

The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

With the "Freedom Riders" headed toward New Orleans and the "Hate Bus" loaded with 12 young Nazis pointed in the same direction, we just wonder what might happen if the two buses made contact on some lonely Louisiana highway without the benefit of police protection. Maybe a new word would have to be coined to describe what would take place. Alabama law enforcement officials, of course, are happy to be rid of the both of them. But there will be more "riders" and more Nazis as time wears on as Alabama now is a prime target for the integration fight. What has Mr. Average Citizen done to deserve it? All of us will suffer alike.

Why is it that the fellow who has an hour to kill spends it with someone who doesn't?

A Japanese student, who was attending an American university, wrote his father in Tokyo about his new school. "An American university," he wrote, "is a vast athletic institution where, fortunately, some studies are maintained for the benefit of the feeble-bodied."

The Department of Commerce estimates there will be over 114,000,000 motor vehicles in the United States by 1976. We suggest that all you pedestrians who want to cross the street had better do so now.

If a married man tells you he's boss in his house, he'll probably lie to you about other things, too.

It is interesting to note that the bathtub was invented in 1850 while it was not until 1875 that the telephone was invented. The only connection in this factual report that we can see is that had you lived in 1850 you could have sat in the bathtub for 25 years without the darn phone ringing once.

A psychologist is a man who watches everybody else when a pretty girl enters the room.

Our dear old Alma Mater advises us that now is the time to order football tickets in order to get choice seats. Others, too, will rush their orders. Men are like that—they'll buy their football tickets in May but wait until December 24th to do their Christmas shopping.

Flies will soon be around making screen tests.

We read where a tailor in a distant city has used an apple as his trademark for many years. When asked why he had adopted this trademark, his answer always has been: "If it hadn't been for an apple, where would the tailoring business be today?"

It takes a recession for a boss to be really appreciated.

Whenever we get to worrying about juvenile delinquency and look back over the years in an effort to find the causes and when it became such a serious problem, we remember that Adam and Eve had a bit of this type of trouble with their son, Cain—and we need look no further into history.

If a man criticized his wife's spending as he does the Government's spending, the divorce rate would jump sky high.

They were discussing automobiles as we passed and all we heard was: "Yes, sir, I believe the best economy is to trade every two years. That's what I have done. And, believe it or not, I haven't missed a payment in 14 years."

