

KENNEDY, JOHNSON WINNERS

Nixon Concedes Election At 11:45 A.M. Wednesday

Democratic candidates Senator John Fitzgerald Kennedy of Massachusetts and his running mate, Senator Lyndon Baines Johnson of Texas, swept to an undisputed electoral lead over their Republican opponents, Richard Milhous Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge Tuesday, to become the 35th president-elect and vice president-elect of the United States. The unofficial electoral vote totals at press time were: Kennedy 337 and Nixon 192. Needed to win, 269.

While the popular vote majority for Kennedy was not so impressive he led his opponent by an unofficial tabulation of somewhat less than 400,000 votes. At press time the totals were Kennedy 32,705,642 and Nixon 32,309,568.

Kennedy's decisive electoral lead came from the big key states of New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, California, Texas and Michigan and his overwhelming majorities in the eastern states that included Maryland, his own state of Massachusetts, New Jersey, Connecticut and most of the South.

On Wednesday morning at 11:45 EST, Vice President Nixon conceded the election and telegraphed the new president-elect his congratulations and pledged his support. A similar telegram was received by Kennedy from President Eisenhower.

In a brief acceptance speech from the Democratic headquarters at the armory building in Hyannis Port, Mass., Kennedy's home town, the president-elect read his answers to his defeated opponent and the President in which he expressed appreciation for their support and continued assistance and pledged to the people his best efforts in the years ahead.

There was a serious note in Kennedy's otherwise jubilant smile as he stressed the gravity of the world situation and the part this nation must play in the next four years.

State Delegation Wins
Alabama's congressional delegation won easily despite spirited Republican opposition. Senator John Sparkman was re-elected along with the state's nine House members, including the two who were opposed in Tuesday election. They were Reps. Robert E. Jones in the 8th District and George Huddleston, Jr., in the 9th District.

Jack Owen, a Democrat, won another four-year term as president of the Public Service Commission.

Sparkman received 319,654 votes to his Republican opponent John Elgin's 135,960.

Rep. Jones in the Eighth District race with Republican H. G. Williams received 47,637 to Williams' 12,020 in incomplete returns.

Democrats Retain Majorities
Democrats will control both houses of Congress when the 87th Congress convenes on Jan. 3.

While returns were still incomplete at press time the Democrats were in possession of 64 Senate seats to the Republicans' 36. In unofficial returns in the House the Democrats appeared to have a total of 266 with the Republicans holding 171 seats. The Republicans had dented the somewhat heavy Democratic margin in Congress, the old totals being, Senate: 66-34 and the House: 238-154.

Proration Cuts Service

Teachers Call Attention To Needs Of Education

This is National Education Week, a week set aside to better inform the public on the problems faced by the nation's schools and education in general.

"Education Is Everybody's Business" is the slogan for this year's observance and the Lauderdale County Teachers Association calls attention through a page advertisement elsewhere in this week issue, of the plight of our schools and the seriousness of proration. This cut, the Association emphasizes, is a cut in services vital to the education of boys and girls of the public schools throughout the state.

With reference to proration, which the schools have faced for a number of years past, the Association calls attention to the fact that in 1956-57 funds for Lauderdale County schools were cut $24,648; in 1957-58 the cut was $70,723; in 1958-59 it was $32,769, and in 1959-60 funds were cut $89,395.

Educators throughout the country point out that education is facing severe problems in the supply of teachers at all levels. The number of new school teachers needed in the next decade is between one-third and one-half of all the four year college graduates of every kind in the same period. Naturally the mediocre pay received by teachers as compared to other professions and even many non-degree workers, has seriously affected the quality of teachers. Many have found more lucrative fields, in which to employ their talents and have quit teaching for that reason.

The National Education Association points out this danger. As of 1956, 33 per cent of the elementary teachers did not hold A.B. degrees and more than 21 per cent of all public school teachers had less than four years of college. While steps are being taken to improve this situation the pressures ahead are not diminishing and the school problem grows more acute.

