. Much of our fertilizing is lost because about three-fourths of the soil needs liming, he explained. The logical step in the use of lime and plant food will be through soil testing. Mr. Lowery stated. Through this program of soil testing research is brought to the farmers' fields, helping the farmers to adjust a fertilizer and liming program to their individual needs.

Speaking specifically on the subject of fertilizers, Mr. Boyd explained that unless the soil is tested fertilizing is guesswork. "Soil testing," he said, "pinpoints the right fertilizer to use." He stressed the importance of liming to get the full effects of fertilizing. He said figures showed 54 per cent of the soil in Lauderdale county tested low in lime and only 13 per cent tested high.

Textbook Of Freedom In Action

If ever there was a theme appropriate for National Newspaper Week it is this year's:

"Your Newspaper . . . Freedom's Textbook."

Freedom, within the framework of our democratic institutions, cannot operate effectively without an informed and enlightened public. The role of the newspaper in keeping Americans informed about local, national and international affairs dates back to the very beginnings of our Nation.

It is quite in keeping with the democratic evolution that is America for Freedom of the Press to be one of our basic freedoms. That freedom to get at the facts behind the important stories of the day and to keep watch on the activities of those who administer the public's business is really your freedom. Without it, the American citizen could not have at his fingertips the panorama of important and trivial events that makes up this free society of ours.

Each new edition of your newspaper is a living textbook of freedom in action, presenting a cross-section not only of America's government and business, but of its good news and tragedy, its recreation and entertainment, its life and death.

Throughout the world, when the newspapers cease to function freely and independently, the first step usually has been taken toward autocracy.

Today, on the week set aside in honor of America's newspapers, read yours with the deeper understanding of the message of freedom it brings you throughout the year.

Something Will Have To Give

President Eisenhower has invoked the Taft-Hartley Law in the current steel strike. It will get the men back into the mills for another 80 days. How far management and labor will get when negotiations start again remains to be seen.

It will take two or three weeks to get the mills back in production but even now due to the long idleness the nation's big users, the automobile manufacturers, will shut down for indefinite periods due to a steel shortage.

General Motors, it was reported, plans to shut down assembly lines by the end of October. Chrysler and Ford reported to be in better shape, indicate they may be able to run if the mills start up in two or three weeks. All over the country mills dependent on steel are facing the tightest steel situation since World War Two.

The steel companies made an offer. Whether good or bad was not of too much concern since it was at least a basis for further negotiations. Union officials not only rejected the proposal, they refused to dicker.

It is a foregone conclusion before any agreement is reached both sides will have to get down to brass tacks and to a modicum of reasonableness. Both sides will have to realize that nothing is too tough to be talked out if there is a mutual willingness to do so. Use of the Taft-Hartley Law gives them that chance—or as union president, David McDonald has pointed out, public impatience may force an unhappy alternative.

It Pays To Be Sure

Almost every day we read in the papers of needless tragedies on the highway. A recent one concerned the death of the nine coeds of Trenton, N. J.

Cause . . . a truck with inadequate brakes plowed into the back of their bus. It was driven by a man with a long record of traffic violations . . . a man who should not have been permitted to drive at all.

This is a double case of negligence. Authorities were to blame for allowing the truck to go uninspected and for allowing an habitual offender to drive. Had there been a tight observance of the law nine lives would have been saved.

However, careful people sometimes allow their car to get into unsafe mechanical condition without knowing it, thus becoming a potential danger on the highway. Cars should be checked at regular intervals with special attention to brakes and wheel cylinders making sure the master cylinder has plenty of fluid; proper alignment of wheels and steering; adequate lights and dimmers and directional signals. Naturally no trip should be made on slick or worn tires. These are not all the precautions one should take but they are some of the main ones. Serious accidents have been caused by dirty or cracked windshields so even a clean car is important to safe motoring.

When you plan a trip out of town to a ball game or on business take the car to a good mechanic and have it checked over thoroughly. It may save your life.

Lions Underdog In Coming Fray

Undeclared Florence Eleven Looking For Rough Time Saturday

Florence State's football Lions will be rated as the underdog Saturday night as they lay a record of 3-0-1 on line against Southeastern Louisiana College in Coffee Stadium.

