

The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

Sparked by the example of the Santa Maria, a group of suburban Parisians seized a city bus, ejected the passengers and forced the driver to turn around and take them to town. It all began when a shivering bus-stop line-up in a southern suburb grew to 200 yards-long while 10 fully laden buses swept by. The "rebel" suburbanites stopped a bus returning from Paris, expelled the occupants and ordered the driver to drive them to the city. "We'll do it again if more buses are not put on the route," a "rebel" spokesman said. There has been no answer as yet from the Parisian Transportation Authority.

If anything makes a child thirstier than going to bed, it's knowing that you have gone to bed too.

The public address system at ECM Hospital sounded: "Calling Dr. Tu Won. Calling Dr. Tu Won." Jewett T. Flagg, a member of the hospital's Board of Governors, which was then in session, remarked: "I didn't know we had a Chinese doctor on our staff." The call came again and was deciphered: "Calling Dr. 21. Calling Dr. 21." If you can get your doctor to tell you his number—well, you've got his number from then on out.

What goes up must always come down—except food prices, it seems.

Senator Bert Halton, in a debate on reapportionment of the State Legislature before the annual convention of the Alabama Press Association at Huntsville Friday night, covered himself with glory. The publishers and editors from over the state were high in their praise of his presentation of the bill he will introduce in the May session of the Legislature as well as in the manner in which he gave a clear picture of the present situation and the need for immediate reapportionment of both houses according to the state constitution. Rep. McDowell Lee, of Barbour county, who presented the Black Belt's side of the discussion "had no plan to offer" but stressed his championship of the "status quo."

The slant of the news depends entirely upon the angle from which the reader looks at his newspaper.

There are many things you can learn by attending a press convention. At least we learned that girls are like newspapers. They all have forms; they always have the last word; back numbers are not in demand; they have great influence; you can't believe everything they say; they're thinner than they used to be; they get along by advertising, and every man should have one and not try to borrow his neighbor's.

A boy becomes something of a man when he balks at his mother tries to take him to a ladies' rest room.

"I haven't bought a hat in twenty years," a new friend told us the other day. He said he always wore a hat and we remarked that his twenty-year-old hat looked as good as new. "How do you take such good care of it," we asked. "Well," he welled, "I wore it for two seasons, then had it cleaned and since have exchanged it seven times in restaurants in order to keep it looking so nice and new." That made sense.

A fool and his money are soon parted, we are told. But what amazes us is how they got together in the first place.

She alighted from her Cadillac at the front steps of the hospital as the footman held open the door. With her head held high, she entered the reception room and announced to the young lady on duty that she wished to see her chauffeur, badly injured in an auto wreck. Looking on the record, the young lady hesitated: "He's a very sick man and should see no one but his family. Are you his wife?" The haughty one, highly indignant blurted out: "Certainly not—I'm his mistress."

In case you've wondered, a tranquilized cow gives no more milk than one that's merely contented. Oklahoma State University fed cows chlorpromazine for 24 weeks, noted no increase in output.

ECONOMICS - A man needed a $3 train ticket. He had only a two dollar bill. He took it to a pawn shop and pawned it for $1.50. Then he sold the pawn ticket to a friend for $1.50 and bought his ticket for $3. (You figure it out - some-one lost money.)

"MR. "Miss FSC" is a 20-year old physical education major from Town Creek and "Mr. FSC" is a social science major from Beaverton.

President Lauds Agency's Record

Kennedy Names Wagner To TVA Board Directors

President John F. Kennedy named Aubrey J. Wagner, general manager of the Tennessee Valley Authority, as a member of the TVA board of directors to succeed Brooks Hays. Hays had been named Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations by the President on Friday.

Wagner, who has been general manager of the Agency since 1954 was lauded by the President for his service to TVA. In announcing his choice for the post Mr. Kennedy said:

"I regard Mr. Wagner's appointment as a recognition, not only of his own career and capacities but of the loyalty and dedication that has uniquely characterized the staff of the Tennessee Valley Authority over the full period of its development."

Mr. Kennedy went on to say that the TVA has "done a remarkable job but the job is not done." He said it has demonstrated in 27 years that it has the imagination and the ability to grow with its times but it must prove in its second quarter century that it can remain vigorous as it grows old. The TVA like every branch of the government must never allow itself to relapse into an attitude of entrenched bureaucracy.

"I want to be sure also that we lose no opportunity to share the great experience of the TVA with other nations faced with a gap between resources and resource development. I want the Agency to study a way in which the lessons learned in the Tennessee Valley may be exported to our great objective of human enhancement."

Mr. Kennedy further elaborated on this statement with a request for a report from the TVA board by April 15 "so I may know the direction in which the Agency proposes to work in these years immediately ahead."

Wagner, who comes from Wisconsin, was described by the President as an independent. He is 49. He had held a number of other posts in TVA before becoming manager.

Boxes and instructions for taking soil samples can be obtained at the county agent's office in Florence. All farmers are urged to take their soil samples and bring them into the county agent's office by March 2, a day before the truck is to leave.

Those who send their samples on the truck should have their recommendations for fertilization back in 7 to 10 days, giving sufficient time to purchase fertilizer for spring crops.

Miss Shirley Pounders left today for New Orleans after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pounders.

Bankers Meet In Florence Today

Annual Spring Meeting Of Group One, Two Set At Country Club

Bankers from the central and western sections of North Alabama will meet in Florence today for the annual Spring Meeting of Groups 1 and 2 of the Alabama Bankers Association.

The business meeting will begin at the Florence Golf and Country Club at 3 p.m. this afternoon when a North Alabama banker will be named winner of an award for his contribution to the growth of consumer credit in Alabama. Eight of these awards will be presented in the state as part of the nationwide program sponsored by the National Committee for the 50th Anniversary of Consumer Credit in Commercial Banks.

The Alabama winners will be judged again and four will be nominated as candidates for national awards. Other awards presentations are scheduled at group meetings of the Alabama Bankers Association during February and March.

Gayle Gupton, assistant vice president, Third National Bank of Nashville, will be the guest speaker at the dinner which will be served in Coffee High School cafeteria.

PANCAKE SUPPER SATURDAY NIGHT

The Lexington Parent-Teachers Association is sponsoring a Pancake Supper, Saturday night, Feb. 18, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Tickets are now on sale by PTA members and may also be purchased at the door during the evening for fifty cents each. All proceeds will be spent on the PTA projects.

Reapportionment Subject Of Debate At APA Meeting

Haltom Explains His Proposal For Revision Of Legislative Set-Up

State Sen. E. B. Haltom, Jr., and Rep. Macdowell Lee debated the anticipated battle over reapportionment in the legislature before the members of the Alabama Press Association Friday night.

Haltom was co-author of a bill in 1959 that would have reapportioned the legislature for the first time since 1901 but because the bill would have swung much more legislative power to the northern counties, along with much of the population shift, it failed in the face of opposition from Lee and others from counties that have lost population. He told the editors and publishers that if the Alabama Legislature doesn't reapportion itself this year, there is "grave danger the federal courts are going to do it for us."

Lee said he and other lawmakers from less populated counties were not opposed to reapportionment, but added, "We are opposed to forms of reapportionment." "If the Supreme Court wants to get into the fight, they'll just have to get into it. We'll fight as long as we are able to retain the protection the small counties need," he continued.

Lee took issue with Haltom's proposal of 1959, which Haltom again plans to offer in May, saying the plan would deprive small counties of needed protection in state government. Haltom's proposed bill would increase the Senate from 35 to 40 members and the House from 106 to 120 members.

"The main survival in small counties depends on the farm-to-market roads and the minimum school fund. We have as many roads to be paved as the larger counties and without the minimum school fund we could operate only about three months a year," Lee stated. He said he believes it is possible to come up with a bill he can support, but emphasized that he would have to be sure it would not result in "blindly giving away all the power to the larger counties at the expense of the smaller counties."

Haltom called the present setup a "gross, unfair variation in representation and said 26 per cent of the voters of Alabama elect 18 of the 35 senators—enough to keep any measure from passing and "in effect disenfranchising 74 per cent of the voters." He noted that the U.S. Supreme Court has agreed to look into the failure of the Tennessee Legislature to reapportion.

"If the Alabama Legislature doesn't do it and the Supreme Court does rule, there will be suits filed by the under-represented people in North Alabama," Haltom concluded.

Mrs. Ben Farish has arrived from Long Island, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker on Olive Street.

Freeman Promises Action This Week

Increase Expected In Cotton Price Support

BULLETIN

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman told Cotton Industry groups that he would make a decision later this week on a 1961 federal cotton program including grower price support rates. Groups attending the closed conference Tuesday included representatives of the National Cotton Council and a cotton advisory committee of which Alexander Nunn of Birmingham is chairman.

A higher price support level for cotton was expected to be announced this week by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, a reliable news source stated.

The article stated that such a step could have broad economic implications... also stating that Congressional sources expect a support level of about 81 per cent of parity which is the standard set by law to give farmers a fair price for cotton based on their costs.

Such a support level increase would better by two cents a pound the 30 cents a pound market price of last year and would also mean better than a two-cent increase in this year's market.

However the move could also have its drawbacks in that a raise in price supports would increase the price of cotton to American textile mills which already pays six cents per pound more than foreign manufacturers. It also might tend to increase the flow of foreign goods into the United States in which case American textile men would seek to have Congress impose tariffs or quota protection from foreign competition.

It was felt that a raise in the cotton price support level might set a pattern for the administration to raise the support for other crops.

It was pointed out that the 1961 cotton acreage has already been set and ratified leaving a price change as the only way open for increasing the farmers' income. Freeman met Tuesday with a cotton advisory committee set up during the presidential campaign and also conferred with representatives of the National Cotton Council which represents both growers and the mills.

An announcement is due this week according to those in the know on what action the Secretary will take.

Called Biggest News Since Sputnik

Venus-Bound Spaceship Launched By Russians

The new Venus-bound Soviet spaceship launched from an orbiting "heavy" Sputnik Sunday was described by Western scientists as a "fantastic demonstration of rocketry." The announcement of the launching was made by Tass News Agency after the spaceship was nearly 100,000 miles from earth on a three-month space voyage that, if all goes as planned, will give man his first contact with other planets.

It was considered the biggest space news since the Russians launched their first Sputnik some three years ago. It was an unprecedented shot made three years ahead of this country's planned space probe of a like nature. Tass gave no other details of the launch or how the spaceship was triggered.

