Fair Park To Be Scene Scout Show

The Boy Scout Exposition will open at the Florence fairgrounds tomorrow for two days of exhibitions covering Scouting in its every phase. Proceeds from the project, sponsored by the Florence Jaycees, will go to the Scouts and their numerous activities.

Forty-five booths have been prepared, showing all the activities of the individual troops of Scouts, Cubs and Explorers, some of which will be forestry, bridge building, first aid, conservation, outdoor camping, stamp collecting, quail raising, rope making, tent making and several others.

A most colorful exhibit to be shown will be the performance by the local chapter of the Order of the Arrow. About 20 members, dressed in full Indian costume, will demonstrate the dances done by the Indians in the old West.

On a recent visit here, State Jaycee President Virgil Willett had much praise for the Florence Jaycees, their president Mack Taylor and project chairman Bill Buffalo for their part in sponsoring the Scout Exposition.

President Of UN General Assembly To Speak April 28

International Statesman, Last Of Florence State's Danforth Programs

Sir Leslie Munro, president of the General Assembly of the United Nations, will speak at Corfe Auditorium Thursday evening.

SIR LESLIE MUNRO

April 28. His topic will be "The Role of the United Nations in World Affairs." This will be the last of Florence State College's Danforth programs and a cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Commenting on this looked-forward-to event, Dean Turner W. Allen said, "Few statesmen have held more commanding positions in world affairs over the last decade than Sir Leslie Munro. Since 1952 as president of the General Assembly of the United Nations, and as a member of other important UN committees, Sir Leslie has played a leading role in the work of the United Nations, and has figured prominently in decisions on the major crises of the period, including the Hungarian Revolution, the Suez invasion, and the recurrent crises in the Middle East."

"We in the college and the community will seldom have the opportunity to hear a person of greater national and international reputation."

There will be no admission fee.

Florence, County Again Left Out

Allocations Made By Education Authority Omit Local Schools

Florence-Lauderdale County was once again left out of allocations made by the Alabama Education Authority Tuesday from proceeds of the $100 million school bond issue authorized by the legislature last summer.

A grant of $435,000 was made by the Authority Tuesday for a new all-Negro trade school at Mobile where Negroes have applied for admission to the existing white trade school.

Earlier, the Authority, composed of six state officials including School Superintendent Frank R. Stewart, approved a sum of $280,514 for construction of three new shop buildings at the Decatur Trade School.

Other allocations approved by the Authority were: Alabama College at Montealegre—$182,680 for repairs and improvements.

Troy State College—$297,000 for a new health and physical education building.

Jacksonville State College—$392,000 for use in constructing a new dining hall estimated to cost $1 million.

Livinston State College—$223,740 for married students' housing.

Keller Appointed Board Education

Florence Attorney Jesse Keller has been appointed to membership on the Florence Board of Education by the City Commission to succeed Madding King, whose second term on the board expired April 1.

It was indicated by Mr. King at a recent commission meeting that since he had served two terms, he felt he should not be reappointed, reported Commissioner Alvah E. Hall.

Central Alumni Hear Jesse Keller

Robert Lewis Is Elected President; Mrs. Murphy, Secretary For Next Term

More than 200 members of Central High School Alumni Association met Thursday night at the local airport for an interesting and enlightening address by Jesse Keller, Florence attorney, who has just been named a member of the Florence board of education. Will Duncan, president, presided and introduced the speaker. Tommy Pirkle gave the invocation.

Prior to Mr. Keller's address but following the banquet, Robert Lewis was elected to head the association for the year 1960-61, with Mrs. Helen Murphy named secretary. They assumed their new duties following the adjournment of the meeting.

Mr. Keller opened his remarks with the statement that what he had to say was controversial and he hoped none would be offended. He said that he hoped strongly in what he had to say and would not hand out platitudes seeking applause. His talk was straight from the shoulder and he held his audience's interest throughout.