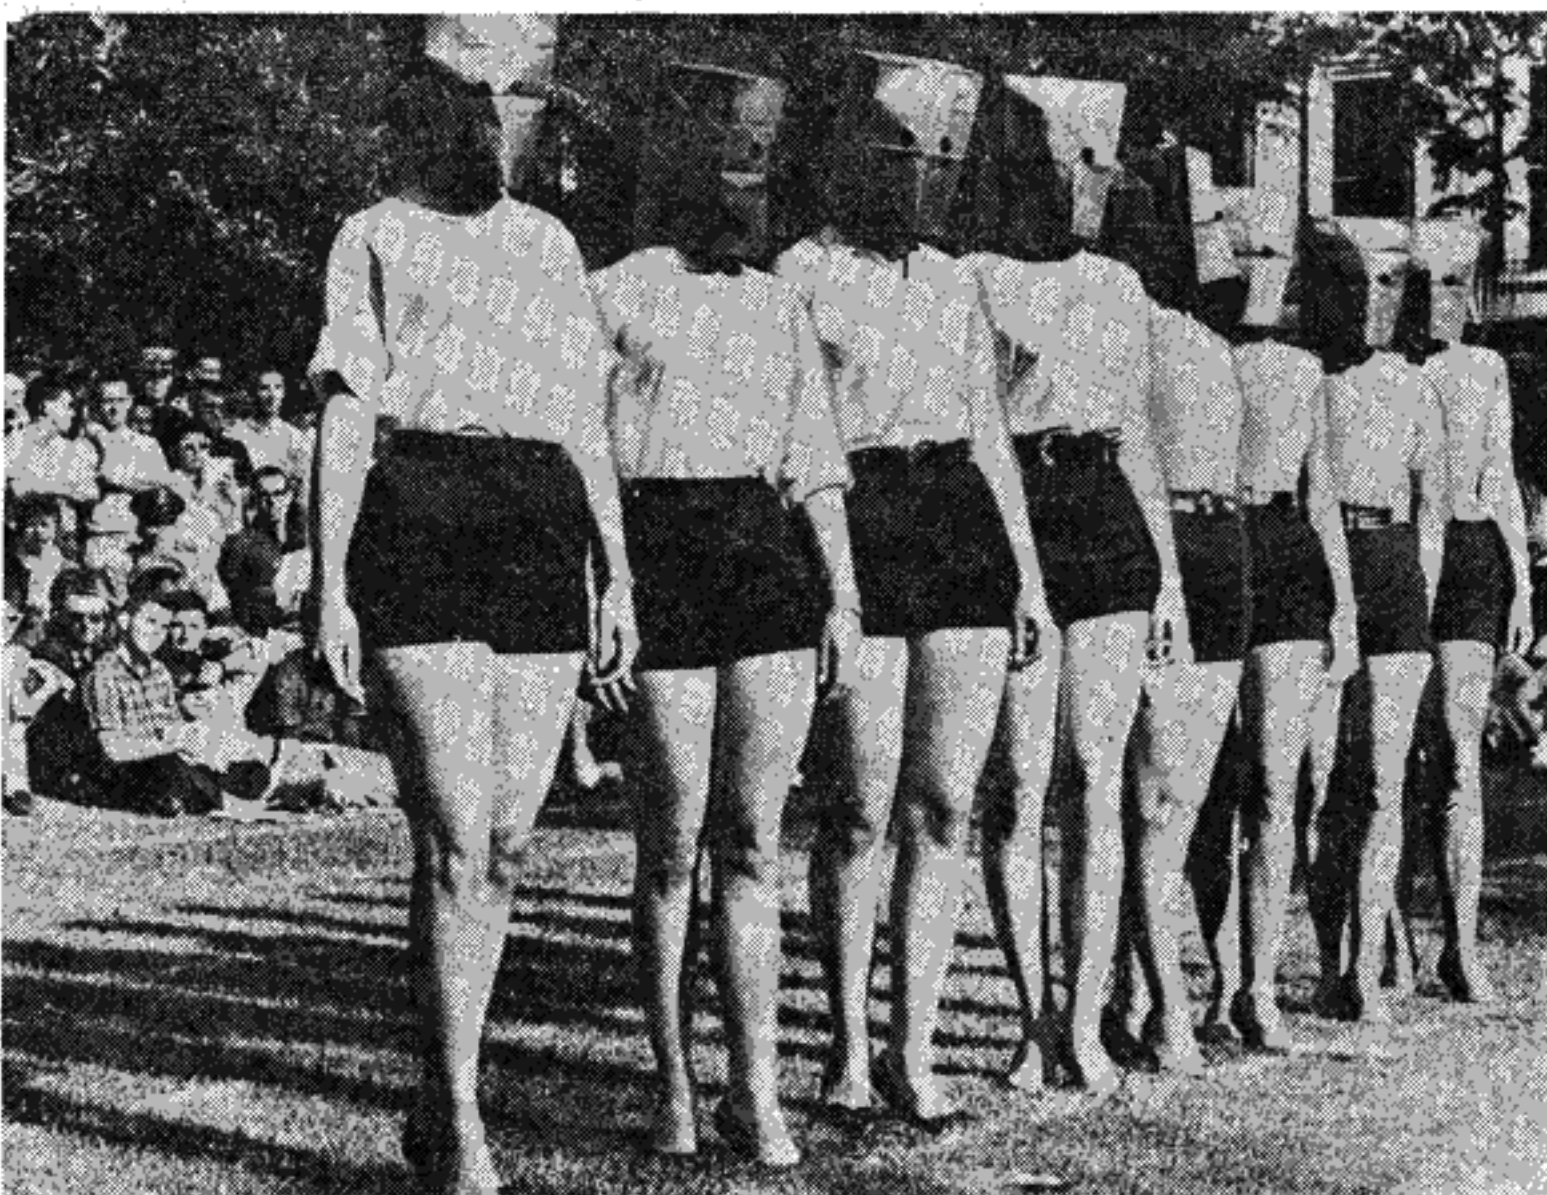

If women's intuition is so uncanny, why is it that they have to ask so many questions?

A California woman won a divorce after testifying her husband was extra nasty every time Stanford, his Alma Mater, lost in football. Stanford lost all of its 10 games last fall. What a nasty man friend husband must have been.

Being a member of the county school board, it is our plan to suggest that next term a course be added to teach the students where money comes from.

Most of us don't need to be led into temptation—we can find our own way.

Then there was the doctor who said to his young and attractive patient: "Mrs. Smith I have good news for you." "It's Miss Smith, not Mrs. Smith," the patient corrected. "Miss Smith," the doctor continued, "I have bad news for you."

NO DISTRACTIONS, PLEASE—Just to keep distractions at a minimum, judges at this University of South Carolina beauty contest decreed that the faces of contestants would be hidden with paper bags. Winner was masked coed standing second from the left. She is Joyce Adams, freshman from Columbia, S.C.

One Hundred Ninety To Graduate

Stewart And Wilhelm To Address FSC Graduates

Dr. Frank R. Stewart, Alabama State Superintendent of Education, will deliver the commencement address at the Florence State College graduation ceremonies on Friday, June 2, at 7:00 p.m.

FRANK R. STEWART

JACK WILHELM

The baccalaureate sermon will be presented by Mr. Jack Wilhelm, Minister of the Jackson Park Church of Christ, Nashville, on Sunday, May 28, at 5:00 p.m.

The list of prospective graduates totals 190.

Dr. Stewart, who will become President of Troy State College on July 1, is a native of Cherokee County. He received his education in the Piedmont schools, Jacksonville State College, Auburn University, Columbia University and Peabody College. His honorary doctorate is from Auburn.

He has served public schools as teacher, athletic coach, principal and county superintendent. Prior to his election as State Superintendent in 1958, he was executive assistant in the State Department of Education for more than two years.

Mr. Wilhelm was the second person to receive the master's degree at the local college, and the first person to complete all post-graduate work there. His undergraduate degree is from David Lipscomb College, Nashville, where he was President of the student body during his senior year.

He began preaching at the age of fifteen and served as minister of the Scottsboro Church of Christ and Eastside Church in Sheffield before moving to Nashville in 1959.

Both the baccalaureate and graduation programs will be held in the College Memorial Amphitheater, or, in case of inclement weather, Coffee Auditorium.

Progress Made In Muscle Shoals TV Cable Expansion

Microwave Facilities Will Bring Nashville Stations To Shoals

Progress in the improvement of signal and expansion of services on the TV cable is announced today by John A. Sullivan, general manager, Muscle Shoals TV Cable Co., a division of Transcontinental Communication Systems, Inc.

Mr. Sullivan said that between this date and July 31, construction is scheduled to be completed on the Sherrod Avenue extension and facilities will be installed to serve the Dixie-Cumberland area and Martha Street areas, both of the latter areas are not now being served at all.

The announcement also advises that immediately after August 1, the beginning of the new fiscal year for the company, that the Weeden Heights area will be constructed with service to this fast growing area estimated to begin shortly after October 15th.

In Tusculum, construction of the cable system in the Baker Boulevard area is scheduled for the immediate future along with the recabling of the Carmichael Terrace area. In Sheffield, recabling and additions to the existing service in all areas now served, as well as adjacent areas not now served is also included.

Of special interest to cable subscribers is the report that progress has been made in securing adequate signal surveys as well as site locations for microwaving Nashville stations to this area. This, of course, means that the Nashville stations will be brought to the local cable system in clear and dependable fashion. Bids are now being received, Mr. Sullivan said, on tower construction for receiving the signals in this improved service.

Mr. Sullivan called attention to the construction now underway in the Windsor Heights section of Florence and that the construction in the Rivermont area in Sheffield and Ford Avenue area in Muscle Shoals City have been completed. At the same time, engineering for future construction is under way in various sections throughout the four cities.