Launched to date in the space probe this country has 33 to Russia's 11. Still in the earth's orbit U.S. 16, Russia 2. In solar orbit U.S. 2, Russia 1. Still transmitting, U.S. 9, Russia none. Lunar implanter, Russia 1, U.S. none. Recovery from orbit, U.S. 4, Russia 1.

Commenting on the success of the Soviet spaceship launching, Soviet space spokesman Prof. Boris Kukarkin said the flight "hastened the day toward fulfillment of man's dream to visit and investigate the planets."

The report said the space station rocket would reach the planet Venus about mid-May if all goes well to plant the hammer and sickle just as Lunik II planted the emblem on the moon in 1959.

However planting the flag on space bodies does not give possession according to international law, it was pointed out and one Soviet scientist Victor Bazykin, director of the Moscow Planetarium said it was far from certain that the space ship will hit Venus.

The ship has a radio capable of sending radio waves across millions of miles of space but it was not stated that the ship carries equipment to relay photographs back to earth.

Venus, which has a diameter some 200 miles smaller than the earth, ranges from 26 to 160 million miles from earth in its orbit. Very little is known about the mystery planet.

Mrs. Van Arnold, Mrs. Ted Gerber and Miss Betty Darnall are visiting in Nashville this week.

In Alabama and throughout the nation, Future Farmers of America will celebrate February 18-25 as National FFA Week announces T. L. Faulkner, State FFA advisor. Fifteen thousand Alabama Future Farmers along with the 380,000 National FFA members in all 50 states will dedicate themselves to the purposes of their organization and do their best to let their friends and neighbors know what FFA is, what it does, and why it is important to everyone.

Local chapters in Lauderdale County are active in all five county high schools and are in charge of the following capable vocational agriculture advisors: William B. Hagood, Waterloo; Norman G. Spillers, Central; A. A. Thorne, Rogers; James Hankins, Lexington; and C. J. Pennington, Rogersville.

Vocational Agriculture and the FFA constitute the most effective program yet developed for training boys to be good farmers and helping them to become established in farming and other agricultural occupations of their choice.

In view of the nation's need for new farmers, and since vocational agriculture is training less than half enough to fill these needs, it is fitting that recognition be given those young men who are preparing for careers in farming.

National FFA Week comes every year during the week of the anniversary of the birthday of George Washington. Although usually considered first as a great general, our first President, and an engineer, George Washington's first love was the farm he called Mount Vernon. There he was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotation, and other soil conserving methods.

The foundation upon which the Future Farmers of America organization is built includes leadership and character development, sportsmanship, cooperation, service, thrift, scholarship, improved agriculture, organized recreation, citizenship and patriotism.

In addition to the leadership from the officers, FFA has adult guidance and supervision from people who are specially trained to teach vocational agriculture and lead the FFA. The teacher of vocational agriculture serves as local FFA advisor.

On the state level, the FFA is sponsored by the State Department of Education, with the State Supervisor of Agricultural Education serving as State FFA advisor. Other members of his staff also help with the work. Nationally, FFA is sponsored by the Agricultural Education Branch of the U.S. Office of Education in Washington.

Friday Is World Prayer Day In Florence Churches

Christians from some 145 countries will pray for peace tomorrow in observance of the 75th anniversary of World Day of Prayer; prayers will be said in 60 languages and more than 1,000 dialects with special services being held in 22,000 communities. Gifts from these countries will help provide schools, colleges, hospitals, nurses, teachers, church schools, day-care centers, mobile clinics, scholarships and spiritual help in America and overseas.

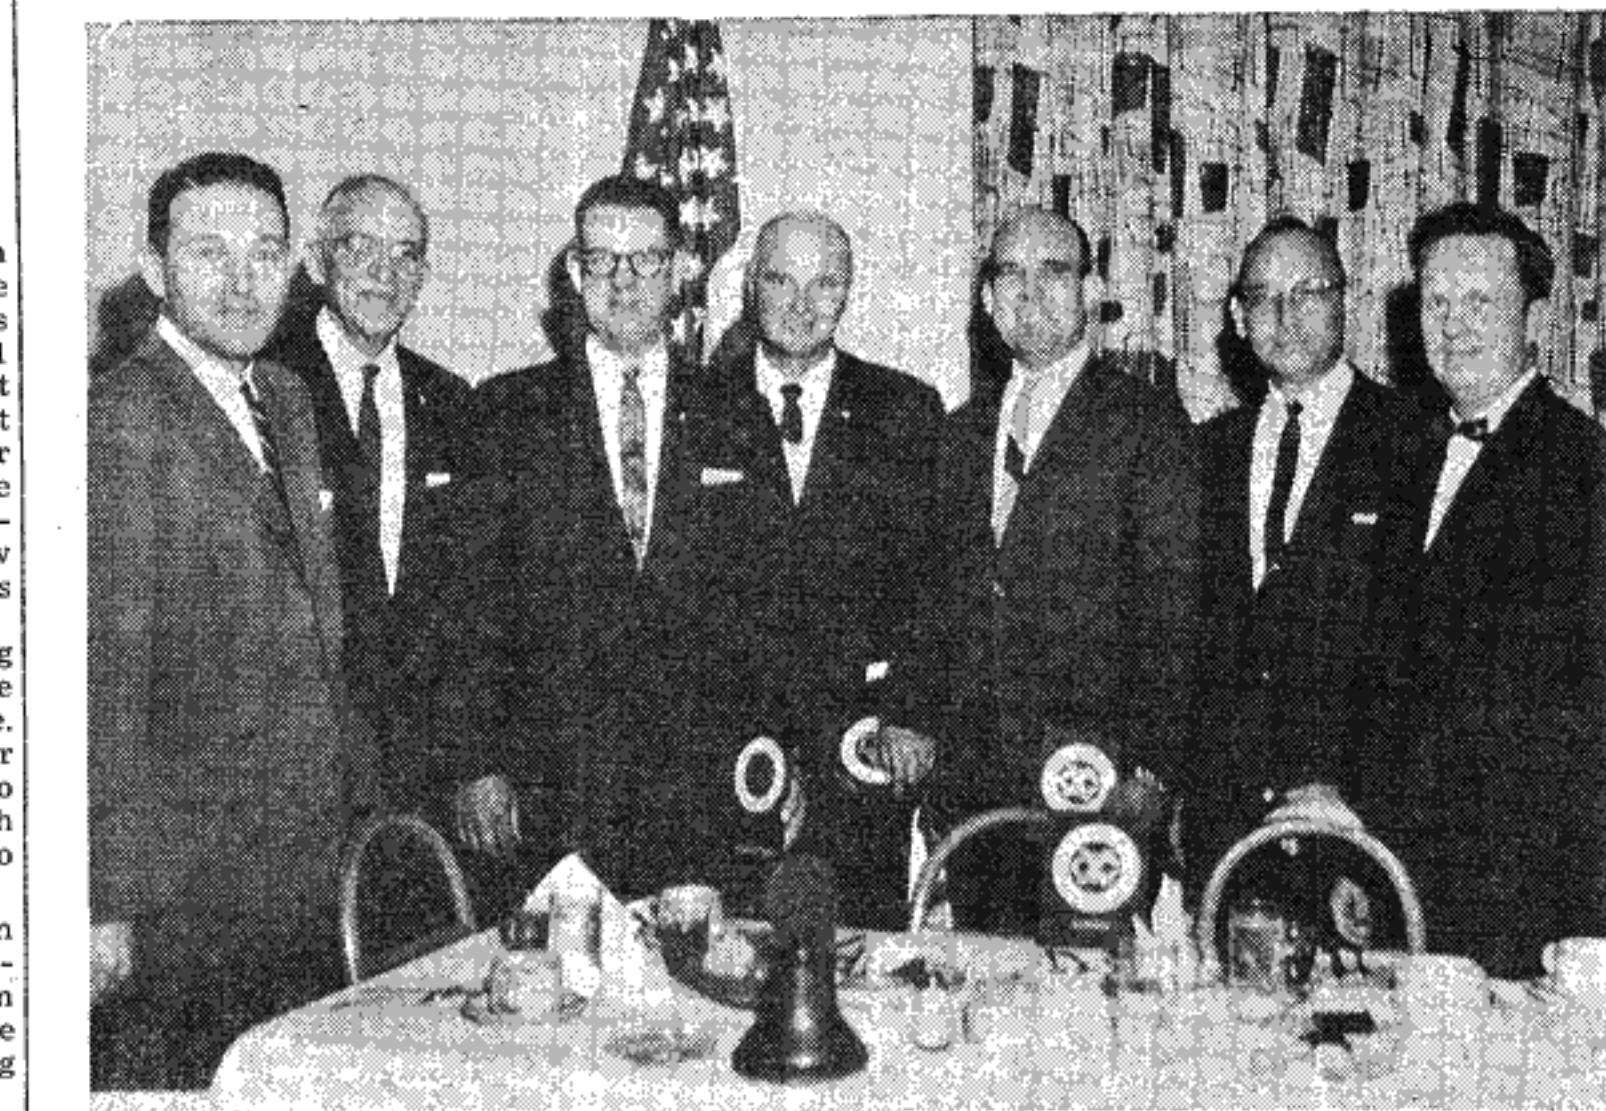

The local observance will be held at 10:00 a.m., Friday, at the First Presbyterian Church. Nine churches will participate in the local program; First Presbyterian, First Methodist, North Wood Methodist, Edgemont Methodist, St. John's Methodist, St. James Methodist, Westminster Presbyterian, First Christian and Trinity Episcopal, all of Florence.

The address will be presented by the Rev. J.V.C. Summerell, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. B. A. England of Florence is recuperating from a recent accident at Corinth Hospital.

A Salute To Our Future Farmers

The past half-century has perhaps brought more changes in farming and farming methods than any previous period in history. Farming has become a great industry, second to none in importance since its products feed and clothe the world. But the transition has not been easy and only through hard work and persistent effort, many times in the face of great odds, has it survived.

Little more than a quarter century ago the Future Farmers of America came into existence and since then has grown into a great and vital organization. Since it was created its members and their chapters throughout the nation have had one great goal . . . to make farming better and easier and more profitable. They have succeeded admirably.

There is still much to be done but none know that better than these energetic, intelligent young farmers in whose hands the future, not only of agriculture, but of the nation, rests.

It is a privilege and a pleasure to salute you, Future Farmers, on the occasion of your 33rd Anniversary.

Why Savings Bonds?

Why savings bonds . . . isn't America the richest nation on earth? Yes, America is the richest nation on earth and the people enjoy the highest standard of living of any of the world's population but that isn't the point. The government has no money that doesn't belong to the people so when it spends it must also borrow.

