

The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

• We predict (a la Drew Pearson): That after the Alabama Public Service Commission hears the arguments favoring the Petersville Gas Co., Inc., at the hearing in Montgomery Friday (and, as already the arguments of Muscle Shoals Gas Corp., and its subsidiary, Tennessee River Gas Corp., have been heard), that the Commission will promptly announce a decision that will assure Armour Agriculture Chemical Company a firm supply of gas at a price the concern is willing to pay. This announcement will settle the seemingly impossible situation with ease and dispatch and will show the citizens of this area that they had little or no reason for concern. It is our opinion that this entire matter has had far too much unwarranted publicity.

• What the man who has everything needs—is help with the payments.

• We wish all of you (especially you professed Independent voters) had been with the great crowd that heard Harry Truman speak at Decatur last Friday. It would have done you good to hear, face-to-face, a man who knows the score and has the intestinal fortitude to express the facts in a few well chosen words. The 76-year-old former President—who looks 10 years younger, acts and speaks with a vigor that belies his years—put his finger on the soft spots in the Republican campaign and brought to the light of day the background, the records, the shaky foundation and the questionable tactics of the party's nominees and the program they espouse. Certainly, if there was any person in the vast audience, estimated at between 10,000 and 12,500 by Decatur's police chief, who was undecided as to how to vote on Nov. 8, he nor she no longer doubts the wisdom of a Democratic vote.

• During the press conference before his address, we asked Mr. Truman what he thought of the stands taken by Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Nixon in their stated support of the Tennessee Valley Authority. His answer: "If you want to kill TVA—vote Republican." Later he pointed out that the records of both Mr. Nixon and Mr. Lodge in the Congress showed that neither had ever supported TVA with their votes and had constantly been a foe to the development of this area. "You must judge a man by his acts before considering his word," was Mr. Truman's warning.

• The hands that rock the cradle today are those of the baby sitter.

• No matter how rough the remaining 12 days of the presidential campaign gets and how bad the two presidential candidates are painted by their opponents, we can still be thankful that we don't have to choose between Khrushchev and Castro.

• William Howard Taft was the first president to play golf. It seems that he started a Republican trend.

• There have been numerous proposals that were guaranteed to solve our desperate school situation. All types of threats have been made and a "temporary tax" is often suggested. The phrase "temporary tax," however, has replaced Methuselah as a symbol of longevity and has been frowned upon. Maybe that long-sought-for painless tax may turn up in time to solve the problem. Let's pray for that day.

• Despite any advertising to the contrary, Aleatraz is still the only pen with a lifetime guarantee.

• This is a true story, so help us! A few mornings ago—it was about 3 o'clock—a man called the police and reported that he heard two prowlers in his living room and had quietly crept down the steps for a look. There in the darkness, he saw a man and a woman apparently searching through the room. He urged that the police rush to his home. When the officers arrived and surrounded the house, the man bravely turned on the lights—only to find that the "prowlers" were a couple who were still there from a party he and his wife had given the night before.

"But wouldn't it be nice to have some gentleman make a pass," she added.

Gas Supplier Sought

APSC Hearing Friday To Decide Armour Fate

A decision is expected to be reached Friday as to whether or not Armour and Company's plant planned for West Colbert County will receive its required natural gas supply so as to become a local industry. The Alabama Public Service Commission will hear arguments on that day in support of Petersville Gas Company, Inc., of Florence, whose supplier is Texas Eastern. The Petersville firm has the gas supply needed by Armour but has no franchise in the area selected for location of the plant.

The first hearing was held on Monday, Oct. 17 at which time arguments were heard on behalf of the Tennessee River Gas Company, a subsidiary of Muscle Shoals Gas Corp., which has a franchise covering the area but at the time was unable to make a firm commitment to supply the gas. In the hearing Robert L. James, vice president and general manager of Armour Agricultural Chemical Company said any approved supplier would be acceptable to the company. He also announced that unless an adequate supply of firm gas at a fair price is in hand by Nov. 3 the plant would necessarily be located elsewhere.

An appeal was made to Governor John Patterson on Saturday in the form of a letter signed by Hoyt Greer of Sheffield, chairman of the industrial committee of the Muscle Shoals Chamber of Commerce, along with other leaders in the Shoals area, asking the chief executive to use his influence to aid in solving the gas situation facing the new Armour plant. Copies of this letter were sent to other state officials, to members of Congress and the state legislature.

It is understood that Armour selected the local site after considering 29 other locations and has alternate sites in Mississippi and Georgia. The $30,000,000 plant would manufacture ammonium nitrates, nitrogen solutions, ammonia and other ammonia chemicals used in the mixing of concentrated plant foods. A large portion of these products are made from air and natural gas, the latter providing the hydrogen to make ammonia. It would employ a large number of persons in the construction period and from 200 to 250 to operate the plant. Completion of the plant would be due in 1962, it was stated.

It was emphasized in the appeal that the matter was "of far too great importance to permit a fight over the gas distribution rights to in any way jeopardize the location of this plant in Alabama."