Southeastern gets the favorite billing on the basis of the opposition they have met. In two losses, Southeastern has been up against East Texas State, who was rated first among the nation's small colleges last week, and Mississippi Southern.

Kickoff time in Coffee Stadium is set for 7:30 p. m. A big crowd is expected as the Lions are looking for their first victory over the Louisiana Eleven. Southeastern won in 1957 and 1958 with scores of 21-19 and 40-7 respectively.

Conservatives Win In Britain

The Conservative Party, led by Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of England, scored a great victory in the election on Oct. 8, winning an unprecedented third term of office. New York Judge Invokes T-H Law

Federal Judge Irving Kaufman of New York issued a Taft-Hartley injunction Oct. 8, which ordered 85,000 striking longshoremen to return to work at East and Gulf Coast ports. This injunction ended the eight-day strike for an 80-day "cooling off" period. It was issued immediately after President Eisenhower invoked the Taft-Hartley Law on Tuesday, Oct. 6.

FCC Holds Rigged Programs Legal

According to the Federal Communications Commission, as told to Congress recently, that although fooling the public with rigged television quiz shows is a fraudulent and deceptive practice, it is not an illegal one. "Neither the prosecuting attorney in New York nor I have been able to pinpoint any violation of the law," said FCC Chairman, John C. Doerfer. Doerfer said the FCC cannot censor programs, interfere with freedom of speech "in the field of dramatic expression" or dig up the manpower to monitor all programs.

Townsend Engaged To Belgian

Peter Townsend, 44-year-old former RAF group Captain is engaged to a pretty Belgian girl, Marie-Luce Jamagna, 21, daughter of a wealthy tobacco industrialist. She bears a marked resemblance to Britain's Princess Margaret, who was romantically linked with Townsend a few years ago. Their romance ended in 1955 when Princess Margaret made her dramatic statement that she would not marry Townsend. The reason was that he was a divorced man, and the Church of England objects to divorced persons remarrying.

Nine Coeds Burn To Death

A professor and nine Trenton State College coeds were burned to death Thursday, Oct. 8, in North Brunswick, N. J., when a tank truck rammed into a bus taking them home from a theater party in New York. Eleven girls and the truck driver were injured and some of them seriously burned in the flaming disaster. The bus was carrying 40 students and Dr. Earnest Sixta, professor of history at the college, who was killed instantly. The accident occurred when the bus stopped at a traffic light in the rain and fog. The truck smashed into the back of the bus which caused the gas tank at the rear of the bus to explode.

Civil Rights Group Ousted

In Shreveport, La., a three-judge Federal court Wednesday, Oct. 7, ruled that the Civil Rights Commission is operating illegally and threw it out of Louisiana. The court held that the commission's rules are unconstitutional because it won't let persons under investigation cross examine witnesses, confront witnesses or know the charges against them. The court gave the State of Louisiana a permanent injunction against commission hearings. However, the court said that if the commission revises its rules of procedure to eliminate the parts that were ruled against, it can come into the state and hold its hearings.

Veterans' Column

State Dept. of Veterans' Affairs

Many people have the mistaken idea that when a veteran needs to be hospitalized for a mental condition, all that's necessary is that the County Service Officer be contacted and an application form be completed and the veteran will forthwith be admitted to the nearest VA facility. However, it is not that simple. Generally speaking, unless the veteran's condition has been rated as service connected by the VA, he's going to have to wait for some time before he can be admitted to a VA Hospital, states W. O. Crumby, Veterans Service Officer, Lauderdale County. The VA has only a certain number of beds available for mental patients and when those beds are filled they just can't take any more. It is true that we have four VA hospitals in Alabama, and it is only natural that most people would have the impression that they should be able to take care of all veteran-mental cases in the state. However, of the four, one of them, Montgomery, has no facilities at all to treat mental conditions. Another one—Birmingham—has a relatively small number of "N.P." beds and it is also restricted as to the types of cases it can handle. That leaves only the VA hospitals at Tuscaloosa and Tuskegee that can care for any large number of veterans suffering with mental illnesses. And even with their large bed capacities, each of them, day in and day out, will have anywhere from sixty to a hundred veterans on their waiting list. In other words, that many veterans have already applied and had to be turned down because beds were not available. And each new applicant, unless his condition is service connected, must also take his proper place on the waiting list.