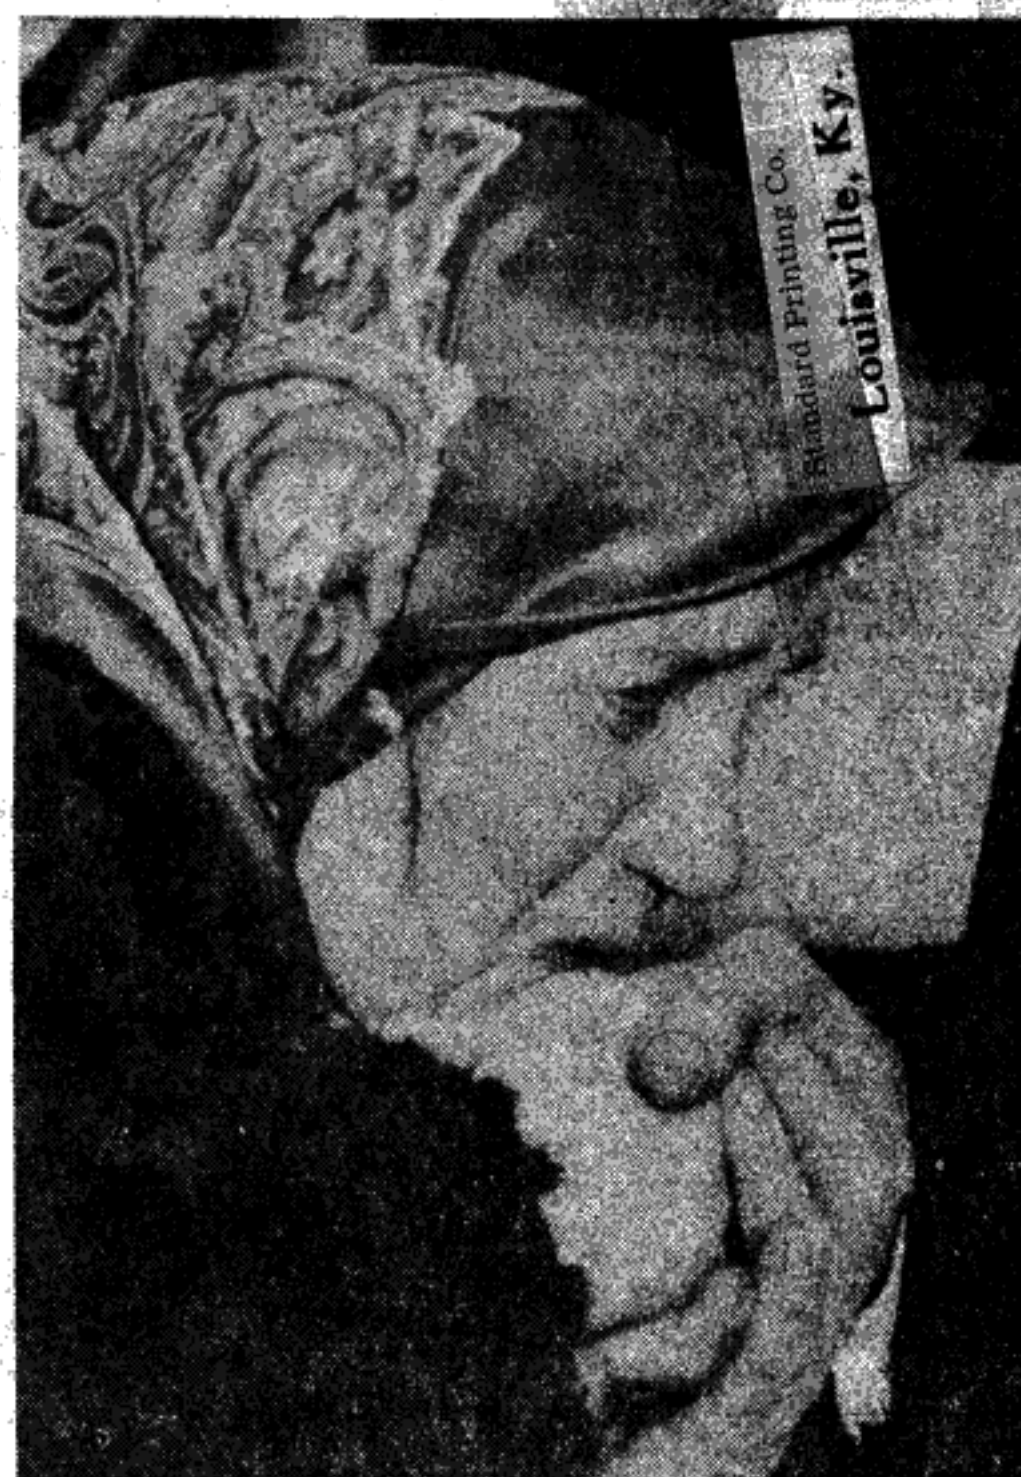

The three phases of his discussion were concerning integration of the races, the financial problems faced by our schools and the relative poor quality of too many of our teachers.

Basing his discussion of integration on the year of 1960 and not 1860, Mr. Keller gave a studied interpretation of the problems as they exist. On school finances, he condemned the poor manner in which state officials tried to guess the future of the state's income and so brought on prostration; and for the teaching personnel, excluding those present, the speaker derided the apparent lack of training too many have received and the little interest too many had in the development of our youth.

Work On Airport Building Halted

Space Is Problem Until Eastern's Shoals Service Has Been Determined

Sam J. Israel, Chairman of the local Aeronautics Authority, reported Wednesday, April 13, that due to local uncertainty over the final disposition of a Civil Aeronautics Board ruling suspending Eastern Air Line's East-West service at Muscle Shoals, work on the new administration building at the local airport has temporarily been halted.

Israel also said that the contractor, Thomas W. Lloyd, of Sheffield, now has no way of knowing how much space both Eastern and Southern will require in the new building, providing the CAB's final ruling stands.

The recent request by the Federal Aviation Agency for more adequate facilities including more space at the airport has brought on further consternation.

In working out this space problem, Israel said, "We originally had planned for a second story in the administration building, then due to high costs, we eliminated this idea. Now we may be forced to build a second story in order to accommodate FFA."

The rapid increase in air traffic has brought about the extensive statewide airport construction program. This year's program, the largest ever, includes projects costing more than $2 million.