Judge Longshore Named Director Of Industrial Bank

Former Probate Judge To Fill Vacancy Caused By Death Of A. W. Darby

Judge Herman K. Longshore, prominent Florence real estate and insurance agent and former Judge of Probate of Lauderdale County, has been elected a director of the Alabama Industrial Bank to succeed the late A. W. Darby, Sr., it was announced today by W. L. Williams, secretary-manager.

Mr. Williams stated that Judge Longshore was the unanimous and enthusiastic choice of the board of directors to fill the place left vacant by the death of Mr. Darby, who was one of the organizers and longtime able director of the affairs of this financial institution.

Judge Longshore has assumed his new duties and because of his splendid experience, thorough knowledge of the business conditions of the area and the respect in which he is held by the citizens of the entire area, it is felt by the directors that his membership on the board will add much to the continued progress of the Alabama Industrial Bank.

"We feel that we could not have found a better man to fill the place left vacant by Mr. Darby's death," Mr. Williams said.

Kennedy And Nixon Agree To Fifth TV Debate; Prestige, Peace To Be Argued

Date Is Extended On Sampling Soil Of County Farms

Deadline Set Nov. 10, Cotton Harvest Said Past Half-Way Mark

An extension of ten days for farmers of Lauderdale County to get their soil test samples ready has been announced by county agent L. T. Wagnon who said the truck would be ready to leave for the Auburn University laboratory on Nov. 11.

In order to save 35 to 50 cents postage on each soil sample farmers are urged to have their samples ready not later than November 10, Mr. Wagnon said. The previous deadline was Oct. 31.

"This is an opportunity no farmer should pass up," the county agent pointed out, adding that it was hoped that at least 2,000 samples could be secured by the above deadline.

According to reports received in the county agent's offices in Lauderdale and Colbert counties cotton harvesting has passed the midway point with grades "usually good" and three to four weeks of dry weather needed to complete picking of the 50,000 acre crop. A check with ginners and cotton dealers in the Florence area indicated that the cotton harvest was past the midway point. Damage by army worms reported over the state has been negligible in Lauderdale County in the fields examined.

Gains Shown By Counties In Area

Census Figures Since 1930 Show Growth Percentage At Shoals

Once again the nation's attention has been focused on the official count of its population. In the six months since the Census was taken numerous preliminary reports of local population have been published. The Bureau of the Census has recently released its preliminary report for the State of Alabama and each of the counties.

In 1930, Lauderdale County ranked 14 and Colbert 31 among all the counties in Alabama, but in 1940, Lauderdale showed some growth as it ranked 13 and Colbert 26. In 1950, Lauderdale climbed to number 11 place and Colbert moved up to 21; then in 1960, Lauderdale ranked number 9 and Colbert 17 out of a total of sixty-seven counties, which shows a large percentage of increase in population for both counties.

According to the 1960 census, Lauderdale has a population of 61,398 compared to 41,130 in 1930, and Colbert has a population of 46,376 compared to 29,860 in 1930.

Amendments To Be Voted On In General Election

Number One Concerns Entire State; Two And Three Are County-Wide

Three amendments to the Constitution of Alabama will be voted on by the electorate of the state on November 8.

Amendment No. 1 which appears to have considerable state-wide support would permit out-of-state investors to buy mortgages in Alabama. They could do this even though they have no established places of business in Alabama and without qualifying to do business in the state.

They would have to do business however, through local representatives who would pay taxes on properties they might handle and would pay all applicable city, county and state taxes. Supporters for this amendment contend that there are legal reserve life insurance companies and private pension funds that have millions of dollars they might like to invest in the state.

Amendment No. 2 concerns the municipality of Uniontown in Perry County to promote its growth and to become a stockholder in local industrial, commercial or agricultural development and the location of new industries or businesses therein. Another provision would give the town the right to sell interest bonds, warrants, notes, etc. and to levy additional taxes of not exceeding two per cent on the value of taxable property in the same manner as such taxes are now collected.

The above and other provisions in the amendment would be subject to action of the voters in the event the amendment is ratified in the general election.

Amendment No. 3 concerns the city of Roanoke and would give that municipality the power to levy and collect a special property tax in school district No. 2 of Randolph County, of not more than one-half of one per cent on the value of the property situated in the district as assessed for state taxation during the preceding year; provided that all such additional taxes shall be collected solely for educational purposes. This amendment is also subject to action of the local voters if passed on Nov. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Atherton Hastings will return in early November from a vacation stay in New England.

Watson To Lead Fight Against TB

Annual Seal Sale To Open In Alabama On Monday, November 14

W. T. Watson of Florence was named Chairman of the 1960 Christmas Seal Sale in Lauderdale County, sponsored by The Florence Civic Club. Mrs. George Greene is executive secretary.

L. O. Brackeen of Auburn, president of the Alabama Tuberculosis Association, in commenting on this appointment said:

"I congratulate Lauderdale county on the fact that Mr. Watson has agreed to lead the fight against tuberculosis in that county."

"The Christmas Seal Campaign will officially open November 14 when Seals will be delivered to practically every home throughout the state."