The appointment of Dr. Frank A. Rose, President of the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, and Thomas F. Parker, Montgomery, as Alabama State Co-Chairmen of the New March of Dimes for 1960 to be held January 2-31, was announced this week by Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation. Dr. Rose and Mr. Parker will lead the New March of Dimes in Alabama to provide funds for the broadened new health program of The National Foundation. Mr. O'Connor said in announcing the appointments.

The March of Dimes' new program covers birth defects and arthritis as well as polio, Mr. O'Connor said.

In accepting the appointments, Dr. Rose and Mr. Parker issued the following statement: "The broadened new program of the March of Dimes offers help to thousands of people in Alabama who are now fighting alone against the crippling ravages of birth defects and arthritis. Direct aid in the financing of treatment will be offered to many young patients, and all sufferers will benefit from the programs of research and training of skilled health professionals."

"The people of Alabama through the March of Dimes helped provide the funds that made possible the Salk vaccine. We know that the people of Alabama will not forget the sharp increase in polio incidence in Alabama this year. It has now been over four years since the Salk vaccine was pronounced safe, potent and effective. The incidence of paralytic polio in Alabama this year is almost entirely among the unvaccinated. It is tragically unnecessary. We call upon all individuals and organizations to work closely with their local volunteer county chapter of The National Foundation to insure the highest possible degree of protection to the people of Alabama. The present severe outbreak of paralytic polio should never be allowed to happen again. We anticipate that the March of Dimes-provided patient aid funds in Alabama's county chapters will be exhausted by the time the 1960 March of Dimes begins on January 2. We are confident that the people of Alabama will support the New March of Dimes and its vital work."

Bobbie Lee Phelps Bride

Of David Raymond Mitchell
Killen Memorial Baptist Church was the setting on Friday, October ninth, when Bobbie Lee Phelps, daughter of Mr. B. W. Phelps, became the bride of David Raymond Mitchell in an evening ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan S. Mitchell of Cloverdale Road are the bridegroom's parents.

The Reverend John Gibson, minister of the church, read the seven o'clock vows following nuptial selections presented by Mrs. Wanda Gilmore, organist, Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Carrie Leech, vocalists.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding occasion a patio-length gown of white lace over satin detailed with a rounded neckline and long, tapering sleeves. A great side-bow distinguished the very full skirt and her shoulder-length veil of illusion cascaded from a pearl-encrusted cap of lace. With her bride's Bible she carried a white orchid showered with streamers of white satin ribbon.

Wearing a dress of royal blue chiffon over taffeta, Mrs. B. W. Phelps, Jr., was her sister-in-law's only attendant. A rounded neckline, wide cummerbund of crushed taffeta and matching accessories were distinguishing features of her attire. Her flowers were a nosegay of mixed blossoms.

THE SPILLWAY

ON HAIR PINS she can weave fine lace . . .
Fine lace which she calls "trimmin'" . . .
And do a thousand things with grace . . .
As can so many wimmin' . . .

THE HONEST FACT is . . . hair pin trimmin' is an almost-extinct art . . . and just happened to pop to mind from out of nowhere . . . But the women in our district who "do a thousand things with grace" are without number and increasing daily . . .

THERE IS (FOR instance) . . . Elizabeth Sewell . . . who came to us from Memphis a few years back and who's an artist if ever we saw one . . . mixing and mingling muted shades from her "rag bag" to fashion exquisite needlecraft wall-hangings which are a delight to ev'ry single visitor who steps across the threshold at 1058 Dixie Avenue . . . and the envy of all who've glimpsed 'em . . . THEN THERE'S Geneva Fore . . . whose home on Rickwood Road in Edgemont also boasts of artistic ownership . . . and whose neighbors do a bit of boasting . . . "As exquisitely lovely as any FLOWER garden" and "Oh SO-O-O delectable" are the oft-heard comments about the vegetable plot and the "that-which-is-grown-therein" by our town's green thumb artist par excellence . . .