The advance of Communism in the world presents an ever-increasing threat to our national security. In order to meet this challenge America must support a continuous defense program of unprecedented magnitude. Peace costs money . . . so individual savings in Savings Bonds helps sustain the defense burden and reduces the need for inflationary borrowing from the banking system . . . this in turn helps to safeguard the value of the dollar.

National defense, President Kennedy points out, cannot be neglected. It must be financed at whatever cost, so, to the extent that tax revenues fall short the government must borrow. That is where Savings Bonds play their most important part since too much reliance on bank credit as a source of funds could be disastrous . . . on the other hand borrowing from the public via the Savings Bonds route is safe and contributes to the stability of the dollar and fortifies the general economy.

Again when the banks lend less to the government they have more funds to finance free enterprise, the backbone of American independence. This capital generates the productive power of the nation and provides goods and jobs . . . money alone cannot generate better living for people, it must be working money which is soundly invested money.

Nothing is sounder than Savings Bonds where money does double duty.

For young people their purchase promotes thrift . . . for the older people more security.

The Government Moves In

The refusal of TVA to buy electrical equipment after 47 firms submitted identical bids is now known to have been a major factor in the probe of the anti-trust conspiracy among major manufacturers of electrical equipment. The Authority purchased in 1959 a 500,000 kw turbogenerator from Parson & Co., Ltd., of England for $13,140,700. That was $6 million less than the identical bids of General Electric and Westinghouse.

Senator Estes Kefauver's committee took note of the situation and promptly kicked off a sweeping investigation that resulted last week in fines against 29 giant companies and 44 of their executives for bid-rigging and price-fixing in violation of the Sherman Anti-trust Law.

Seven executives were given 30-day jail terms and twenty-four others suspended 30-day jail terms but were placed on five-year probation. General Electric and Westinghouse, the nation's biggest, drew the largest fines: $437,500 for GE and $382,000 for Westinghouse. Sixteen GE executives were fined a total of $55,000 and fourteen from Westinghouse were fined $27,000.

It is heartening to know that this government is still bigger than those who would flaunt its laws. In the case above these firms were at the top of the ladder. Their legal talent knew the law was being violated . . . of that there can be no question.

Last week this newspaper deplored the loss of this nation's foreign trade and called attention to some of the basic reasons, mainly our over-generous foreign aid that has enabled many of the once impoverished countries to not only force us out of markets abroad but invade our own domestic market to the extent that many of our own factories are idle and our sales channels glutted with cheap foreign-made goods.

Now we must add still another reason . . . unwillingness of big business to play fair. It is reminiscent of the time FDR broke the back of the power trust by forcing the combines to dissolve and by proving that power could be produced and marketed profitably at only a fraction of that charged by the power companies in the Tennessee Valley.

With our government acting in behalf of the people the picture looks indeed brighter.

BENEFIT BASKETBALL GAMES SET AT KILLEN

The Killen High School basketball team will play against the Killen PTA in a game tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. at Killen with proceeds from the event to be used for the interest of the school.

Another game will be played at Killen on Friday night, February 24 at 7:00 p.m. At that time, the Killen Lions Club will be the opponents of the Florence Jaycees with the proceeds from this event to be used for eye conservation.

Everyone is urged to attend both events.

Russians Launch Venus Rocket

Russia orbited a new "heavy" Sputnik carrying a 1,415-pound piggy back spaceship which was detached on command from earth and sent on an interplanetary flight to Venus with a Soviet flag in its nose, Sunday. The announcement was made when the spaceship was nearly 100,000 miles from earth on a three-month space voyage that will give man his first contact with the other planets, if all goes well. The "interplanetary space station" rocket should reach Venus, the evening star, in the latter half of May to plant the emblem, just as Lunik II planted the hammer and sickle on the moon in 1959.

Young Girls Free Under Bond

Morgan county Judge R. L. Hundley of Juvenile Court, made the ruling that cases against Linda Higdon and Dorothy Holt, both 13, who are accused of stabbing Willene Hill, 13, an 8th grade classmate at Danville High School, in Decatur, will be handled in Juvenile Court since they are under 14 years of age. Both girls are charged with assault with intent to murder and are free under $750 bond each. The injured girl has been dismissed from Hartselle Hospital. No date for a Juvenile Court hearing on the cases has been set pending an investigation by the Department of Pensions and Security, which serves as probation office in such cases.

Weaver Appointment Approved

The Senate Banking Committee approved President Kennedy's choice of Robert C. Weaver to be Federal Housing administrator Wednesday after a stormy hearing. The 11-4 vote cleared the way for the entire Senate to consider the appointment which would make Weaver the nation's highest ranking Negro Federal official with a salary of $21,000 a year. Those opposed to Weaver were Committee Chairman A. Willis Robertson, (D., Va.) Sens. John Sparkman, (D., Ala.), William A. Blakley, (D., Tex.), and Wallace F. Bennett, (R., Utah).

Convicted Executives Start Sentences

John H. Chiles, Jr., 57, Sharon, Pa., and Charles I. Mauntel, 60, Drexel Hill, Pa., two Westinghouse Electric Corporation executives, convicted for illegally fixing prices and rigging bids to stifle competition, began their thirty-day prison sentence Friday. Five other high-salaried executives who will start their jail terms shortly were given a week to arrange their personal affairs by Judge J. Cullen Ganey. In winding up the criminal portions of the government's 18-month investigation of the electrical power industry, Judge Ganey fined 29 firms and 44 of their executives a total of $1,924,500.

Lumumba Killed After Escape

The Katanga government announced Monday that deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba and two political associates who escaped Thursday from a farmhouse where they had been kept prisoner west of Elisabethville, were killed by African villagers. Worried diplomats feared the stage was set for civil war between his faction and the not-always-allied forces of Tshombe. The U.N. Command reported two opposing Congo armies were converging on Bumba, a river town of the frontier of Lumumba-aligned Oriental Province and a third force of Katanga soldiers was on the move in its own province; the troop movements heightened UN officials' anxiety that full-scale civil war might break out.

Soviet President "Fired On" By French

A French spokesman confirmed Thursday that French aircraft jets intercepted a Soviet Ilyushin-18 and fired warning shots at it, but only when the Soviet aircraft failed to reply to radio calls for identification. Aboard the Soviet plane was Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev who was enroute to Africa. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, in a protest, demanded punishment of those guilty for the alleged attack and measures to prevent a recurrence and asked to be informed of what the French government was doing about it.

Mrs. Inis Wilson Wins Favorite Teacher Title

Editor: One of our county teachers, Mrs. Inis Wilson, of Waterloo High School, has been nominated as favorite teacher in the contest of that name sponsored by the Birmingham Post-Herald.

Mrs. Wilson has been teaching in this county since 1954, and prior to that time taught in other parts of Alabama.

She is well qualified for such an honor. She received her B.S. from Jacksonville, and M. S. from Auburn, where she was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, National Honorary Society for Education Majors.

Since coming to this county, Mrs. Wilson has not only performed her teaching duties in an admirable manner, but has taken an active part in community affairs. She is at present a Sunday school teacher at the Waterloo Baptist Church. Mrs. Wilson is active also in ent she is serving as secretary of the Supervisory Committee of the Lauderdale County Teachers Credit Union, and as group leader of the Business Teachers in the Lauderdale County Education Association.

In addition to her duties as business teacher at Waterloo, she is advisor to the local FEBA chapter, and sponsor of the yearbook, The Water Lily, and of the school paper, the Water Lu-Lu. Several years ago, the latter received the George Washington Medal from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge.

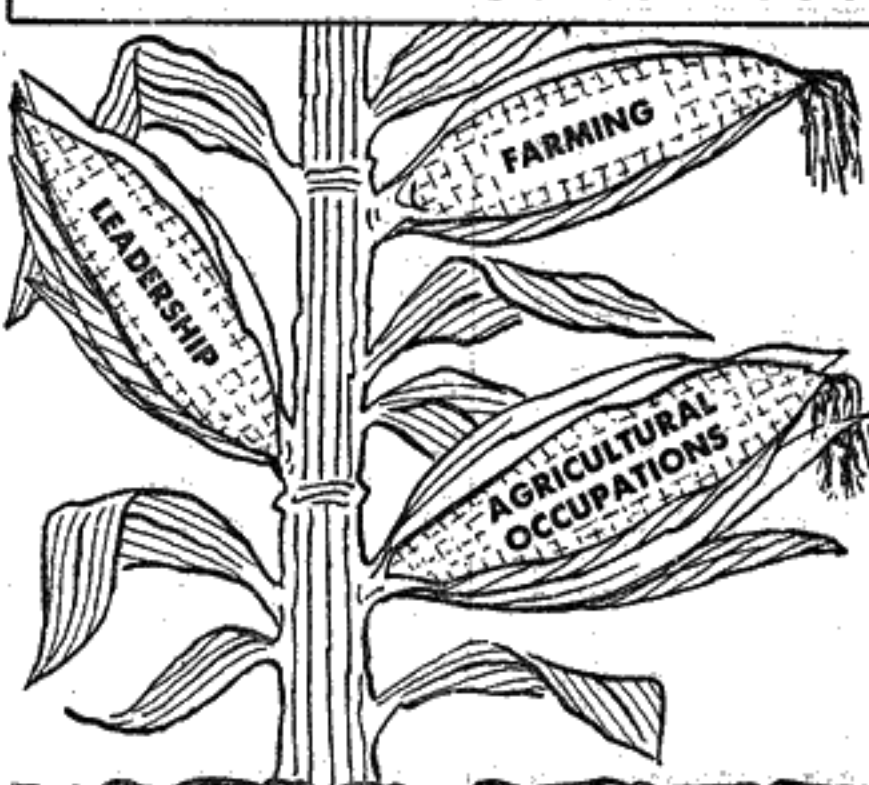

Letters commending Mrs. Wilson may be written to the "Favorite Teacher Editor," Birmingham Post-Herald, Birmingham, Alabama.

I believe that this teacher is worthy of such recognition.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs.) Rose Buettner

Personality Sketches

By ANN MATHIAS

ALLEN MERRILL NORTHINGTON

"Although a resident of Florence since 1948, I might be classified as a newcomer when viewed from the long and interesting history of our city, but, from my vantage point as an architect, I have been privileged better than most to see the community grow and develop to such an extent that it is almost unbelievable when we see what has taken place in such a short period of time," Mr. Northington said as he looked back over his 12 years in Florence.