Every county in Alabama is being infected from active cases of TB. The number of known cases in Lauderdale county are 519 with 67 of those cases newly reported last year. The number of known cases in Alabama are 10,859 and 2,055 of those cases were newly reported during 1959. 278 persons died of TB in Alabama last year. Alabama's death rate of 8.6 per 100,000 population is 23 per cent higher than the national average.

Chances for a special session of the Legislature to relieve what the recently organized "Citizens for Education" called a crisis in school finances, faded when Governor John Patterson Tuesday turned thumbs down on the proposal.

Following his action Governor Patterson told newsmen he did not feel that a special session was warranted at this time to raise more school money and to cancel a 9.4 per cent proration of state education funds ordered for this year. He referred to demands for legislative action made by a "Citizens for Education" group led by Dr. George F. Carraway, a Moulton dentist.

Expressing his own reaction, the governor said, "I do not think we can accomplish anything by mob action... marches on the capitol I don't think are designed to accomplish anything."

Patterson said people who favor a special session for education are advocating an additional one per cent sales tax. He said he was against that. "It hits the little man who can least afford to pay it... we have too many taxes now." He denounced the move to march on Capitol Hill to force an extraordinary session of the State Legislature. He called marches "intimidation and force."

The governor laid the blame for the money crisis on the boards of equalization who he said, "refuse to equalize taxes." He said the state "is doing everything possible and will have raised the education budget by some $27 million this year as compared with 1958. He pointed out it was up to the counties to equalize their property taxes so that everyone pays a just amount. Then he said, "there will be plenty of money for schools."

Patterson referred to the slump in industry in the state and said the steel companies are not working at 50 per cent of capacity. He said the only thing that keeps the state's economy going is industrial expansion and new industry. He said he would like to see the schools used more, "all year around." He said he would like to see the superintendent of education a member of the governor's cabinet in Alabama.

Balentine Gives Up To Sheriff

Norman Balentine, 32, Florence, surrendered himself to Lauderdale County Sheriff Roy Lee Call Tuesday morning.

Balentine is charged with assault with intent to murder, in the shooting of Barbara Wilson Jeffery, 25, Florence, who was wounded by a .38 caliber revolver late last Tuesday, following an argument between the pair at a Florence motel. The victim's condition continues to improve at the ECM hospital.

Balentine is being held in Lauderdale County jail. Preliminary hearing will be held on November 11.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Barnes and Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Dunn attended Homecoming at UA in Tuscaloosa last week end.

Vice-President Richard M. Nixon and Senator John F. Kennedy have agreed on a fifth debate, the time to be announced. The candidates' fourth debate was held on Friday night and televised over the major TV networks.

Their fourth set-to followed much the same pattern as the others with Nixon delivering a scathing attack Saturday on Kennedy's Friday night stand on Cuba. He said that he questioned whether or not "he (Kennedy) had the balanced judgement to be president in this critical period of the 60's." Kennedy's followers on the other hand were jubilant at the outcome of the TV debate considering it a victory for their candidate.

In challenging the Vice President to a fifth TV encounter, Kennedy said, "There remain vital issues between us and the country is entitled to have them thoroughly aired."

"The issues of this campaign must not be hidden in the shadows of ambiguity or clouds of rhetoric. They must be brought into sharp focus so that American people can make an intelligent choice."

Nixon claimed Kennedy's stand on Cuba was a direct invitation from the Soviet Union to intervene in Castro's behalf militarily. Nixon contends that he has a program that will guarantee the end of Fidel Castro. In the fifth debate the Vice President proposed a "debate in depth" on the Cuban situation. He did not say he would debate only on Cuba but Kennedy said he would be pleased to discuss the "whole record of Cuba." He said Nixon had distorted his position. Issuing a statement in New York on the subject, Kennedy said, "We must attempt to strengthen the non-Batista democratic anti-Castro forces in exile, and in Cuba itself, who offer eventual hope of overthrowing Castro. Thus far these fighters for freedom have had virtually no support from our government."

Replying to Nixon's accusation that Kennedy had violated this nation's non-intervention policy, the Massachusetts senator said, "I have never advocated or do not advocate intervention in Cuba in violation of our treaty obligations," adding that, "we should use all available communications, TV, radio and the press... and the moral power of the American government to let the forces of freedom in Cuba know that we believe freedom will rise again in that country."

Don't Fail To Vote

Today our greatest personal privilege is the vote. It is the one thing that belongs to us and no one can take it from us as long as we remain a free nation. In fact it was the ultimate achievement of our freedom because it gave us government by representation.

Freedom of expression, freedom of worship, freedom of assembly, freedom of choice... none of these would really count as freedoms if it were not for our freedom to ballot... to choose the men who lead us in a free election.

Most places in the world do not have free elections and many places do not have elections at all. When we weigh that we know at once that we enjoy a unique position in this world torn by strife and discord. Those of us who do not value this great privilege do not deserve to be free nor do we deserve to enjoy the benefits our free nation affords.