Existing Law Would Allow Drop In Parity

BULLETIN

The Jones Bill introduced in the House by Rep. Robert E. (Bob) Jones and now being studied by the House Agriculture Committee's Subcommittee on Cotton, is similar to the bill introduced by Hill and Sparkman. Interest in the Jones measure is said to be widespread.

A threatened loss to Alabama cotton farmers of $14 per bale on the 1961 crop has prompted Senators Lister Hill and John Sparkman to join in a plan for legislative remedy.

According to the Alabama Senators, existing law would allow Agriculture Secretary Ezra Tatt Benson to drop cotton price supports to 70% of parity in 1961. Reports reaching the Senators indicate that farmers cannot take such a parity cut.

Pointing out that the $14 drop would eliminate or cut sharply into profits per bale, Hill and Sparkman plan to introduce this stopgap cotton legislation because they "believe that under Eisenhower-Nixon-Benson anti-family farm policies no long range comprehensive legislation can be enacted this year."

The Hill-Sparkman cotton bill, companion legislation to that introduced in the House by Representative Bob Jones (D., Ala.), would place a floor of 75% of parity on the 1961 crop and delay until 1962 a change from 7/8 mid-dling grade as the standard for the cotton price support base.

"Frankly, our bill would strip Agriculture Secretary Benson of authority to cut parity and allotments for the 1961 cotton crop," Hill, a member of the Senate Agriculture Appropriations Committee, said.

"Under Benson's policies price supports have fallen since 1955 from 90% of parity to 75% for 1960 Choice A cotton," Sparkman, Chairman of the Agricultural Policy Subcommittee of the Joint Economic Committee, said. "Further drift toward lower prices could lead us into another catastrophe like the Republican depression of the early '30's."

Briefly, Hill and Sparkman, in a joint statement, outlined events leading to their plans for the cotton bill's introduction.

"We decided to introduce this emergency legislation because cost of production in recent years has increased steadily while the price received by the farmer has moved downward. These conditions could lead up to disastrous results if supports are lowered further."

"With costs trending upward Alabama farmers would have to spend some more than in recent years to make a 1961 crop and at the same time face the very strong possibility that they would make approximately $14 less per bale."

"In view of these developments and the fact that family farmers everywhere are under strong pressure from the Eisenhower-Nixon-Benson program to get out of farming, a further drop in parity would force the family farm systems of Alabama and the nation further down the road to oblivion."

Korean Rioting Blamed On Rhee's Government

Syngman Rhee Told End Repressive Measures Against Opposition Party

South Korea's President Syngman Rhee was rebuked Wednesday by the United States and told to end "repressive measures against his political opposition and protect the Democratic rights of the Korean people."

This nation's action came after bloody riots filled the streets of the South Korean capital of Seoul during the past week and resulted in a large number of casualties and wrecked buildings. President Rhee called in troops Tuesday night and established martial law in Seoul and four other cities in the republic.

Some 100,000 students and civilians took part in the protest demonstrations which turned bloody rioting when they were fired on by soldiers. School boys were in the forefront of the huge crowds as the troops poured volley after volley into the milling throng as well as tear gas. Unofficial reports said the total killed would reach 81 and some 300 injured. A 14-year-old schoolboy was among those killed, reports stated.

Secretary of State Christian Herter told South Korean ambassador Y. C. Yang that the blood demonstrations in Korea reflected "popular dissatisfaction." He added that they stemmed from "the conduct of the recent elections and repressive measures unsuited to a free democracy."

President Eisenhower is scheduled to visit Korea on June 22 on the way back to the United States from his Moscow visit and Herter remarked to Yang that "it will be unpleasant for Mr. Eisenhower when he comes here." At a State Department conference Herter also told the Korean diplomat that the repercussions from the incident would weaken South Korea's international prestige and standing.

Rep. Stewart L. Udall (D-Ariz.) in calling on Mr. Eisenhower with regard to the Korean trouble said the riots confirmed his beliefs that Rhee won re-election with strong-arm methods.

Herter also gave Yang a note for the Korean government.

Ballots May Be Cast For Twenty

Permissible To Vote For Just One Delegate Or Elector If Desired

It was ruled Tuesday by Attorney General McDonald Gallion that Alabama voters may vote for any number of delegates to the National Democratic Convention from one to 20. Gallion further stated that under authority of Title 17, Section 361, Code of Alabama 1940 as amended, a voter can ballot for just one delegate or just one elector, if he so desires.

In the case of the elector, the voter can vote for any number of electors up to 11.

Gallion stated, "In both instances the answer is that a single vote or more will count and the voter does not have to vote for the entire number of places to be filled."

A number of requests, it was reported, have come to the office of the Attorney General seeking advice as to whether or not voters may "single shot" the vote they cast May 3rd for the State Delegate-at-Large and Presidential Elector to the National Democratic Convention.

Pledged To Get The GOP Out

A statement issued by eight of Alabama's eleven Loyalist candidates for presidential electors last Tuesday stated in part: "The eleven Democratic candidates welcome the opportunity to give the people of Alabama a clear-cut choice between the Democrats and the Republicans. We are glad to accept the challenge laid down by the group who would deliver Alabama into the Republican Party by the back door."