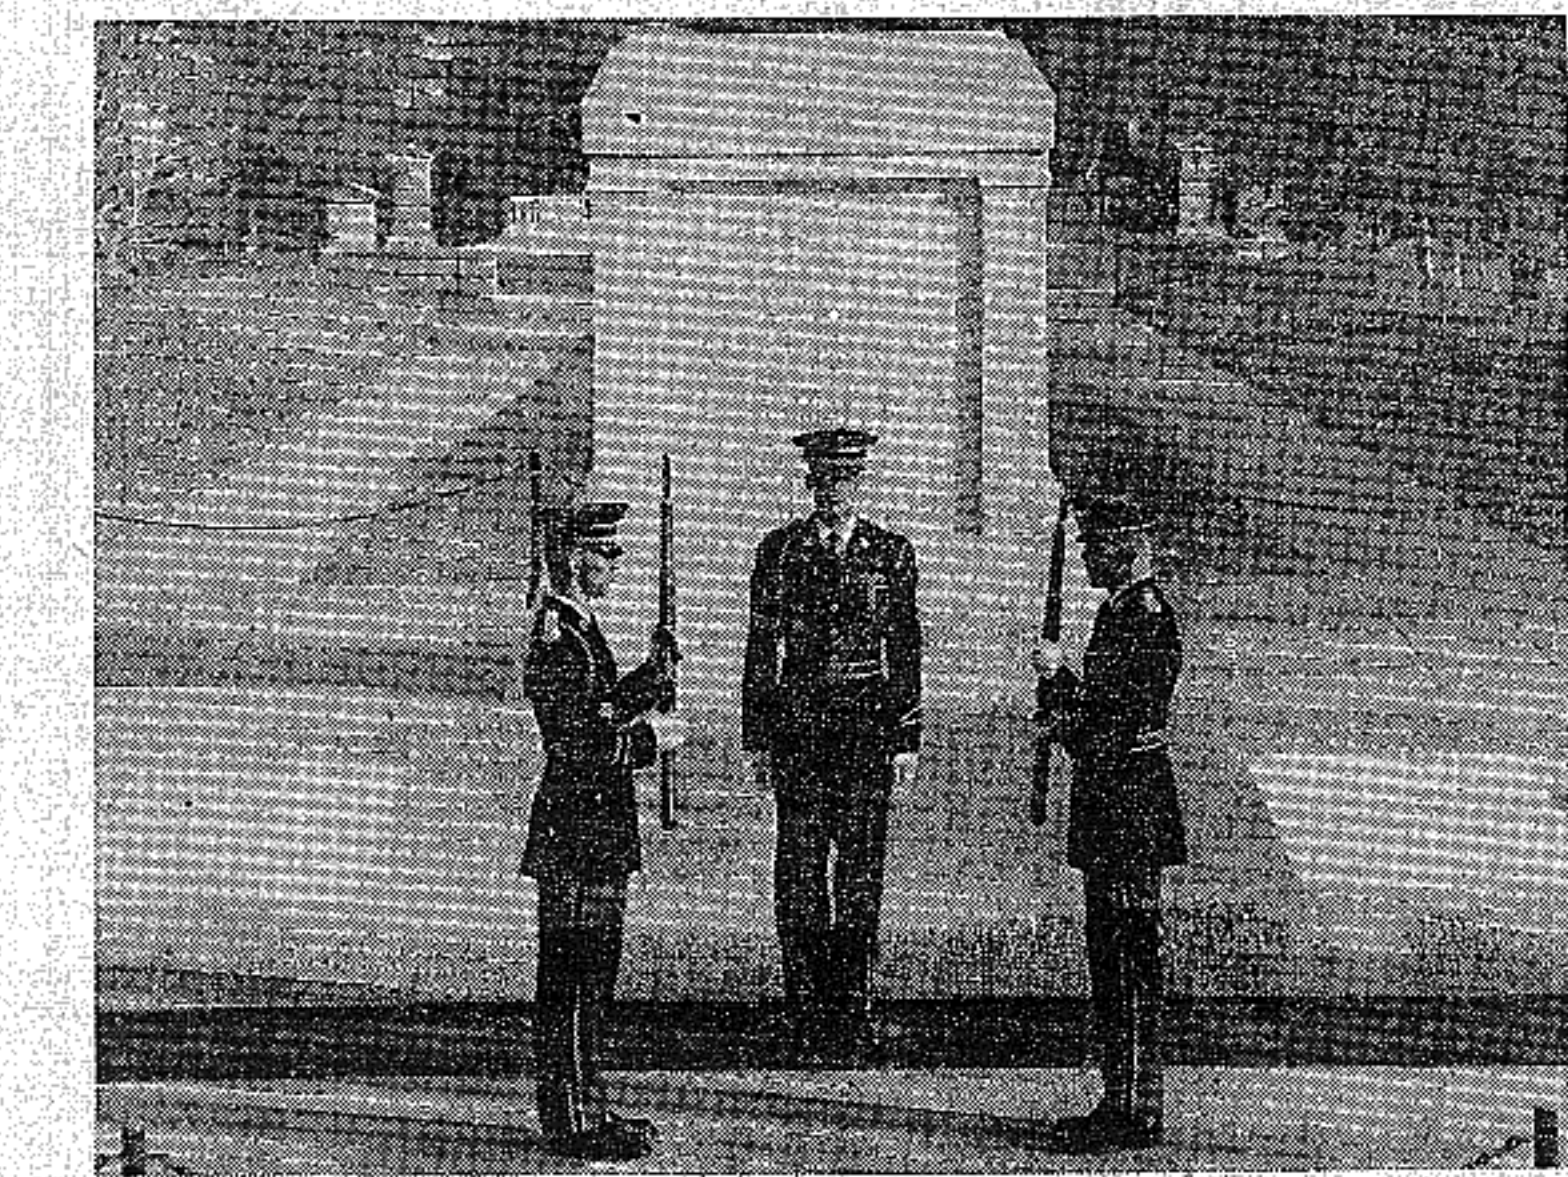

Just what will be done in Alabama remains to be seen but there is little doubt, educators admit, that something will have to be done if the school situation is to materially improve.

Building Named 'Greater Alabama'

The Greater Alabama Building is the name given to the modern office building at 412 South Court Street. The announcement was made by George Bailes, Jr., president of the Greater Alabama Corporation of Huntsville, who stated the change would take effect immediately. The five-story building was purchased last week from Southern Industries, Inc., of Memphis.

A large two-way neon sign will be erected on top of the building and will be large enough that it will be visible from points on both sides of the river.

The new manager of the building is Earl Bradley of Florence who is also manager of The Greater Alabama Finance Company.

VETERANS DAY—Changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Arlington National Cemetery. The 24-hour vigil at the Tomb, an honored military duty in the Armed Forces, is maintained by U.S. Army's Third Regiment (Old Guard). In 1919 on the anniversary of the end of World War I, Armistice Day, November 11, was proclaimed a national holiday. In 1954 President Eisenhower broadened the concept of the holiday, proclaiming it Veterans Day—a solemn occasion set aside to honor all servicemen, living as well as dead, and the victories they have won in all our wars.

The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

Well, it's all over but the shouting—and the shouting will continue for many moons, we are sure. The bitterness engendered by the heated campaign is all but forgotten today—at least, we hope so—and now we must get solidly behind our President-elect to see that America continues to move forward and keep its place in the sun. We have seen true democracy in action and although never in the history of this country has there been such a campaign as we have seen, none of us would have it otherwise. So—the time to join hands is now, put your good-will back where it was before the campaign started and take your place in the scheme of things for the good of all. We are all Americans.

A man can usually tell what kind of a time he is having at a party by looking at his wife's face.

A new approach to the serious problem we are facing with our school finances seems to be in the making. For the past five years, at least since proration has been the order of the day, the school teachers, school officials and PTA groups have filed their protests with the Governor, the Legislature, the school boards and even the Federal government. Now, it seems that parents interested in seeing that their children have adequate education realize that the pressure must be put on the people themselves who, during the past few years, have voted against the Goodwyn amendment and corporation tax that would have supplied adequate funds.

A youngster who knows the value of a dollar these days—must be plenty discouraged.

The factory manager was getting married, so Joe, the senior shop steward, was asked to arrange a wedding gift. Joe went to each of the firm's 1,000 employees and collected a quarter from each. With the $250 he collected, Joe's next stop was a local store where he bought 1,000 packs of cigarettes. From the packs of cigarettes, he extracted the gift coupons, handed each employee a pack of cigarettes, and for the 1,000 gift coupons he received a silver serving tray, which was duly presented to the manager. Eventually, details of Joe's operation reached the Board Room. "He's in the wrong place," said the Chairman of the Board. "He ought to be here." The Chairman then instructed his secretary to have Joe come in and see him right away. After searching high and low for Joe, the secretary reported this message to the Board Chairman: "Sorry, Joe's not here. He collected 2,500 F&H Green Chips from the stores where he bought the cigarettes and he took off for Las Vegas."

Starr Smith To Speak

Big Parade Will Climax Veterans Day Program

The annual Veterans Day observance in Florence will be climaxed by a parade that is scheduled to pass southward on Court Street to the Courthouse at 11 a.m. where it will pause for a speech by

STARR SMITH

Starr Smith of Montgomery, who will speak from the corner of the Courthouse lawn at that time.

Following Mr. Smith's address the parade will then proceed east for several blocks on Tennessee Street before disbanding. Laverne Tate, commander of Florence-Lauderdale American Legion Post 11 stated.

Participating in the parade will be the mobile units of the local National Guard, the Florence State ROTC unit, the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary, the VFW and VFW Auxiliary, the Cadets, The Florence State band, the FSC Lionettes and the Military Police Reserve Unit.

Mr. Smith is known throughout the state and has his own public relations firm in Montgomery. He is public relations consultant to the Greater Alabama Corporation that last week announced the purchase of the 412 South Court Street Building, now known as the Greater Alabama Building.

A citizen-soldier, Mr. Smith has maintained constant interest in the reserve of the Air Force since 1946 and is now a lieutenant-colonel in the Air Force Reserve. He entered service prior to Pearl Harbor as private and in 1946 re-entered civilian life as a major, being the youngest intelligence officer in the Air Force. He served on the staff of General Eisenhower and after the war served on the staff of Secretary of the Air Force Stuart Symington. He was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal last year.

Mr. Smith is also a newspaperman, an NBC news reporter and political writer for the Mobile Press-Register. A graduate of the University of Alabama school of journalism, he is a member of the American Legion, VFW, Air Force Ass'n., and Reserve Officers Ass'n.

Lexington To Get New Post Office

Site Options In Good Location; Construction By Private Interests

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announces that a new Post Office has been authorized for Lexington.

This announcement, the Postmaster General advised, coincides with the optioning by Post Office Department Regional Officials of a site located on the west side of Highway 101 south of Old Florence Road, meeting Departmental requirements as to cost, area and location.

"This new and modern postal facility," Postmaster General Summerfield said, "will be constructed under the Post Office Department's Commercial Leasing Program, which utilizes the resources and investment funds of private enterprises, to obtain needed postal buildings."

The new Post Office at Lexington will contain about 1,377 sq. ft. of floor space, plus a loading platform. The site, comprising about 10,000 sq. ft., will provide adequate parking and truck maneuvering area.

According to the Lexington Postmaster, Mrs. Mary D. Putnam, bidding forms, specifications and other pertinent data will be available to prospective bidders as soon as plans can be drawn. Thus an equitable construction value will be established on a competitive basis.

Our Responsibility To Education

Before printing made possible mass learning the common people were kept in bondage through ignorance. When the people became literate the desire for freedom was born.

And so today to protect the freedom we have won and cherish we must place education foremost in our endeavors for the more we develop our talents and skills the greater our capacity for survival.

We have learned in America that mass education is not enough. The individual must be evaluated in order to have better scientists, lawyers, doctors and what not. Aptitudes are studied with this in mind and the individual is being given the opportunity to develop his potentialities.

Our devotion to a free society can only be understood in terms of such values. This system is the enemy of conditions that stunt the intellectual, moral and spiritual growth of the individual and no other society has ever fully succeeded in living up to the ideals set by a free people.

Education is the foe of poverty and ignorance and while it does not cure all of mankind's ills it does prepare us for combating disease and improving the conditions of living for when we live in the light of reason we tend to recognize our moral responsibilities toward society and for that matter, to the world. And so education may be seen as the greater hope for a lasting peace. In fact the experts tell us that given another generation or so without the debilitating effects of war we can achieve a permanent peace.

It is this deep-rooted consideration for individual excellence and quality of education that will enable us, in the long run, to outstrip the Russians in science and other fields of endeavor. However we cannot afford to let down a single instant. We cannot assume we are superior to anyone in any field. We must prove it by work and we must prove it by providing the means for accomplishing such a goal.

This means an all out effort for better schools, better paid teachers, and adequate equipment plus an opportunity for every boy and girl in the nation to have an education that will fully develop his or her talents. In many instances this will mean more taxes and more sacrifices on the part of the people.

If we are to remain free and more important espouse the cause of freedom in the world, we cannot afford to shirk this great responsibility.

You Could Be Diabetic

Today many diseases are preventable and in their early stages curable. This means early detection is vitally important.