It is beside the point whether you like a candidate or not. The important thing to consider is how good a leader will he make, which of the candidates will benefit the nation most. It is the individual voter who must decide this for himself and then cast his ballot.

To not cast a ballot is to disenfranchise yourself... to deny yourself the most important privilege of citizenship. Weigh the issues and give each candidate's qualifications your most careful consideration. Then with the pride every American should feel in his heart go to the polls on Nov. 8 and cast your vote.

Savings Bonds--A Good Investment

We hear a lot of talk these days about bringing industry to this community or that community in Alabama. And we hasten to agree that new industry will do a lot for the local economy. However, we often forget to count the blessings that already are ours in the way of financial insurance for the future. This has been brought to mind by an Alabama Press Association-sponsored education program on U. S. Savings Bonds. We were surprised to learn that it is estimated that Lauderdale county has approximately $4,844,582 cash value in Series E and H bonds currently being held by the thirty folks of this area. Recent improvements in these bonds have pushed the earning power up considerably. Those now being issued and those issued since June, 1949, are earning at least 3-3/4% compounded semi-annually from now till maturity. Those issued prior to that date earn at least 3-1/2% to next maturity. Just to be on the safe side, let's use the 3-1/2% figure to see approximately how much will accumulate to the bond holders of our people in this county in 1960. According to our grocery store arithmetic, this would amount to $169,600. It's easy to see that this is the equivalent of a good size industrial payroll.

Through the years this accumulation of Savings Bonds is always readily available to be poured into the spending stream in times of economic reverses. It could buy a lot of seed, groceries or pay the rent. It adds stability to local business. Too, people with savings are not afraid to spend from current income. Savings Bonds offer us as individuals a systematic plan for setting aside a part of our income for education of our children, expansion of business or farming interests, a more comfortable retirement, and to finance some of the "big things" in life. E and H Bonds are guaranteed by the full faith and credit of our government. It's a comfortable feeling to have such a nest egg of security.

Kennedy Urges Large Vote On November 8

Editor: One of the truly dynamic forces in American journalism is the weekly newspaper, and this is just as true today as it was 200 years ago. Newspapers like yours are the people's built-in safeguard against corruption, waste and indifference. I'm sure your readers respect and take justifiable pride in their newspaper.

As an editor, I am certain you will agree that good government is government that is responsible to the wishes of the people. For that reason I want encourage you to vote in the November 8 election.

I cannot answer individually all the letters I have received from your area, though I would like to be able to do so. However, I personally do wish to assure you and your readers that under a Democratic president and Congress depressed area legislation will be immediately enacted. And the Democratic health care plan for the aged will not require senior citizens who are in need—as does the Republican version—to take a pauper's oath to receive aid.

As with farming, science and industry, there is a quickening pace in the affairs of government. New frontiers are to be crossed that require imagination, inventiveness, a new approach. Our economy needs to be bolstered, our defenses strengthened. Our next president must have a full vote of confidence—a mandate—from the largest possible number of people.

You, as a responsible editor, can help bring that about by urging your readers to go to the polls on November 8 and vote.

Sincerely,
John F. Kennedy

MRS. CORINNE LITTLE MILLIKEN

"She has been an inspiration to thousands of girls in Lauderdale County and throughout North Alabama where she has given dedicated service to the Girl Scout movement and other organizations that have encouraged better citizenship," is a brief summary of Mrs. Milliken and her work as viewed by one closely allied with her.

"Corinne Milliken, because of her training and love for young people, has made a place for herself in our community that would be hard for anyone else to fill. We are richer because of her residence here," was the additional observation made by this friend.

Corinne Little Milliken was born in Montevallo, the daughter of Burgess and Dora Fonde Little. At a very early age, the family moved to Mobile where she attended elementary school and later was graduated from Barton Academy, a high school and the first public school in the South.

After graduation from Barton, she attended Mississippi State College for Women in Columbus, where she majored in physical education and received her B.S. degree in that field. For three years following, she taught school in Natchez, where she was supervisor of physical education in the city schools. Mrs. Milliken then continued her education at Columbia University in New York City where a year later she received her Masters Degree.

Mrs. Milliken came to Florence State Teachers College in 1927 as the head of the physical education department, a position she held for three years.

She was married to William Milliken, a local attorney, on October 23, 1930. They have one son, John Burgess Milliken, a student at Athens College.

Mrs. Milliken worked with the U.S.O. from 1943 to 1945 at its Florence headquarters. In January, 1946, she assisted with the organization of the Muscle Shoals Area Girl Scout Council, having a three county jurisdiction, Lauderdale, Franklin, and Colbert and served as its first president. In 1956, the Muscle Shoals Area Council merged with two other councils, one in Decatur and the other in Athens, and became the Tennessee Valley Girl Scout Council embracing ten counties, seven in Alabama and three in Tennessee. She was then named executive director of the new council, the position she has held since.

At Barton Academy, Mrs. Milliken was a member of the Latin Club and the Y-Teens, historian of her graduating class and a member of the first Girl Scout troop organized there.