"The growth in population is matched by the growth in every type of construction. The growth of schools have been an amazing thing to me. The "face-lifting" of the entire community is a show of progress and when it is realized that we have everything here for industrial growth—cheap electric power, natural gas, water and rail transportation, abundance of good water, a good supply of labor—there is no limit to our future accomplishments," Mr. Northington continued. "This area is definitely the envy of the entire state," he concluded.

Allen Merrill Northington was born December 3, 1918, in Prattville, the son of Allen and Kemper Welch Northington. When he was three years old, his parents moved to Montgomery where he attended Cloverdale Elementary School and was graduated from Sidney Lanier High School in 1936. Following his graduation from high school, Mr. Northington entered Auburn Polytechnic Institute where he received his Bachelor of Architecture degree in 1941.

While in high school, Mr. Northington was a member of the Ushers Club and the Hi-Y Club. He was Vice-President of his senior class.

Mr. Northington worked his way through Auburn waiting on tables at school and delivering special delivery letters for the post office after school hours. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta social fraternity and served as house manager. He was also a member of Scarrab, Honorary Architectural fraternity. Upon his graduation from Auburn, Mr. Northington was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

In 1941, following his graduation from Auburn, he entered the Army and was assigned to the Corps of Engineers, Mobile District. His first assignment was on the construction of Camp Rucker which was followed by the construction of air bases at Marianna, Florida; Laurel, Mississippi and other locations. Further assignments were on the construction of cantonments and other facilities in the Mobile and Savannah Districts. In 1946, Mr. Northington was discharged with the rank of Major.

Following his discharge from the Army, Mr. Northington returned to Montgomery where he accepted a position with Sherlock, Smith and Adams, architectural firm. He remained with this firm until 1948 when he moved to Florence.

Mr. Northington was married to Audrey Johnson, of Florence, January 1, 1942. They have three sons, Allen, Jr., 18, a senior at Coffee High School; James Wright, 16, a sophomore at Coffee and Neill Kemper, 5, a student at Mrs. Dabry's Kindergarten.

Following his arrival in Florence, Mr. Northington formed a partnership with the late Ray Turner, under the firm name of Turner and Northington. After Mr. Turner's death in 1950, he operated as an individual under the firm name until 1955 when he formed a partnership with Malcolm Smith and Lloyd A. Kranert.

The firm, Northington, Smith and Kranert has contributed greatly to the growth and beauty of Florence, Lauderdale County and the surrounding areas through the designing of industrial, commercial and residential buildings. Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital, the Municipal Building, the Stylon Plants and numerous schools in the city and county are only a few of the important structures the firm has designed. The firm is supervising architects for the Florence State College buildings now under construction, which include two dormitories and a student union building.

He is a member and immediate past president of Alabama Chapter, American Institute of Architects. Mr. Northington served as co-chairman of the United Fund Campaign in 1957 and president of the United Fund in 1958. He is a member and past president of the Chamber of Commerce and is now serving on the Board of Directors. He is vice-president of the Tennessee Valley Council of Boy Scouts of America, a member of the Rotary Club, a member of Florence-Lauderdale Post No. 11, American Legion and has served as chairman of the Florence Planning Board since 1950. He is an active member of Trinity Episcopal Church and is a past member of the vestry. Mr. Northington is a member of Turtle Point Yacht and Country Club.

When time permits, Mr. Northington enjoys swimming, boating and fishing as means of recreation. Mr. Northington has given of his time and energy to every worthwhile community endeavor and his willingness to serve the many organizations that are charged with improving the general conditions of the area and its people is most commendable.

In connection with the shop work and training given the boys the members helped buy two electric welders. The money was earned by the members selling concessions at the ball games.

Seven of these Future Farmers are working toward State Farmer degrees. In the contest which the chapter plans to enter the following categories are planned: (1) Corn growing; (2) land judging; (3) tractor driving; (4) dairy judging; (5) livestock judging. Other activities include a pig chain in which fourteen members are participating; the purchase of a purebred Berkshire boar for cross-breeding for chapter and community; will enter six beef calves in the fat calf shows of Florence and Birmingham. Plans are underway for an educational tour this summer to include Alabama, Florida and Georgia.

In Alabama, soybean production has increased from a little over one million bushels in 1950 to three and one-half million bushels in 1960. U. S. production has increased over 100 times since 1925.

Land Bank Manager Attends Two-Day Meeting Held In Montgomery

L. N. Thompson, Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Florence, has returned this week from a two - day cooperative short course held in Montgomery and sponsored by the Alabama Council of Farmer Cooperatives. The group was addressed by Dr. E. T. York and Dr. Fred Roberson. They discussed ways and means of increasing Alabama farm income. Specific ways were pointed out for the better handling of livestock, pastures, dairying, poultry, and other crops, and the thought expressed that in many instances present income could be doubled within the next ten years. Methods of implementing the program were discussed by the Farmers Supply and Marketing Group, E. B. Johnson, chairman; Farm Credit Group, E. E. Alexander, chairman; Insurance Group, E. L. Lowder, chairman; and the Rural Electric Cooperatives, John Griswold, chairman.

The Bank for Cooperatives, in session for its annual stockholders' meeting, was host at a luncheon for the entire group. In an informal meeting of representatives of the Farm Credit Banks of New Orleans, John L. Ryan, General Agent, stated that there would be many opportunities for them to support the program, especially in the sound extension of farm credit.

Late News

Seventy-three persons among which were fifty-four Americans including the entire U.S. figure skating team perished Wednesday in a flaming crash of a Sabena Belgian Airlines jet on flight from New York to Brussels, Belgium. The huge plane slammed to earth beside a woods three miles north of Brussels International Airport and went up in flames fed by fuel oil as the tanks exploded one by one. Mrs. Maribel Vinson Owen, 49, of Winchester, Mass., nine times the U.S. figure skating champion, was killed along with her two daughters who were members of the current team; the girls were Laurence Owen, 16, who won the North American championships at Philadelphia and Maribel Owen, 20. There were no survivors.

President Kennedy appointed four advisers on reorganization of the machinery of government Saturday who will work as individual specialists rather than as a committee. The four appointees are Robert A. Lovett, New York investment banker and a former secretary of defense and under-secretary of state; Richard E. Neustadt, professor of government at Columbia University and who has been Kennedy's special consultant on organization problems; Don K. Price, dean of the graduate School of Public Administration at Harvard University; and Sydney Stein, Jr., of Chicago, investment counselor, who formerly was an official of the Budget Bureau dealing with management and organization matters. The four will receive no salary but will be paid consultant's fees when serving.

Hundreds of white persons and Negroes, North and South, observed emancipator Abraham Lincoln's birthday with demonstrations against segregated motion picture theaters and in some instances pairs of white youths and Negroes made unsuccessful attempts to get into all-white sections of Southern theaters. One theater was picketed in San Antonio, Texas, two in Dallas, three in Houston and four at Austin while outside theatres in New York, Boston and Chicago which do not segregate Negroes, students also demonstrated. The protest was against segregation policies of movie houses owned by American Broadcasting - Paramount Theaters Inc. in the South.

Birmingham Church Scene Wright-Stubley Nuptials

An evening ceremony in St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Birmingham, marked the exchange of vows between Frances Elaine Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ira Wright of Florence, and Robinson Houghton Stubley, Jr., of Birmingham and Knoxville, Tennessee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stubley of Knoxville, on Saturday, February eleven.

The Reverend David Cady Wright, rector of the church, was the officiating clergyman.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her gown of handclipped Chantilly lace over bridal satin was designed with a molded bodice and voluminous floor-length skirt which extended to form a small train. Lace scalloped re-embroidered with sequins and pearls delineated the sweetheart neckline and the brief sleeves, and a jeweled crown secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. With her white prayer book she carried a white orchid bouquet.

Miss Barbara Ann Bowman of Jackson, Mississippi, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a frock of white peau de soie detailed with short sleeves and split bateau neckline in a close-fitting bodice, a jeweled belt and bell shaped skirt. A matching bandeau with float veil and a cascade bouquet of Valentine-red roses were complementary features.

David Stubley was his brother's best man and ushers were Glenn Donald and John A. Hauser of Birmingham.

Mrs. Wright chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath of moth Chantilly lace and Mrs. Stubley, mother of the bridegroom, was in champagne-colored brocade.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's parents honored their daughter and her husband with a reception in St. Mary's Parish House. Assisting were Miss Martha Phillips, Miss Sandra Damsey and Mrs. John A. Hauser, all of Birmingham. Miss India Barger of Trussville and Miss Delores Crosby. Among those present from Florence were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Wright, Jr., and Myron Wright.

Upon their return from a Florida honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Stubley will be at home at 2533 Beverly Drive, Birmingham.

Miss McCarty, Mr. Roberts Wed In Early Evening Vows

Only family members and close family friends were present for the ceremony of Saturday, February third, when Nancy Byrd McCarty and William Sidney Roberts exchanged marriage vows at half past six o'clock in the evening. The parlor of North Wood Methodist Church was the setting.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander McCarty of 654 Sannoner Avenue, and Ernest Ray Roberts of 124 West Lelia Street, and the late Mrs. Roberts.

The Reverend T. J. Chitwood, pastor of the church, was the officiating clergyman and musical selections were presented by Mrs. Willard Shaw.

Tall white tapers in branched candelabra and basket arrangements of white gladioli detailed the improvised altar. Wearing pale blue and gold frocks with organza overskirts and white carnation corsages, Miss Lucia Miree of Huntsville and Miss Cynthia Yulille, cousins of the bride, served as candelighters.

Mrs. Larry Montgomery, in a lilac frock with small matching feathered hat and white glamelias as her flowers, was the bride's honor attendant; Ernest Ray Roberts, Jr., of Selma was his brother's best man.

Mr. McCarty gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white woolen suit, small hat of white flowers and green leaves and luster green accessories, and with her prayer book she carried a white orchid encircled with white carnations.

Mrs. McCarty chose for the occasion a street-length gown of shell pink lace and matching hat.

Assisting at the reception which followed the ceremony were Mrs. Lewis Yulille, Mrs. P. F. Walton and Miss Nancy Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are now at home in Florence State College Apartments and Mr. Roberts is continuing his college courses.

Perry Marie Broadfoot, John Dabney, Jr. Wed

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thomas Broadfoot of the marriage of their daughter, Perry Marie, to John Perry Dabney, Jr., son of Mrs. Clifford Simmons of Hickory Hills, Florence, and the late John Perry Dabney.

Nuptial vows were pledged in Decatur on Thursday, February ninth.