In the case of diabetes the most likely targets are persons who are overweight, past 40, or related to diabetes, since diabetes is hereditary. There are more than 5 million persons who are potential diabetics. They will develop the disease at some time during their lives. There are many more who are "carriers" in that they themselves are free of it but who may transmit the tendency to it.

November 13-19 has been set aside as Diabetes Week over the nation for the purpose of encouraging early detection of the disease through medical examination because diabetes can strike anyone of any age at any time. It is sponsored by the American Diabetes Ass'n. and State and County Medical Societies throughout the nation.

The worthy goal of this week is to find as many as possible of the over one million undetected diabetic men, women and children and at the same time educate the American public on the signs and the importance of early detection and control of the condition. Neglected diabetes can and usually does prove fatal. Detected early it can be controlled and the diabetic live a fairly normal and fruitful life.

The test is relatively quick and simple. It is the one sure way of knowing whether or not you have the disease . . . if you do the sooner treatment and diet is started the better.

Give The United Way

Giving the "United Way," which is one way of making a donation benefit all or most charitable agencies, is something that has caught on in recent years until today it is universally accepted as a sane and sensible way an individual can do his part to help those in need in his community. It has various names such as the Red Feather Fund, the Community Chest, Associated Charities, United Fund, etc., but the goal is the same . . . a consolidation of benefitting agencies whose needs are allocated from one fund.

Locally it is the United Fund and the benefitting agencies sharing the generosity of the public are: Muscle Shoals Association for Mentally Retarded Children, Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Tennessee Valley Girl Scouts, The Salvation Army, Tennessee Valley Council Boy Scouts of America, Alabama Association for Mental Health and affiliate Muscle Shoals Mental Health Association, Department of Pensions and Security, Lauderdale County Chapter American Red Cross, Muscle Shoals Regional Library, Muscle Shoals Mental Health Center, Maud Lindsay Free Kindergarten, Rehabilitation Workshop, and the Y.M.C.A.

All of these are worthy causes in themselves but few are equipped to get out and solicit donations for themselves in sufficient quantity to assure their continuance as an agency of assistance to those less fortunate or as an agency promoting the general welfare of the community. By supporting the United Fund everyone can give to all with one donation.

"Care Enough To Share Enough" is the 1960-61 motto. When the volunteer solicitor knocks on the door . . . be generous. Give all you can.

Lexington FHA Plans Activities

N. Y. Times Appeals Suit

A $500,000 libel suit judgment against the New York Times and four Negro ministers, an outgrowth of Alabama's racial troubles, was headed Friday for appeal to the higher courts. Sullivan, who stated the full page ad which appeared in the Times advertised falsely and maliciously, and held them up to shame.

Four Thousand Die In Pakistan

American Scientists Nobel Winners

Dr. Willard F. Libby and Dr. Donald A. Glaser, two American scientists, were awarded the 1960 Nobel prizes in chemistry and physics last Thursday. Each will receive a check for $43,827 from the trust fund left by Alfred Nobel, the inventor of dynamite. A 80-pound "spinning top" satellite whirled into orbit last Thursday to begin the most extensive study ever attempted of the earth's ionosphere. It is designed to give scientists a better understanding of the mysterious electrically charged ionospheric layers which reflect radio signals back to earth, and it could lead to improved communications between continents, ships and planes.

Late News

Yesterday, the United States agreed at the London conference to quit the major part of its five base areas in the British West Indies. Among those are Antigua, Jamaica and Santa Lucia, all of which have only one base and Trinidad which has two; however, the Chaguanas Naval Base, near Port of Spain, Trinidad, will not be given up altogether as it is considered essential to Western defense. This announcement thus spelled a drastic revision of the historic 1941 agreement between Sir Winston Churchill and the late President Roosevelt when the British gave the Americans base rights in the West Indies until the year 2040 in return for 50 used destroyers and other military equipment.

Joseph Kasavubu, Congo President, delivered a dramatic appeal to the U.N. General Assembly Tuesday for immediate seating of a delegation headed by himself and representing all factions in his chaotic African republic, but was denounced immediately by Ismael Touré of Guinea who charged that the Congo leader's trip was sponsored by colonialist and imperialist powers; however, the U.N. Credentials Committee was expected to recommend that he be seated. In a fifteen minute speech, Kasavubu said only the Congo's chief of state has the right to nominate the nation's representatives to the assembly.

Mr. Guthrie Does Not Speak For Organized Labor

Editor: In reply to the many embarrassing remarks and questions which have been directed to me, other officers and members of Local Union 558, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, in regard to television program which appeared in WOWL-TV, channel 15, Wednesday night, November 2, 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., regarding the appearance of a member of this Local Union, Mr. Robert Guthrie, who was speaking for the Republican Party.

He is a member of this Local Union and is also a free American citizen. All members of this Local Union and of organized labor, to my knowledge, have the privilege to vote and speak as they see fit. To this we have no objection. Apparently many people in the Tri-Cities Area misinterpreted the opening statements of this program.

The answer to the many questions concerning Mr. Guthrie represented on this program is as follows; to my knowledge Mr. Guthrie spoke as a private citizen. He most certainly did not speak and does not speak as a representative of the people nor the thinking of the Local Union nor organized labor in the Tri-Cities Area. Hoping this will clear up this matter once and for all.

Sincerely,
James H. Haygood,

Personality Sketches

By ANN MATHIAS

THOMAS MADDEN BRALY, Jr.

"I was attracted to Coffee High school early in my coaching and teaching career because of the fine reputation the school had in both its scholastic and athletic standing and I felt that these high standards were a challenge to anyone who planned to devote himself to school work. As coach, and later as principal at Coffee, I have tried my best to maintain these standards so well established by my predecessors. It is my hope that I have succeeded in this endeavor," Mr. Braly remarked as he looked back on his 19-year connection with the local high school.

"My first interest has been and will continue to be working with young people and giving them the guidance they need. It is a most rewarding association and my years in Florence have been happy ones because I have found the patrons of our school, as well as our citizens in general, most cooperative in every effort for the proper growth of our youngsters," Mr. Braly added.

Thomas Madden Braly, Jr. was born June 15, 1913, in Palaski, Tennessee, the son of Thomas Madden and Pearl King Braly. When he was two months old, the family moved to Russellville where his mother still makes her home. His father died a few years ago. He attended elementary school there and was graduated from Russellville High School in 1931.

Mr. Braly then attended Birmingham Southern College where he received his B. A. degree in 1937. He took his graduate work at the University of Alabama where he received his Masters degree in 1950.

While in high school, he was a three-letter man, participating in basketball, football and baseball. He was captain of the Russellville High School basketball team in his senior year. When attending Birmingham Southern College, he lettered in football and basketball and was alternate captain of the baseball and basketball teams in his senior year.

While at Birmingham Southern College, Mr. Braly was a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary national leadership fraternity; Kappa Phi Kappa, honorary undergraduate national education fraternity, and Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity. While at the University of Alabama, he was a member of Phi Delta Kappa, honorary graduate national education fraternity.

Mr. Braly was president of his freshman, sophomore and junior classes at Russellville High School, and was treasurer his senior year. He also was president of the Little Rock Club and a member of the Monogram Club.

Mr. Braly was president of his senior class at Birmingham Southern College and was also student representative to the athletic committee.

After his graduation from Birmingham Southern College, he began his coaching and teaching career at Waterloo High School in 1936. From Waterloo, he went to Hachekburg High School where he coached for two years; then accepted a like position at Guin High School. While coaching at Guin, he produced a championship basketball team and an undefeated football team; his basketball team winning the state championship. Hayden Riley, former coach at Coffee High School and now head basketball coach at the University was captain of this team.

Mr. Braly was married to Sybil Karber of Haleyville, January 1, 1940. They have two children, Tom M., III, a student at Powell School, and Brenda, a student at Florence Junior High.

In 1941, Mr. Braly came to Coffee High School as head coach of football, basketball and baseball. He produced some of the finest teams in the history of the school. In 1945, he was named principal and continued in this dual capacity through 1947, when he ended his coaching career to devote full time to the position of principal, which post he has held since.

During his coaching career at Coffee, he was president of the Alabama Coaches Association and is now president of the 7th District Athletic Board.

Mr. Braly has been a member of the Alabama Education Association for many years and has served on a number of important committees. He is a member and past president of the Florence Teachers Association and is also a member and past president of the Florence Rotary Club.

An active member of the First Methodist Church, Mr. Braly has served as president of the Men's Bible Class, of which he is a long time member.