While attending Mississippi State College for Women, she was on the Spectator Staff, the college newspaper; a member of the Y.W.C.A., the student government and had the unusual distinction of serving as president of her sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

Mrs. Milliken has been a member of the American Association of University Women for many years and served one term as president of the local chapter. She was a member of the Florence City Board of Education for eight years, the only woman ever to hold this position.

Of special interest is the part Mrs. Milliken played as campaign director in organizing the Muscle Shoals Concert Association, one of the area's most outstanding cultural programs. She later served for one year as president of the association and has been on the Board of Directors since. Mrs. Milliken is presently serving as co-chairman of the Lauderdale County Welfare Board.

When asked if she had received any honors, Mrs. Milliken replied: "I've never received any honors except the honor of serving the people of this community." In this statement, Mrs. Milliken is not entirely correct as she has been honored repeatedly for her many contributions to the social progress of this area.

Mrs. Milliken is dedicated to the Girl Scout movement and has been the guiding spirit of the organization in this Alabama area.

Was Executive Secretary Alumni Association For Past Twenty-Nine Years

Miss Pearl Sparks, who has been at Florence State College since 1923, retired from her post of Executive Secretary of the Alumni Association at the annual meeting of the Association during the 12th annual homecoming activities on October 22. She held the position since appointed by president Henry J. Willingham in 1931, for a total of 29 consecutive years.

A resolution, presented by outgoing president Charles W. Barr, was approved by the Association. Miss Sparks was given a standing vote of thanks and was presented a chrysanthemum.

Her first position at the school was as bookkeeper in the Treasurer's office.

Miss Sparks organized the college newspaper, "Flor-Ala," and sponsored it for eighteen years. While holding that position she also served as Director of the News Service until 1948, the year Dr. E. B. Norton became President of the college.

Miss Sparks will continue in her position of hostess of Rogers Hall, which is used by guests of the college, clubs, and for various meetings.

Miss Entekin attended Emory University and is now employed as an X-ray technician. Mr. Elam is a senior student in the School of Electrical Engineering at Georgia Institute of Technology in Atlanta.

The couple plans a December wedding.

Lt. G. C. Cook, USAF, To Wed Mississippian

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Ellis of Gulfport, Mississippi, of the betrothal of their daughter, Dorothy Delores, to Gene Carroll Cook, lieutenant, United States Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Cook, 213 Howell Street, Florence.

Miss Ellis is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Vickery of Atmore, and Mrs. William M. Ellis of Birmingham and the late Mr. Ellis. Her fiancé's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Linam and the late Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Cook, all of Savannah, Tennessee.

The bride-elect, a native of Winter Haven, Florida, was graduated from Winter Haven High School where she participated in numerous school activities. She is now engaged in secretarial work in Gulfport.

A graduate of Coffee High School, Lt. Cook attended both Florence State College and the University of Alabama. He was graduated from the Air Force Aviation Cadet School in April, 1960, and is presently stationed at Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi. The wedding is being planned for late January.

Miss Madeline Glenn Hillman Engagement Announced

Presaging a December wedding is the announcement which has been made by Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Hillman, 522 Cypress Mill Road, of the engagement of their daughter, Madeline Glenn, to Bobby Glenn West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin West of Haleyville.

Granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Porter of Montgomery and the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hillman of Hazen, the bride-elect was graduated from Coffee High School and attended Judson College in Marion before entering Florence State College where she is now a senior. She is a member of Tri-Cities Girls Cotillion Club.

Mr. West, a graduate of Haleyville High School, attended the University of Alabama before transferring to Florence State College. He will complete his courses in January. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kidd and of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. West, all of Haleyville.

Highland Baptist Church will be the setting for the December seventeenth nuptial event.

Miss King's Prenuptials Highlight Social Calendar

First among the social courtesies which are filling the days for bride-elect Sherrod King was the gift tea of Friday afternoon which was hosted by Mrs. James H. McIntosh and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. McIntosh, Jr., at the home of the former on Riverview Drive. Mixed blossoms gayed the party rooms where the hostesses and honoree were joined by Miss King's mother, Mrs. Madding King, in greeting the twenty or more close friends who were included in the hospitality.

In the blue and white dining room the table was appointed with blue and white china on a fringed white Marseilles spread with blue ageratum and small, white "mums" fashioning the centerpiece.

Gifts for the kitchen of her new home were presented to the honoree.

Another curtsy to Miss King was the tea event of Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. A. Robert Tomlinson, Mrs. William Calhoun and Mrs. Julian Nance were hostesses at the Tomlinson home in Hickory Hills where about two hundred Tri-Citians called between the hours of three and half past five.

Receiving with the hostesses, the honoree and Mrs. King were out-of-town members of the wedding party including Mrs. Barry Hibbett of Birmingham, Miss Margaret Kohn of Montgomery, Miss Gracey Bethel, Winston-Salem, N. C., and Miss Kay Rich of Huntington, W. Va. Miss King wore a tulle-trimmed gown of green silk organza.

Among the decorations, attention was drawn to an antique turquoise of gift flowers which graced the family room, and to the heirloom candelabrum which centered the silver-appointed table, garlanded with nosegays of pink rosebuds, and lavender blossoms and encircled with purple grapes.

