

The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

● The Junior Chamber of Commerce is to be commended for its up-coming project: "Get Out The Vote" as it relates to the municipal election Sept. 18 and, we are certain, all future elections held in the city and county. We have continually harped on the small vote cast by local voters and the apparent lack of interest shown by our citizens in practically every election held in recent years. Far too many must say: "My vote is just one vote and doesn't make any difference." Nothing could be farther from the truth as each vote counts and makes a big difference. Let's cooperate fully with the Jaycees and show our interest in the outcome of all elections by going to the polls and casting our ballots.

● Prosecuting Attorney to the witness on the stand: "You mean to tell this court that you had 16 beers and didn't move from the table the night of the murder?"

● The youngster, after spending a week-end with a little friend, was asked by his mother if he had a good time. He replied that he did, but he just didn't enjoy the food that his friend's mother served. "But I understand his mother is an excellent cook," remarked the visiting one's mother. "I don't say she can't cook," was his reply, "but now I know why it is that her family prays before eating a meal she prepares."

● "What I'm looking for," said one pretty young waitress to another, "is a man who will treat me as if I was a voter and he was a candidate."

● Three very important out-of-town customers arrived at the office of the businessman just prior to dinner-time and he thought it would be to his advantage in the up-coming discussions to ask them to his home for the evening meal. He hesitated a moment, but then called his wife, "Darling," he said as friend-wife answered the phone, "would it be all right if I brought three business friends home to dinner tonight?" "Certainly, dear," was the prompt reply. "I'd love to have them." The businessman was silent for a long moment, then spoke up: "Please accept my apologies, madam, I must have the wrong number."

● If you give a woman an inch — she'll complain that her clothes don't fit anymore.

● It was 3 o'clock the other morning when he put his key in the front door lock. As he opened the door he found his wife standing in the hallway patting her foot on the floor and giving him one of those — well, you know what kind of a look: "And I suppose you have been sitting up until this hour of the night holding a sick friend's hand," she smirked. "My dear," he replied, "if I'd been holding his hand, I'd have won enough money to buy you a mink coat."

● The successful man today is the one who spends more of his hard-earned money to support the government than he does to support his wife and children.

● William Lyon Phelps, the famous teacher and author, once asked his class to submit a 600 word essay on women. One of the young fellows in the class submitted an essay in which the closing sentence was: "As the beautiful creature entered the room she tripped on a rug and lay prostrate on the floor." To which Phelps appended this criticism: "Young man, you should learn to distinguish between a fallen woman and one who has merely lost her balance."

● Evening dresses are getting more daring every day — the front is now daring the back.

● We have been told that shortly after the bill to authorize a bond issue of $10,000,000 for the construction of a new state prison and the dismantling of Kilby prison was introduced in the current Legislature, that a "graduate" prisoner of Kilby requested that when his "Alma Mater" is torn down that he be allowed to purchase the door of his old cell as a souvenir.

● When a woman driver puts on her directional signal—you can be certain that the battery is in good condition.

● With all the new fangled gadgets that make shaving so much more comfortable and the electric toothbrush that takes work out of this most important operation, there's still the exhausting drudgery of squeezing toothpaste out of a tube.

LAUDERDALE MAID OF COTTON—Crowned winner of the coveted title for 1961 is Susan Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Smith of Florence. The red-haired beauty who is an English major at Hollins College, Va., was selected Lauderdale's Maid of Cotton in competition with fifteen other lovely entrants, on Friday night at the Coliseum in Florence.

Suzanne White Is Alternate

Susan Smith Selected County Maid Of Cotton

Lovely Susan Smith is Lauderdale County's 1961 Maid of Cotton. Chosen on the eve of her 19th birthday, the auburn-haired beauty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Smith of Florence and was sponsored by the Florence Chamber of Commerce.

Susan, who won over fifteen other contestants in competition on Friday afternoon at the Holiday Inn and on Friday night in the finals at the Florence-Lauderdale Coliseum, is five-feet eight with a 36-24-36 measurement, has brown eyes, red hair and weighs 128 pounds.

Runner-up was lovely blonde Suzanne White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White of Florence, and was sponsored by the Rotary Club. She is a Coffee High School graduate of the class of '59 and is attending the University of Alabama.

Susan, who has ambitions to become an English teacher is an English major at Hollins College at Roanoke, Va.

At the coronation ceremony Susan was crowned by last year's Maid of Cotton, Miss Janice Chapell. She received in addition to the crown, supplied by Garvin Witt Jewelry; $50 in cash from the contest sponsors, the Lauderdale County Farm Bureau and a wardrobe from Abroms of Florence.

In a Rip Van Winkle theme in which Dick Biddle of WOWL-TV acted as emcee, the 16 contestants were paraded before the audience in street frocks at which time they each related what they knew about cotton, the important commodity that inspired the annual contest, which was first launched by the National Cotton Council in 1939.

The audience at the Coliseum was welcomed by Walker Brown, president of the Farm Bureau. He was followed by County Agent L. T. Wagoner who presented Ralph T. Jackson of the National Cotton Council who told about the idea back of the Maid of Cotton contest, and of the promotion of cotton and cotton products by a "pretty girl."

Requirements were that she be single, have poise, be photogenic and reside in one of the 18 cotton producing states.

Miss Smith is now eligible to enter the state Maid of Cotton Contest to be held at a later date this year with a possibility of becoming eligible to enter competition for the national title.

Other contestants who were judged during the afternoon and evening in formals, street clothes and bathing suits were:

Cloture Vote Urged With 3 Days Remaining

Six Filibustering Senators Successfully Halt Vote On Chop-Up Jefferson Bill

Broadfoot, Long Bills Would Set County Salaries

Measures Differ But Would Be Subject To Approval Of Voters

It was learned Wednesday that Rep. Bob Broadfoot had introduced a substitute bill for the measure introduced in the Legislature Saturday by Rep. Charles Long. Long's bill calls for a constitutional amendment vote state-wide, then a local vote, to set salaries of the probate judge, tax assessor, tax collector and circuit clerk at $10,000 a year and combine the offices of circuit clerk and register in chancery.