WE CLAIM PART-ownership of Marguerite Lyman . . . who divides her time between Florence and Birmingham . . . and who's just-before completing the last of twenty "Family History" manuscripts . . . for an equal number of family members . . . with photographs and snapshots and pages of beautifully-worded comment . . . each delightfully different from the nineteen others . . . There's romance in the Swiss-French background . . . and much good readin' . . .

AND THERE'S Christine Helton . . . who's been a friend to her friends-in-artistic-need for many moons . . . and whose home at 1056 North Pine bespeaks her ability in the field of Interior Decor . . . We hope we're the first to tell you that a new service will be open to the public in the next few days . . . and Christine (her sister) Eloise Williams will be the shop keepers . . . They'll be in the Rahner Building on East Tuscaloosa Street . . .

AND . . . TO GO back to the beginning . . . we DO know a hairpin trimmin' maker . . . and she's an artist at the job . . . Ann Beck of 404 Lewis Avenue simply can't be bested . . .

HOME COMING AT COFFEE
HI is always a thrill . . . and the past weekend was no exception . . . Among the never-to-be-forgotten highlights are the Homecoming Parade and (in particular) the Stimulator float . . . with lovely Sandra Farris perched amid a garden scene and looking very like a flower . . . A much-fun time was enjoyed at the dinner for the honored class of '32 . . .

as (MC) Ellis Wilson was carefully kept in tow by his charming Lucille while he (among other things) read numerous letters from absent class members . . .

ALSO MEMORABLE was the tea given by the Student Council under the guiding hand of this year's officers . . . Chetty Boston (president) . . . Butch Mathis (vice) . . . Anita Roe (secretary) and John Rogers (treasurer) . . . The hospitable abode of Elizabeth and "Mac" McDonald was the flower-debedecked setting . . .

THE PARTY WHIRL of the week has centered around Nell Deal's visit to the ole home town . . . Following close on the heels of the family dinner gathering on Sunday was the supper party at the home of Julia Walker and Jo Penney with Louise Paxton cohosting . . . Lucileons at The Town Club on Monday and Wednesday were hosted by Molly Nance and Julia O'Neal (respectively) . . . with Marie Callaway and Bess Wade doing the honors on Tuesday at Bess' apartment on Tombigbee . . . and Freddie Tyree's testine courtesy of yesterday . . . She's leaving today . . . and many would-have-been hostesses are disappointed . . .

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS of March of Dimes Posters soon will be distributed through the length-and-breadth of the nation . . . and on another page of our current edition is carried a picture of the poster to be displayed . . . It's MORE THAN RUMOR that the lovely blond two-year-old pictured there-on is a well-known Florentine . . . and that the announcement will be made from the White House by President Ike in early November . . . Please stand by . . .

VACATION NEWS includes the recent jaunt of Betty and Pete King . . . who left Florence about three weeks ago for a New York sojourn . . . made a quick decision to go farther and secured jet passage to Switzerland . . . where they headquartered at Zurich during their tours of this scenic wonderland . . .

MOVING INTO THEIR new home at Cypress Bend (on Cypress Creek) last Tuesday . . . Jean Gay and (Doctor) David Muslemann and chillun . . . Lindsey and Dee . . . are now in the process of "getting settled" and enjoying the exquisite natural setting of their surroundings . . . It's really QUITE a treat to behold . . .

VISITORS IN OUR midst include Nova Casson of Nashville and Irene Rutledge of Laurel, Miss. . . who'll arrive tomorrow to be greeted by Alberta Rogers at her home on North Wood . . . and Marie and (Dr.) Louis Evans . . . who're honoring our district (tho' THEY'd never express it thusly) with their presence as visitors to Billie and Dick Penney on Norwood Boulevard . . . A noted radio and TV personality . . . Dr. Evans is minister-at-large in the Presbyterian church and spoke to capacity congregations while here from his home in Hollywood last February . . .

AND NOW . . . CHEERIO and goodbye . . . until more news comes through The Spillway . . .

Award Presented J. W. Gresham, Jr.