Looking back over some of his experiences, Mr. Braly recalled that at one time eleven boys who had received coaching under him were coaches in either college or high school and were proving most successful. This, of course, gives the affable principal of Coffee High much satisfaction. He also recalled other work with young people, especially his interest in the Boy Scout program as while at Guin he served as scoutmaster of a fine troop.

Mr. Braly's hobbies are hunting, golfing and fishing, but in recent years he has become a spectator more than a participant, following all athletic contests with a deep interest.

Mr. Braly has endeared himself to thousands of young boys and girls who have come under his influence and he is appreciated throughout the community by their parents for the splendid guidance he has given these young people. His ability, too, as a school administrator is recognized throughout the state where he is known as an able school man, teacher, coach and counselor.

Armour Added To Great Industrial Names At Shoals

Director State Board Hails Cherokee Plant As Giant Of Industry

Leland Jones, director of the State Planning and Industrial Development Board, this week hailed the new Armour chemical plant near Cherokee as another Alabama industrial giant. The new plant, to produce ammonia, is variously estimated to cost between $20 million and $60 million, and an eventual investment of more than $100 million by Armour is anticipated.

"This great new plant in Colbert County," Jones said, "besides providing new jobs in the area, is another indication of the way in which the leaders of American industry have been attracted to Alabama. A list of great American firms now manufacturing in Alabama reads like a directory of American industry."

Jones cited such great firms as Aluminum Corporation of America, Allis-Chalmers, American Cyanamid, American-Marietta, Air Reduction Co., the Avondale Mills, an Alabama firm which is one of the greatest of the textile manufacturers.

In the textiles and apparel field, such famous names as Vanity Fair, Hialeah, Luxite, Kayser and Burlington are produced in Alabama. Pepperell has two Alabama plants: Russell Manufacturing Company, at Alexander City, processes cotton from the bale to finished sportswear, uniforms and other apparel; West Point Manufacturing Company makes its famous Martex towels and other textile products at mills in Chambers County.

Man-made fibres are produced in Alabama by Chemstrand, with plant and headquarters at Decatur, Courtlands and Beantown.

Blue chip firms in the chemical field also manufacture at numerous Alabama plants. Among them are Alin-Mathieson, Diamond Alkali, Borden, Monsanto, Reichhold, Geigy, General Aniline and Koppers. In paper and pulp Alabama has International Paper Co., Scott Paper Co., Marathon, Coosa River Newsprint (which supplies pulp for Kleenex and other Kimberly-Clark products), and Gulf States with plants at Tuscaloosa and Demopolis.

Steel leadership includes two of the giants of this industry, United States Steel and Republic Steel, both with several Alabama plants and an investment of hundreds of millions in the State. Aluminum also is represented by two leaders: Alcoa and Reynolds.

Electric Auto-Lite, a newcomer to Alabama, will shortly be producing in a $10 million plant at Decatur. Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company, whose 3-M and Scotch tape trademarks are nationally known, has been at Guin for some years, and now is adding a new plant at Decatur and adding to the plant at Guin.

Two leaders in the electrical world have plants in Alabama: General Electric and Westinghouse. In heavy industry such names as Pullman-Standard, U. S. Pipe and Foundry Company, and Ingalls suggest themselves.

Important names in the food industry, with manufacturing plants in Alabama, include Kraft, Foremost, Southern Dairies, Swift, Alaga, Carnation, Borden. Both Goodrich and Goodyear make tires and tubes in Alabama, and the Goodyear plant at Gadsden is the largest tire factory operated by the firm.

General Shoe corporation manufactures at Huntsville. Orradio makes its tape in Opelika. Bemis Brothers make bags at Talladega and Mobile, Pillsbury, Ralston Purina and Quaker Oats all manufacture in Alabama, as do Allied Mills, Alabama Flour Mills and other producers of feed and flour.

"The fact that these and many other firms have chosen Alabama for manufacturing sites," Jones stated, "is evidence that here we have the raw materials, the water and power, the market, and the labor for successful operation. More big firms are on the way to Alabama during the Sixties."

Armour and Company, now about to begin its first big chemical operation in Alabama, is a newcomer to the State, Jones added. Armour has meat-packing plants in Birmingham and Montgomery, and its fertilizer division also has plants at Birmingham and Montgomery.

Pretty Auburn co-ed, Dot Sarris, of Birmingham, has been appointed for the third consecutive year to lead Alabama teenage volunteers in the State's New March of Dimes annual fund-raising campaign to "provide better health for our children."

As state chairman of the National Foundation's Teen Age Program (TAP), 19-year old Dot shoulders a big responsibility. Under the Foundation's expanded program to help birth defects victims and sufferers from rheumatoid arthritis as well as those afflicted with polio, teenagers are being called on more and more to help in the battle against crippling diseases.

Special emphasis will be placed this year on the educational opportunities available to high school graduates through the Foundation's scholarship program. Fifteen such scholarships are offered annually in Alabama to students in nursing, occupational and physical therapy, social work, and medicine. "Teenagers have a unique opportunity to learn careers to help those crippled through no fault of their own," says Dot, a vivacious brunette and popular student on the University of Auburn campus.

Dot is so enthusiastic about her work with the New March of Dimes that last year under her leadership, state teenagers played a major role in helping win national recognition for Alabama as the top state in the nation to show the largest percentage of increase in per capita donations.

Dot urges all teenagers to "Don't walk, but run to your county director and sign up to help in the 1961 New March of Dimes drive beginning January 2." "You'll find it's a lot of fun to raise funds," she added.

Attention Called To Rehab Facility

Training Handicapped People Shows Progress During Year's Operation

The Muscle Shoals Rehabilitation Facility observed its first anniversary Wednesday marking the end of a year's progress.

The Facility had its beginning when a group of interested people in this area saw the need for a facility to train handicapped people. Among the leaders were Dr. E. B. Norton, President, Florence State College, Mr. Wilbur Wilson, Area Supervisor, Vocational Rehabilitation Service, and member of the Muscle Shoals Association for Mentally Retarded.

The Facility is sponsored jointly by the Lauderdale and Colbert County Societies for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. The United Fund is a participating agency since it contributes annually to the Facility. Various contributions have also been received from individuals interested in the rehabilitation of handicapped people in this area.

Since the Facility has been in operation, many handicapped people in the Muscle Shoals Area have been given a chance to learn a trade which will assist them in obtaining employment.

Areas of training include furniture repair and refinishing, upholstery, small electrical appliance repair (irons, toasters, heaters, etc.), small motor repair, including electric and gasoline motors, and repair and lubrication of lawn mowers. The Facility is equipped with the necessary power and hand tools to do any type of furniture repair and refinishing.

The Facility has a staff of four—a manager, secretary, and two instructors—to supervise all work activities. People of the community bring all types of furniture and appliances to the Facility for repair. The items are repaired by handicapped individuals under expert supervision at a nominal cost to the owner.

Everyone is invited to pay the Facility a visit and see the handicapped of the area at work and see how the Facility is serving the needs of the disabled by training them to do a job which will re-establish their employability and make it possible for them to earn a living independent of public assistance. Help the handicapped by calling EM 3-0890.

MRS. BOBBY RAY STRICKLIN

Betty Gwendolyn McLemore Weds Bobby Ray Stricklin

Marked by an evening ceremony in Rogersville Methodist Church, Miss Betty Gwendolyn McLemore became the bride of Bobby Ray Stricklin on Saturday, October twenty-second.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McLemore of Rogersville and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Stricklin of Florence.

The Reverend James M. Godbey of Mulga read the seven o'clock vows following nuptial selections presented by Mrs. Gerald Dison and Miss Yvonne Myers.

The altar, banked with greenery, was appointed with arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums interspersed with branched candelabra of wedding tapers.

Candlelighters were Brenda Cagle of Rogersville and Denise Pierce of Columbus, Georgia, whose bouquets of white silk organza over taffeta were fashioned with tiered skirts and blue cummerbunds. They wore matching blue head-dresses and wristlets of white carnations.

Mr. McLemore escorted his daughter and gave her in marriage. She wore a self-designed gown of broadened tulle with fitted bodice and very full skirt which extended into a small train. Distinguishing features were the Sabrina neckline and long sleeves which petal-pointed at the wrists. Her shoulder-length veil was caught to a crown of pearlized florets and with her white Bible she carried a purple-throated white orchid.

Her attendants were Miss Janie Baggett, maid of honor, and Miss Judy Fuqua, Miss Jimmie Ann Whitehead, Miss Ruby Barringer and Mrs. William Howard Stricklin, bridesmaids and matron, who also wore silk organza detailed with low round necklines and bouffant skirts. Miss Baggett was in pink and she carried a single long-stemmed white rose; the bridesmaids wore blue and their single-rose bouquets were red.