House Vote Needed

Long said Broadfoot's measure does not provide for the combination of the circuit clerk and register in chancery offices and does not specify a salary for the others. A House vote was expected to determine the fate of one or the other measure, the winning bill then going to the Senate.

Long said salaries of courthouse officials would be set from time to time under his colleague's measure.

Sen. Bert Haltom, who up to Wednesday had not taken part in the filibuster against the Chop-up Jefferson redistricting bill, had no comment on the Long bill other than "it has to be settled in the House before it reaches the Senate."

GOP Endorses Bill

Two Lauderdale County Republican Committee spokesmen, are reported to have partially endorsed the bill and have urged its support by both Democrats and Republicans alike.

Libourne P. Hall, vice chairman of the county GOP and Donald Holt, a committee member, said also that they favored placing the sheriff on a salary basis as well as the other listed fee-paid officials.

They advocated its passage without delay and urged diverting all savings into the school fund instead of 75 per cent as the bill now suggests.

Widening Of Pine To Begin In Week

Sam Engelhardt, State Highway Director, and Governor John Patterson have announced construction work on Pine Street will begin next week on Pine Street from Irvine Avenue to Mattielou Street.

A contract for $115,571.45 has been signed with Burregon Construction Co., Inc., of Athens for grading, drainage and bituminous pavement of .429 miles on Pine Street.

School Fees Set At Teachers' Meet

As a result of many inquiries concerning student's fees at high schools in the county a meeting of high school principals was called by Joel Brewer, president of Lauderdale County Principals Association, in conjunction with the three-day teachers' workshop held at Central High School on August 22-24.

A materials fee of $5 plus a $2 utilities fee per student was set for senior high schools at the meeting. High schools represented were Central, Waterloo, Lexington, Rogers and Lauderdale County High School at Rogersville.

Junior high schools of the county will pay a $2 utility fee, plus an additional materials fee, the latter to be set at the discretion of each principal, it was stated.

Elementary school fees will also be determined by the principal of each school.

The exercises have been given them each week at the Florence Swimming Pool, the last session being Thursday of last week. Appraisal Made On Part Of Site For Courthouse

Following the selection of the block immediately south of the present courthouse by the Lauderdale Public Building Authority, Doyle R. Young chairman, as the site for the new courthouse and jail, the services of appraisers were engaged to obtain fair estimates of the value of the several parcels of property involved.

In June of this year condemnation proceedings were launched against the first parcel of property, the Kernachan estate, located on the corner of College and Court streets.

An appraisal of $137,400 on this property which comprises the first six pieces on the site, was announced Wednesday by Probate Judges Estes R. Flynn. Other properties on which negotiations are continuing are Hibbert & Sons, Sporting Goods; Springer's Gulf Station, the Milan Eady property on Alabama street and the A. A. Crow property occupied by the Trailways bus station. A seventh parcel is owned by the Pine Street Church of Christ which it is understood has not been included in the negotiations to acquire the block.

Hearings will follow after appraisal of property is made if the property owner is dissatisfied, the Authority announces, so that property owners may appeal to the Circuit Court and demand a trial by jury. The county can then post bond and obtain right of entry to the property.

Schools Face Crisis As End Of Session Nears

Lauderdale Rural Teachers To Meet At Killen Tonight

W. C. Hannah, president of the Lauderdale County Teachers Association, advises that a meeting of the organization will be held in the Auditorium of Killen School tonight at 7:30 o'clock at which time a general discussion of the current school situation will be held.

Mr. Hannah said that the Board of Directors of the Association, in a meeting with Superintendent Allen Thornton Wednesday afternoon, were of the opinion that such a meeting would serve a distinct service to the county's teaching personnel.

The members of the County Board of Education have been invited, along with Mr. Thornton, to be present and enter into the discussion planned. A thorough understanding of the status of the state appropriations for schools will be studied so that all employees of the school system may have full information on the present controversy that threatens the entire education system of the state.

Mrs. Robert O. Cox and daughter, Bess, spent the long weekend with Mrs. Cox's mother in Atlanta and returning home with them were Tommie and Fran Cox who had been with their grandmother during recent weeks.

ASSIGNED TO AREA—Gary D. Moore who is employed by the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans as Field Representative has been assigned to the Federal Land Bank Association of Florence which services Colbert, Franklin, Lauderdale and Lawrence Counties. Mr. Moore holds a Masters' Degree from Auburn University in Agricultural Economics. He and his wife, the former Joyce Campbell are natives of Lawrence County and will reside in Moulton.

With redistricting, reapportionment and the Jefferson County chop-up becoming secondary to the plight of Alabama's schools as the 1961 session of the State Legislature comes to an inglorious end sometime Friday night, it might be well to review the situation Lauderdale County's rural schools find themselves in. It is well to note, also, that the schools

COLBERT COUNTY RURAL SCHOOLS CLOSE DOORS

Colbert County rural school teachers voted overwhelmingly to close the county's schools at a meeting on Monday afternoon. A resolution adopted at the meeting stated: "We will not return to school Tuesday or any day until we are assured we will have a nine month school term without a cut in salary." Backing the teachers was Dan Hand, president of the Alabama Education Association and a teacher in the Colbert County school system. All Colbert county rural schools were closed following the action.

of the City of Florence, although in a far better financial condition and apparently reasonably certain to carry out a full nine-month term, find themselves in a precarious position unless financial relief is forthcoming before too long.

With the possibility that there will be no school appropriation bill passed by the Legislature prior to the end of this regular session, and this may also hold true with the general appropriation bill, the schools of the state find themselves with three possible choices:

1. Accept the appropriation of the 1960-1961 school term, which was not paid in full because of prororation.
2. Accept the budget as recommended by Governor Patterson, which has been passed by the House and totals approximately $95,000,000 or some $11,000,000 to $15,000,000 short of bare essentials.
3. Insist on a Special Session of the Legislature called for the specific purpose of battling with the school problem.

Local Situation

The Lauderdale County Board of Education is allotted 231 white teacher units and 33 Negro teacher units. The total salaries based on the allocation used for the past two years by the State Department of Education is $991,968. This total is set out by the State Department on the following allocation for annual salaries: Masters degree, $4210; Bachelors degree, $3635; three-year certificate, $2935; two-year certificate, $2475; and anything less than two-year certificate, $2130.