Pledged to "get the Republicans out of the White House" are the following candidates: C. G. Allen, Dave Archer, C. L. Beard, J. E. Brantley, W. L. (Bill) Chenuit, Milton K. Cummings, Karl Harrison, Bill Jones, William D. (Billy) Partlow, Ben F. Ray, and D. Hardy Riddle.

There can be little doubt that the line of battle is clearly drawn. Alabamians can do their share by voting for electors who will not bolt the party. Certainly the Republicans have done nothing to merit support in the South during the past seven years as witness the Administration's record of bayonets at Little Rock, high interest rates, higher taxes, disastrous farm programs, civil rights and sitdowns.

The above candidates will vote for the Democratic nominee named by the Convention as opposed to the rival states' rights candidates who have stated they will not vote for a candidate they consider hostile to the South but rather will vote for a "Democrat of national stature" who is sympathetic to the South.

The South cannot present a solid front if the states in the South fail to stick together. Only in that way will the South be able to maintain a bargaining position so sorely needed in this time of dissension.

What About The Back Yard?

Have you ever thought where you might spend your vacation in just ten short years from now? At the rate vacation spots are filling up with people seeking camp sites it will not be long before the vacationer will have to travel quite a distance and even then face the prospects of not too much privacy. In twenty-five years the situation will be really acute according to the experts.

Our population experts predict that by 1985, we will have about 200,000,000 Americans, with about 83 percent living in or near big urban centers. It is expected that the present 40-hour work week will be further reduced by then. Automobile use will increase and Americans will travel a trillion vehicle miles a year. Around 1900, the average American traveled 500 miles a year. Now, he travels more than 5,000 miles a year, and in 1985, it is expected to be close to 9,000 miles.

The public places an American family can go for a vacation are getting scarce. There are still only about 600 miles on the entire Atlantic Coast where a person can go without paying a fee to a private owner. The situation on the Pacific is better, but not too much better and on most of our rivers and lakes around the nation, little land is left free for public use.

The foregoing observation is doubtless conservative since no mention is made of how we are going to reach our destination with the highways and byways clogged with 100,000,000 vehicles. Already in many congested areas it's a bumper-to-bumper trip any weekend the family has an outing.

Already the experts are tearing their hair and nobody has come up with any sort of solution. Maybe the old back yard is going to be a pretty popular place after all. We can say one thing for sure . . . it's a lot safer.

Waterloo Industry To Be Developed

Being planned by the State Planning and Industrial Development Board, under the direction of Harry Shaddix, industrial representative, is a brochure containing a ten-point program for development of the Waterloo community.

Shaddix paid a visit to Waterloo last Wednesday, April 13, and met with officials of the Waterloo Lions Club and C. T. Wilson, Chairman of the Community Betterment Committee.

The brochure will be available within the next six to eight weeks and is being developed in an effort to promote Waterloo as a site for small industries.

To be developed under this 10-point program will be the Alabama-Tennessee Scenic Route highway.

County Spelling Bee On Saturday

The Lauderdale County Spelling Bee, to be held at the Florence-Lauderdale American Legion Post Home, South Court Street, on Saturday, April 23 at 9 a.m., will be the largest in the history of county spelling bees, according to H. Grady Richards, county chairman.

Thirty-five schools have been notified of the annual contest and about one-third have already responded. All schools in the county are eligible, including public schools, Kilby Training School, Mars Hill Bible School and the Catholic School. Only students through the eighth grade will participate.

Bob Hyde Tells Exchange About National Pool

Robert O. Hyde, vice-president of National Pool Equipment Co., addressed the Exchange Club Tuesday noon at Hotel Reeder on the operation and goals of the local company. Charles Finney was in charge of program arrangements and presented the speaker.

Mr. Hyde traced the history of the company from a small beginning in Birmingham and an even smaller branch in Florence from 1954 with a total business of $400,000 to 1960 when it is expected that sales will reach $4,000,000. He also told of the growth of the swimming pool business throughout the nation and pointed out that it was running section in speed of advancement to electronics.

Giving an interesting discussion of the type of pool equipment manufactured here, he told of the 16 subdivisions of the company and stated that the total of employees had increased from eight to 275. With a goal of $20,000,000 in sales in the near future, National Pool is taking its place among the leaders in the industry, the speaker pointed out.

President Sam Esslinger, Jr. and Frank White were named delegates to the state convention in Tuscaloosa April 29-30, with George A. Porter and Harold May as alternates.

Edward Wanger and Howard Booream were guests.

Chicks' Ball Park Destroyed

A fire which broke out shortly after 7 p.m. (CST) Sunday night raged through the Memphis Chicks' baseball park in Memphis virtually destroying the ballpark and sending flames, smoke and sparks into the Baptist Hospital across the street and to the John Gaston Hospital down the block. Firefighters were not able to tell if there were any workmen still in the park, where the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox had played an afternoon exhibition game, when the fire began. No injuries were reported.

Thirteen Waive Hearings Friday

One Defendant Bound Over To Grand Jury By Law And Equity Court

In Lauderdale's non-jury Law and Equity Court Friday, one defendant was bound over to action of the next Grand Jury and 13 others waived preliminary hearings.