The completion of the replacement of 30,000 feet of main trunk cable in Sheffield and Tusculum is also reported as well as 20,000 feet of feeder line cable throughout the area. All of this work, including the work that has been done, now under construction, and to be completed in the next few weeks, is done with the most modern materials and equipment available in the industry, Mr. Sullivan concluded.

Board Election Scheduled May 29

Plans For $2,500,000 Cypress Creek Watershed Move Ahead

TV A To Add Fertilizer Pilot Plant

The TVA Board of Directors announced Tuesday the decision to build a $100,000 fertilizer plant at Muscle Shoals, in its first meeting held in Washington in twenty years. The Board was in the capital city to testify before an executive session of the House Appropriations Committee when Brig. Gen. Herbert D. Vogel, board chairman, decided to call a board meeting.

The Muscle Shoals pilot will seek to bring nearer to commercial production of particle-size varieties of fertilizer, a departure from the present practice of manufacturing only powdered-form fertilizer.

The use of fertilizer in particle-size form will be more economical and easier to apply, experts believe.

Either way, it takes someone interested in the community, in children and in Alabama's future to take on the chairmanship of something like the 4-H Foundation Fund Drive. Just such a person is Cris Moore, Lauderdale County Chairman of this "Friends of 4-H" project.

Under his leadership, Lauderdale County is all set for a fund drive to raise its share of the proposed goal for Alabama of $3 million dollars. Half of this money will be used to build 4-H camps. No longer will 4-H'ers have to go to other states for summer camps. The interest on the other $1 and 1/2 million will be used to:

1. Provide educational materials for 4-H clubs,
2. Finance educational trips,

Continue Ride Into Mississippi

'Freedom' Riders Beaten By Montgomery Mobs

BULLETIN

Vowing to continue their challenge of bus station segregation in the South the battered "freedom riders" listed Mississippi as their next target. The first bus crossed into that state shortly before noon on Wednesday in the direction of Meridian. Later in the afternoon it was reported that eleven of the riders were arrested when they tried to enter a white rest room in the bus station at Jackson.

Federal authorities this week ordered two hundred additional marshals to Montgomery to help maintain order although Governor Patterson had declared the city under martial law Monday following the beating of "freedom riders" Saturday by howling mobs numbered in the hundreds. At least 20 were injured having been beaten with clubs and fists.

The first attack came when the bus carrying the "freedom riders" reached the bus terminal in Birmingham in a trip to challenge racial barriers in the deep south bus stations. The trip started at Nashville.

The original "freedom riders" failing to get a bus out of Birmingham finally took a plane to New Orleans. The latest wave of integrated riders most of them students from Tennessee, said their effort was a continuation of the "freedom ride."

On Monday the U.S. marshals had withdrawn from the streets of Montgomery but were stationed at the edge of town. The withdrawal was ordered the Justice Department said, because the Alabama National Guard had the city under control.

Bus Attackers Jailed
Four men, including a teen-ager, were arrested in Anniston Monday charged with attacking the "freedom riders" bus about six miles from the city. The bus was burned. The four, unable to make bond were placed in the Calhoun County jail. If convicted the men could get 20 years and fines up to $10,000.

Newspaper reporters and cameramen were also victims of the mobs being beaten and having their equipment smashed. Birmingham police have made a number of arrests in this connection and set trials for tonight.

Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy said the marshals would stay in Montgomery "until we receive assurances that the situation is under control in the State of Alabama." Kennedy further said there would have been major bloodshed if the marshals had not been there... meaning Montgomery.

Kennedy revealed also that his department plans to enter Federal Court in Montgomery and attempt some kind of prosecution. He would not give details but said he believed the department had evidence of violation of Federal law and a "number of people will be involved."

President Appealed To
The Alabama Congressional delegation Monday asked President Kennedy to remove Federal marshals from Montgomery and urged him to do "everything possible to keep outside agitators out of Alabama."

Both senators and the state's nine representatives signed a telegram jointly and sent it to the President and his brother, the attorney general.

L. B. Sullivan, Police Commissioner, instructed police to keep the American Nazi Party's "Hate Bus" moving "the same as any agitator group" through Montgomery, which is enroute from Arlington, Va., to New Orleans, (Continued on Page 2)

High School graduating class on Sunday in the school's auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Mullen, born in Fitchburg, Mass., attended DuBose Memorial training school, the Berkley Divinity School in Connecticut and Texas A & M.

He served as rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Waco, Texas before studying languages in Amoy, China. He served also as vicar of Holy Trinity Church in Zamboanga, Philippine Islands, and as chaplain and administrator of St. Luke's Hospital, Manila.

At the request of Gen. Douglas MacArthur Mr. Mullen obtained leave from his duties at Trinity to return to Manila to supervise the rehabilitation of the hospital following the Japanese invasion.

Dr. Leonard Trapp, a Coffee graduate and head of the Troy State Department of History will deliver the commencement address at Coffee on June 1 when two hundred and thirty seniors will receive their diplomas from City Superintendent of Schools, Rufus G. Hibbert, and Coffee principal, Tom Braly.

Plans for the huge $2.5-million Cypress Creek watershed are moving rapidly in the wake of serious flooding of farmlands in this area earlier this year.

A board of directors, who will file a formal application for the watershed which is designed to cover some 96,000 acres in Lauderdale County and 42,000 in South Tennessee, will be elected on Monday, May 29.

The nine candidates are Dr. A. L. Hershey, George A. Porter, Douglas C. Austin, Edward F. Lovelace, Vernon L. Cash, Harry P. Eckl, Walker Brown, Edwin Abramson and Howard Whitten.

Polling places will be at Thrasher's Store on Savannah Highway, Petersville Supermarket on Cloverdale Road and Simmons Store at Cloverdale. The polls will be open at 8:00 a.m. and will close at 6:00 p.m.

The board will supervise activities of the watershed in Lauderdale County only, Joe Thompson, work unit conservationist with the local Soil Conservation Service office, said. The Tennessee portion will organize a district to carry its share of the work.

Estes R. Flynt, Lauderdale County Probate Judge, and the Alabama Soil Conservation Committee in Montgomery, has properly certified the Lauderdale district. The new directors will file formal application for the watershed with the state headquarters.