Assisting were Mrs. Morton Southall, Mrs. Hoyt Brock, Mrs. William Milliken, Miss Ellen Moore, Mrs. Kenneth Darby, Mrs.

Literary Clubs Meet In Homes Of Members

The John O. Dabney home at 461 North Pine Street was the setting when Mrs. Dabney and Mrs. W. Otto Perrett were co-hostesses recently to the season's first meeting of the DISCUSSION CLUB. Included as special guests for the occasion were Mrs. Leo King, Mrs. Ben Ingram, Mrs. S. S. Roberts, Sr., and Mrs. Stanley Rudderham of Ocean Springs, Miss., who has been a visitor in the home of Misses Nell and Ethel Pearson.

For the afternoon's program, Mrs. W. W. Slaton gave an informal resume of the cruise from which she and Dr. Slaton returned in mid-September. The Grecian Isles were a highlight of this, their most recent tour.

Mrs. W. M. Paxton and Mrs. Wesley Patton, president and secretary of the club, respectively, presided at the table during the refreshment hour.

CONTEMPORARY CLUB members gathered on Monday, October 17, at the home of Mrs. Herbert Miller, 130 West Mattie Lou, to hear a delightful and informative program which was prepared by Mrs. Franklin Lentz and given in her absence by Mrs. Julian Nichols.

Incidents pertaining to Russia's fifty-nine year old Jascha Heifetz, whose prodigious musical career began at the early age of three and who, at the age of five, entered the Royal Conservatory and, at sixteen, was a performer in New York's Carnegie Hall, were interestingly chronicled and concluded with the violinist's recording of Bach's Concerto in D Minor.

Present with club members were Mrs. L. E. James and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, here from her home in Canton, N. C., for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. James Fall, and her family.

Hostess and also program chairman for last Thursday's meeting of CURRENT EVENTS CLUB, Mrs. Charles Nance welcomed members at 3:15 p.m. at her home on Jackson Road and, later, introduced Mrs. B. C. Luna, a guest speaker.

Mrs. Luna gave interesting highlights from a recent visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luna, presently residing in England. Two sight-seeing jaunts to the continent with Mr. Luna and trips into thirteen countries with her sister and traveling companion, Mrs. Joseph E. Johnson of Birmingham, provided material for her colorful discourse.

Misses Lulu and Novie Almon, and Mrs. Louis Gottschalk of Hants, Mass., who is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Jackson, were additional guests.

In the absence of Mrs. Joe Redd, president, Mrs. B. V. Bender presided during the business period and, with Mrs. Leo King and Mrs. W. T. McElheny, assisted the hostess with tea-time courtesies.

Life In Alabama On TV Mondays

History Of Civil War Days In New Series Over Educational Net

Life in Alabama during the Civil War will be the basis of a new series of 35 telecasts on Mondays at 8 p.m. on channel 5. Presented by Auburn University in cooperation with the Alabama Civil War Centennial Commission, history research professor Dr. Malcolm C. Millan will produce and narrate the programs.

The road to secession and war in Alabama and the South will be the topic for the first program. That road was paved by the leadership of William L. Yancey, Alabama. "Civil War Alabama" will consider the state secession convention, the most divided in the deep south.

Other programs in the series will deal with the withdrawal of Alabama's delegation from the U.S. Congress (Jan. 21, 1861), the large Union element in North Alabama, Alabama's part in important battles (First Battle of Bull Run, Shiloh, Vicksburg, Gettysburg, Atlanta.)

Others in the series are on Alabama's Josiah Gorgas, chief of ordnance of the Confederate States; Catesby ap. R. Jones commands 'The Merrimac' and Admiral Semmes of Mobile, the Confederacy's one-man navy.

Among the latter programs will be "Farragut 'Dams the Torpedoes'" at Mobile Bay, the Fall of Mobile, the surrender of the western army under Richard Taylor of Citronelle, and the arrest of Alabama leaders.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dabney will leave early next week for a week's visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Deal, and children in Taylorville, N. C.

THE SPILLWAY

Be the life of the party,
Chatter all you want — BUT
When Politics is mentioned
BETTER keep your mouth shut!

IT MAY BE, some of our active LOWV members will disapprove of the philosophy behind this attempted-poetry . . . but we still say it's a subject "loaded with dynamite" . . . have heard of several long-time friends that were threatened . . . also of one hostess who refused to serve dinner to one guest until he had retracted a statement or two . . . However, we do recommend such lively interest in any election, whether it be local or nation-wide.

ENJOYING RETIREMENT the way it should be enjoyed is Jim Barnett who lives about five miles out on Chisholm Road . . . we just hope that we, too, get out to his home as many did this past week-end . . . hear that chrysanthemum growing, which he has taken up far a hobby has paid off in big dividends . . . and after the gorgeous blossoms have been seen in their natural habitat by his friends at these "open houses," Jim will take them to churches and hospitals for more people to enjoy them . . . just want to compliment him on such a worth-while hobby.