Eddie Lee Johnson, charged with second degree burglary, requested preliminary hearing in his case but was bound over under $1,000 bond.

Other cases waived and amounts of bonds, if set, were as follows: James E. Sheffield, escape, $750 bond; Kenneth Hale Hayes, burglary second degree, $750 bond; John Willis Horne, assault with intent to murder, $750 bond; Billy Shelby, Jr., burglary second degree, $750 bond; John Stewart, leaving the scene of an accident, $750 bond; Edgar White, Jr., transporting prohibited liquor in quantities of more than five gallons, $750 bond; Johnny Witt, and George Wilson, manufacturing whisky and possessing a still, $750 bond; T. C. Goins, forgery second degree, $750 bond; George Prince, selling, removing, or concealing property covered by a lien or claim, $500 bond;

Cases in which bond was not listed on the docket are as follows: James Crowder, two cases of forgery second degree, waived hearing; Virgil Baskins, forgery second degree, waived; W. J. Beavers, grand larceny and receiving and concealing stolen goods, waived; Earl White, burglary second degree, waived.

Representing the State at the proceeding were Circuit Solicitor W. L. Almon and Emmett Roden, Law and Equity Judge presiding.

Southern Bell Tests "Oscar II"

Experiment With New Electronic Dummy May Improve Stereo

Two heads are better than one for Bell Telephone Laboratories research into the ways people locate the direction of sound. Practical results of the recent "double dome" research at Murray Hill, N. J., may be the improvement of stereophonic radio and TV programs, which are transmitted nationwide over telephone facilities.

In the experiments two microphones in the ears of the dummy, "Oscar II," were substituted for human ears. Oscar's head reproduced the "shadowing" of sound by a human head. Persons participating in the tests—such as Mary Lou Hartig, shown—wore the extra head so that motions of their heads would be reproduced, for even very small movements influence hearing.

The natural sounds received in each microphone were altered electronically by acoustics and were delivered to the earphones. Listeners were asked to point to the apparent direction of the altered sound. Normally, the ear that is closer to a sound hears it earlier and louder than the other ear. Here, however, artificial differences in time delay and intensity were introduced, and it was found that the factor of intensity is more important than previously believed. If sound reaches one ear first but reaches the other ear somewhat louder, the hearer is completely confused.

The experiments were conducted in a "dead" room—one with sound absorbent walls—so that reflections would not affect the results.

MISS PEARL SPARKS

"Miss Sparks has truly been the guiding spirit for so many of us. She has set an example of service to the women of our community that has inspired so many to reach heights none would have attained if it had not been for her wonderful spirit of leadership," said an official of an organization dear to Miss Sparks' heart.

Recognized for her newspaper and literary work, in addition to her community service, Miss Sparks holds a unique place in the affection of hundreds of college students and her coworkers in this area.

Miss Pearl Sparks was born in Ripley, Tennessee, the daughter of James Lawrence and Laura Mays Sparks.

She attended elementary and high schools in Ripley, later attending State Normal College of Florence where she did her college work.

Before coming to Florence to make her home, Miss Sparks worked for a short time as a reporter on the Ripley News, a newspaper owned and operated by the family. Due to a death in the family, Miss Sparks came to Florence in 1918 to make her residence with her brother, W. M. (Bill) Sparks, who was associated with The Florence Times and later with the Sheffield Standard. Miss Sparks was employed as social editor of The Florence Times for a period of several months.

In 1923, she replaced Miss Lottie Johnson as burser at the local college, an office she held for eight years. Dr. H. J. Willingham, then president of the college, wanted someone to conduct the news bureau, therefore, Miss Sparks, being very familiar that type of work, campus or in an area related to the project.

"Back in 1947 when I was gathering material for a history of the Shaker Colony in Logan County, Kentucky, I found much valuable source of material in the two-volume diary of Eldress Nancy E. Moore," said Miss Neal whose book, "By Their Fruits" is the story of Shakerism in South Union, Kentucky.

"Nancy kept an amazingly detailed account of the day-by-day happenings during the period of the War Between the States," she continued, "it is interesting not only for its revelation of the Shaker way of life, but valuable as a first hand account of the peculiar position held by Kentucky during the war."

The six weeks between mid-July and early September will be divided between Dayton, Ohio, where the original of Volume One is in the Public Library, and Bowling Green, Kentucky, where the original of Volume Two is in Western State College Library.

"I believe that I can do the major part of the editing this Summer and I am determined to get the work done in time for the coming Civil War Centennial," Miss Neal concluded.

JEANENE CLARK WINS SPELLING BEE

Seventh grader Jeanene Clark daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, is winner of the Wilson School spelling bee. She competed with 18 other contestants from the fifth and seventh grades.

Jeanene is now eligible to compete in the Lauderdale County finals to be held April 23 at the American Legion Home.