Killen Student Given Check For $100 For His Superior Performance

An award for extraordinary performance is now in the hands of John W. Gresham, Jr., of Killen. Gresham received the award for his sustained superior performance as a student trainee in the Ordnance Missile Laboratories, Redstone Arsenal, during June-Sept. 1958 and Dec. 1958 to March 1959. He is enrolled as "co-op student" at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute. He is a junior in aeronautical engineering.

A "co-op student" attends school for one quarter than works for a quarter in a job for which he is training in college.

Other than the award, Gresham was presented a check for $100. Presentation was made by dean of engineering, Fred H. Pumphrey, Auburn School of Engineering. Both awards were made by the Army Rocket Guided Missile Agency.

Gresham was honored during the first fall meeting of the student section of the American Rocket Society at Auburn. ARGMA lauded both the recipient and Auburn engineering for their excellence in making the awards possible.

Two Rogersville Residents Hurt

The Alabama Highway Patrol reports that two Rogersville women, Opal Jones Waddell and Annie Mae Waddell, were hospitalized Saturday, Oct. 10, and damages estimated at $900 resulted from an accident at a rural intersection three tenths of a mile west of Rogersville.

Opal Waddell was the driver of the car traveling west on the West Rose Road when her vehicle was involved in a collision with another vehicle traveling south on the Turner Lindsey Road and being driven by Oliver Clarence Wright of Rt. 3, Lexington. Opal Jones was attempting a right turn when Wright's car skidded into it. No charges were filed as a result of an investigation. Both women suffered from cuts and bruises of the head and face as a result of the mishap and were taken to ECM Hospital.

HERE'S WHAT MAKES the CORVAIR REVOLUTIONARY

Short and sweet! Engine's in the rear—where it belongs in a compact car. With more weight on rear wheels, you get extra road-gripping traction for cornering and driving on ice, mud or snow. Also, by avoiding nose-heavyness of front-engine compact cars, Corvair handles easier, brakes better, rides smoother. Styling of both 4-door models is clean and uncluttered . . . as fresh and functional as modern architecture.

Unpack Power Team

Engine, transmission and drive gears are neatly wrapped in one lightweight package. Takes less space, leaves you more.

UNISTRUT BODY BY FISHER

Body and frame are combined into a single rigidly constructed unit that reduces Corvair's weight, enlarges its passenger space.

Practically FLAT FLOOR

Corvair is America's only compact car with a virtually flat floor that gives you full 6-passenger comfort. For extra space, folding rear seat converts easily to make room for 17.6 cu. ft. of cargo.

TRUNK'S UP FRONT

Lots of luggage space under the hood, where it's convenient for groceries, packages.

NEARLY 3 FEET SHORTER

Corvair's almost 5 inches lower, 1,300 pounds lighter, too. Its compact size makes it a joy to jockey through traffic, a pleasure to park. No need for power assists.

AIR COOLED

You never have to fuss with antifreeze. Turbo-Air 6 warms up quicker, with less wear on parts. Air-plane-type heater* goes to work almost instantly. *Optional at extra cost.

4-Wheel Independent Suspension

Springs at each wheel cushion bumps independently of each other for a ride that rivals much costlier cars.

Revolutionary Rear Engine

works small miracles with mileage. It's the world's first production 6 with the ultra-smooth power of horizontally opposed pistons.

and the most practical thing of all is Corvair's

Mixon, local county FHA supervisor. He said it is the purpose of every FHA loan, together with farm and home management aids, to help the borrower reach a position where he can repay his loan as soon as feasible and "graduate" to bank or other credit.

The Metal Products Division of Koppers Co., Inc., has been given a contract to furnish a double-chamber electrostatic precipitator for the Tennessee River Pulp and Paper Company plant near Counce, Tenn.

Convocations To Include Number Famous Artists

Scheduled to appear in the late autumn as headliner for the 1959-60 Convocations Series at Florence State College is Vincent Price. Known to a vast audience of television, movie-goers, and record collectors, Price will be welcomed by the community and campus alike. His subject will be "An Actor's Life For Me," reminiscent of his 25 years as an entertainer.