Now returned from a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Dabney are at home at 2016 Hickory Hills Road.

Newton-Pate Vows Sold In January

Solemnized in Woodward Avenue Baptist Church on Wednesday, January 25, was the marriage of Miss La Neatia Joyette Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Newton, Rt. 1, Lexington, and Russell Foster Pate, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Foster Pate of Phil Campbell. The Reverend Andy Hardy, minister of the church, read the half-past-four o'clock vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white wool jersey street-length dress with rhinestone accents. A white fur hat and muff were her only accessories complementing the white orchid atop the white Bible which she carried.

Miss Jean Dawson of Town Creek served as maid of honor and was attired in a Nile green princess style wool dress with which she carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Fashioned in a green velvet princess style dress accented with a green vari-colored feathered hat was Miss Patricia Kinnear of Tusculumbia who was the only bridesmaid; she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Tom Drinkard of Huntsville served Mr. Pate as best man. Ushers included Dick Smallwood of Huntsville and Garreth Wells.

Following the ceremony was the reception at Sammie's Cellar in Florence, after which Mr. and Mrs. Pate began their honeymoon. They are now at home on East Street in Moulton where he is employed.

Mrs. Simmons Courtsies To Son's Bride, Tuesday Tea

A Valentine's Day courtesy to Mrs. John Perry Dabney, Jr., bride of last Thursday, was the late afternoon party to which the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Clifford Simmons, was hostess at her home on Hickory Hills Road, including among her guests members of the Nemon Club and other school friends of the honoree.

A traditional Valentine theme was noted throughout the party rooms. Veiled in a pink satin cloth, the silver appointed and candle-lit tea table was centered with a lace-frilled bouquet of pink-shading-to-red carnations in a crystal compote, and the same colors were echoed in the party dainties.

Wearing a shell pink sheath of lightweight wool and a tinted-to-match orchid at her shoulder, the honor guest received informally with her hostess and her mother, Mrs. Clyde Thomas Broadfoot.

Mrs. Simmons was assisted during the appointed hour of four 'til five by her mother, Mrs. Helen Williams of Tusculumbia and the bridegroom's cousin, Miss Betty Darnall.

Miss Dinah Gail Behel Bride Alden Porter Thigpen

Before an ivy-entwined arch against a background of greenery, Dinah Gail Behel became the bride of Alden Porter Thigpen in Jacksonburg Church of Christ on Saturday evening, February eleventh, with Cuthie Quillen, uncle of the bridegroom, officiating in the half past seven o'clock ceremony.

Baskets of white gladioli and branched candelabra of tall white tapers completed the nuptial setting and wedding music was presented by Miss Sue Harrison and Don Harrison.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN FOSTER PATE

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cleveland Behel of Chisholm Road, Florence, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Porter Thigpen of St. Joseph, Tennessee.

Mr. Behel gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown of lace and bridal satin, the handiwork of her mother, featured a modified Sabrina neckline which dipped to a V at the back, with small self-covered buttons extending to the pointed waistline. Long sleeves pointing at the wrists were likewise fastened with small buttons. Lace appliques distinguished the floor-length skirt, full-gathered at the sides and extending to form a slight train.

Her veil of silk illusion cascaded to fingertip length from a crown of lace re-embroidered with seed pearls, and with her bride's Bible she carried a white orchid showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Rita Sue Graben and Miss Judith Ann Cabler, wearing pink organza over taffeta, attended the bride. Their frocks were detailed with V necklines and balloon skirts with wide, crushed cummerbunds. They wore small hats of matching material with tiny face veils and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Martha Quillen, in blue taffeta and Jimmy Behel, brother of the bride, were candelighters. Charles Thigpen served his brother as best man and ushers were Doyle Jacobs of Nashville and Larry Watkins.

Mrs. Behel chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of wine-colored French crepe, matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations; Mrs. Thigpen, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in purple wool complemented by matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Leaving later for their honeymoon, the bride was wearing a Spring model of green wool, black accessories and, at her shoulder, the orchid from her corsage. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Thigpen will be at home on Chisholm Road.

Coming from out-of-town for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Rayford B. Grimes and their daughter and son, Miss Martha Grimes and Louis Grimes of Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gist of Graysville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Behel and children, Ann and Kay of Anniston.

Mr. Mrs. Whitten Mark Golden Wedding Anniversary

Arrangements of gold-tinted chrysanthemums and gladioli were used about the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Whitten on Sunday afternoon when family members and a large assemblage of longtime friends gathered to extend congratulations to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Whitten of Gunwaleford Road, on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Receiving with the honor guests were their daughters, Lorene (Mrs. Loren Dhority) and Doris (Mrs. Robert Smith, Jr.) and their sons, Wilburn, L. L., Jr., and Jack. Another daughter, Dorothy (Mrs. Chas. Cox), is in Germany with her U.S. Army husband.

A white lace cloth over gold covered the party table where a tiered and decorated cake was served with other party dainties by daughters-in-law and two granddaughters, Sandra Whitten and Brenda Dhority.

The "bride-of-fifty years" wore for the occasion a lavender gown of lightweight wool and a matching orchid corsage.

About a hundred and fifty guests called during the party hours of two 'til five and numerous gifts were received by the fete couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wade are expected home late this month: after a stay at their winter home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Miss Carolyn Holt To Wed In Early Summer

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thomas Holt have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Carolyn, to Lowell McFerrin Guthrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall Guthrie, all of Florence.

The prospective bridegroom is a student at Florence State College. Plans for a June wedding will be announced later.

Discussion Club Hears Mrs. Frost, Guest Speaker

Mrs. Karl Tyree and Mrs. Simpson Johnson were hostesses on last Thursday afternoon to the February meeting of Florence Discussion Club, entertaining at the home of the former on Cleveland Avenue.

Eighteen members were present to hear Mrs. William Frost, whose programs are looked-forward-to with a great deal of pleasure, review Elizabeth Ruggles' biography of Vachel Lindsay, "The West-Going Heart." "Altho' Mr. Lindsay's poems are deeply religious, his chief aim seems to have been to bring poetry appreciation to the masses," said Mrs. Frost of the poet whose hometown, Springfield, Mass., she has visited to his home.

Wesley Patton presided at the tea-table following the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Labors are visiting in Florence, Fla.

Miss Emma Hayes Wade and her father, O. C. Wade, of Nashville were recent guests of his niece, Mrs. John E. McDonald, Sr., and Mr. McDonald on Highland Drive. A reunion of Wade family members was a feature of their Florence visit.

Heflin Is Captain Quarterback Club

"Buck" Marsh Elected Alternate Captain Of Tri-Cities Organization

Howell Heflin, prominent Tusculum attorney, was elected Captain of the Tri-Cities Quarterback Club at the annual election at Florence Golf and Country Club Tuesday night. Malcolm L. (Buck) Marsh, Jr., of Florence, was elected Alternate Captain.

Other officers named by the membership were Tommy Tanner, Quarterback or Secretary, and the following managers of the Team, or Board of Directors: Sam Esslinger, Jr., and John Bowser, of Florence; and Buddy Hudson and John Albert Pace, of Sheffield.

Charles T. Finney, of Florence, who has directed the club for the past most successful year, was given a tribute by the membership as well as a piece of luggage presented by Ripper Williams in behalf of the club. Sam Carter, of Sheffield, who served as quarterback for the past year, also was praised and presented a piece of luggage.

Featuring the annual occasion was an address by Coach Wall Butts, of Georgia, who recently relinquished his coaching duties and assumed the post of Athletic Director of that university.

Full of interesting and often hilarious stories on the great and near great of football, Coach Butts delighted his audience with his address which was a fitting climax to a splendid and most enjoyable year in which club members of the Tri-Cities area found true fellowship in their meetings.

Distinguished guests for the occasion were Bo Russell, former Auburn great and current Southeastern Conference official; Charlie Boswell, former University of Alabama football star, World War II hero and famed blind golf champion; Coaches Hal Self and George Weeks, of Florence State, and Coach Joe Grant of Coffee High.

WORLD FARM PRODUCTION HEADED FOR NEW RECORD

World output of farm products in the year ending June 30, 1961, may outpace population increase and set an all-time record, predicts A. W. Jones, Auburn Extension marketing specialist.

The United States, Mainland China, and the Soviet Union, the three largest producers, will probably account for about 40 percent of the total. On a per capita basis, U. S. production will probably be about twice that of Russia and about four times that of China. However, Canada may equal our production per person, and Australia and New Zealand may double it.

THE SPILLWAY

We're seeing signs
That spring has sprung
Which makes us HOPE
Winter's had its flung!

AND THIS PAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON found many of us out enjoying the sunshine. Looking like experienced hikers along the lanes of Edgemont section Mary Lewis and Bertha Klenova were seen enjoying themselves. . . . And taking the West Alabama street hills at a brisk pace (and looking like "the real sports") we noticed three of our prominent business executives—Ben Craig, Bill Mitchell and "Pete" King. . . . then driving on a little farther, we saw (Dentist) "Pinky" Doss out practicing his golf shots with his two sons, Charles and Jim. We join them all in hoping for more of the same, as far as weather is concerned.

MAYBE THE REASON our weather was on its best behavior was obvious: we had some of our favorite visitors in town—The (Dr.) Chunn Parsons were up from Birmingham to visit daughter Lynn and Jimmy Johnson, along with young "Woody" and Lisa. (And we're happy to hear that grandparents-Parsons' visit has had the desired affect, and Lisa is improving rapidly and is preparing to bid adieu to her new friends—the nurses at the hospital). . . . And Bonnie Daniel has been here with her two young daughters to visit her MANY friends who just wish she had decided to come back here to live instead of moving to Arizona. . . . And, of course, we're always happy to see Mary Craig (Roberts) Marshall with little Martha and Robert up from Mobile for a few days. Hear that her relatives, the (Dr.) Shaler Roberts, Jr., and the George McBurneys, feted her with a very "glamorous" (quote) soiree on last Saturday night, where a large number of friends and neighbors greeted the honoree.

A CHARMING HOSTESS OF LAST WEEK was Britton Hassall who had a surprise birthday party for sweet-sixteen (as of that day) Hallie Harlan Darby—including six close friends who've gone through school together. Understand that Hallie was excused from school that day in order to take her driver's test so that she could "pick up the crowd" to attend the party. Must've all made this the most exciting birthday in about sixteen years for this young lady!