Preliminary surveys made by the county SCS office call for 25 dams to control flooding of Big Cypress, Little Cypress and Middle Cypress creeks and several other main tributaries. Thompson said these dams would pool water to cover from 25 to 100 surface areas at normal level, but made no estimate of when work could be expected to begin.

In a watershed, the Federal government provides funds to construct dams and much of the necessary labor with the farmer providing rights-of-way and labor for some conservation practices on his own farm. These practices, however, include many of the measures farmers are already using.

Funds and bids for construction and materials are handled through the local district while the surveys, planning and inspection is handled through SCS technicians. Once the watershed is completed, it is turned over to the local organization for maintenance and the farmers are considered owners of the structures with many using the pools for fishing and recreation.

Law And Order Is Not Debatable

A statue to the late Albert Patterson, father of Governor John Patterson, has been unveiled on the lawn of the capitol at Montgomery now under martial law. Mr. Patterson died at the hands of hoodlums who objected to his crusade for law and order.

Can it be that we have not learned that mob rule cannot be substituted for law and order?

While the so-called "freedom rides" are debatable, the question of law and order is not and never was debatable. The Bill of Rights was incorporated in this nation's constitution so that citizen's, regardless of their crime, might have recourse to the courts of the land for a fair and just trial. Mob rule not only denies all citizens their privileges under the Bill of Rights but strikes at the very roots of the democratic processes of government.

There is one thing far more terrifying than the mob-beating of the "freedom riders" and that is the fact that officials charged with enforcing the law deliberately turned their backs on these incidents. Can it be that the law means so little after all that duly constituted authority is ready to compound a felony . . . and does?

In the difficult struggle for racial harmony and a solution to the complex problems of civil rights both sides have suffered immeasurable harm by this disgraceful outbreak of mob rule.

It poses a problem that every sane-thinking man and woman in Alabama must face. As stated above the question of law and order is not debatable. However, it is closely tied with justice and if we are to avoid incidents like the above then "freedom rides" and all other things calculated to stir up strife and endanger the innocent should be prevented by law.

Farm Prosperity—U. S. Goal

Farm prosperity is this nation's goal and the well-being of the farmer is reflected in the prosperity of every community in the land. Farmers spend more than $26 billion a year on production items and another $15 billion on personal items. Most is spent in the small towns.

Orville Freeman, Secretary of Agriculture, appears to have a fresh new approach to the problems facing agriculture plus a tremendous willingness to do something about it. He said recently: "We in the Department of Agriculture are fully aware of the close tie between farmers and the towns where they buy and where they sell. Our responsibility and our purpose is to help farmers to prosper, knowing that as they do, towns will prosper and so will the nation."

Under the new program initiated by the administration working closely with farmers and farm groups, the Department of Agriculture is out to revitalize the county and local farmer committee system and to strengthen production adjustment and price supports when and where needed for good economy. In other words the farmer is going to have more to say about his own problems than in the past and this is as it should be.

Already in effect is the feed grain program designed to increase farm income and to ultimately reduce the costs of the program to the taxpayers; price support raises on important commodities; and increased credit for farmers who need operating and maintenance capital.

There are still many things to be done and problems to be solved but Agriculture is definitely on the move to better things.

Our Graduates Must Have Jobs

There will be some 1,873,000 boys and girls graduates from the nation's high schools this year. In these young hopefuls and those who will graduate from our colleges, is the hope of America's future, for it is they who must assume the leadership and defense of our way of life in a world where the fight is joined for survival.

Even if there is no shooting war, and certainly that is conceivable in the light of a universal knowledge of nuclear destructiveness, it would still be tragic if all of the smaller nations of the world were swallowed up through Communist economic aggression, that even now is threatening the free world's economy.

This newspaper has mentioned time and again the triple danger of spiraling prices . . . first the danger to our domestic well-being by pricing goods out of reach, secondly by making it impossible to compete in foreign markets, and lastly the unemployment resulting from curtailed production. But that is not all. Taking advantage of our economic dilemma caused by too high costs of production, foreign manufacturers have moved in for the kill. Tens of thousands of tons of foreign made goods in almost every category that include such items as film and cameras, textiles, clothing, hardware, tools of all kinds, housewares, dinnerware, jewelry, electric shavers, light bulbs, transistor radios, and of course the big item that has really made a dent . . . automobiles . . . flood the market.

What has all this to do with today's graduates? Just this . . . jobs must be found for at least 1,300,000 high school graduates by the end of the year because only a small percentage will go to college immediately. Besides, there are tens of thousands of skilled workers with families to support who are out of jobs and these will be given preference. So the problem of a tough one.

The government, management and labor must work together to utilize the country's resources because only through an expanding economy can we find the answer.

Cuba Offers Prisoners For Tractors

An unparalleled search for millions of dollars to ransom insurgent prisoners from Communist-tinged Cuba went forward, Sunday, inspired by the arrival of 10 representatives of the captives. ● President Kennedy definitely will attend the economic conference the Organization of American States convening in Uruguay on July 15. Kennedy said he hoped the presidents of a number of Latin-American countries will participate in this highly important parley, making it possible to use the meeting to conduct a sort of informal summit conference for an exchange of views on many problems. He will be accompanied by cabinet and other high administration leaders.

● The Senate amended the $2.55 billion Federal aid to education bill Tuesday to cover buses, books and janitors as well as teachers and classrooms. By a 51-39 vote, the Senate adopted an amendment of Sen. Winston L. Prouty, (R., Vt.) to permit states to use Federal grants for the general operating expenses of their public schools. The bill, when it came to the floor of the Senate, allowed states to use the proposed grants only for teacher salaries, school construction or both.

● Adolf Eichmann was described in court Tuesday as the supreme authority over the Jews in Romania during World War II, with more power even than the collaborating Antonescu government. The prosecution produced documents showing the Gestapo officer, on trial for directing the Nazis' Jewish pogrom, dealt directly with Bucharest and often bypassed the Nazi Foreign Ministry.