For the Lauderdale County schools, the Board has employed 267 teachers as follows: 71 Masters degrees; 164 Bachelor degrees; 13 three-year certificates; 13 two-year certificates and six teachers with less than two years college (Continued on Page Two)

BULLETIN

Gov. John Patterson Wednesday warned the House and Senate of the grave consequences back home if they allow the redistricting fight to kill the pending appropriation bills. He declared he would not call a special session even if the appropriation bills die and leave the state without operating funds for the fiscal year starting Oct. 1. He said it was unthinkable that the House and Senate would let this happen.

In a surprisingly powerful move, six senators led by Sen. Lawrence Dumas of Birmingham, halted the vote on the Chop-up Jefferson bill and signs were that their filibuster would go on to the end of the session unless halted by a cloture vote.

The bill which would divide Jefferson county among four congressional districts was passed by both houses last week and sent on to Gov. John Patterson. However the Governor vetoed the bill.

To choke off the filibuster would take 24 votes in the 35 member senate and while there were not enough votes it was felt Wednesday that pressure would be exerted on the Senators from congressmen to vote cloture.

Would Run At Large

If no redistricting bill is passed all U. S. congressmen would have to run state-wide. Since Alabama loses a congressman the Legislature is charged with the responsibility of redrawing the congressional districts to form eight districts instead of nine.

Joining with Dumas in the filibuster maneuver were Senators Ryan de Graffenreid of Tuscaloosa, Robert Berryman of Town Creek, Will G. Caffey of Mobile, George Godfrey of Cherokee County, D. Donald Word of Scottsboro and Woodrow Roberts of Fayette.

Money Bill May Die

If the bill is filibustered until adjournment Friday it would also kill chances of passage for the general and educational appropriation bills, it was stated. The general appropriation bill is the amount of $43.5 million covers all departments except schools. The House threatened to let the bill die unless the Senate acts on the redistricting bill.

Patterson had sent the bill back with an executive amendment that was killed in the House, his message thus becoming a veto when the bill was passed on to the Senate.

Donald Patterson Will Be Speaker At FSC Retreat

Donald H. Patterson, Florence attorney, and secretary-treasurer of the Lauderdale County Bar Association, will be the featured speaker at the Florence State College leadership Retreat to be held at Camp Hillcrest, Sept. 4-7, according to Miss Pauline Gravlee, Dean of Women, and Abel F. DeWitt, Dean of Men, and faculty co-chairmen of the Retreat.

A graduate of Coffee High School, Patterson received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Alabama in 1957. He was graduated from the University of Alabama Law School in 1959.

While attending the University of Alabama, Patterson served as President of the Student Body. He was a Cadet Colonel in the Army ROTC and was President of the Cadet Officers Club. He was graduated as a distinguished military graduate.

Both Sides Agree

Both labor and management in the steel industry agree that international trade needs encouraging and reviving.

R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of U. S. Steel, our largest producer, advocates broader government tax policies that would encourage modernization of the industry's production facilities as one means of permitting this country's steel mills to compete abroad. He also said he felt that increasing wage demands helped to produce the poor position native steel is in with respect to foreign trade.

On labor's side, Meyer Bernstein, international affairs director for the steel workers felt that the government ought to be more decisive in expanding the overall economy and expanding job opportunities and thus create greater demand for the products produced. He agreed with Cooper however that this nation's trouble is not in "imports" but a lack of productive interest in expanding America's markets abroad.

The steel industry today is producing far below capacity in spite of large government defense contracts and the dual interest of both management and labor is encouraging. It is this nation's largest industry and one that practically holds the key to our future prosperity.

The Record Speaks For Itself

The reactionaries in Congress and other places who continually harp on TVA as being the epitome of socialism should look at some of the other government-inspired programs.

Here are some: Social Security, aid to education, federal slum clearance, vocational rehabilitation, aid to hospitals, etc., federal highways, minimum wage law, unemployment insurance, and many, many others.

TVA's record speaks for itself. It is the one government program that is self-amortizing. In other words TVA is paying for itself. Nobody denies that TVA represents social progress. No nation on earth could progress without programs of social progress in which the people benefit.

Nothing ever undertaken by government anywhere has had the far-reaching benefits of the Tennessee Valley Authority's power, flood control and resource development program. To help a region so dramatically and so effectively is to help the economy of the whole nation.

Social progress, yes. Socialism . . . emphatically NO!

A Worthwhile Project

Among the many worthwhile projects for the benefit of our youth is the Boys Ranch sponsored by Alabama Sheriffs Association. The green light has been given for construction of the first unit to be located near Selma and public support of the project has been generous.

Dallas County Sheriff Clark, in explaining the project, said, it will house underprivileged, neglected and homeless boys and provide them with a permanent home.

This ranch will fill a great need in the state for non-delinquent boys but its continued success will depend on public response, its sponsors state.

An Apology Is Due

For the first time an American president has drawn the line and for the first time the Soviet government knows it has reached the limit of its cold war aggression. The place is Berlin . . . the year, 1961. To emphasize his stand Mr. Kennedy ordered a modified mobilization of manpower and resources and immediately strengthened the Allied forces in West Berlin.

In the face of the first really positive stand made by this nation and the West in Germany, a group of university students in Bonn, West Germany's capital, sent President Kennedy an umbrella and an insolent message . . . supposed to be a sign of this nation's appeasement and spineless surrender.

These students acting with inexcusable arrogance and impertinence, need only to look back a few short years to realize that there would never have been a Chamberlain had there not first been the monster Hitler who had the whole nation at his beck and call.

It is these students and countless thousands like them who are now insolently demanding that we save the German nation from its own criminal folly.

It would be well for this nation to let these people know in no uncertain terms that we must save our own necks and theirs by association but it doesn't make it too pleasant to recall that these are the same people who twice tried to enslave the world.

Somebody owes President Kennedy and the American people an apology and it should not be long in forthcoming.

training. The total payroll for this number of teachers for the 1961-1962 term based on last year's salary schedule would require $994,837. To this sum must be added the cost of transportation, which includes the salary of 80 bus drivers at $100 per month; sick-leave for teachers, capital outlay, interest on loans, maintenance of physical properties, general operation and other current expenses, for a grand total of $1,460,000, approximately.