THE GREAT AMONG US—Madame Spillway's biggest handshake and congratulations go out this week to Harold May (our boss) who is now President May of the Alabama Press Association. We're always proud to have our fair city "put on the map" by one of our citizens' being recognized by such a widespread organization as this one. . . . Also understand that Catherine Norton, as president of the Alabama Federation of Music Clubs, is quite the busy person these days, and we just know what a fine leader she is making for this group.

REPRESENTED IN NEW ORLEANS this week by our Coffee High School band, we have more reason to be proud. We'll bet that there wasn't a better band in the Mardi Gras parade than this one—easy on the eyes AND ears.

SPEAKING OF MARDI GRAS, we hear that Ann and Ben Craig joined in a very festive celebration in Decatur last week, at the Beaux Arts Ball—which included a pre-ball party and a post-ball breakfast. . . . and we KNOW that Ann in her can-can costume was the real belle of the ball!

A DIPLOMAT is the twelve-year-old who has won the favor of Hallie Foy. . . . and rightly so. A regular caller in his rounds collecting scrap paper to help with the family living, this youngster told his benefactor that he was going to send her a Valentine. Mrs. Foy objected with the advice that she did not go for Valentines and he should save his money. However, on Valentine morning he showed up at the Foy home and when greeted at the door by Mrs. Foy, he said: "I told you I was going to send you a Valentine but I just could not find one beautiful enough for you." And what a Valentine that was. . . .

A POST-SCRIPT to last week's column—we mentioned the Florida vacation being enjoyed by "Lollie" and Preston Reeder. . . . but then we didn't know about the just-as-much-fun-time that their young daughter, Laura Ann and son, Linden were having—dividing their time between the lake home of "Uncle Fuzzy" Peritt and that of the John Hatfields. And understand they were at the latter place this week to help celebrate the Valentine birthday of the Hatfield's thirteen-year-old daughter, Mary Wills, on Tuesday.

MORE SUBSTITUTE PARENTS recently have been Marge and Fred Osborn, while Archie and Bob took off for Memphis, and Clyde and Karl Tyree, pinch-hitting for Henry and Dorthea while they enjoyed a visit in their former home-town of Knoxville.

UNTIL MORE NEWS COMES THROUGH THE SPILLWAY. . . .

Firenze Club Meets

With Mrs. Powell

Mrs. W. Harvey Adams, program chairman for the last-Thursday meeting of Florence Firenze Club, chose for reviewing John Gunther's biography of Albert D. Lasker entitled "Taken At The Flood."

In pinpointing highlights of her subject's career, Mrs. Adams mentioned that he was recognized as "the father of modern advertising" and that during his active years in the advertising field (between 1898 and 1942) he became a man of great wealth; that he devoted the last ten years of his life to medical research, promoting the founding of a grant to be used as an aid toward furtherance of education in that field; that, dedicated to his beliefs, he "probably influenced American habits more than any other man of his time."

Mrs. J. W. Powell, hostess at her home on Kendrick Street, included Mrs. Barksdale Jordan and Mrs. Rufus Hibbert in the hospitality.

Following the program, Miss Julia Neal and Mrs. Jordan poured coffee and served salad from opposite ends of the teatable where a Valentine motif was noted in the appointments.

Mrs. Andrew J. Darby will be hostess to the March meeting and Stanley Rosenbaum will be guest speaker.

O'Neal Hall Scene

Valentine Open House

A gracious setting on any occasion, the lounge at O'Neal Hall on Florence State College campus presented a pretty picture to guests arriving there at teatime on Sunday when the one hundred and forty hostesses (resident girls) entertained at their "home-away-from-home."

Lace-frilled and heart-shaped invitations had gone out the previous week to President and Mrs. E. B. Norton, faculty and staff members with wives and husbands included, and parents and grandparents of the hostess group.

A Valentine motif prevailed throughout the party area which included the three "dorm" floors of the building. Placed with the fireplace mantel as a background, the silver-appointed teatable was covered with a full-flounced cloth of red net over taffeta and centered with an arrangement of red carnations and white stock. A branched candelabrum of tall white tapers lighted the setting where punch and small heart-shaped cakes were served with accompanying dainties between the hours of three and five.

Mrs. Melville Burns, dormitory social director, assisted with the courtesies.

Invited guests numbered four hundred.

Guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bowling, Lewis Ave., are her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Reece Barnsley of Little Rock, Ark.

After a lengthy hospital experience following injuries received in an accident, Johnny Darby is continuing convalescence at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Darby on Courtney Ave., Edgemont.

Mrs. Cresap Hostess

Thursday Study Club

Members of Thursday Study Club were welcomed by Mrs. Bernarr Cresap at four o'clock last Thursday afternoon at her home on McBurney Drive.

Mrs. D. H. Bowling was in charge of the program and, after a brief business period, presented a review of Vance Packard's "Waste Makers," a frank account of the attitudes which are being "sold" to the buying public by producers and marketers, thereby encouraging a tremendous and increasing wanton wastefulness.

A profusion of pink petunias blossoming here and there brought Springtime charm indoors to the seventeen members who were present.

Mrs. W. Lonnie Davis and Mrs. Elmer Russell assisted the hostess during the tea hour.

Morning Coffee Honors

Mrs. Ingram On Birthday

A complete surprise to the honoree of the occasion was the coffee of Saturday morning when Mrs. Mason Ingram was hostess at her home on Lake Wilson as a compliment to her mother-in-law, Mrs. Ben B. Ingram, whose birthday inspired the event.

Lured to the party rendezvous by the ingenuity of a "conspirator," the honor guest was greeted upon arrival by her two young granddaughters, Tricia and Becky, who pinned a corsage of pink gladioli at their grandmother's shoulder and ushered her into the party setting.

Pink and lavender, favorite colors of the milestone celebrant, were noted in the dresses worn by the two junior hostesses, in the flowering background, and in the dainty refreshments served from a prettily appointed table. A mixed bouquet of pink carnations, lavender chrysanthemums and French heather fashioned the centerpiece.

Longtime family neighbors included in the informal gathering were Mrs. Leo King, Mrs. H. P. Lucas, Miss Mary Shepard, Mrs. E. W. Henley, Miss Gladys Shepard, Mrs. A. J. Trousdale, Mrs. Julian Nance, Mrs. Donald White, Mrs. H. T. Ferguson, Mrs. Frank Crow, Mrs. J. F. Crow, Mrs. Thomas Bennett, Miss Virta Jones, Mrs. W. C. Holesapple, Mrs. G. G. Glover, Mrs. B. V. Bender, Miss Mary Rogers, Miss Katherine Forney and Mrs. I. N. Pitts, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Haltom were in Huntsville last week end where Mr. Haltom was principal speaker at the Alabama Press Association meeting. Little Emily Haltom was a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Morris, during her parents' absence.

Thomas Trowbridge, a senior student at Howey Academy, Howey-in-the-Hills, Fla., spent the between-semesters interim with his mother, Mrs. Ezell Trowbridge, Stewart Ave.

Miss Dee Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weakley Cunningham of 1029 N. Pine St., and a student at Florida State in Tallahassee, will attend festivities this week end at the Military Academy in West Point, N. Y. with Bill Calhoun as her host.

Mrs. Robert Franks and children have returned to their home in Nashville after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Theodore Gerber, and Mr. Gerber, on North Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Morris are leaving today for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Mitchell Smith (Elsie Morris) in Valdosta, Ga. They will also vacation for a few days in Florida before returning home.

Miss Julia Neal will be in Nashville tomorrow to take part in the Word-Fest Program at Belmont College, going from there to her former home, Auburn, Ky., for a weekend visit.

The Rev. T. J. Chitwood of North Wood Methodist Church is a medical patient at ECM Hospital. His condition is reported as satisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Craig, Jr., were in Decatur Friday evening for the annual Fancy Dress Charity Ball sponsored by the Decatur Service League. Mr. and Mrs. Luke Pryor were their hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Tyree and son, Buddy, motored to Knoxville on Friday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Holmes. They returned Sunday evening.

Dr. Lyman Mitchell and his mother, Mrs. Leo Mitchell, left Sunday by private plane for Panama City, Fla., where they were called by the sudden death of their brother and son, Dr. Whitman Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Brown have returned from a brief visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sherer and children, Melane, Brown, Ray, Jr., John and Hayes in Brewton, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McDonald and sons, Gary and Jeff, have returned to their home on West Alabama St., after a weekend with friends in Tuscaloosa.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hardie, Jr., were called to Decatur a few days ago by the death of Mrs. Hardie's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson were in Tuscaloosa for a weekend visit with their daughter and son, Susanne and Lloyd, Jr., and attended while there the "Bama-Florida basketball game."

Mrs. Lamar Lee of Washington, D.C., is here this week with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Gregory, a recent surgical patient at ECM Hospital who now continues convalescence at her home, 510 N. Poplar St. Mr. Lee joined the family group for a Friday-Sunday stay.

Rogersville FFA Plans Program

The Rogersville FFA chapter is making plans for National FFA Week Feb. 18-24. The chapter plans to present an assembly program to the student body to better acquaint the students with the meaning of the organization.

The chapter will also hold the chapter eliminations in soil judging and tractor driving a few days before the week starts so that the winners will have more time to prepare for further competition.

The Rogersville chapter is being led by James Lard, President; Donnie Behel, Vice-President; Alton Bedingfield, Secretary; Lonnie Smith, Treasurer; Harris Haraway, Reporter; and James E. Green, Sentinel.

The following boys are getting a good start with their productive projects by purchasing certified pure-bred sows: Ray Goodmay, Harold McConnell, and Alton Bedingfield.

The following boys are planning to apply for State Farmer Degrees that will be awarded during the State FFA Convention at Auburn in June: James Lard, Alton Bedingfield, Harris Haraway, Donnie Behel and Eugene Ezell.

Safety Record Set At Union Carbide

Friday, February 10, marked a very special occasion for the crew members of the Traffic and Raw Materials Department of the Sheffield Plant of the Union Carbide Metals Company. It was the day they completed exactly ten years without a lost-time accident or disabling injury. The department has worked safely together as a group for over 500,000 man hours.

The present crew carries a complement of 23 persons, but has ranged from 19 to 28 men over the last ten years.

Dorsey Orchestra Plays Tonight At Florence Coliseum

One of America's most popular dance bands, the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, starring Warren Covington

WARREN COVINGTON

ington, will be in Florence for a dance tonight from 8 p.m. until 12, it was announced by the Florence State College Inter-Presidential Council.

Probably one of the best traveled bands in the land, the Covington-Dorsey Orchestra travels over 70,000 miles a year by bus, playing engagements from Maine to Mexico. Just recently, the orchestra completed a one-month engagement at New York's Hotel Roosevelt Grill.