Susan Brewer of Anniston and Mike Solley served as flower girl and ringbearer, respectively. William Howard Stricklin, Jr., was his brother's best man and ushers were Tom Seale, Bobby Brown and Andrew Frost.

Mrs. McLemore, mother of the bride, wore lavender lace complemented by purple accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds; Mrs. Stricklin chose blue lace, matching accessories and she, too, pinned white roses at her shoulder.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's parents were reception hosts in the church parlors. Assisting were Mrs. Robert Waddell, Mrs. Jarvis Brewer of Anniston, Mrs. Cowden Horton and Mrs. Harvey Crymes.

Leaving later for their honeymoon in the Smokies, the bride wore a suit of avocado green, a small feathered hat, black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Now returned, Mr. and Mrs. Stricklin are at home at 732 High Street, Florence.

Late Afternoon Ceremony Marks McClure-Sharp Cows

On Saturday afternoon, November fifth, Miss Nancy Rebecca McClure and William David Sharp exchanged nuptial pledges in Stony Point Church of Christ, with Gilbert Kretzer, minister, reading the service at five o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster McClure of Chisholm Road, Florence, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sharp, also of Florence.

Nuptial selections were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Don Harriman.

A white ivy-entwined arch spanned the altar and arrangements of white blossoms and tapers in branched candelabra decorated the foreground. Groupings of tapers with evergreen foliage marked the window recesses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of Chantilly lace featured a basque bodice with V-neckline re-embroidered with sequins and long, tapering sleeves which pointed over the hands. Her only ornament was an heirloom locket, handed down from her great grandmother, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Olive. Her veil of illusion was caught to a headress of sequins and her white Bible was marked with a white orchid and showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Marie Butler, wearing a frock of blue, served as maid of honor and bridesmaids, dressed in pink, were Miss Betty McLemore, sister of the bride, Miss Linda Davis and Miss Charlotte McMurry. Martha Pigg was flower girl. Headresses of satin matched their frocks and they carried bouquets of pink and blue carnations.

Hubert Posey was the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Bob Holley, Darrell Davis, J. R. Sharp and Charles McClure.

Both mothers chose orchid corsages to complement the blue of their gowns.

Mr. and Mrs. McClure honored their daughter and her husband with a reception at the family home immediately after the ceremony. Assisting were Miss Brenda Grimes, Miss Linda Sharp, Miss Johnnie McClure, Miss Laverne Hipps, Miss June Davis.

For their honeymoon to points in Tennessee, the bride wore a fur-trimmed beige suit, brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. Now returned, they are at home on Franklin Street, Florence.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Homer McClure and Mr. and Mrs. James McClure, all of Birmingham.

Miss White, Mr. Steen Say Vows In Church Setting

Against a background of greenery, the altar of Springfield Cumberland Presbyterian Church was detailed with arrangements of red and white gladioli interspersed with branched candelabra, ivy-entwined and holding white tapers, for the late afternoon ceremony on Saturday, November fifth, when Constance Ann White became the bride of Robert Sherell Steen.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. White and Mr. and Mrs. Willie E. Steen, all of Rogersville.

The Reverend James N. Northcutt, assistant minister of First Methodist Church of Florence, read the five o'clock vows following a nuptial prelude by Mrs. Bobby Stricklin, pianist, and Ray Isbell, vocalist.

Mr. White escorted his daughter and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown of pleated silk organza with appliques of Chantilly lace was designed with a fitted bodice and flounced skirt which extended to form a chapel train, a bateau neckline and long sleeves which petal-pointed over the hands. Deep points of narrow white satin and pearlized orange blossoms fashioned the headress from which her veil cascaded, and white carnations centered with a white orchid were her bouquet.

Miss Patricia Steen, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor and bridesmaids and matrons included Miss Janice Spring-cr, cousin of the bride, Miss Patty Beddingfield, Mrs. James Stutts and Mrs. Jerry Swinea. Their red silk organza frocks were full-skirted and waltz length, with full, puffed sleeves extending below the elbow. Small veiled headresses of sequins and pearls and bouquets of white pompons completed their attire.

Myra White and Becky Grisham, candlelighters, wore organza frocks with red sashes and hemline streamers. Allen Ezell, cousin of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Milton Speaks of Decatur was best man and ushers included Jesse Stutts, Sherrell Comer, Billy Ray Hill and Jerry Swinea.

Mrs. White chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of blue lace over taffeta and Mrs. Steen, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in navy. White carnations were at the shoulder of each.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's parents were reception hosts in the church parlors. Assisting were Mrs. Yuell White, Mrs. G. N. Davis, Mrs. Lendon Davis, Mrs. Herbert Thornton, Miss Henrietta Grisham, Mrs. Orville Davis, Miss Yvonne Grisham and Mrs. Emmett Greer.

Before leaving for their wedding trip, the bride changed to a beige wool jacket dress with which she wore brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Steen will be at home at Central Heights.

Juan Jackson Affianced To Gerald Thomas Emmons

An afternoon wedding in Trinity Episcopal Mission is being planned by Miss Juan Jackson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Milton Jackson, and Gerald Thomas Emmons, son of Mrs. Marshall Floyd Emmons and the late Mr. Emmons. Only family members will be present for the nuptial pledges which will be heard by the Reverend Edward G. Mullen at two o'clock on Saturday, November twelfth.

Dr. Jackson will give his daughter in marriage and her sister, Mrs. Askew Marable, will be her honor attendant. Bridesmaids will be Ann Blake Jackson, cousin of the bride, and Martha Jo Terry. Mr. Emmons has asked his brother, William Wesley Emmons, to be his best man.

The bride's parents will entertain at their home following the ceremony.

Curtysing on Saturday afternoon to the bride-elect were her sister, Mrs. Marable, and her aunts, Mrs. John Bland, Mrs. Elmo Hollibaugh and Mrs. C. L. Jackson. Their party was a tea at The Town Club where a pink and white color theme was noted in the bouquets about the rooms and in the testable appointments.

Miss Jackson, wearing green tulle and a corsage of pink carnations, was joined in greeting guests by her mother and her fiancé's mother.

Tease, Mrs. Harold Seaton, Mrs. J. R. Jackson, Mrs. Harold Sherrill, Mrs. J. D. Birthday Gala Honors Little Mary Lynn Cofield

Each of Mary Lynn Cofield's birthday anniversaries have been made memorable for her by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McCroskey, who look forward with eager pleasure to November 2nd and their annual small-fry event.

For the occasion of her fourth birthday on Wednesday of last week, Mary Lynn donned her favorite frock, a gift from her uncle Alfred McCroskey, Jr., and delighted in games with neighboring youngsters who were included in the "come over and play" invitations.

The McCroskeys and Mrs. Harriet Cofield, mother of the honoree, used yellow and white mums about the rooms and Mickey Mouse characters decorated the favors which were presented to the guests. A highlight of the funtime was the showing of a film made at last year's celebration.

A tremendous "Happy Birthday" cake in the shape of a butterfly, made by Mary Lynn's aunt, Mrs. Ralph Phillips, centered the party table where cup cakes and ice cream were served to Gail and Peter Duys, Lisa Mitchell, Mary Jo Deweese, Allen and Haywood Moore, Martha, Jean and Steve Pierce, Susan Summerell, Lindsey and William Paxton and Lisa Burleson.

Current Events Club Hears Dr. McElheny

Mrs. Hoyt Brock was hostess to the Thursday, November third meeting of Current Events Club, welcoming members and Dr. W. T. McElheny, guest speaker, at her home on Olive Street.

Plans were completed for an Old Fashioned Christmas party in December, the L. M. Jester home on Shoals Creek to be the setting and husbands of members to be guests.

Active in the work of the Muscle Shoals Mental Health Society, Dr. McElheny told club members of the program started more than one hundred years ago by Dr. Peter Brice, a man of vision and hope, and of its slow progress through the years. Mention was made that there is approximately only one doctor for each four hundred patients; there is no preventive program; no separate facilities for mentally ill children; and an alarming inadequacy of funds. Now at a complete standstill, Dr. McElheny spoke of the program in Alabama as "your shame and mine."

A late afternoon tea hour concluded the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Feted On Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eli Parker were honored on Sunday, October thirtieth, at their home in Center Star when Mrs. Esley Shelton of Lawrenceburg and Mrs. Arnold Goodwin of Killen entertained with open house on the occasion of their parents' fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Gold-tinted chrysanthemums and autumn foliage decorated the rooms and the party table, veiled in yellow, was centered with a tiered and decorated cake.

Sons of the Parkers, all present for the celebration, are Eutris, Bertis, Fred, Carl, McCoy, James and Ralph. Granddaughters attending assisted at the punch table.