First of this year's convocations was the Leonard Warren performance of the Muscle Shoals Concert Association Series. Others in that series will include double pianists Stecher-Horowitz, Katherine Cornell and Brian Aherne in "Dear Liar," and the performance of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. The Audubon Screen Tour will be an October 5 presentation; on November 5 George Seaver, Albert Schweitzer's most scholarly biographer, will lecture on Schweitzer's Philosophy.

Spring programs include the Claremore String Quartet, "Books in Profile" by Miss Virginia Peterson during National Library Week; and a concert by Walter Urban, pianist, Assistant Professor of Music at Florence State.

Chairman of the Convocations Committee is Miss Gladys Shepard and members include Miss Marvyn Curry, W. J. McIlrath, Mrs. Hilda Mitchell, Dr. Jesse Reese and Mr. Urban.

Homecoming Set At Central High

Martha Fulmer Chosen As Queen; Highlight Is Game With Hazelwood

Martha Fulmer, senior student at Central High school, has been chosen as Homecoming Queen of 1959. Her nomination was announced by Larry Whitten, president of the Student Council, after a run-off vote between Miss Fulmer and Myra Perkins.

Miss Fulmer and four other senior girls who were nominated, will make up the Queen's Court at Homecoming ceremonies at the Central-Hazelwood football game, Friday, Oct. 16.

Queen Martha Fulmer will be crowned by 1958 Homecoming Queen Maglean Lovelace. She will be escorted by Ralph McCorkle. Members of the Court and their escorts include: Myra Perkins with T. C. Witt; Sarah Paulk with Sammy Quillen; Eleanor Lovelace with Tony Thornton; Clarissa Hubbard with Sammy Smith and Martha Sue May with Scotty Montgomery.

As part of the Homecoming game, the newly-organized pep squad will work with the Central High Cheerleaders. The pep squad made its first appearance on Oct. 1 at the Central-Tanner game. Mrs. Ardelle Carroll is faculty sponsor of this pep group.

MOTORISTS URGED TO BUY LICENSES EARLY

Automobile tags and other motor vehicle license plates went on sale October 1. Lauderdale Tax Assessor, Helen L. Murphy urges car and truck owners to get these license plates early to avoid late rush.

Under the law, automobiles must be assessed at the Tax Assessor's office and plates purchased at the Probate Judge's office prior to November 15 or penalties then go into effect. Many people wait until the last week, thus bringing about long lines of persons waiting to buy tags, the tax assessor pointed out.

Recent reports show that purchases of license plates and assessing of automobiles is running behind schedule.

Foods of the Future

TAILOR-MADE STEAKS?

In the next few years, your butcher can take tough, tasteless cuts of meat, grind and dehydrate them, then reweave and remold the fibers to create a tender, delicious steak, roast or chops!

Fantastic? Far from it! Meat company researchers soon may perfect this process to glorify "budget cuts" into new attractiveness as your favorite choice of meat.

Many changes will improve foods of the future, but BEER and ALE will continue as "old stand-bys" in countless American homes. These wholesome beverages always will go well with many types of food!

LES CARROLL

Musical facts come and go and tastes are constantly changing. Whether for better or worse will get you an argument in any music store.

However, most record shop proprietors will tell you there is one type of music for which taste and demand are constant, good sacred music.

Anxious to meet this demand, recording companies are releasing some excellent LP's. One of today's most popular gospel singers, George Beverly Shea, has a beautifully sung album of familiar gospel songs in "Blessed Assurance" (RCA). And Red Foley, whose inspirational songs have been a high spot of "Jubilee," has a fine album of hymns.

of all churches in "Let's All Sing to Him" (Decca).

In "Book, Candle and Prayer," Dick Noel sings new hymns that have been most requested of him on Don McNeill's Breakfast Club Show (Coral). For country-style gospel songs, Kitty Wells' "Dust on the Bible" is excellent (Decca). And "Paul Robeson at Carnegie Hall" includes several familiar spirituals. Time has not harmed Robeson's vibrant voice (Vanguard).

Tennessee Ernie's "Gather 'Round" is a real treat for his myriads of fans, and for you folk music lovers, a number of folk songs are included (Capitol). For

ORPHANS OF SPANISH WAR TO BENEFIT
Children of Spanish-American War veterans who died of a service-connected disability now are eligible for the same educational benefits as those children of veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean conflict.