● Joan Davis, 48, the lanky blond whose cracked-voice capers made her one of the entertainment world's great comedienne, died of a heart attack Tuesday at a Palm Springs hospital. Her mother, Mrs. Nina Davis, and a Catholic priest were at her bedside. In her last role she made her fortune and achieved her greatest success as the trouble-prone wife of Jim Backus in the TV series, "I Married Joan." She had retired four years ago.

● The Colbert County Board of Education may appeal the decision of the State Teacher Tenure Commission to reinstate Homer Blankenship, ousted principal of Cherokee Vocational High School, who was suspended last February after a traffic accident in which he was involved. The commission has cleared Blankenship, entitling the former principal to resume his post and collect pay for the time he was suspended; his contract having been canceled April 8.

Miss Culmer To Retire On June 2Headed Mathematics
Department At FSC
For Forty-One Years

Miss Orpha Ann Culmer, Department Chairman and Professor of Mathematics at Florence State College since 1920, will retire at the close of the current semester on June 2.

In looking back over the years, Miss Culmer observed that she has served under three presidents at the college—the late Dr. Henry J. Willingham, the late Dr. J. A. Keller and, currently, Dr. E. B. Norton.

In taking official cognizance of Miss Culmer's approaching retirement, Dr. E. B. Norton, her president for the last thirteen years, said, "Miss Orpha Ann Culmer retires from active duty as Chairman of the Department of Mathematics of Florence State College at the close of this semester after forty-one years of teaching at this institution."

"Miss Culmer is a strong leader. She has done much to upgrade the mathematics work at this institution and has enriched the lives of many who were fortunate enough to have contact with her. We will miss her daily presence, but her influence will always be felt."

After what is probably the last official conference with Miss Culmer last week, Dr. Allen said, "From her new status as professor emerita it is hoped that the college will continue to enjoy for a long time to come the benefits of her counsel and example."

Miss Culmer will be the honoree at a coffee, given by the faculty and staff, in Rogers Hall on Thursday.

THOMAS EDWARD CAMPBELL

"We need a greater interest in community service on the part of our younger men. That is the most imperative need in Florence today," is the remark made by Mr. Campbell when asked for a comment on his observation of our city's progress. "The major portion of the civic activities performed to Gerstner Field, Lake Charles, La. While at Gerstner Field, he received his pilot's wings and was among the first to receive training on radio-telephone. During that time, he was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant. From Gerstner Field, Mr. Campbell was transferred to Carlstrom Field, Arcadia, Fla., where he remained as a flight instructor for eighteen months. In March, 1919, he was discharged at Carlstrom Field with the rank of First Lieutenant.

Mr. Campbell was married to Pearl Lytle of Mammoth Springs, May 10, 1920. They had one son, Thomas E. Campbell, Jr., who lost his life during World War II, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Wellford who resides in Memphis.

Following his discharge, Mr. Campbell returned to Mammoth Springs where he entered the automobile business. In 1922, he and his father came to Florence after they purchased a local automobile agency, operating the business together until 1926. At that time, Mr.

Thomas Edward Campbell was born in DeKalb, Mo., March 13, 1896, the son of Archie P. and Bertha L. Derge Campbell. When he was two years old, the family moved to Mammoth Springs, Ark. where he received his elementary education. Mr. Campbell attended Staunton Military Academy, Staunton, Va., where he prepared to enter West Point. However, due to an eye infection, he failed to meet West Point requirements and lost interest in higher education. While at Staunton, he was a member of the football and track teams for two years.

Following the completion of his education at Staunton, Mr. Campbell returned to Mammoth Springs where he entered the wholesale grocery business with his father. He remained there until 1917, when he entered the Air Corps.

Mr. Campbell received his preliminary aviation training at Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., where he remained for four months. During that time, he served as crew chief with the rank of sergeant. From Scott Field, he was ordered to the University of Illinois, Champaign, for basic cadet instruction, after which he was transferred Campbell and Malcolm Cason went to Paducah, Ky. where they purchased an automobile agency, operating the business until 1934. Mr. Campbell then returned to Florence and re-entered the automobile business with his father and was engaged in the operation of Campbell Motors until 1954.

At that time, Mr. Campbell and his father sold the business and Mr. Campbell entered the automobile finance business, which he operated for two years. In 1957, he retired and since has devoted his time and energy to civic work and enjoying his hobbies.

He is past vice-president and has served on numerous committees of the Chamber of Commerce; past member of Kiwanis Club; member of Florence-Lauderdale Post No. 11, American Legion; Masonic Lodge; Muscle Shoals Shrine Club; and a former member of Florence Golf and Country Club. Mr. Campbell is past president of the Community Chest; director of the Lauderdale County Chapter of the American Red Cross; director of the United Fund and also the Muscle Shoals Literary Movement. He is past commander of the Muscle Shoals Civil Air Patrol.

Mr. Campbell is a former member of the Alabama and National Automobile Associations; member and immediate past vice-president of Alabama Sports Car Club and member of the Sports Car Club of America.

He is an active member of the First Methodist Church and is serving on the Board of Stewards. Since the war, Mr. Campbell has been interested in airplanes, and in 1946 took up flying as a hobby. He is also interested in automobile races, attending the Indianapolis "500" Memorial Day race "whenever he can get good seats." Throughout the state, he may be found in competition with other sports car drivers or a spectator in the crowds. Also included in his hobbies is the fine art of the game of pool. During the afternoons, he, along with several of his cronies can be found gathered in the basement of the home of Bob Stricklin where the game is played according to the rules but with certain variations that only the members of this exclusive group will diverge.

Mr. Mrs. Belue
Honeymoon in Florida

Bouquets of white gladioli against a background of greenery marked the candlelight altar of Liberty Baptist Church at Threet's Crossroads for the wedding ceremony on Saturday, May twentieth, when Gwendolyn Sue Putman exchanged vows with William Aaron Belue. The Reverend C. M. Dupler, Jr., officiated following a musical prelude presented by Miss Peggy Austin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Putman of Savannah Road, Florence, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Otis Belue of Rogersville.

Landy and Sheral Belue, brothers of the bridegroom, served as candlelighters.