Mrs. Parker was dressed in purple sheer with a corsage of golden mums as she, with Mr. Parker, greeted more than a hundred friends and well-wishers who called during the day.

Mrs. Frost Presents Hypatian Club Program

Mrs. George Morris was last Thursday's hostess to the Hypatian Club, welcoming members at her home at three o'clock.

Mrs. Morton Southall presided during the business period and a delightful program, given by Mrs. William Frost, followed. At the conclusion of a review of Eleanor Ruggles' "The West-Going Heart," Mrs. Frost read "The Chinese Nightingale," her own favorite of the poet's works.

Mrs. Southall and Mrs. Madding King assisted the hostess during the tea hour.

Dr. Rose To Lead March Of Dimes

Dr. Frank A. Rose, Tuscaloosa, and Thomas F. Parker, Montgomery, will lead Alabama volunteers in their New March of Dimes next January.

Dr. Rose, president of the University of Alabama, is serving as state chairman for his third consecutive year since coming to Alabama in 1958. Mr. Parker, prominent Montgomery attorney, also served as co-chairman with Dr. Rose for the 1959 campaign which brought signal honors to the state's corps of volunteer workers.

Dr. Rose and Mr. Parker are enthusiastic about the Foundation's new objectives to help prevent birth defects and rheumatoid arthritis, especially in children under 19. "These are the greatest unmet medical problems in the United States today," they said, "and we know that the people of Alabama can be counted on to continue this fight to provide better health for our children."

The two chairmen have long been active in the National Foundation's program. Dr. Rose was Kentucky chairman for the March of Dimes from 1955 to 1958 at which time he was serving as president of the Transylvania College in Lexington.

Mr. Parker is chairman of the Montgomery chapter of the National Foundation and active in many civic organizations both in Montgomery and throughout the state. He is general counsel for the Alabama Farm Bureau Insurance Company and for the Southern Guaranty Insurance Company.

Dr. Rose and Mr. Parker will assist county campaign directors in carrying out the traditional appeal, set for January 2-31, in each community in the state.

FARMER TAKES NAP RIDES PAST HIS STOP

Harris Williams, 72-year-old farmer from Florence, who recently was on his way to visit his daughter who lives in Lakeland, Fla., stepped from the bus depot and hailed a cab in Miami, Fla. When he gave the cab driver his daughter's address, the driver said he didn't think it was in Miami.

Williams returned to the bus depot to buy another ticket, only this time to Lakeland. While he'd napped on the bus he was carried 200 miles past his daughter's home.

THE SPILLWAY

Election is over,
No matter how you feel . . .
The blows have been dealt,
But the bruises will heal.

OUR GOOD CITIZENS have proven their interest in politics and we're proud of them for it. If maybe a few arguments have gotten a little hot, we're pretty sure that all good people have "kissed and made up" by now . . . and we remain first and foremost good Americans.

A SHOPPING TRIP CAN BRING VARIOUS OUTCOMES. When Mary (Porter) Samuels went to Birmingham recently on a shopping spree and failed to find anything she wanted to buy, she decided to make her trip count for something, so she traveled on to Fairhope, where she chanced in on old friends . . . the reunion turned into a nice visit with parties and get-togethers on all sides. Seven hear that Mary became so well known to the local citizens that she couldn't walk down the street without someone's wanting to "pick her up."

KNOWN FOR HER CLEVERNESS, Carolyn McCrory does think up the nicest things. Seems that she has two friends, who now live in Texas, with whom she lived when they were "batching it" in the Big City . . . the three of them, who have not seen other in many years, are "meeting each other half way" in Starkville, Mississippi soon . . . each armed with news, pictures, and souvenirs of her present life. Goes without saying, a great time is anticipated.

HOPE IT'S ROMANCE . . . a pretty young widow and what-we-might-call an Official Florentine rumor has it that things are getting pretty middle-aisle-ish . . . and we certainly give it our enthusiastic endorsement.

A LOVELY BRIDE headed the receiving line last Saturday at the Town Club . . . Joan Jackson, at the tea given by her aunts, looked every bit the happy bride in a becoming green ensemble. We hear that she is being party-ed quite extensively before her marriage to Gerald Emmons at Trinity Episcopal on November twelfth. Our prettiest bouquet to them both.

TEMPUS FUGIT . . . Evidently Ken Darby just can't realize that his daughters have left the dolls behind and become young ladies. When one of them told him recently that she was considering "going steady" (a new term to us oldsters) with a handsome friend, she couldn't convince him that it was nothing funny. Since we won't tell names and tales too, we won't reveal which one of his charming daughters this was.

The HOSTESS WHO THOUGHT OF EVERYTHING . . . When Doryce Levi gave a large bridge luncheon last week, she even served luncheon in the play room for the children of the guests who had baby-sitting problems. Hear that all the guests went away talking about the enjoyable day of bridge.

SO GLAD TO HEAR that last week's bazaar at St. Joseph's Church was such a success . . . understand that all the diligent workers were pretty "tuckered out" toward the end of the day, but were very proud of their accomplishment. And we can attest to the savory merits of the turkey dinner!

THE LATEST FROM OUR GOOD FRIENDS, Mary Ellen and Charles Haley is that they're all settled in their newly-bought home in Memphis, where Mary Ellen will "lend family" during the week while Charles comes down Florence-way to carry on his business . . . Just want to say to Mary Ellen that any time she can come along too, we'll be most happy to see her, because Florence never stops claiming the "likes of her."

ON THE AVENUE . . . Have you seen the "bicycle built for two" that a cute little red-headed boy has been driving about town lately? Madame Spillway has gone out of her way to follow him once or twice just because it makes such an attractive scene . . . looks like something out of past setting, but so cute. Wonder who the little gentleman is, and wonder where he found this outdated vehicle that moved a famous writer of lyrics to "make music."

INTERESTED TO HEAR that Annie and M. P. Curran have brought Charlotte Olim's house on Wood Avenue. They won't have far to move, since they now live close by . . . and that Gene and Virginia Olsen were here over the past week end . . . on their way to "settling down" in Adrian, Michigan. Saw Virginia cruising around in a brand new station wagon.

GOODBYE FOR NOW . . . UNTIL MORE NEWS COMES THROUGH THE SPILLWAY . . .

Education Meet At Central High

Educational Program
For State To Be Studied
Tonight At 7:30 O'Clock

What is expected to be the largest attended mass meeting for education ever held in Lauderdale county will take place at Central High School tonight at 7:30 o'clock when interested parents have asked that the county's representatives in the State Legislature, the superintendent of education, members of the board of education, trustees and others concerned with our education problems be present. It is pointed out by the sponsors of the meeting that the time has arrived for every person, interested in the proper education of our children, band together to tell our legislators and leaders of education that they are ready to give their wholehearted support to any reasonable measure for the proper financing of our schools. It is further stated that the time for concerted action is now here and any delay in placing the facts before both the patrons of the schools and those responsible for the education of our youth could prove dangerous.

Lon Harbin, president of the Central High School P.T.A. will serve as moderator of the meeting and every person with something to say will be heard, the sponsors state.

A cordial invitation is extended to every parent in the county to be present for this effort to aid in solving the school problem and the sponsors add that every effort will be made to arrive at a program that can be backed to the fullest.

Florence Jaycees Sponsor Religion In American Life

The Florence Jaycees are sponsoring Religion in America Life Month, which is observed nationally in November. They will emphasize the importance of regular church attendance in keeping personal spiritual faith strong. The theme will be advertised via newspapers, radio, TV, posters, and billboard and pamphlets.

A highlight of the month will be a "Pause For Prayer Day" at which time all activity will come to a standstill for a minute of silent prayer. The Jaycees are urging increased participation by churches of all faiths.

In 1959 the city of Florence was judged second in the nation for the amount of participation in RIAL Week.

American Red Cross Is
Guest At Meeting

Sheriff Roy L. Call of Lauderdale county who is vitally interested in establishing a Boys Ranch where delinquent boys might receive training in the better things of life, addressed the Florence Exchange Club at Hotel Reeder Tuesday noon on some of the plans in the making.

In addition, Sheriff Call gave an interesting discussion of the work of his office and the problems faced daily as he and his deputies go about doing their job.

Pointing out that the sheriff's office is the oldest of law enforcement offices, having been established in England in the 1700's, the speaker explained the various types of crimes that come under his jurisdiction and the manner in which they are brought before the various courts. He discussed the workings of the parole system in the state and praised this policy, established by law in 1939, and showed where it costs only $50 per year to supervise a man on parole but $314 to supervise him and provide for him in prison.