- During the years I have served you as your Superintendent, I have worked closely with the various communities in the county in an effort to serve the best interests of the children and the schools as a whole—to this I am dedicated.
- During the time I have been privileged to serve you as your Superintendent of Education, we have taken full advantage of every dollar and every opportunity to improve our school buildings, our transportation and our instructional program.
- Although mistakes may have been made, which may be excusable in such a large business as our school administration, still I feel that there is nothing that takes the place of experience gained during the critical times in education that we are facing in Lauderdale County and the State of Alabama.
- Never shall I get away from your counsel and recommendations while serving you as your Superintendent nor will I take lightly any ideas or suggestions which any citizen may give to me. The door to my office has always remained open for any person seeking assistance.
- I have tried to see as many of you as was humanly possible but I would not shirk the duties of the office with which you have honored me, therefore, I trust that you will take this message as a personal visit with you, soliciting your vote and support of my candidacy.

Cordially yours,
ALLEN THORNTON

I WILL APPRECIATE YOUR VOTE, YOUR RECOMMENDATIONS AND YOUR ENCOURAGEMENT AT THE POLLS

WEAVER FUQUA, JR.

From
Weaver Fuqua, Jr.
Candidate For
TAX COLLECTOR
OF LAUDERDALE COUNTY
Democratic Primary, May 3

I would feel very ungrateful if I did not take this opportunity to express my deep appreciation to the people of Lauderdale County for the manner in which you have received me and my candidacy during the current campaign. You have been most gracious and the many kind words you have expressed to me have truly been heart-warming. For your many kindnesses, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart.

On May 3rd, you will go to the polls to cast your vote for the person you wish to serve you as your Tax Collector. I sincerely hope that I have so served you that you will honor me with your vote. If elected, I pledge you that I will continue to serve you as courteously and as efficiently as I know how, keeping always in mind that the office is yours and I hold it only in order to render to you a personal service. This has been my thoughts in the past — it will be my thoughts in the future.

Again, please accept my appreciation for the fine support you have given me and I only trust that I deserve your continued support.

Sincerely Yours,

THE SPILLWAY

A BIT OF sentiment... we're told...
Agrees with both the young and old...
While compliments... 'tis often said...
Are apt to turn the lev'est head...

IN CASE YOU'RE 'mongst the many who've cherished an attachment for the Milner home and surroundings on North Seminary Street... we're proud to report that a lovely bit of sentiment is being preserved and put to pretty and practical use by two of our most charming localities... Ann and Kenneth Williams... You'll think you're seeing a page from House & Garden when you glimpse the patio and planting area at the Williams' new abode on Hickory Hills Court... where both host and hostess point with pride to the exquisite wrought iron fencing which encloses it... as you learn from them that 'tis one-and-the-same which until recently surrounded the Milner yard.

A COMPLIMENT To turn the most level head... News comes that Frances (Craig) and Newt Wiggins made early plans up Louisville way for a three-months' Summer sojourn in the West-coast Sunshine State... complete with chillun... who (in accents strong and bold and disregarding all allurements) held out for the usual warm-weather visit to ole Florence town... A slight variation in the previous set-up now includes a three-weeks' vacation stay in our midst... for which we thank those three Wiggins charmers... Susan and Betty and Craig.

COMPLIMENTS WERE floating thick and fast on Easter morning... and 'mongst the many who inspired out-spoken admiration were 'tween-ager Beth Arellio (captivating young daughter of Serrill and Bobby)... whose just-right shade-of-blue frock brought out the glint of gold in her lovely hair... and will now be carefully laid away for a June-time wedding in which she'll serve as flower girl... Kathryn Landrum... looking pretty as the pictures she so deftly paints... in pale gold straw topper with small brim and pale green shadow-print sheath... Geneva Boston... wearing a becoming and Spring-y pink-flowered chapeau with brim... Jeanie Paxton in navy jacket-suit and small navy sailor... both smartly trimmed in white... VERY chic.

BEING CURRENTLY WELCOMED by the local Lake Colony are Martha and Jim Gilbert... as news circulates that they've purchased a cottage at Lingerlost... adjacent to the Turtle Point Yacht Club site on Lake Wilson... which they'll call "Kin Haven"... ALL IN all... 'twill be a busy season for Martha... whose Sum-

Spring-time is election-time. And there are two important elections taking place at Florence State this week.

Since Monday, every nook and cranny indoors and outdoors at FSC has been plastered with every size shape of poster possible. The occasion for such active campaigning is the cheerleader election.

This afternoon at 4 the Amphitheater will bring with yells for "that ole Florence spirit" as cheerleader hopefuls match skills (and lures) at the tryouts.

Election rules are just a bit different this year. Three girls and three boys will be chosen during this spring election and in the fall a boy and a girl will be elected, bringing the total to eight cheerleaders.

The entire student body will be voting Friday between these female candidates: Jeanne Campbell, Elaine Perkins, Michael Savage, Gail Quillen, and Mary Butler.

Male tryouts will be: George Reynolds, Jerry Thomas, Randy Strait, and Joe Hovater.

The merry month of May at Florence State means (among other things) the time for one of the most colorful of all celebrations—May Day.

The election of the May Queen, Maid of Honor, and the Queen's Court has been in progress this week.

Being nominated for this election is one of the highest honors at Florence State. A committee picks the candidates from the entire female enrollment.

Qualifications for May Queen and Maid of Honor are: (1) she must be a good student and have an over-all minimum average of 1.5; (2) she must have a good reputation and be well-liked by both faculty and fellow-students; (3) she must be a person who will graduate by the end of the succeeding fall semester; (4) she must be active in campus activities.