Mr. Putman gave his daughter in marriage. The handiwork of mother and aunts, Mrs. Robert Tays and Mrs. Percy Smithman, was the bride's wedding gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta which was distinguished by a molded bodice with rounded neckline and long tapering sleeves and a voluminous floor-length skirt. Her veil of silk illusion was caught to a crown of pearls and with her white Bible, gift of her grandmother, she carried a single white orchid encircled with tuberoses.

Dixie Muriel Putman, sister of the bride, was her honor attendant and James Franklin Putman, her brother, was ringbearer.

Miss Putman wore cell silk organza over taffeta detailed with a flat back-bow and a smaller matching bow for a headdress. Daisies tinted to a matching shade fashioned her bouquet.

Bayless R. Thornton, Jr., of Rogersville, was best man for the bridegroom.

Mrs. Putman, mother of the bride, wore navy blue with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations; Mrs. Belue chose a rose-colored gown, white accessories and she, too, wore white carnations.

Upon their return late this week from a Florida honeymoon, the bride and groom will be at home in Rogersville.

forecast for ENERGY

Bigger and faster jets will help thrust America's demand for energy twice as high by 1980

Big jetliners use more than 2,000 gallons of fuel per hour. When you consider the increasing number of military and commercial aircraft that criss-cross the nation's skies, it's easy to see why our energy needs are climbing. Vast amounts of energy also are needed to melt, treat and process the materials used to build aircraft. Aviation is just one of many industries calling for more and more energy. America will consume twice as much energy by 1980.

Where will it come from? Much will come from present energy sources, some from new ones. Wherever produced, a large share of energy in its most efficient and usable forms will be transported via pipelines. Texas Eastern's natural gas pipelines, which stretch from the Mexican border to the Atlantic Seaboard, have capacity to fuel thousands of factories and heat millions of homes... Our Little Big Inch pipeline system, largest of its kind, delivers liquid petroleum products from Gulf Coast refineries to Midwest markets. Looking to the future, Texas Eastern is growing and diversifying today to meet tomorrow's energy needs.

DEAF MAN PERFECTS SMALLEST HEARING AID

FLORENCE, ALABAMA—(Special)—A remarkable midget hearing aid has been perfected by a man who has been hard of hearing for nearly ten years.

This small aid has no dangling cords or separate transmitting units and represents a most unusual idea and design in a product for the hard of hearing.

It is especially made for those people who can hear but not understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-level" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sounds, television, and radio at his ear rather than at a transmitter located in the wearer's clothing.

Due to the use of 4 transistors, the user's cost is extremely low and the instrument weighs approximately 1/4-ounce. It is about the size of a sewing thimble.

THE SPILLWAY

All the children hereabout
Are happy and gay 'cause school's nearly out.
But the mamas feel like taking refuge,
To THEM it means "After this, the deluge!"

WHICH BRINGS US up to the interesting topic of the plans which this year's graduating "crop" has for next fall . . . Sounds like they've all been pretty busy making plans and they are an ambitious group . . . Vanderbilt will claim Jim Beasley, Gary Kornman, "Butch" Wilson, and Mary Louise Robison . . . Becky Robbins and Cornelia Dasher are going over South Carolina way to Converse . . . Hunter Smith, Betsy Kingsley and Mary Jane Price are looking forward to going to Auburn University . . . Hollis Bower will be in Columbia, Missouri at Stevens College . . . Jeb Stewart is planning on going over Atlanta-way to Emory University . . . Ginger Turner plans to go to Randolph Macon Woman's College . . . Jim Fall and Bill Barnwell will be in Memphis at Southwestern . . . which, won't you agree, sounds as though we'll be surrounded by "larkin!"

WHICH REMINDS US to congratulate Fred Tauber who has just been elected president of a newly formed pre-dental society at the University of Alabama . . . the first president to head this new organization.

WELCOME HOME to Laura and Otho Perritt . . . from their winter home in Florida . . . We hear that they had a rather unconventional, and unfortunate, welcome awaiting them . . . and we'd like to offer any assistance we could give toward "righting" their attractive home over on Poplar Street. Knowing them, we'd venture to say that all is as "good as new" by now.

AND PLEASE HURRY BACK, we'd like to say, to the George Vrylands, who're leaving us to make their home "up East" . . . They've been with us long enough to become favorites, and news of their leaving was not well received. Best of luck to them all . . . and this includes the two attractive teen-age daughters, Judy and Susan.

A BIRTHDAY TO CELEBRATE . . . and rightly so. (When one reaches Jack Benny's age) . . . and the neighborhood joined in to make it a real celebration for Ben Craig and (Dr.) Don O'Brien . . . gifts with appropriate poetry . . . games "suitable" to the age group . . . fun for all . . . and a complete surprise to the two "birthday-boys."

"LOVE THY NEIGHBOR" is not only sung, but practiced by Diamond Priest, who is noted for her efficiency and cleverness in her lovely home . . . and now besides her own two children, Sandra and Steve, she has "adopted" Gerry and Ed Ray's four while Gerry is in the hospital . . . Must be a big help toward what we hope will be a SPEEDY recovery for Gerry.

LET'S TAKE A TRIP . . . We've been hearing most interesting bits of info about Leroy Couch's recently formed travel agency . . . and one reason we've heard so much is the enthusiasm which Anna Lou feels and shares for her husband's new venture . . . We're verree interested in hearing of some of their bookings, especially since we understand there's to be a world-wide tour on the schedule for next year.

BEGINNING THE SUMMER RIGHT, Jo Carter and Betty Mullins started the ball rolling—and a very BIG ball it was—with a festive morning coffee at Jo's charming new home out Hickory Hills way. Besides the wide variety of summer blossoms over the party rooms, there was a May Pole scene in the center of the main table, with colorful dolls doing the May Pole dance . . . A real conversation piece for the many guests.

ALSO ENJOYED BY MANY, was the evening bridge party with which Edith Edwards, and Boots Finney honored Elizabeth Norvell, who'll soon be on her way again to Saudi Arabia. We hear reports of an especially enjoyable evening of bridge and chatting with old-friends-not-seen-often-enough . . . And to add even more to the evening, Edith gave "guided tours" to her guests over the spacious new home she and Bruce have just completed on the lake-side lot.