Sheriff Call told of a number of interesting cases that have been handled through his office but stressed the need for better handling of the youth crime problem that accounts for much of their work.

Miss Hazel Breland, personnel assistant, American Red Cross with offices in Atlanta, and a former member of the faculty at Florence State College, was a special guest of the club and spoke briefly on her work and experiences during the past 18 years during which time she served in England, Germany, Japan and other stations throughout the United States.

Mrs. Bess Nance, executive secretary of the local Red Cross, also was a guest.

Thanksgiving Has Biblical Origin

Feast Of Tabernacles
A Time To Give Thanks
For A Good Harvest

America is the only nation, to this writer's knowledge, whose president proclaims and whose citizens celebrate an official Thanksgiving Day. This devoted recognition of man's dependence upon Divinity for his sustenance is uniquely American because it grew naturally from the formative forces which led the founding fathers of this singular experiment in political democracy based, as they were, on the spiritually revealed will of God. It is the heritage of the Scripture-minded Pilgrims who consciously included the divine Word among the three sustaining pillars of the New World commonwealth they founded. They deliberately patterned the American Thanksgiving after the Biblical Feast of Tabernacles observed as a national holiday in the Holy Land during the 2,000 years of Jewish nationhood.

It may, therefore, fittingly be said that the Thanksgiving season starts with the Bible holiday called the Feast of Tabernacles and observed by the adherents of the Jewish faith even today as a religious holiday at the beginning of fall. (It was celebrated this year from Oct. 6 through Oct. 13.)

Viewed in this light, Thanksgiving attains additional significance. It is a reminder that man must prepare himself for his act of giving thanks by creating an attitude and a mood of gratitude to his heavenly Father for His blessings which form the substance and the reason for Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving can not be restricted to just one day of feasting with an excess of food and drink. It takes nature a whole year to prepare a new harvest whose enjoyment man marks on Thanksgiving Day and cultivate the proper frame of mind and soul to achieve a proper appreciation for God's blessings so abundantly laid on the tables of our nation. The Feast of Tabernacles may well remind us of this duty. Mankind still needs God to exist despite all the mechanical progress it has achieved.

When we eat our turkey with all its bountiful trimmings on Thanksgiving Day of 1960, let us do so with a prayer on our lips and the realization of God's unbounded mercy in our hearts. In keeping with the Bible word feasted in Jewish Temples on the Feast of Tabernacles: "Thank ye the Lord for He is good, for His mercy endureth forever."

Local Catholics Receive Honors

Mrs. Christine Locker received the Pro Ecclesia Pontific Medal which will go to 72 women in the diocese.

APA Promoting U. S. Savings Bonds

Goal Of 20 Per Cent
Additional Sales For November Sought

Newspapers throughout the state last week launched an Alabama Press Association one-month promotion designed to help sell $750,000 more in United States savings bonds. James E. Mills, President of APA, said that the campaign is designed to call attention to the "many improvements made in Series E and H savings bonds within the past eighteen months."

Mills explained that the goal of $750,000 additional purchases in the state will be for the month of November. In November 1959, Alabamians bought $3,596,038. The goal for November 1960 is a minimum of $4,346,038. This would call for an increase of almost 20% in each local community.

The APA promotion is scheduled for the period November 1 through November 30. Mills pointed out that the greatest affect of the promotion should be felt in November. This will be measured in the sales report for the month of November released by the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta around December 12, 1960.

The purpose of this campaign will be to point out to every Alabamian the importance of the Savings Bonds program to the National Defense efforts and to urge all Alabamians to buy and hold U. S. Savings Bonds.

HERE! EASIER GOING FOR THE DRIVER AND THE LOAD, LONGER LIFE FOR THE TRUCK!

'61 TORSION-SPRING CHEVROLETS

If you don't think scrapping the front axle has made a world of difference, you haven't driven a Chevy in a while. A few minutes behind the wheel and you can feel why drivers are happier and breakable loads are better protected. But the biggest advantage of all, you'll realize, is that the truck itself (sheet metal, tires, chassis components, everything) takes less abuse. With independent front suspension-soaking up road shock and vibration, the truck lasts longer, goes extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. Add that to what everybody's always known about Chevy dependability and you find yourself looking at the soundest truck investment you could bet your business on.

and look! NEW REAR-ENGINE CORVAIR 95's

A panel and two pickups that put a thrifty air-cooled engine in the rear, the driver up front and as much as 1,000 pounds of load space in between! That's more capacity than a conventional half-tonner. Yet these Corvair 95's are nearly two feet shorter from bumper to bumper. Highly maneuverable. Built to last and bound to save on a busy schedule!

CORVAIR—Side doors open a full 49" wide. Loading height is a low 14" lift!

Early Detection Diabetes Vital

November 13-19 Is Set Aside To Remind Public Of Importance Of Tests

It is estimated that there are more than two-and-a-half million diabetics in the United States, and almost half of that number are unaware they have diabetes. In other words, one person in about every 70 in this country is a diabetic.

Diabetes is hereditary. Of the total population of the United States, 1 out of every 4 persons—or 45 million persons—are believed to be diabetic "carriers." "Carriers" of diabetes are persons who are free of the condition themselves but who transmit the tendency to it.

The usual signs of diabetes are increase in thirst, constant hunger, frequent urination, loss of weight, intense itching, easy tiring, pain in fingers and toes, change in vision, and slow healing of cuts and bruises. However, diabetes may be present without any signs at all.

Diabetes can be controlled by diet, exercise, and, when necessary, by insulin.

Neglect of the condition may lead to development of complications, the most serious of which are heart disease, failing eyesight, hardening of the arteries, kidney disorders, gangrene, cerebral hemorrhage, or diabetic coma.

The Diabetes Detection Drive during Diabetes Week, November 13-19 in 1960, is conducted by the American Diabetes Association in cooperation with more than 900 County and State Medical Societies. During Diabetes Week, detection tests are provided in hundreds of local communities.

Census Bureau To Check Figures On Employment

Information to be used in compiling national figures on employment and unemployment will be collected locally during the week of November 14 in the Current Population Survey, it was announced today by Director Thomas W. McWhirter of the U.S. Census Bureau's regional field office in Atlanta, Ga.

The information collected from local families will be combined with that collected in 329 other areas of the country to provide the national estimates. Approximately 35,000 households are included each month in the Current Population Survey. These households are selected at random under the Census Bureau's scientific sampling program to provide a representative cross-section of all classes of the population, and all types of areas in the country—large cities, small towns, rural areas, and so forth.

Facts on employment and unemployment collected locally are forwarded to Census Bureau headquarters in Washington to be processed by the Bureau's electronic computer, known as Univac, to provide the national estimates. The national report covering the information collected during the week of November 14 will be issued in Washington early in December.

Current Population Survey information will be collected from a number of local families by Mrs. Clarice Batson.

In favor of convicting Dr. R. Bernard Finch, but could not decide whether it was first or second degree murder. The vote on Carole Tregoff, the surgeon's one-time mistress, was 9-3 in favor of conviction. The jury had deliberated nearly 70 hours since getting the case last Oct. 19. January 3 has been set for trial No. 3.

Dr. Finch and Miss Tregoff are being tried for the murder of Dr. Finch's wife, Barbara Jean Finch, who was shot to death at the Finch estate July 18, 1959.

Veterans Day To Be Observed On November 10-11

Huge Celebration In Birmingham Set By Veterans Organizations

Plans for another spectacular Veterans Day observance, underway for more than six months, are now in high gear in Birmingham. Prominent military and civic leaders have again joined forces to create a colorful and meaningful tribute to all American war veterans who have fought to preserve the ideals of democracy throughout the years.

Birmingham's 1960 National Veterans Day observance, commonly known as America's Number 1 program and now in its 14th year, promises an impressive agenda scheduled for November 10-11.

Distinguished military and governmental leaders will arrive in Birmingham between 3 to 5 p.m. on Thursday, November 10, officially beginning the whirl of activities planned. They will be honored at a 5:30 p.m. reception at the Thomas Jefferson Hotel, Birmingham.

The National Veterans Award Dinner will follow the reception at 7 p.m. at the Tutwiler Hotel. A highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of the National Veterans Award, given by the combined veterans organizations, to the "outstanding veteran in the United States" during the current year.

William V. Cooper of Cincinnati, Ohio, the national commander, Disabled American Veterans, will present the award.

Veterans groups will also be prominently represented at the city-wide Memorial Service, to be held at 11 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, 2100 4th Ave. N., on Friday, Nov. 11. The service, sponsored by Vets No. 172, Forty and Eight, will honor Gold Star mothers. Designed for all faiths, the program will consist of a roll call of deceased veterans, musical selections and the minister's address.