At the helm of the orchestra is one of the most talented young musicians in the business today, Warren Covington. Practically a one-man band, Covington plays the trombone, sings in a rich baritone voice, is an expert maestro and adept at dancing. He is expected to give a cha-cha demonstration at the dance.

Grand Jury In Spring Session

Under the direction of Solicitors W. L. Almon and John Barnes, the spring term Circuit Court grand jury immediately went into session after being empaneled in Lauderdale before Circuit Court Judge Robert M. Hill, Monday. Some 70 felony matters, including at least three capital offenses were expected to be investigated by the jurors.

A 10-day session was predicted by Circuit Clerk Charles Edgar Young. Members chosen for the jury are Walter C. Sedenquist, Florence, foreman; U. L. Teese, Florence, clerk; Dewey O. Chandler, Rt. 3, Rogersville; Jimmy Dean Clemmons, Florence; Raymond Curry, Jr., Florence; Herbert J. Furman, Florence; George Hobbs, Florence; Paul T. Montgomery, Cloverdale; W. F. Bridge Lighting To Be Corrected

Correction of the lighting on the O'Neal Bridge over the Tennessee River between Florence and Sheffield was announced last week by State Highway Director Sam Engelhardt.

Director Engelhardt stated that the State Highway Department will pay for the installation of this corrected lighting and that the payments for operating the lights will continue under the same procedure as it is now handled by the municipalities of Florence and Sheffield.

"Muskmelon" is a word derived from the Persian word for perfume and the French adaptation of a Latin word meaning "apple-shaped melon." Latest azalea research proves that shaded azaleas grow better, have more flowers, and aren't as likely to be cold-damaged as plants in full sun.

Jones To Attend Road Conference

Alabama Congressman
Selected To Represent
U. S. At World Meet

Congressman Robert E. Jones, will head a three-man delegation from the House of Representatives to the International Road Federation Pacific Regional Conference in Sydney, Australia, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn announced last week.

The international highway conference will draw high-ranking government officials from all parts of the free world from February 27 through March 3. The conference will be the first international one on highways held in the Pacific area.

"There is intense interest around the world in our construction of the Interstate Highway System and rightly so," Speaker Rayburn said in announcing selection of Congressman Jones. "It is the largest public works project for peacetime in world history."

"In selecting Congressman Jones to represent us in Australia, I believe I have chosen the best man for the job. He has taken a keen interest in roads since he came to Congress in 1947 and has made notable contributions as a member of the Roads Committee of the House Public Works Committee. I know the American story will be well told."

Congressman Jones will be a principal speaker at the opening of the session on February 27, according to Lord Casey, former Australian Minister of Foreign Affairs who will preside.

Exchange Club In Mass Initiation

State President Cole
Officers At Event;
Program Is Stressed

William H. Cole, Birmingham attorney and president of the Alabama Affiliated Exchange Club, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the local club at Hotel Reader Tuesday noon.

Making an official visit to the club, President Cole conducted the initiation of four new members of the club in addition to delivering a most important address. The new members inducted into membership were: Jack Tauber, of the Ford Motor Co.; H. M. (Bill) Bobo, Florence realtor; Marcus C. McCrary, of Flagg-Utica Corp., and Harper Baddley, Sr., manager of the shoe department at Kreisman's.

Presented by Earle W. Darby, club president, Mr. Cole gave an interesting discussion of the activities being undertaken and fostered by the Exchange clubs over the state and complimented the Florence club for its many outstanding accomplishments over the years. It was pointed out that the local club, organized in December 1920, is one of the oldest in the state with continuous service to the community.

Mr. Darby reported that next Tuesday's meeting will be a joint gathering of the Exchange and Civitan clubs at which time Attorney General McDonald Gallion will be the guest speaker. The Exchange Club, which will be observing Crime Prevention Week at that time, has arranged this special event.

Bradley Home Is Burned At Killen

A three-room house near Killen occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Bradley and their two children burned to the ground Sunday. The fire, apparently caused by faulty wiring, had engulfed the top of the house in the attic before the family members noticed the blaze.

Mr. Bradley rescued his three-year old daughter, Kathy, from a burning bedroom by entering the room through a window and throwing her to safety. The house was owned by Mr. Bradley's sister with no insurance on the structure.

Anyone who desires to help the family may make donations of clothing, food or other items at 334 Thompson Street, Florence, the home of Mrs. Stella Peden, an aunt of Mrs. Bradley. Mrs. Bradley wears size 10 and her husband is average height and weighs 160 pounds.

Come to Church for Services

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

PROMISE

The Saxons had a word for Spring. It was Lenten, shortened, in time, to Lent. So the name Lent was given to that spring-time period of 40 fast days from Ash Wednesday until Easter.

Lent came to mean a time of penitence. And it is. But it is also a time of preparation, and of promise. For because Lent means Spring, it heralds good things to come. It forecasts the glorious message of Easter. It is the dawn of the most beautiful season of the year.

The bare branches of these trees will burst into bud and leaf with the touch of Spring. Our thoughts during Lent, our personal preparations, also will reach fruition when the 40 days are through.

Lent is the time for prayer and self-examination. Make this Lenten season really mean something by seeking help and guidance at your church services.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

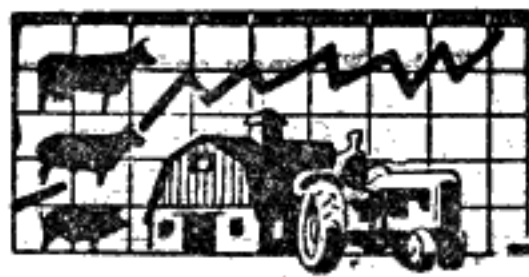

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Pasture Program Takes Planning

Soil Testing And Proper Application Of Lime And Fertilizer Needed

By S. M. EICH, JR.
Assistant County Agent

next few weeks. Some will be seeding new pastures, and others will be seeding on old, established sods. There are no short cuts to getting an keeping a stand of Dallis grass in your clover-grass permanent pastures.

Use the best known practices, and increase your chances of getting and keeping a stand.

Success begins with having your soil tested and applying lime and fertilizer according to recommendations of the soil testing laboratory.

Prepare a smooth, firm seedbed by breaking, disking and harrowing the land. Allow rain to settle the soil. Before seeding, freshen the seedbed lightly with a section harrow.

Drill or broadcast about 20 pounds of seed (10 pounds pure live seed) per acre the latter part of February or as soon as danger of freeze is past.

Cover by pressing seed into the soil with a roller or cultipacker. If a cultipacker or roller is not available, cover seed lightly with a section harrow or weeder.

If you are seeding Dallis grass in old stands of white clover or other plants, plant the seed with regular drills or sod seeding equipment. Or you may disk the sod lightly, broadcast the seed, and follow with a cultipacker. Seed should not be planted over one-fourth inch deep.

Some growers have been successful in establishing stands of Dallis grass on old sods by mixing seed with basic slag and planting with a fertilizer distributor. Small plows are used to open narrow, small furrows.

It is best to keep cattle off newly planted stands until plants are well established.

An Accident Can Happen Any Time

Get The Protection Of Low Cost Insurance Through The Herald

What is a pedestrian? Webster's dictionary defines this person as a "walker" or "foot traveler." He or she could be the happiest, most independent and carefree individual on earth, strolling along in the pursuits of daily life. Yet, whether it be father on the way to work, mother coming home from the store, or the youngster headed for school, they are all faced with accident hazards.

Every minute of the day or night, pedestrians are struck, knocked down or run over by vehicles. They are hit by falling objects. They are blown over by gusts of wind. They trip over obstructions. They fall down stairs. They slip on wet and icy streets and highly polished floors. The result is injuries that can cause loss of life, limb or sight, total disability, or even a minor injury which often requires first aid and/or X-ray.

That's where The Florence Herald's Emergency Protection Personal Accident Policy issued by Old Republic Life Insurance Company of Chicago, Illinois for subscribers and their family household members comes in handy. It provides a schedule of helpful indemnities in varying amounts, depending upon the type of accident, for loss of life, limb or sight, total disability, first aid, ambulance, hospital and X-ray.

Make application at The Herald office or use the handy application form which appears in this newspaper.

Young Farmers Must File Return

Important To Comply With Income Tax Law And Social Security

"Young farmers who don't file income tax returns on their farming income and who don't pay their social security taxes every year are penny wise and pound foolish. Furthermore, they aren't complying with the law," Mrs. Mary King Temple, Manager of the Sheffield Social Security Office said today.

For COLDS take 666

"Bama's Best" Ham

FLORENCE PACKING CO.

"In many cases," she said, "Farmers think no tax return is due if there aren't any income taxes due. However, if a farmer has a profit of $400, he must file returns and pay the social security tax, even though he may not have cleared enough to owe income taxes."

"For a farmer to get retirement or disability checks from social security or for his family to get payments, he, like anyone else, must have enough credits for past work to be insured under the law," Mrs. Temple said. Farmers get these credits by paying their social security taxes each year. Farmers who fail to file their returns on time are usually required to make returns and pay social security taxes for all unreported years, but as a general rule, no more than three years may be credited for social security purposes, according to Mrs. Temple. Since, however, it may take more than three years' credit to get payments from social security, this provision in the law should be observed carefully in order that needed credits will not be lost.

Salvation Army Badly In Need Of Clothing, Shoes

Due to the extremely heavy demand for clothing and shoes during December the Salvation Army is in dire need of additional clothing to meet its needs, Captain Wesley Mott, commanding officer stated today. He said the Army had given out 290 pairs of shoes and 4,918 garments in December practically depleting the supply on hand.

Anyone having usable clothing or shoes are urged to call the Salvation Army headquarters in East Florence, AT 2-4432 and these items will be picked up promptly. Captain Mott said the need for children's shoes was especially great at this time.

Last year the Army distributed in both Lauderdale and Colbert Counties some 37,519 garments to needy people.

Plenty Of Fish May Be Solution

"A well-stocked fish pond may be closer to your heart than you think," says Auburn Extension Wildlife Specialist Earl Kenamer.

Fish are low in a fatty substance called cholesterol which the medical profession has linked with the occurrence of heart attacks. Although there is no definite proof that high-fat diets cause heart ailments, Kenamer says that a number of recent studies show that people who suffer from heart disease usually have greater amounts of cholesterol in their blood than those with no signs of heart ailments.