Fifteen years ago, a farmer could net $3,000 if he grossed $6,000 on his operation. Today, he would have to gross $10,000 to get the $3,000 net. And one prediction states that in 10 years a farmer will have to sell $15,000 worth of goods just to get $3,000 in net income.

Women Decide Products' Future

Homemakers, be they housewives or career girls, usually buy the groceries.

"These women," says Ray Cavender, Auburn Extension Service meats marketing specialist, "don't think of themselves as hard-to-please tyrants or all powerful dictators, but they are." As consumers, they take on these characteristics because they can greatly influence what is produced and how well it sells.

"By following whims and opinions, rather than facts, housewives are hurting themselves and the producer and marketer," reports the specialist. "Lately, some groups are implying that animal fats should be left out of the diet because of dreaded cholesterol. By using this information without looking into the facts behind it, people are sacrificing good eating quality, especially in pork. According to Cavender, recent tests show that marbled pork is tastier and juicier. "And, too, research by such responsible groups as the American Medical Association, the Food and Drug Administration, and leading nutritionists, has not yet proved that there is a positive connection between fatty acid intake and heart disease," the specialist adds.

Those who visited Earnest Bailey this week were Mr. and Mrs. Barry Camp and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Willy Johnson and Bill Almond of Florence.

The Junior G.A.'s enjoyed observing Focus Week this week. Monday, the girls accompanied by their counselors, Mrs. G. W. Gullett and Mrs. V. G. Rossen carried Tray Cards to those who were in the Jackson's Hospital. On Wednesday they visited Beverly Newton of Lexington and carried her a box of fruit. Last Friday night they came to the home of their counselor, Mrs. G. W. Gullett, and enjoyed a weiner roast and later a pajama party. Those present were: Sonya Shelton, Wanda Rossen, Linda Kelley, Judy Bailey, Wanda Shelton, Betty Ann Nunley, and Venetta Thompson.

One hundred sixteen were present for Sunday school Sunday morning with many others arriving for preaching services at the Bethel Baptist Church. The Rev. McDougal filled the pulpit at both the morning and the evening services with sixty-one present for Training Union Sunday night.

What's "Normal"?

Q. What is considered normal for blood pressure and pulse?

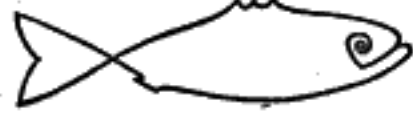

A. It depends on one's conception of the meaning of the word, "normal." To elaborate, let us consider five possible definitions for the word "normal."

- (1) That which is culturally acceptable. Obeying the law is "normal" under this concept.
- (2) The statistical average. By this yardstick it is "normal" to drive faster than the speed limit because almost everyone does. If the blood pressure of all 50-year-old men averaged 170, then 170 would be "normal" for this group.
- (3) That which is ideal. By this concept it isn't "normal" to wear false teeth.
- (4) That which is traditional. A few years ago it was not "normal" for women to wear shorts.
- (5) The absence of all disease. If this concept is accepted, then no one would be "normal." Briefly, the question asked has no hard and fast answer, since "normal" may be a myth. Better let your doctor decide whether things are "normal." He knows the circumstances.

Fish Allergy

Q. I am very allergic to fish. I even break out when I just smell fish. Would injection treatments help?

A. Most specialists say that desensitization to foods by injection treatment is not very satisfactory. Allergy to fish is one of the most violent types of hypersensitivity. Unless your doctor advises otherwise, careful avoidance of fish is your best bet to stay out of trouble.

Common Cold Oddities

Q. Anything new about "colds"?

A. Not much, but recent medical articles on the subject brought out the following points. Neither body chilling nor cold weather increase susceptibility to colds, but lack of sleep and getting too tired do. Among females, susceptibility to colds is related to the menstrual cycle. Resistance is greatest during menstruation. Afterward, there is increased susceptibility which reaches a peak about midcycle.

Rev. Gerald Harris and Rex Roberson attended the North Alabama District Convention of the Civitan Club which met in Gadsden on Friday. Brother Harris has been elected as chaplain of the convention.

Guests in the Oswald Waddell home for the week are S/Sgt. and Mrs. Johnnie Flanagan and their two children who are enroute from Paris, France, to Lake Charles, La.

At 7:30 tonight, in the gymnasium the Recreation Association of Rogersville has a scheduled meeting for the purpose of electing five directors. All interested persons are urged to attend.

The softball field is ready for lighting and plans are for day and night games with 4 or 6 boys' teams and at least 4 girls'.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hudson were in Birmingham for the week end with the Hurn Hudsons who are moving to Atlanta in a few weeks. During their visit Doris Rose, the Hudson's daughter, celebrated a birthday. Mrs. Otha Rose had been in Birmingham for the week with the Hudsons.

Dr. C. L. Shown attended the State Educational Convention of Chiropractors in Montgomery on Saturday and Sunday.

On May 16 in Cullman, a little daughter, Dana Kim, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lanier Calvert. The Calverts were former residents of Rogersville.

There is another newcomer to Rogersville: Timothy Wayne Druschell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Druschell, who was born May 19.

Room Mothers Entertain:

In the first grade it has been the custom for the year to have a cake every month for all the pupils having birthdays during the month. At the last of school there were several children who had birthdays during the summer and Mrs. Lois Romine, their teacher, conveniently had one that week so the party planned by the Room Mothers was a big surprise for the pupils since the cake was for all the summer birthdays and there was a gift for "Miss Lois" from the room.

Nice custom, we think.

Hannahs Entertain:

On Tuesday evening following the Class night program Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hannah entertained with a patio party at their lovely new home for the seniors and their dates.

They were assisted with serving the punch and cake by Mrs. Bill Jones and Mrs. Dave Scott.

Class Activities:

On Tuesday evening the first of the Commencement exercises for the 48th graduating class of Lauderdale County High School began with a program presented by the class.

Rebecca Jane Tucker was at the piano in the dark gymnasium. The seniors marched in carrying lighted candles which furnished the glow for the program.