A FRIEND IN NEED was Ann King this past week-end . . . When Bess Meade wanted to have a football week-end in Little Rock, she had a problem . . . she had promised to talk to an art class at the college on Friday . . . but Ann (just back from the Art museums of Europe) took over the class so that Bess could go . . . saying she would have danced a jig for the class, if that had been necessary, in order for Bess to have her trip . . . By the way, Bess made the trip as one of a charming foursome.

ANOTHER TRIP PROMOTER is Catherine Poellnitz . . . She is acting mother to THREE daughters this week . . . besides their own Theresa, she and Charles now have Britton and Jeanette Hassell, while Billie and Frank are off on a Florida trip . . . should be a set-up that will bring pleasure to seven people!

ALSO 'TRAVELIN' AND VISITIN' has been Annie (Harlan) Calhoun who enjoyed a week-end of college reminiscing with her Hollins College friend Mary Seibels (Lanier) Branch in Montgomery . . . bet the conversation never did slow down!

YOU REALLY SHOULD KNOW the L. T. Wagnons, a family of real pureheartedness . . . which includes FOUR lovely daughters (and we must say, a handsome son) . . . Betty, a student at Auburn has just received a Pharmacy scholarship there . . . then Lynda, who was last year's Homecoming Queen at Coffee High, is also at Auburn . . . then Wanda, at present a student at Coffee, is noted for her brunette beauty . . . and finally Robbie, the fourth daughter shows promise of being a queen just like her sisters . . . the Wagnons haven't lived here long, and we're so glad they came!

DIDN'T INTEND TO BE SNOB-BISH last week, as we hear we've been accused of being . . . by mentioning the French poodles . . . seems there're dog owners of many other breeds of dogs in these parts, and we'd like to give them recognition too . . . The Charles Phillips have a black German shepherd that won a prize at last year's Birmingham dog show . . .

the Will Dosses and the Forest Wards are proud of their dachshunds . . . as are the Bill Statons of their dalmation . . . the Al Phillips of their boxer . . . the "Fuzzy" Perritts of their basket . . . the "Doc" Brammons of their Chinese pug . . . the Jack Hamblins of their Weimaraner . . . so you see, our community is "in the know" on DOGS!

ISN'T IT NICE that John Dabney will be in Taylorsville, N. C., this week to celebrate his birthday with daughter Rosemary and Glenn (Deal) and their children? Here's wishing him a happy birthday from "the ole hometown" and a pleasant trip to him and Patty, too!

YOU'D HAVE THOUGHT IT WAS someone's birthday last week at Zillah Kernachan's house if you had seen the party she had . . . a festive afternoon of Samba was enjoyed, and we hear that there was a cake that would have done any birthday proud.

WELCOME HOME TO FRANCES ZUKOR . . . we want to hear more about her trip to the Orient which, from what we have already heard, was most interesting . . . so glad sister-Hildreth (Levin) graduated from the hospital in time to greet her at home! FOR NOW, GOOD-BYE UNTIL MORE NEWS COMES THROUGH THE SPILLWAY.

Social

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Smith and their daughter and granddaughters, Mrs. Oscar Jones and Eliza Jane and Noel Jones, will arrive tomorrow from Marshall, Tex., for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Mrs. Smith's niece, Sherrod King, and William Allen.

IN ALABAMA YOU PAY $1.10* TAX ON TEN GALLONS OF GASOLINE!

*Does not include local taxes

HOW DID YOU VOTE?

No matter how you voted, these facts on gasoline taxes are important to you:

• In Alabama, car owners pay $1.10 in State and Federal taxes alone on every 10 gallons of gasoline they buy!

• Gasoline taxes across the nation amount to a 50% sales tax—and that's five times as high as the tax rate on luxuries like diamonds and mink coats!

• Since World War II, there have been three increases in the Federal gasoline tax alone. This brought the Federal tax to 4 cents a gallon, in addition to the State tax of 7 cents a gallon, plus local taxes.

• In the last ten years gasoline taxes have skyrocketed 51%—yet the price of gasoline itself has risen only 5.5% during the same period!

• Each year the average motor vehicle owner in this state pays $84 for gasoline taxes alone. That's just a few dollars less than the average week's pay for most people!

HIGHWAYS AND GASOLINE TAXES

Your gasoline retailer, naturally, favors construction of the roads that the motoring public needs. He believes in fair and reasonable taxation for this purpose but feels that taxes on gasoline have now reached unreasonably high levels. He also believes that all special taxes on the motorist should be used only for highway purposes. Yet last year, out of every automobile tax dollar collected by the Federal Government from highway users, more than 40 cents went for non-highway purposes. If these automotive tax revenues were dedicated for highway purposes, there would be no need for the latest increase in the federal gasoline tax.

The Gasoline You Buy Is Taxed Too HIGH!

Mechanization Can Be Costly

Although the general use of mechanical livestock equipment has hardly begun, many cattlemen may soon find it necessary to mechanize their operations.

High labor costs, scarcity of dependable workers, and job opportunities off the farm are all helping to create a demand for mechanical equipment. Effective mechanized systems have been developed for livestock work, says Foy Helms, Auburn Extension economist, but nearly all of the livestock farmers in Alabama still use hand methods supplemented by tractor-powered transportation only.