Based on the above breakdown of bare essentials to operate the county schools for a full nine months term without cutting salaries of teachers and other employees, total sum required from the minimum school program fund is approximately $1,000,000, which would just barely meet the salaries of teachers alone. The remainder of all other expenses must come from the public school fund and local effort, all of which appears today, with proration, will leave the Board of Education $246,354 in debt or an increase of approximately $75,000 over that existing at the close of the 1960-1961 school term.

This debt, it should be added, is the accumulation of five years of proration and the county schools have reached its debt limit.

Overall Picture

The minimum requirement for a full nine-months term with no cuts in salaries over last year's appropriation for all of Alabama's public, elementary and high schools is $106,909,783 but with the appropriation bill as recommended by Governor Patterson and passed by the House by the vote of 98 to 0 is approximately $95,521,000. This means that there will be a shortage of approximately $11,388,783 in funds and thus the only possibility as the situation now appears is that there must be a cut in salaries or a shortening of the school term or both.

The solution, then, must come from additional local funds, from fees, donations or new legislation.

UF Co-Chairmen Named To Head General Division

Harold E. Hammond, Manager of the Coca-Cola Bottling Co., and Rawson B. Coleman, Manager of Sears, Roebuck and Co. have been appointed co-chairmen of the General Division of the United Fund in the 1961-62 campaign.

Both men have long been active in civic affairs; Mr. Hammond has worked in various capacities for several years and Mr. Coleman, a relatively newcomer to the Tri-Cities, assisted the Fund in the General Division for five years in Norfolk, Va.

Now organizing their committees and correlating plans for the campaign, they are optimistic that this year's achievement will be successful. Since the General Division is one of the largest in the campaign, it is hoped all business firms will feel the need to strengthen the welfare of the community and realize that a united front with 100% cooperation is necessary to meet these needs.

Five captains have been chosen during previous meetings to insure the Fund's success. They are Forrest Brice, Howard Hickman, J. R. Barnwell, Jr., Ellis Hornbuckle and James Zumwalt, all who are to select five lieutenants.

Each of these men will have five committee members making an approximate total of 140 workers co-operating for the welfare of the county.

The fair opens on September 18 for six big days and nights of fun, relaxation and entertainment with many new features in store for the big crowds expected to attend from throughout the Valley.

Personality Sketches

JUDGE JOHN DeWITT PETREE

Few men in public life have enjoyed finer recognition than has Judge Petree. Elected, without opposition, by the Democratic party in Franklin county as its candidate for Probate Judge on two occasions, Judge Petree used his office for the benefit of the people for two terms.

Faced with the problems of the depression era, it was Judge Petree who took the lead in bringing relief to thousands who otherwise might have suffered. His work in this field led him into a number of posts in which his special qualifications might serve an even larger area. His fairness and foresight, too, have given him added opportunities to serve in the industrial development of our area.

Judge John DeWitt Petree was born in Belgreen, August 21, 1890, the son of William R. and Mary Hall Petree. He attended Belgreen Elementary School and was graduated from Belgreen High School.

Judge Petree attended State Normal College from 1908 to 1912. He was a member of the 1911 football team, member of a debating society and took part in various campus activities. Later, he took a course in business administration from Alexander Hamilton Institute, Philadelphia, Pa.

On October 12, 1915, Judge Petree was married to Mary Weatherford of Franklin County. There are four children: John D., Jr., Attorney, of Jasper; William W., who is in the securities business in Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Joe L. (Betty) Kirby, who resides in Birmingham; and Mrs. Otto (Charlotte) Von-drak, who makes her home in Ravenswood, Va. There are ten grandchildren. Mrs. Petree died in 1957.

After leaving State Normal College, Judge Petree took charge of his father's mercantile business at Belgreen, which he managed until 1922.

He was nominated for Probate Judge of Franklin County in the 1922 Democratic Primary without opposition and was elected in the general election that fall to serve a six-year term. He was re-elected in 1928 for a second term.

In 1934, during the depression, Judge Petree was appointed by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt to the office of National Rehabilitation Council Director for Alabama. His duties were to coordinate all federal activities in the state and for this patriotic work, he received many citations.

Judge Petree resigned that position in 1939, following his appointment by Governor Frank M. Dixon as Director of the Department of Industrial Relations for Alabama. The Department, under his direction, reached a new high in service to the state.

After four years as a member of Governor Dixon's cabinet, Judge Petree was named personnel director of Reynolds Metals Company, Listerhill plant, handling personnel, safety and union relations. His work there was recognized throughout the state for the smooth running of this office. He remained at Reynolds until his retirement in 1959.

Judge Petree moved with his family to Florence in 1940, and has resided here since.

Judge Petree was first elected a member of the Board of Directors of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Florence in January, 1958. Following his retirement from Reynolds, he joined the staff of First Federal in charge of public relations for the Association and in January, 1960, was elected a Vice-President and re-elected a member of the Board. He has served in that position since.

He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, is a York Rite mason, a member of the Shrine and the Florence Rotary Club. He is also a member of Turtle Point Yacht and Country Club, Florence Golf and Country Club and is on the Board of Directors of the United Fund.

An active member of the First Methodist Church, Judge Petree has served on the Board of Stewards for forty years.

Frank Thomas Kennedy Takes Birmingham Bride

Of interest to a host of friends in the district is the marriage in Birmingham on Friday of Waldo Lynn Frierson of that city and native Florentine Frank Thomas Kennedy, now of Birmingham, son of Mrs. Benjamin C. Cabbage, also of Birmingham, and the late Dr. William Charles Kennedy, II, of Florence.

Daughter of Mrs. John Woods

Frierson and the late Mr. Frierson, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Woods Frierson, Jr., at the family home, 4241 Cliff Road, at half past twelve o'clock. The Reverend Dr. John N. Lukens read the nuptial vows.