Yesterday six senior girls were on the May Queen ballot. Today the Maid of Honor will be elected from the five candidates remaining from the Wednesday election. May Queen and Maid of Honor candidates include Myra Ashley, Audrey Behel, Mary Alice Bobo, Carolyn Klein, Norma Manush, and Gwen Ware.

Tomorrow six members of the Court will be chosen—two seniors, two juniors, one sophomore, and one freshman.

Qualifications for members of the Court are: (1) she must be a good student with an overall minimum average of 1.0; (2) she must have a good reputation and be well-liked by fellow-students and faculty; (3) she must be active in campus activities.

Seniors nominated include Nelda Conwill, Carolyn Crawford, Virginia Crews, Jane Elkins, and Anna Hollingsworth.

Junior nominees are Ramona Burrow, Marcella Campbell, Martha Hicks, Johnnie Jones, LaVelle McCain, Elaine Perkins, Rosemary Prince, Julie Sue Terry, Belinda Ann Wilson, and Barbara Williams.

From the sophomore class Mary Turner Brown, Mary Butler, Myra Ellis, Brynda Gober, Nancy Hale, Anne Huffman, Elizabeth Scott, Barbara Thigpen, and Nell Wade are nominated.

Sarah Cargo, Bonnie Crowell, Judy Harrison, Frances Henson, Maxine Johnson, Betty McKee, Norma Methvin, and Barbara Sublett are freshmen nominees.

Next Wednesday night is the night... the Lauderdale County Coliseum is the place... the biggest rock-and-roll show ever to come to these parts is the occasion.

Showtime is 7:30 for whites and 9:30 for colored and tickets are on sale at various places in the "Four-Towns." Advanced admission is $2.00 and door admission is $2.50.

Among the famous names will be Lloyd Price, Sammy Turner, Bo Diddley, Clyde McPhatter, The Coasters, Lavern Baker, Little Anthony and The Imperials, Jimmy Reed, Jimmy Jones, and Joe Turner.

The Sheffield Naval Reserve Center will be transformed into a side-walk cafe with the flavor of "Gay Paree" tomorrow night for the Cadet Officers Corps annual spring Military Ball.

The couples will spend an "Evening in Paris" and dance to the music of Edsel Holden's orchestra from eight 'til twelve.

The Military Ball is a semi-formal affair that is always a highlight of the spring semester.

Tickets are $2.00, stag or drag.

1959-1960 WSGA president, Annette Gibbs, a senior from Hanceville, has accepted a graduate appointment to Ohio University at Athens, Ohio.

Annette, a popular and active girl at FSC, will do work in the field of human relations, guidance, and counseling. She will be an under-graduate assistant to the Dean of Women (which is quite an honor, I might add!)

Place an extra handle on the screen door low enough for little children to reach. They will enjoy coming in and out of the house without the aid of an adult.

Jerry R. Pettus, son of Mr. Rollie Pettus, Route 2, Killen, has enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps and is now undergoing basic military training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C.

According to the local Marine Recruiting Sergeant Bobby R. Stanfill, the new Marine will spend the next 12-weeks at the South Carolina Marine Base undergoing a rigorous training schedule that is designed to build men. Upon completion of training he will be transferred to Camp Lejeune, N. C. for a four-week course in individual combat tactics, after which he will be eligible for a 20-day leave

SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION

IN THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY, TUESDAY, MAY 3

A PERSONAL MESSAGE:

It has been my purpose to contact every voter in Lauderdale County in person in the interest of my campaign for Superintendent of Education, but the duties of my position have not given me the time necessary. For this reason, I ask that if any voter has a question as to my program, if elected, I would appreciate you contacting me for the answer.

I have been principal of Central High School for the past nine years and believe that I know the problems facing our schools. I feel that my training and experience qualify me for the office I seek and I shall sincerely appreciate your vote and support in the coming primary.

I have never before sought public office but pledge to you, if honored with your vote, that I shall serve to the best of my ability and I trust to your complete satisfaction.

Sincerely yours,

Coffee: At a prettily planned coffee at 10:00 a.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Emmett Greer, Mrs. Verne Hollins, a neighbor and good friend, was complimented on the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

A number of friends enjoyed the delightful surprise with Mrs. Hollins and were served cake and coffee after presenting the honoree with gifts.

There was practically open house at the Dr. J. R. Waddell place on last Monday, the eleventh, when the doctor and his wife celebrated a wedding anniversary and she a birthday anniversary.

Gift bouquets arrived all during the day as did guests with gifts and good wishes. Some even came with delectable favorite dishes and had lunch with the couple. Arriving about noon was a daughter, Mrs. Leonard Leach of Gadsden, with one of her four sons. She stayed through Thursday.

This was a special treat to Dr. Waddell who has been more or less confined to the house for several weeks.

In the R. E. DeBusk home for a visit over the holiday week end were Mr. and Mrs. Mac Bevins of Chattanooga.

The Araleigh Snoddy's of Huntsville were guests in the home of Mrs. Mary Crymes for the week end.