This category of children became eligible with the recent passage by Congress of an Act amending the previous law governing the War Orphans Education Act. Neil R. Smart, Manager, Alabama VA Regional Office in Montgomery, announced.

At the same time, Smart said that about one third of the eligible young people are failing to take advantage of the educational benefit due to a misunderstanding of the law.

Adopted Children To Get Benefits

A new law officially known as Public Law 86-195, which was recently signed by President Eisenhower, gives a clear and definite definition of the term "adopted child" where benefits from the Veterans Administration are involved, states W. O. Crumby, Veterans' Service Officer, Lauderdale County.

Previously, the VA has held that an "adopted child" of a veteran was entitled to certain pension benefits. However, they ruled that in order to qualify, the final adoption decree must have been issued prior to the veteran's death. In Alabama, an adoption may not become final until one year after the initial decree is issued.

There have been cases where an initial decree would be issued, but before becoming final, the veteran would die. The VA in turn, would disallow the child's claim for pension. Under the new law, such a child would be entitled to the pension if he is adopted by the veteran's surviving spouse within two years after the veteran's death.

Winds in a hurricane seldom go over 150 mph, according to data compiled by the Navy's Hurricane Hunters. Average hurricane winds are 120 mph in the inner areas, tapering off to 40 mph on the outer edge of the storm.

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

In the last glow of the sunset, this sailboat seems to be alone in the vastness of the sea. And yet it isn't. Were this boat suddenly to get into trouble, helping hands would swiftly come to the rescue.

So it is with life. At times you may feel very much alone—yet in reality you are not. For if you didn't have a single friend in the world, you would have the Church.

The Church welcomes everyone—and that's a pretty big thing when you stop to think about it. It means that always there is a door open to you. You have but to turn the knob.

Chart a new course for yourself. Start going to church. When you do, you'll find that your voyage through life has acquired fresh purpose.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Huge Chick Plant In Receivership

A depression in the poultry industry has destroyed the giant Chemell chicken hatchery in Atlanta, Ga. A federal referee approved the organization's request for voluntary bankruptcy and assigned William Cummings of Atlanta and Dent Bostick of Gainesville as receivers, on Thursday, Oct. 8.

A report of the organization showed that it could not continue at a profit. In previous times, the industry produced three million baby chicks a week. Affected directly are the three main corporations in the 30-corporation firm — Gainesville Hatchery, Inc.; Chemell Hatchery, Inc.; and Chemell's Inc. Presidents of the 27 other corporations have been authorized the initiate bankruptcy proceedings if the need arises.

Dusting Controls Turnip Webworm

By HERMAN H. MARKS
Assistant County Agent

Many farm families in this area have seeded a fall patch of turnip greens. Unless this crop is protected from the turnip webworm the stand may be destroyed within two weeks after the plants emerge.

The turnip webworm spins a web and feeds in the buds of all kinds of greens, beets, cabbage, and callards. This insect can be controlled by dusting once a week with Auburn approved garden dust. Other materials that will be found effective in the control of the turnip webworm include DDT and 20 per cent toxaphene. Neither of these materials, however, should be applied to a crop after the plants have leaves on them that will be eaten.

A pest which cost farmers a great deal of money each year is cattle lice. Now is a good time to spray cattle for the control of this pest. If the cattle are properly sprayed during October or November they should be practically free of lice throughout the winter. One of the following materials at the rate given in 100 gallons of water should be used: 1 pound of 25% wettable lindane, 25 pounds of 50% wettable methoxychlor, 10 pounds of 40% wettable toxaphene, or 7½ pounds of 5% rotenone. Control oxtail lice, found only in the bush of the tail, by dipping the tail in one of the mixtures listed above. Common dust formulations of the above materials are also effective. Toxaphene should not be applied as sprays or dips to small calves. Only pyrethrins and rotenone are recommended for use on lactating dairy animals.