The World Peace Luncheon will follow at noon with General Clark L. Ruffner, U.S. Representative at NATO, as principal speaker.

Another highlight of the luncheon will be the announcement of the winner of the "Freedom" essay contest, sponsored by the Veterans Day committee. An all-expense-paid trip to New York and Washington, D. C., is first prize for the lucky high school student and his teacher.

The luncheon will be televised live by CBS and NBC.

Participating in the parade at 2 p.m. will be U.S. Army Reserve and National Guard units, both ground and air, ROTC units, bands, floats, scouts and veterans and fraternal marching units. The parade will also be televised live by WBRC-TV.

Immediately following the parade will be a reception presented by the Heart of Dixie chapter of the Association of the U.S. Army at the Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham.

Recordings To Be Made About TVA

Voice America Team To Cover All Phases Of Authority's Work

A working team from the Voice of America will arrive in the Tennessee Valley next week to produce a series of recordings about the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Atomic Energy Commission for world-wide broadcast.

The recordings about TVA will cover all phases of the operation, including one interview on the over-all program with Chairman Herbert D. Vogel and General Manager A. J. Wagner. The "Voice" will make a series of recordings at Oak Ridge on the peaceful uses of the atom, principally at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

All of the shows will be recorded in some ten different languages: Burmese, Cantonese, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Mandarin, Vietnamese, Persian, Arabic, and English.

The team will visit various offices and make field trips to dams, plants, a test-demonstration farm, and forestry offices.

General Herbert D. Vogel, TVA Chairman, has been designated an Honorary Vice President of the Permanent International Association of Navigation Congresses when it holds its twentieth quadrennial meeting at Baltimore in September 1961.

General Vogel was notified of the honor by J. Millard Tawes, Governor of Maryland.

The United States, host to the Association next year, has been a member since 1902. The Association is supported by 52 member-nations for the purpose of promoting the progress of inland and ocean navigation.

Wool slacks and skirts are permanently creased or pleated by a new chemical treatment developed by U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists. And if the fabric is shrink-proofed, the creases remain after machine washing.

WHAT PRORATION MEANS TO LAUDERDALE COUNTY SCHOOLS

Proration means a cut in the money allocated to the schools by the State Department of Education because the funds are not available.

In 1956-57 funds were cut $24,648, in 1957-58 funds were cut $70,733, in 1958-59 funds were cut $32,769, and in 1959-60 funds were cut $89,395.

Information has been received by your Lauderdale County Board of Education that in the school year 1960-61 funds will be cut 9.4 per cent and possibly more.

Every child in the county, state and the nation is entitled to the best education that money can provide. Remember, it is your tax money that pays the teachers and keeps the schools operating, that builds new schools and buys new equipment. There should be no cut back in education. Education should and must come first if our county and our state is to prosper and move ahead. We can all help.

Alabama: A Sportsman's Paradise

This illustrated map pin-points the varied activities of the Alabama Department of Conservation. It shows where scores of public boat landings have been built this summer. The management areas abound in deer, turkey and other wild game. Just opened is the new 25,000-acre Wolf Creek Management Area in Walker and Fayette Counties. There are 19 public fishing lakes in the state, and new lakes under construction in Madison and Chambers Counties. Alabama is fast becoming a land of paradise for the hunter and fisherman.

Coffee 26 — Butler 0

The Butler Rebels became Coffee's eighth victim of the 1960 campaign last Friday night 26-0 and the 17th straight club to taste defeat at the hands of the Jacks. The "Goldust Twins," Charley Young and Terry Haddock, turned in another of their great performances. Coffee invades Etowah County tomorrow night, in the toughest test of the year.

Lexington 31 — Rogersville 13
The Lexington Golden Bears assured themselves of the best record in the school's history so far as football playing is concerned, as they struck down the visiting Rogersville Tigers 31-13 last Friday night. The win gave the Bears an 8-1-1 record for the season.

Falkville 7 — Central 0
A light but hard hitting Falkville Blue Devil eleven completely stymied Coach Osbie Linville's Central Wildcats here last Friday night for nearly three quarters and eased by with a 7-0 victory. The game was a defensive battle all the way and neither team managed to complete a pass on the cold field. Central will meet Rogers this Friday night.

FSC 14 — Jacksonville 7
Florence State's Lions, paced by tailback Robert Douthitt, whipped Jacksonville State 14-7, last Saturday night for their third straight win and fifth triumph of the season. Detection Is Your Protection

There is greater reason this year than ever before why everyone should be tested for diabetes: diabetes is on the rise. The incidence of diabetes has increased by 25%. There are now 2,500,000 diabetic Americans—and half of them don't know that they have the condition.

Thus, one person in every 70 is a diabetic—known or unknown. Since anyone can develop diabetes at any age, it is important that everyone be tested. And the time to do it is during the Diabetes Detection Drive, which is highlighted during Diabetes Week, November 13 through 19. Simple, quick, painless tests that have been devised disclose its presence even though the condition often fails to produce signs obvious enough to warrant seeing a physician. Yet, neglect of diabetes can lead to serious complications.

The theme of this year's Drive, therefore, is "Detection Is Your Protection." But the Drive is "An Alert—not an Alarm," for neglect is the only cause for concern. With prompt detection and medical care, a diabetic almost always continues to lead a normal life.

The Detection Drive is sponsored nationally by the American Diabetes Association, and locally by 45 Affiliate Diabetes Associations and more than 900 County and State Medical Societies. Its purpose is to detect undiagnosed cases of diabetes and to acquaint all Americans with the symptoms of the condition. It in no way involves fund-raising.

For further information contact the Affiliate Diabetes Association in your area, your local Medical Society, or your own physician.

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

SMALL MISCHIEF

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
 ALL FOR THE CHURCH
 The Church is the greatest factor in our lives for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Isaiah	7	13-16
Monday	Proverbs	6	20-22

Wednesday	Ephesians	6	1-4
Thursday	II Timothy	2	14-17
Friday	I Hebrews	12	7-8
Saturday	Philips	77	13-14

I call Bruce my combination angel-terror. Soon he will be four, and he is a fascinating mixture of mischief and goodness.

At bedtime, I always tiptoe into his room to be sure he's covered. Then it is that I am struck by the innocence of his face in sleep. Then it is that I realize how helpless is this small dynamo, who plunges with such boundless energy about our house and yard all day. Then it is that I am struck by the awesomeness of my responsibility.

I realize it is entirely up to me to see that Bruce learns right from wrong, to see that he grows into the sort of man who will be a credit to his family, his community, and his country. I must teach him to keep a steady heart and a level head, to resist the many temptations that will be strewn in his path, to hold honor and truth and integrity high.

When I think of my task, I send a small and special prayer to God to aid me. And I thank God for his Church on earth which, for years to come, will be helping me, again and again, in making my small mischief into a man.

Cattle Parasites Must Be Treated

Many Alabama cattlemen are now in the process of treating yearlings and older cattle for parasites. Since the most rapid build-up of these parasites occurs in the late summer and early fall, it is imperative that all animals be treated before winter, says Dr. Worth Lanier, Auburn Extension veterinarian.

Although several new drugs of the organic phosphate family are showing up well in experimental tests in removing internal parasites, none have been released yet; therefore, phenothiazine is still considered the choice drug for parasite treatment.

The emulsion form of the drug usually proves superior to the bolus or powder form, Lanier says. And he warns cattlemen to buy phenthe production from 20 million acres for feeding livestock.

Enough acreage could not be obtained by reclaiming land through irrigation, drainage, clearing and conversion practices at the rate that this was being done in 1953-54.

But Jones says that with a 10 per cent increase in feeding efficiency and a maximum yield attained through a full, efficient and economical application of presently known technology, the same acreage of cropland and cropland pasture used in 1956-58 would be more than enough to provide for the 1975 needs.

Food Fiber Needs Can Be Produced

American farmers will have 50 million additional people to feed and clothe by 1975, a recent survey report from the United States Department of Agriculture predicts. But the USDA expects farmers to have no trouble meeting the country's needs.

Not only can we expect enough food and fiber for our consumption, but we can also still maintain a fairly high level of agricultural exports, the report says.

A. W. Jones, Auburn Extension marketing specialist, says that it would take 35 per cent more farm output than we had in 1956-58 to provide for a population of 230 million. But there will be no pressing need for new technology or for programs of land development solely for the purpose of increasing production.

The need for increasing livestock production will be greater than the need for increasing crops. Assuming that we will have a 10 per cent increase in livestock feeding efficiency and that farmers will apply new technology at the rate they have adopted it in the past, we would still need the equivalent of