For the occasion, the bride chose an afternoon dress of wedding-satin and Alencon lace. The princess bodice of lace was distinguished by a sweetheart neckline, the lace extending to the bare rel skirt in back, and also forming appliques on the shoulders and the bracelet length Dior sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was held by a tiny tiara of lace re-embroidered with pearls and her bouquet was a cascade of Caesar orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. David Shapard Marks, Jr., was her cousin's only attendant and Charles Harold Doss of Florence was Mr. Kennedy's best man.

Mrs. Frierson, mother of the bride, wore a full-skirted, green-and-white flowered imported voile and Mrs. Cabbage chose a sheath dress of navy chiffon, the bodice posed over navy lace. They both wore white orchids, as did Mrs. Frank Foxworthy of Florence, grandmother of the bridegroom, who was gowned in green and white silk print.

For travel, the bride changed to a two-piece transition of black and brown checks with which she wore matching accessories and, at her shoulder, a bouquet orchid.

Upon their return, they will be at home in the Redmont Garden Apartments, 2844 Thornhill Road.

Mrs. Cabbage was rehearsal-dinner hostess on Thursday evening at Birmingham Country Club, honoring her son and his bride of the following day.

Afternoon Vows Unite Miss Harper, Mr. Vawter

The altar of First Christian Church, Florence, was decorated with great arrangements of white gladioli and calla lilies against a background of greenery for the four o'clock nuptials of Saturday, August twenty-sixth, when Harriet Jane Harper and Paul Edward Vawter, Jr., of Birmingham and Lake Forest, Illinois, exchanged marriage pledges in a candlelight setting.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry Cleghorn Harper and the late Mr. Harper of Florence; the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edward Vawter of Lake Forest.

The Reverend Glenn Brigman, minister of the church, and the Reverend J. V. Cosby Summerell, minister of First Presbyterian Church, were the officiating clergymen and music was presented by Alan Flowers, organist, and Mrs. Paul Risner, vocal soloist.

John Harris Harper escorted his sister and gave her in marriage. Of bridal peau de soie, her gown was distinguished by a molded bodice with portrait neckline and brief sleeves, and a full tea-length skirt with appliques of lace re-embroidered with pearls. From a jewel-studded crown her fingertip veil of double illusion cascaded to fingertip length and she carried a single white orchid showered with fleurs d'amour and white satin ribbons.

Attending the bride were Mrs. William James Kenney and Miss Evelyn Elliott, both of Birmingham, who wore opera blue taffeta sheaths with modiste necklines and overtones dipping at the back of the tea-length skirts. Bandoaux of matching velvet leaves were their headresses and white Fujii mums, their flowers. Suzanne and Glenn Thomas of Winter Haven, Florida, served as flower girl and ringbearer, respectively.

Richard C. Swagler of Birmingham was the bridegroom's best man; William M. Leman and Peter G. Cowin, also of Birmingham, were usher-groomsmen.

Mrs. Harper chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of tucked pink chiffon with which she wore a small hat of matching velvet; Mrs. Vawter's French blue ribbon knit was accessorized to match and both mothers wore corsages of stephanotis blossoms.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's mother was reception hostess in the church parlors. Assisting were Mrs. Gordon Hurst, Miss Elizabeth Gibson, Mrs. W. A. Graham, Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Mrs. Adine Maxwell, Mrs. J. E. Barnes, Mrs. William Pressley, Mrs. Homer Gilbert, Mrs. A. L. Lindsey, Mrs. Virgie Quinby, Mrs. Rudy Thigpen and Miss Peggy Egan.

The couple left in the early evening for a Florida honeymoon, the bride wearing a royal blue silk suit, matching accessories and, at her shoulder, the orchid from her bouquet.

Upon their return, they will be at home in Birmingham.

Here from out-of-town in addition to the bridegroom's parents were Mrs. Roland F. Thomas and children, Winter Haven, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. James Wade, Evansville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cowin, William Leman, Miss Evelyn Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Swagler and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kenney, all of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Miller and Mrs. Harry T. Ferguson, Louisville, Ky.

Miss Rejyna League Bride Of Danny Bevis

Bouquets of pale yellow gladioli and tiers of yellow tapers flanked the ivy-entwined arch in Jackson Heights Church of Christ on Saturday, August twenty-sixth, as a setting for the half past seven o'clock ceremony which united in marriage Rejyna League, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace League of 517 North Cherry Street, and Danny Bevis, son of Mrs. Emmett Bevis of Central Heights, and the late Mr. Bevis.

A. C. Dreden, minister of the church, read the vows following music by a vocal quartet composed of Mrs. James H. Morris, Miss Rita Graben, Jimmy Ardis and Wilmer Glen Rikard.

Kathy League, in aqua silk organza, and Jimmy Bevis were candlelighters.

Wearing Chantilly lace over satin, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Designed with close-fitting bodice and voluminous, floor-length skirt, her dress featured a scalloped neckline with pearls and sequins, long tapering sleeves fastened with tiny, self-covered buttons, and scalloped lace at the hemline extending around the chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion flowed from a Queen Anne's cap of jeweled net and she carried atop her bride's Bible a bouquet of fleurs d'amour centered by a yellow-throated white orchid.

For travel, the bride changed to a two-piece transition of black and brown checks with which she wore matching accessories and, at her shoulder, a bouquet orchid.

Upon their return, they will be at home in the Redmont Garden Apartments, 2844 Thornhill Road.

THE SPILLWAY

If you like to "sport" in the summer sun, You'd better play hard and fast. Soon it'll be gone, and winter begun . . . Vacations remembered . . . but passed.

LAKESIDE VACATIONS are still the most popular kind around here, and if you don't believe this, join us in a quick boat trip around Wilson Lake just any time. On a recent ride we spotted the W. L. Foy camp teeming with fun and folks, which we spotted as Foy grandchildren — Perry, Berkeley, and Harriet Robbins (here with mama-Caroline from Richmond), and the two Madeline — granddaughters (Rickard and Foy) . . . an equally large crowd on the pier of Ruth Matthews' place turned out to be the Marshall Pless family out for a vacation-on-the-lake . . . and close by we spotted "Bus" Arnett giving a boat ride to his young granddaughters, Donna and Blair Snyder (here from St. Louis and Don and Marita) . . . THEN, to prove that boating really is a highly developed and popular sport in these parts, we passed the new Silver Shores Marina, which appeared to be a hub of activity, and which, incidentally "stole a trick" on us — it must've gone up overnight!