Helms advises livestock farmers to do some careful figuring before buying to see if the mechanized system can be profitable to them. Although this equipment is much in demand, money invested in it may deprive some other sector of the farm business of badly needed capital.

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

And just who is Bill? A parent's mind stalls right in the middle of that intersection . . .

From what background has Bill come? In what moral direction is he heading? Where did Ruth meet him? Where will he take her?

Jolting the family's peace of mind, this sudden collision between confidence in our daughter and uncertainty about someone's son.

Another jolt: If Bill's parents are the right sort of people, they're probably wondering about our Ruth!

Many families have fewer such anxieties because they are active in the life of a church. Their boys and girls meet in an atmosphere that calls forth our best. Fun, friendship and inspiration are blended in worthwhile youth activities.

And if love blooms . . . no awkward compromise of conviction such as besets some . . . but a common faith in God to enrich a couple's affection and strengthen their marriage.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Benefits Of Soil Testing Told By County Farmers

Variety Of Experiences
Related Shows Good
Results Are Obtained

Following is a group of testimonial statements from prominent Lauderdale County farmers relating to their experience with soil testing. While there are a number of different experiences and conditions related by these farmers, all are convinced that soil testing is needed to take the guesswork out of fertilizing and to get the most productivity out of the soil.

Homer Marks, Route 4, Florence, says: "Soil testing is a good program. It's worth a lot to farmers who will use it. It will guide the farmer in applying lime and fertilizer according to the needs of the land and the crops being grown. It will weigh out good in every way because it takes the guess work out of buying and using fertilizers. It will pay every farmer to have his soil tested."

Ollie Woods, Route 6, Florence: "I think soil testing is a good thing. If dry weather had not hit me, there's no telling what my cotton would have done. It is awfully good anyway. It is the best thing that can happen to a farmer in buying and using fertilizers. It will make you a better crop because you feed the plants what they need. It's a shame we didn't have soil testing years and years ago."

Mrs. Blanche D. Sharp, Florence: "At first I was afraid to try soil testing but the man who was going to do my planting would not give me a price on the job until I got a soil test. So, I did and I am glad I did for it saved me several hundred dollars. I am sure it would have helped me if I had planted all kinds of crops because the soil test helped me to know how much lime and fertilizer to put on each field. I think soil testing would help all farmers if they would give it a trial and follow recommendations."

F. H. Landers, Route 1, Cloverdale: "I had read a lot about soil testing but didn't think too much about it. I had been having trouble with the crops that we had been planting. I wasn't working very much and we were using plenty of fertilizer too. So, this year, I had a soil test made. I took the soil test samples myself, and when I got the report back from Auburn we used the kind of fertilizer that was recommended and we sure have a good crop. If we had had the right season we would have made twice as much corn but I am satisfied with what we have that the dry spell didn't hurt. I am sold on the soil test for I know that is the reason that we have as good crop as we have now."

Columbus C. McDougal, Route 2, Florence: "I think soil testing is a good thing. Before soil testing, I used 300 pounds of 4-12-12 fertilizer per acre under my cotton with no sidedressing. The soil test report recommended 300 pounds of 4-12-12 at planting and a side application of 40 pounds of nitrogen per acre. I added the extra nitrogen this year and my cotton held up during the dry weather we had."

Walker E. Brown, Route 4, Florence: "Up until the dry weather, we had the best prospect for corn and cotton we ever had. Where we got rain we have good crops after soil testing. Soil testing is a good thing for all farmers but it will not take the place of moisture."

Elbert Murphy, Waterloo: "Except for dry weather, I have had good results this year. Last year I had awful luck using soil test recommendations."

E. Z. Howard, Route 1, Lexington: "It looks like the crops that I planted and fertilized, based on soil test, are producing better crops."

Alex Thacker, Route 1, Anderson: "I think that soil testing is good. We get more of the plant food that we need without buying food that we don't need."

W. R. Newton, Route A, Lexington: "I am a firm believer in soil testing. It has been a great help to me, especially am I sold on soil testing recommendations for pastures. I began soil testing in 1949. All of our land has been tested since that time. I feel that farmers are making a big mistake by not soil testing. I have always profited by using their recommended amount of fertilizer and lime. I am sure if we had enough moisture it would have paid off this year."

Store Canning To Keep Unspoiled

The three basic words to remember when storing canned foods are "cool, dark, and dry." According to Isabelle Downey,

Auburn Extension food preservation specialist, coolness prevents any growth of bacteria which might be present in the canned food. Freezing temperatures, however, are just as harmful as those that are too hot. Frozen canned food loses flavor and texture, and often the jars become unsealed and the food spoils. The ideal temperature is from 50 to 60 degrees.

The "dark" helps to prevent color change. Light penetrating a jar causes a chemical reaction. And although this doesn't spoil the food, it isn't as appetizing. A dry place keeps lids and rings from rusting, therefore protecting the food from spoilage by air.