L. C. Patterson, class president, was master of ceremonies; Judy Burchell the Salutatorian, gave the welcome. The history was given by Thaddeus Green and Judy Felker; the will by Johnnie Crowe and Cora Sue Waddell; the prophecy, Yvonne Grisham and Linda White; the valedictory by Mary Lou Waddell and the benediction by Linda White.

Ronald English sang with Linda Oldham accompanying him at the piano.

On Sunday the invocation was given by Bro. Tom Estes, minister of the Church of Christ; Rev. Robert Myers, Cumberland Presbyterian pastor, introduced Dr. Wayne Wiman of Fayetteville, Tenn. the speaker for the occasion.

The benediction was given by Rev. W. W. Hitt, Methodist minister.

Mrs. Bill Jones led the glee club in several selections.

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

What is home? A blend of memories and mortar... walls and roof and smells of breakfast cooking... a place of rest at the end of day... a feeling of possession, of belonging... a place of hates, loves, anger... the center of things living.

Home may be a mansion on a hill, a cramped apartment, a farmhouse, a hovel, a new suburban split-level, the house Father built... but only to you and your family is it home. No one else may call it that. For home is a part of you!

Centuries ago a shepherd-poet felt this. Weary, lonely seasons on the grazing slopes had taught him to love... to long for... HOME.

But he realized that, through this life and beyond, the nearness of God is part of the sense of home. Goodness and mercy would follow him all the days of his life. And he would dwell in the house of the Lord forever!

Give the Church and its Truth a place in your home. And God's presence will give eternal meaning to that home.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FFA Convention To Open June 7

Plans Completed For 32nd Annual Session Of Future Farmers

Plans for the 32nd annual Alabama FFA convention were announced today by T. L. Faulkner, state supervisor of vocational agriculture and advisor of the rural youth organization that boasts 15,000 members. The three-day convention opens June 7 at the "Loveliest Village of the Plains" and closes June 9.

Packed into the three days are on the spot competition in eight contests finals, presentation of state winners in agricultural related contests that were judged prior to the convention, naming of the most outstanding young farmer from 281 recipients of the State Farmer degree, and the election of state officers.

Several outstanding educators and agricultural personalities will appear on the convention program. They include J. F. Ingram, state director of vocational education; Dr. Ralph B. Draughon, president of Auburn University; Dr. E. V. Smith, dean of the school of agriculture at Auburn; Faulkner, and Teddy Carruth, national FFA vice-president from Tulsa, Texas.

A banquet is scheduled June 8 to honor recipients of the Honorary State Farmer degree. The State Farmer degree, highest award obtainable on the state level, is given to boys with outstanding farm programs. The honorary degree is awarded to adults who have befriended and actively supported the youth program.

In addition to the contestants and special guests, official delegates from each of the 262 chapters in the state will be present at the convention to formulate policies for the new year. Total number of boys expected at the convention is between 800-900, Faulkner said.

Highlights of the convention will be the competition between district winners for the substantial awards and honor that a win brings in public speaking, land judging, tractor driving, quartet singing, string bands, livestock judging, and dairy cattle judging. An eighth contest, poultry judging, for state competition has been added and 15 chapters selected to compete. In all other categories contestants were selected at eliminations held in the five vo-ag districts earlier in the year.

Need Best Cows For Top Results

There are three factors to consider in evaluating a dairy cow's record, according to Auburn Extension Service Dairyman John Parrish. They are heredity, management, and feeding.

"Some people think heredity fixes the top production level of a cow and that this level can't be developed any further by feeding or management," said Parrish. "On the other hand," he continued, "many dairymen believe just having the heredity for this trait will not assure high production. Even though a cow has the genes for high production, she must be placed under the best environmental conditions to prove her birthright." And this is where the other factors come into play.

"In 1961, I want to urge Alabama dairymen to feed all the high quality roughage their cows will eat," said Parrish. He continued, "Some good roughage feeds are grazing, silage, and hay. Balancing the roughage with concentrates assures every cow in the herd the energy to reach maximum production: If we can follow these practices, we can increase production in our state 1,000 pounds per cow in just one year."

If woodwork or walls need washing, try dry suds or one of the many cleaning compounds available; follow the manufacturer's instructions carefully. Use the time-saving technique of washing walls from the bottom up; wiping off the occasional drip is easier when the surface is clean.

"Today we need a nation of Minute Men.... citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life...."

—JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

10 days after his inauguration as the 35th President of the United States.

Twenty years ago, in the dark, uneasy days before Pearl Harbor, the Minute Man of Concord, timeless symbol of our Nation's determination to defend its freedom, emerged as the emblem of the U. S. Savings Bonds Program. When war came, the Minute Man became the rallying force behind the huge and overwhelmingly successful effort to back our fighting men with War Bonds.

In this, the 20th anniversary year of Savings Bonds, the Minute Man of Concord calls all Americans to an unrelenting effort to help preserve our peace and freedom, threatened by forces more powerful and resourceful than those we faced in 1941. Though this effort will take many forms, one way open to all is the continued investment in Shares in America, U. S. Savings Bonds, by "citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life."

Brakefield and Elsie Lawson, who own the other two-thirds undivided interest in said land, for more than twenty years next preceding the filing of said bill of complaint; that no one other than the Complainant and the said Elsie Lawson and Anna L. Brakefield has assessed said lands for taxation or paid any taxes on said lands, or any part thereof, for over twenty years next preceding the filing of this bill of complaint; that the above named Respondents Freda H. Wicker and Octavia A. Goldman claim or are reputed to claim the one-third undivided interest in said property claimed by said Complainant. Therefore, the above named Respondents, and any and all persons claiming any title to, interest in, lien or encumbrance upon said lands, or any part of said lands, are hereby given notice to appear in said cause and in said Court and plead, answer, or demur to the bill of their title, claim, interest in, lien or encumbrance on said lands, or any part thereof, and show how and by what instrument the same is derived or created so that such claims may be adjudicated by the Court so as to clear up all doubts and disputes concerning the title to said lands, or otherwise a decree pro confesso will be taken against each of them and said cause will be submitted for final decree as provided by Article 2, Sections 1116 and 1132, inclusive, Title 7, 1940 Code of Alabama, as amended.