A PROFITABLE VACATION (as well as restful) by our friend, Ed Smoot, seems to be "paying off" all around. Must've been preplanned and the days counted out as only a banker would do, and we hear that the stock is soaring. Ed took his summer vacation just after he and Grace (with Jan, Judy and Jennifer) had reached the "settled" point in their new abode out in Forest Hills — and he has been a dedicated landscape artist and worker, with promise of real success in the yard of their lovely home. And while the yard is looking prettier every day, Ed is receiving a special dividend — a handsome genu-line Florida sun-tan!

HARDLY SEEMED FAIR that a talent she has shared with so many others, she couldn't use herself, but that's the way it goes! Seems that after furnishing the Bridal marches for many brides, Harriet Harper just decided to change roles, and a beautiful sight she was last Saturday at the First Christian Church when she became the bride of Paul Edward Vawter. Our prettiest orchid to them both, and we're glad that they will be "close by."

GOOD NEWS for the college crowd. We hope the rumor is true — that Josephine Simmons, daughter of Julianne (Goyer) and Joe Simmons, will be here this coming school year as a student at Florence State. We just haven't seen nearly enough of Julianne since they moved to Jasper . . . and we join the grandparents-Goyer in being most pleased over the prospects of seeing Josephine (and we hope all her family) in our midst this fall.

FAINT TINKLING OF WEDDING BELLS comes our way involving two of our best known local widowers who have been in the public eye here and nearby for many years . . . and the lovely widows for whom the bells tinkle are from near and not so near . . . we hope the bells grow louder as they bring happiness to each . . . and what wonderful additions these delightful ladies would be to our immediate area.

ALWAYS LOOKED FORWARD TO are the summer visits of Peggy Hollandsworth with her attractive children, here to be with her parents Blondina and Harvey Ezell. We didn't understand whether her preacher-husband Ned will join them or not, but we want to recommend him for an excellent driver's badge, since hearing of what happened on a recent trip which they took. The way we heard it was that one of the children opened the door and was hanging out of the car . . . and the only thing that kept her from falling out on the busy highway was Ned's presence of mind and excellent driving. We just wonder if he would give us some pointers.

CONGRATULATIONS to Susan Smith, our new Lauderdale County Maid of Cotton, and to Suzanne White, the alternate maid. And we'd like to commend the judges, whoever they were, on their very good taste. We must admit that the first we knew of it was when we saw them on the local television station, and we confess that we were a little "taken back" to realize that both of these lovely ladies aren't still in the cute pigtail that we remember seeing them wear "only yesterday." Understand that Susan will fly from Hollins College where she will be a sophomore this year, to Birmingham for the finals in September, and we're "keeping our fingers crossed" for her!

NOT TWINS — but with the same birthday (correct us if they're just approximately the same). Anyway, Melinda and Wilson Mitchell had such close birthdays that mama-Betty Jean devoted last week to party giving. Melinda invited a dozen or so of the bicycle crowd to bring bed-rolls and join her in a spend-the-night party, with a hamburger supper included . . . and then Wilson had more-than-a-dozen of the tri-cycle crowd in for fun 'n birthday cake . . . and to top it all, Betty Jean had a young-teen party for nephew-Rayford Kyle, who's here from his home in Richmond. We can just imagine that Betty Jean is "taking it easy" this week!

UNTIL MORE NEWS COMES THROUGH THE SPILLWAY, IT'S GOODBYE FOR NOW!

Prenuptials Continue For Martha Jane Moore

Commuting from her secretarial position at David Lipscomb College in Nashville to party-filled weekends with family members and friends in Florence has become routine fare of these pre-wedding days for Martha Jane Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Cris Moore of Mars Hill Road.

Scheduled for Saturday, the 26th, were two affairs: a luncheon at The Town Club to which Mrs. H. P. Lucas and her daughter, Mrs. Julian Nance, were hostesses, and an evening courtesy with Mr. and Mrs. John E. McDonald entertaining at their home on Hermitage Drive.

Using colors chosen by bride-elect Martha Jane for her coming Saturday nuptials, last Saturday's noontime hostesses placed arrangements of yellow and white blossoms about the club rooms and, on their luncheon table, antique amber goblets of yellow and white pompons with baby's breath and clematis flanked the larger bouquet which filled an oblong brass planter.

Name cards with tiny flounce-skirted figures in bridal white marked places for Miss Moore, her mother and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. L. Cris Moore and Mrs. Boyd Harrison; Miss Ellen Griffith Moore and Miss Jo Ann Harrison, sisters of the bride; Mrs. J. T. Moore, a grandmother; and Miss Ellen Moore, Mrs. Edward Jones, Miss Louie Ann Jones, Mrs. James Blalock, Miss Ann Finley, Miss Norma Underwood, Mrs. Grady Richards, Miss Audra Winkleman, Miss Claude Moore, Mrs. Milton Kizer, Mrs. John E. McDonald and the hostesses.

Miss Moore was smart in a dark transitional cotton with black velvet pillow and matching black accessories.

Lighted by hurricane lamps and Japanese lanterns, the John E. McDonald gardens presented a pretty picture when guests arrived there for the festive Saturday evening party. Colorful water lilies blossomed in the pool at the rear and floating among them were small containers of yellow and white flowers encircling a lighted taper.

Miss Moore, wearing a touseau frock of blue organza, blue accessories and white flowers, and her fiancé, Dick Harrison, were joined by their parents in receiving the one hundred and fifty guests who called.

From a table on the Summer house veranda, punch and dainties were served by Mrs. Milton Kizer, Miss Ellen Moore, Mrs. John Finley, Mrs. J. O. Johnston, Mrs. Grady Richards, Miss Norma Underwood, Miss Ellen Moore, Miss Marge Kirby and Mrs. W. O. Whitten, and assisting them were Miss Louie Ann Moore, Miss Jo Ann Harrison, Miss Pat Prince, Miss Ellen Griffith Moore, Miss Priscilla Pittman and Miss Laura Jane Whitten.

Hours were from half past seven 'til nine.