Miss Hilda White Waddell arrived on Saturday from Atlanta, where she has been Medical Librarian at Emory University for several years, to complete plans for her wedding on April 30th.

Mrs. J. L. Barnard left Monday for a visit in Texas with her mother, Mrs. Kooner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ezell and Owen Weaver spent the week end in Memphis as guests of their children, Mrs. Lynn Whitsitt, Mr. Whitsitt and their children, the Thomas and Charles Ezell. Saturday was Mr. Ezell's birthday and Tuesday Mrs. Ezell's, thus the royal treatment of the couple while in Memphis.

Miss Jane Springer of Lexington was guest part of the week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Solley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wayne Clemmons and son of Hartselle were guests on Sunday in the E. T. Barnes home.

From Decatur in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Ezell and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hudson were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl Dean and family.

Boiler consumption has increased 105 percent in the U.S. during the last 25 years.

Foods of the Future

FARM-FED FISH!

Not long ago, drainage above and below ground each year wasted HALF the plant nutrients dissolved in southern soils by carrying them off to sea. Then conservation men found that farm fish ponds save those nutrients for irrigation and for fish production.

In 25 years, Alabama man-made ponds and lakes increased from 700 to 17,000! Foreign students return from their studies of Alabama fisheries to their far-flung home countries, promoting this flood-control, erosion-control, balanced-diet, better-farming practice.

Many more farm families regularly can enjoy delicious bluegill, bream, channel cat, buffalo fish, and other fresh water fish—so plentiful now that fish is becoming another Alabama crop!

Diversified farming may bring us many varied new foods, but Americans' preference for BEER and ALE won't change with the new food production trends.

Beer belongs... Enjoy it

PIPELINERS OF ENERGY

Natural Gas Plays Vital Role in Steelmaking

Space Age steelmaking requires the intense, controlled heat only natural gas can provide. Gas is used in blast furnaces, open hearths, soaking pits . . . in virtually every basic phase of steel production.

Demand for natural gas in steelmaking is big and growing bigger. Glassmaking, too, depends on this clean-burning energy fuel. Thousands of fabricators—large and small—make products better and more economically because natural gas is readily available.

In keeping pace with zooming energy requirements, Texas Eastern continues to expand its natural gas and petroleum products pipeline systems. Serving the Midwestern, Appalachian and Eastern Seaboard states, Texas Eastern plays a vital role as Pipeliner of Energy to the Nation.

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

ON A DESOLATE HILL

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

| Day       | Book    | Chapter | Verses  |

| Saturday  | Luke    | 21      | 15-33   |

It is not strange that someone chose this lonely spot to erect a reverent memorial. It was on a desolate hill that three crosses stood many centuries ago... the Cross of the Saviour... and of the penitent... and of the scoffer.

Always these crosses have seemed to belong to the desolate hills of life. When a man feels the crushing burden of worldly care upon him, when he trudges the steep trail lost and alone — then, either he will claim the Love and Strength of Christ as did the penitent, or like the scoffer he will let his unbelief destroy his soul.

But no man should wait for a time of desolation to make life's most joyous decision. It can be made today... and sealed with years of happy service in the church of one's choice.

Thank You, My Friends

FOR YOUR INTEREST
AND SUPPORT OF MY CAMPAIGN FOR
LAUDERDALE COUNTY COMMISSIONER

In The Democratic Primary Tuesday, May 3

I SOLICIT YOUR VOTE ON MY PLEDGE
TO RENDER OUR COUNTY A WORTHWHILE SERVICE

I am vitally interested in the promotion of the Alabama-Tennessee Scenic Highway and, if elected, will support this measure fully and completely. I believe that our Library and Bookmobile Service should be better supported and will back this program solidly.

It will be my effort to see that our community roads are improved and new ones established where needed. This we need badly and I'll do all in my power to bring them about. In addition, I feel that our health and welfare program should be given every support possible and in every way I can I shall try to make our county a better place in which to live.

Sincerely yours,

A Personal Message

To The
Voters of Lauderdale County

From
B. P. (Junior)
LOVELACE
Candidate For
TAX ASSESSOR

QUALIFIED • TRAINED • EXPERIENCED

As a candidate for the important office of Tax Assessor of Lauderdale County, I wish to express to you my deep appreciation for the manner in which you have received me and the encouragement you have given me in my campaign.

Before making my announcement, I gave careful consideration to the duties of the office and my ability to serve you satisfactorily. I humbly feel that my qualifications meet the requirements of the position and because of my business training and years of experience in tax matters, as well as the knowledge I have gained of the operation of the office, I will, if elected, render the best service of which I am capable.

I am a native and lifelong resident of Lauderdale County; am married and have three children. During World War II, I served in the U.S. Army for three years and have been active in the American Legion since my discharge.

I have a deep and active interest in the affairs of the church I attend and have taken a great deal of pleasure in the civic work of the city and county. I am anxious to serve you as your Tax Assessor and pledge, if honored with the office, that I shall do my best to serve with honor to the office and to myself.

I WILL APPRECIATE BEING YOUR TAX ASSESSOR. May I most respectfully solicit your vote and active support on May 3rd.

Sincerely yours,

B. P. (Junior) LOVELACE