Milking Faster By New Method

H. L. Davis of Florence Rt. 1 recently built a walk-in elevated milk parlor, using only family labor. The Lauderdale County farmer built the parlor according to Extension Service plans for a total cost of four dollars, said Assistant County Agent S. W. Eich. Family labor and the use of scrap lumber kept the cost down, with cement and nails being the only things bought. Milking is so easy now that Mrs. Davis and her two sons do it all. She said, "Milking with our cow-can milking machine in the new parlor is twice as easy as milking by hand in the barn. I would recommend this system to anyone

Perhaps by the time you read this the Department of Agriculture will have made known its plans for the 1960 cotton crop. If not, it shouldn't be long in announcing what "B" farmers can expect in the way of acreage. . . . guesses are that they'll be allowed about the same amount of acreage in 1960 as this year. . . . however, there is a move on to skip the provisions of the law for 1960 and move immediately into the provisions for 1961. . . . it is assumed this would mean support of cotton at 70 per cent of parity (but the Secretary of Agriculture could set the support at a higher figure) with parity based on the average grade and staple of the crop rather than on Middling 7/8 inch. . . . there would be no choice system. . . . minimum CCC resale price would be 115 per cent of the loan. . . . nothing official on this, you understand. While we are on the subject of milking six or more cows." The new parlor makes it possible for the Greenhill community family to handle a larger herd, and they plan to buy 10 more cows as soon as possible. Then they will be milking 16 cows in their manufacturing milk operation. Davis keeps production records on his cows through the Weigh-A-Day-A-Month program and feeds them according to the production records. In addition to producing manufacturing milk, the Greenhill community farmer grows cotton, corn, alfalfa, oats, wheat, and grain sorghum. Pasture for his herd of 19 beef cows consist of 18 acres of ladino clover and fescue and 17 acres of sorghum.

'Fixed Rent' Cotton Said Not Eligible For Price Support

Farm operators, landowners, and landlords were reminded today that cotton received in payment of standing or fixed rent is not eligible for price support under the 1959 program. According to Lawrence H. Rickard, County Office Manager, Lauderdale Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office marketing cards for 1959 have already been issued to cotton farmers, and in some cases a card may have been sent to a farm operator who did not share in the risk of producing the 1959 cotton crop. Where such a farm operator receives cotton from a tenant in payment of fixed or standing rent, the operator may believe that the issuance of a marketing card to him indicates that his cotton may be put under the support program. This is not true, the Office Manager emphasized, and use of the card to identify such cotton as eligible for support would be in violation of price-support regulations for the 1959 cotton crop.

News Of WATERLOO

By Mrs. S. E. Cherry

Church: Regular preaching services will be held Sunday at the Baptist Church and the Church of Christ. Sunday School at the Methodist Church meets at 10:00 o'clock. Regular third Sunday services will be held at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Bro. Clarence Jones, pastor. Personals: Mrs. H. W. Wesson is confined to her home by illness. On the sick list also is Mrs. Minnie Herron. Week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lacher were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McCutcheon from Waynesboro, Tennessee. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Threet have announced the arrival of a baby girl on October 11 at Coffee Memorial Hospital. Mamie Lawson was a spend-the-night guest of Diane Lacher Monday night. Mrs. Lillian Humphrey and Billy from Fairfield spent the week end in Waterloo. Mrs. S. E. Cherry spent last Friday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Hall in Sheffield. Last year nearly 31 percent of the nation's dairy cows were bred artificially.

legislation . . . reports that farmers will be able to lease their cotton allotments next season don't seem to be so . . . there were reports that some legislation passed with this provision, but we can't find any record of it . . . nor can we get any official statement to that effect . . . what may have happened is that when the provision was not contained in P.L. 172, it may have been tacked to some other measure and actually passed . . . but we can't get the people who should know to say so . . . we'll let you know when we find out.

Strike Hurts At this writing the dock strike is certainly hurting cotton . . . not just hurting cotton merchants, but cotton in general . . . this is one of the many risks that the merchants take . . . risks that the public seldom thinks about . . . and many of the merchants are caught with cotton on the docks or delivery commitments that they can't meet . . . but also to be considered is the fact that foreign mills, unable to get delivery of U. S. cotton, are turning to foreign growers and all the time carrying charges are piling up.

Changes Made As we predicted some changes have been made in cotton marketing regulations to ease some of the pain of red tape in the current program . . . plenty of red tape remains, however.