Mrs. Alma Long has returned from a three-weeks' stay with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Lee Bendall, and family in Birmingham. Mrs. Bendall, who underwent surgery during her mother's visit, is now reported convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Robbins, Misses Harriet, Berkeley and Perry Robbins are here from their home in Richmond, Va., for a visit with Mrs. Robbins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Foy, and a vacation at "Hanover," their lakeside cottage.

Leaving this weekend to enter Florida Presbyterian College in St. Petersburg will be Lyman Penland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Penland, 933 Olive.

4-H Club Program Is Told Exchange

Billy Barnett, Wilson community, Route 3, Florence and Eckard Walker, Route 1, Lexington, members of the Exchange Club pig chain group, were guest speakers at the meeting at Hotel Reeder Tuesday noon. The program was arranged by George A. Porter, chairman, of the club's agriculture committee, who presented Albert Heaslett, assistant county agent, who, in turn, introduced the speakers and told something of their projects.

Young Walker told of the success he had with his pig project giving interesting data on the manner in which the best type of meat pig should be raised. Barnett, a most successful young livestock farmer, in addition to giving facts and figures on his project, told of the amount of money he had saved toward his college education and also a brief outline of his entry in the beef cattle program.

Cris Moore, Exchange and county chairman of the 4-H Club Foundation, outlined the program that has been launched throughout Alabama through which a fund of $1,500,000 would be raised as an endowment fund from which the 4-H program in the state could be broadened and enlarged. He told of wonderful work being done by the 4-H Club boys and girls and the various projects underway by the 133,000 members in Alabama. Lauderdale County has 2,600 members, boys and girls, in the 39 clubs for the boys and 39 clubs for the girls.

Mr. Moore called on the club members for support of the Foundation as well as the local club and advised of the goal set in this county $6,000 had been raised. He explained that it was a five-year program and seemed assured of success.

The Rev. C. Otis Brooks, pastor, First Baptist Church, was a club guest.

Sheriffs' Project Gets Green Light

The green light has been given for the construction of the first unit of Boys Ranch to be located near Selma. The go-ahead was given at a recent meeting of the Alabama Sheriffs Association, held in Montgomery. This organization is sponsoring the project which will provide a permanent home for non-delinquent homeless boys.

The proposed building for the Boys Ranch will contain approximately 5,000 square feet of floor space and will be of the cottage unit type, including bedrooms, storage space, dining room, kitchen, lounge, and private rooms for the house parents.

It will be equipped with study room and library, sick room and isolation for contagious diseases. Rugged construction capable of taking hard wear has been planned.

President of the sheriffs' organization is Sheriff Lester L. Holley of Elmore County. Vice Presidents are Sheriffs James G. Clark of Dallas County and Roy L. Call of Lauderdale County.

Mrs. Louise Todd, who has been executive secretary of the Alabama Sheriffs Association and editor of The Sheriff's Star for the past three years has resigned her post to join her husband who is now located in business in Tuscaloosa, it was announced.

fore the sale scheduled for Friday, September 8. All persons owning property with public improvement assessments are asked to check with his office.

There is still ample time to delete the property from the sale list providing the delinquent payment or payments, interest and printer's fees are paid. Otherwise, the property will be sold at public outcry.

Wage-Hour Law Becomes Effective On September 3

Employers in Alabama were reminded today that amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act, generally known as the Federal Wage-Hour Law, become effective on September 3. The reminder came from Sterling B. Williams, Regional Director of the U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

Williams said that employees who are now covered by provisions of the law will be entitled to a minimum wage of at least $1.15 an hour. The law continues to apply to employees engaged in interstate commerce or the production of goods for interstate commerce, unless specifically exempt.

Williams said that the Act's overtime provisions will continue to apply to workers who are already covered. They require time-and-one-half for all hours over 40 in a workweek. For employees who are newly covered under the Act, overtime pay will not be required until 1963.

Exemptions continue to apply to such establishments as hotels, motels, restaurants, hospitals, movies, and a few other service establishments. Williams added that the retail or service establishments exemption now in effect will continue to apply to establishments which are not in a $1 million enterprise, or if in such an enterprise, have less than $250,000 in annual gross sales.

If employers or employees have any questions on how the amended Act applies to them, Williams urged them to contact the nearest Wage-Hour office of the U.S. Department of Labor. Field offices serving Alabama are located at Room 204, McCauley Building, 1917 Fifth Avenue, South, Birmingham.

Russell A. Lewis, manager of the Florence office of Liberty National Life Insurance Co., 417 E. Mobile St., is offering a $50 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons who damaged a copper wire leading to the building from an air conditioning unit and who broke a window.

Not just any cow for Grandpa's Family!

They liked Jersey Milk best!

Grandpa was very particular about the milk his family drank. That's why he kept a Jersey as the family cow for their own milk supply. He judged milk by richness and flavor. And "Old Bess" gave such wonderful milk, she was Grandpa's pride and joy.

Today science tells us that there's even more to farm-fresh Jersey milk than richness and good flavor. Tests have shown that Jersey milk provides more food value than other milks... supplies extra nutrition, extra energy... and is a rich source of vitamins.

Today your family can again enjoy that wonderful "down on the farm" flavor in extra good All-Jersey Milk... produced by 100% Jersey herds and processed in a modern dairy plant. For health, for enjoyment, for value... serve All-Jersey, the extra good milk with the "old time" flavor the farm folks liked so well.

Bro. and Mrs. Harris have been active in civic and church affairs and have held places of considerable responsibility. The community suffers a great loss in the moving of this fine couple.

On Saturday evening several families gathered at the W. C. Hannah home for dinner with the Harrises. After dinner they were presented with a split-leaf philodendron to which had been attached envelopes containing gifts of money.

In the church dining hall on Monday the ladies of the church gathered for dinner and presented the Harrises with gifts.

Productivity And Strength Is The Skill Of The American Worker. Proudly We Salute Him For His Vital Contribution To America's Progress, His Steadfast Devotion To America's Free Way Of Life . . .

LABOR DAY

Its True Meaning

Labor Day not only commemorates the American worker, it does more than that. It serves to remind all Americans that the true wealth of this nation lies in its ability to produce . . . to transform its resources into useful products and to transform those products into a well-balanced economy and a better standard of living for all.

Because of American labor's superior productivity and know how America has the highest standard of living in the entire world. This is reflected in the general prosperity and progress in every section of the nation . . . it is reflected in this nation's ability to more quickly utilize its enormous productivity in building strong defenses and in helping the free world to remain free of Communist aggression and enslavement.

Ever alert to safeguard and foster the American Way of Life, labor's dedicated patriotism is an inspiration to every citizen. Free labor, like free enterprise, is this nation's bulwark for peace, its security in the face of aggression.

The working men and women of America are this nation's first line of defense.

Farm Facts

Homemakers now demand built-in maid service in the food they buy and it costs them more.

These services include more grading, packaging, processing, storage, and other operations. They have nearly doubled since 1940, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The USDA says at least half the cost of meals is for preparation and service of food. This includes cost of meals not eaten at home—now at the rate of about one out of every four.

Housewives, of course, are buying freedom from kitchen chores—food with less waste and requiring less trimming, sorting, or washing.

Three ready-to-serve meals, costing $6.70 for a family of four, could be prepared in the home kitchen for $4.50.

It would take the housewife about 3½ hours to prepare the home-cooked meals. She would need only 1½ hours, however, for the ready-to-serve meals. In many cases, furthermore, convenience foods save money as well as time.

Enough fresh oranges for a pint and a half of juice costs about 70 cents, compared with about 30 cents for a can of frozen concentrate. It costs about 41 cents to make a Devil's food cake with mix—including two eggs. It costs about 51 cents if it is made with home ingredients.

Come to Church for Services

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER—STAYS TOGETHER"

AS YOU LIKE IT...

Some folks talk as though they want life to be a downhill race without obstacles.

But God, who made man in His own image, never meant it to be so. For the muscle becomes helpless which is never tensed; the mind grows dull which is never challenged. There is no courage without threat of battle.

This life was meant to be a succession of goals... each the more inspiring because of the hazards along the way. And who among us, worth his salt, would want life any different.

It is the uphill, the hazardous, course of courageous living that makes spiritual strength a must. You and I need the Church. We need the Church because we see divine as well as human purpose in our existence.

Life—as we like it—gains deeper meaning with each new discovery of our need of God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Farm Review and Forecast

More Farm Men Remain Single Census Reports

In a recent census by the U.S. Census Bureau, based on the latest marital statistics gathered in conjunction with last year's population count, there are 4,845 single men and boys in Lauderdale County and only 3,911 single women and girls. That is, numerically, not counting widowed or divorced people.

The overall picture in Lauderdale County, taking into account both men and women of marriageable age, reveals that 70.3 per cent of the total are now married. However, there still remains a preponderance of bachelors locally. The chief reason being that men wait much longer than women before getting married.

One striking fact brought out by the census is that a considerably larger proportion of farm men, compared with urban men, stay single, however, among farm women the reverse is true.

Reported also, for each community, is the number of ex-married residents. The Lauderdale County figures show, for men, 526 widowed and 266 divorced and, for women, 2,509 widowed and 509 divorced.

Baby's cotton swabs are good for many things. Dipped in soapy water, they clean holes in your steam iron. Poke the cotton-tipped sticks into the holes one at a time.

Crops Look Good Following Rains

L. T. Wagon, Lauderdale County agent, says farmers of the Muscle Shoals area at the present time are now preparing land for fall crops.

He indicated that crops in general are looking good as a result of response to the rains of ten days ago which ended the three-week drought which was threatening farmers of the entire area.

He expressed some concern over weevil population which is building up in some cotton, but added that must farmers are applying insecticides between the showers which have been falling this week and are doing as good a job as possible to control the insects.

Winter Grazing

Small grains planted alone will furnish lots of winter grazing if good production and management practices are used. Early fall planted rye will furnish the most grazing before Christmas. Oats will furnish the best quality grazing during the latter part of the growing period. You may want to plant a small field of rye, graze it until it starts heading in late winter, turn it under and get land ready for summer grazing or silage crops. Your September planted oats seeded on a prepared seedbed will furnish lots of grazing from late November to April. Many farmers over the state remove the cattle in March or early April and cut for hay.

Do not plant a mixture of rye and oats or the two crops under the same wire. Cattle prefer oats and will graze them into the ground. They readily graze rye if grown in a separate field.

How To Plant

1. Prepare land early to conserve moisture for September or early October planting.
2. Fertilize according to soil test or apply about 400 pounds 4-12-12 per acre or its equivalent before planting.
3. Seed at the rate of 100 pounds of treated, certified seed per acre.
4. Topdress with 100 pounds ammonium nitrate or 200 pounds nitrate of soda per acre or equal nitrogen from other sources as soon as small grains are up to a stand.
5. Start grazing when plants are about six inches high.
6. Practice rotational grazing—changing animals from one field to the other—if possible.
7. Rotate oats and Abruzzi Rye if the same fields are to be used year after year. You will likely run into trouble planting oats on the same land several years in a row.
8. If you plan to graze oats late and cut for hay, remove cattle a few days in late February and topdress with 50 pounds nitrogen (150 pounds ammonium nitrate or 300 pounds nitrate of soda per acre).
9. Cut for hay in early milk stage.
10. If oats are to be cut for grain, remove animals by March 1 and topdress with 50 pounds nitrogen per acre.

Light Sensitive Products Cause Certain Disorders

A metabolic disorder called photosensitization is affecting many cattle in Alabama, says Worth Lanier, Auburn Extension Service veterinarian.

He points out that the disorder is caused by a combination of green forage, mold growth and sunlight. Direct sunlight on an animal having an above normal amount of light sensitive products in its system will cause the disorder to develop, he explains.

Symptoms such as an excessive flow of saliva, an increase in the flow of tears and frequently a diarrhea are noted in the early stages, he states. Later, the animal becomes increasingly nervous—licking itself, shaking its head and scratching itself on fence posts. Deaths range from 2 to 10 per cent.

Dr. Lanier says the disorder can be prevented by moving animals from pastures where they are grazing to other pastures or to dry lots. Protection from direct sunlight is very helpful, he says. Some animals will need the attention of a veterinarian.