Fish contain less fat than most of the protein-providing foods. For example, halibut has only 7.8 grams of fat per 100 grams while hamburger contains 30 grams and ham, 33 grams.

A one-acre fish pond, properly managed, will yield about 200 pounds of fish. A pond and a diet which substitutes fish for some meat high in animal fat are worth considering, the specialist says.

Grocery Money Well Distributed

Who's getting the extra cash you're paying for food?

To keep track of food prices, the USDA has set up what it calls "the market basket" which contains various food items that the American homemaker buys each year, says Dorothy Overbey, Auburn Extension consumer education specialist. And in the last 10 years, the price of the articles in the basket has risen $243.

Of this $243, the farmer received only $3; transportation took $33; labor consumed $130; the government got $4 in taxes; and packaging, advertising, financing, product research, etc., received $73.

The large rise in labor costs is due to the consumer's increasing demand for more "maid service" with food. Similarly, the transportation rise is a result of the demand for variety—more than in-season food locally grown.

However, food is still a bargain, Miss Overbey says. Only one-fifth of the family's income goes for food as compared with one-fourth 30 years ago.

Poultrymen spend about 60% of their time gathering, cleaning, and casing eggs.

Congratulations FFA On Your 33rd Anniversary

In celebrating your thirty-third anniversary, you have established an enviable record since the organization was launched in Kansas City in 1928. Now spread throughout the United States and Puerto Rico with some 400,000 members in over 9,000 active chapters, the history of the FFA shows a steady and healthy growth.

You are to be congratulated on the fine jobs you have done and each should serve as a stepping stone to greater accomplishments. With the splendid leadership you have and the splendid projects you have undertaken it is safe to predict that agricultural progress in our area has a great future.

FORT MORGAN TO BE NATIONAL LANDMARK

Famous old Fort Morgan is about to become a Registered National Historic Landmark.

This is the official designation which the National Park Service has offered the state-owned fort. For 400 years, it has guarded the entrance to Mobile Bay from the western-most tip of Baldwin County. It is visited by thousands of tourists each year.

Gov. John Patterson and Conservation Director William C. Younger have formally applied for the "landmark" designation for Fort Morgan. Mr. Younger is chairman of the Fort Morgan Historical Commission.

Conservation Is Subject Of Talk

Ronnie Paulk Second Place Winner In County Public Speaking Contest

The second place winner in the recent Lauderdale County Public Speaking Contest is Ronnie Paulk of Central High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Paulk. Ronnie's vocational agriculture director is Norman Spillers. Ronnie's entry is reprinted herewith:

By RONNIE PAULK

Conservation of the earth's soil is everybody's business. Wherever we live: on the farm, in the city, or in the jungles of Africa our life depends on the top eight inches of the earth's soil because everything we eat comes directly or indirectly from the soil. Less than one sixth of the earth's surface is suitable for crops. Each person needs 2½ acres of producing cropland to supply his food; but there is less than one acre of land producing crops for every person in the world. However the United States is still rich in cropland. There are about 3½ acres of cropland for each person in the United States. But it won't last long at the rate we are going now. We have already had 50 million acres of cropland completely lost by bad conservation practices and another 100 million acres are threatened.

One of the major reasons for the loss of actual soil is water erosion. When the land is bare heavy rainfall beats soil loose and washes it away because there are no plants to hold the soil. Each year on a bare acre 60 truckloads of soil are lost by erosion. The yearly loss each year in the United States because of bad conservation practice is 400 million dollars. If some kind of crop is kept on the land throughout the year this will help prevent washing away of the soil. Another good way to prevent water erosion is contour farming which consists of simply plowing around the hill. Strip cropping is another method of contour farming. This is planting different crops in strips around the hill. For instance planting several rows of corn and then a strip of soy beans. Terracing also aids in preventing erosion because it slows the speed of the water. In doing this most of the soil that is in the water which would otherwise be washed away settles as the water "walks instead of runs." Another way to help prevent this erosion problem is to plant trees. Trees hold the soil much better than other plants because the roots go deeper.

Another important factor in soil conservation is conserving the fertility of the soil. Fertility consists of decayed organic matter and minerals which are so important to the growth of plants. Some important minerals are nitrogen, phosphorus, potash and lime.

Nitrogen in pure form is in a gaseous state. It cannot be kept in the soil for a long period of time, therefore we have to supply some way to restore the nitrogen. One way of doing this is by planting legumes. Legumes are plants which have nodules on their roots for taking nitrogen from the air and putting it in the soil. We are very fortunate in having an unlimited supply of nitrogen. In the air over every acre we have 35,000 tons of nitrogen. Plants cannot take pure nitrogen. It must be mixed with other elements so plants can take it. Some reasons why it is so important to keep nitrogen in the soil are because it gives the plants a dark green color, promotes increased leaf, stem, and fruit growth, improves quality of leaf crops, and produces rapid growth.

Phosphorus in its pure state is a very reactive substance that bursts into flames when exposed to the air. This country is very fortunate in having over half the total known world's supply of Phosphorus. We want to conserve phosphorus for the following reasons:

It stimulates early root formation and growth, gives rapid and vigorous start to plants, hastens maturity, stimulates in blooming, and aids in seed formation. Phosphorus may be added to the soil through the use of most commercial fertilizers.

Potash, in its pure state is highly dangerous to handle. The soil of this country is far richer in potash than in phosphorus and nitrogen. The top 6 inches of our cropland contains about 5 billion tons. Unfortunately most of the potash is locked up in the soil in a form plants cannot use. Potash gives increased vigor and disease resistance to plants, produces strong stiff stalks and increases plumpness of grain and seed. Potash is also added to the soil in commercial fertilizers.

Few people ever think of putting lime on their land although it is extremely important in some cases. Most plants need an acid soil and some need an alkaline. When an over-acid soil is present, for most crops lime is needed because it is an alkali and neutralizes the acid. The best way to tell what we need on our land is to make a soil test. These will tell you how much and what kind of fertilizers to use.

Another way minerals and fertility of the soil are lost is by planting the same crop year after year on the same plot of ground, thus wearing out the soil. Ever since the days of Thomas Jefferson, farmers have been taught to rotate their crops in order to conserve minerals and fertility and not wear out the soil. Another way fertility is conserved is by preventing leaching. Leaching is the seeping of water through the soil taking valuable plant food down with it. On sandy soil leaching losses are severe. One of the best ways to prevent leaching is to keep a growing crop on the land throughout the year. Without a

A SALUTE TO LAUDERDALE COUNTY'S F.F.A. BOYS

On this the Thirty-third Anniversary of the founding of the Future Farmers of America, we wish to pay tribute to the Lauderdale County members of the organization who have every right to be proud of their splendid record of accomplishment. Much of the prosperity of this country depends upon you as you learn better ways of producing food and fiber. We commend you on your efforts.

The health and much of the wealth of the nation depends on the farmer. Agriculture is a basic industry and has been since its founding. Today agriculture is big business, offering a greater challenge than ever as this nation marches forward. You — our Future Farmers — are meeting that challenge.

NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK

salutes an important national industry

Members of the electrical industry have made a big contribution to this country's development and progress. These industries produce the equipment and electricity for our humming factories, making this country the most productive in the world . . . for business and commerce, giving Americans more comfortable working surroundings and better service . . . for homes and farms, giving all of us a higher standard of living. During National Electrical Week, we salute our allies — and take great pride in being a member of an industry that has helped make this country great.

Congratulations to the Future Farmers OF LAUDERDALE COUNTY

You Are Showing The Way To Better Farming

May we add our word of tribute to the wonderful work being done by the fine FFA Chapters in Lauderdale County and all their members. It is inspiring to view their many accomplishments and see their enthusiasm for the farm and its traditions.

With training through actual farm projects, each year more and more boys are coming out of schools with the know-how of farming on a modern scientific basis. It is through these boys that the future of our nation will depend, for only through a strong agriculture can this nation hope to survive. We believe in the future of farming as practiced by the vocational students of Lauderdale County High Schools. We pledge our support to our FFA boys in all of their endeavors.

P.T.A.: The Powell P.T.A. met Monday night at the school. A tacky party was the entertainment for the night. The regular President was not present so Alton Bailey presided. Mrs. Inas Goode had Bible reading with Ronald Middlebrooks leading in prayer. The group enjoyed singing songs and many games including a spelling bee. Mrs. Katherine Bailey and Ronald Middlebrooks were the winners of the tacky prize. Mrs. Bailey received a box of snuff, and the men's prize was a cigar.

There are some high school girls who have said that they would keep the children for the parents at the next P.T.A. meeting. Also there is to be a prize of $1.00 given to the room who has the largest number of parents present at the next meeting. So we urge the parents to attend the P.T.A. meetings at the school which are held each first Monday night of the month.

After the games refreshments were served to those attending P.T.A.

Club: The Powell home demonstration club met Monday at the home of Mrs. Inas Goode with approximately ten members present. Mrs. Connors gave a demonstration on Making Housework Easier. Afterwards refreshments were served.

The Powell Home Demonstration Club along with the entire Powell community are sponsoring a chicken stew which is to be held at the Powell School Friday night, February 17th in order to raise money to build a picnic area around the trees located behind the school. Along with the stew there will be a White Elephant Sale with Lewell (Mutt) Mewburn as auctioneer.

Lewis Corum from the Grassy community is to cook the chickens. Plates are 50c apiece. Anyone wishing to bring a wrapped package worth $1.00 to be auctioned off, it would be appreciated.

Personals: Mrs. Dorothy Thompson who has been in the hospital in Huntsville is now at her home.

Mrs. Judy McCrary and her father Carter Thompson motored to Fort Lee, Virginia Friday. Mr. Thompson returned home Sunday afternoon and Mrs. McCrary stayed at Fort Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hoole visited Mrs. Lila Bedingfield and Robert Bedingfield who are visiting relatives in Rogersville. Mr. and Mrs. Hoole also motored to Birmingham to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Hoole and Mrs. Lily Martin over the week end.

"America's First Scientific Farmer"

WE ASSURE YOU OF OUR INTEREST AND SUPPORT

Throughout the years it has been the pleasure of the county government to support the FFA in all of its activities because we recognize the importance of the training our future farmers and citizens receive in all of our county chapters. We believe in the future of farming as practiced by the Future Farmers of America who, through training and actual experience, bring to agriculture the answers to many of its problems. Through their efforts they have brightened the farm picture of the future and kept alive the hopes of every citizen in a great basic industry.

We pledge our full and continuing support of your every endeavor and offer every assistance which we, as your county officials are able to render. Please do not hesitate to tell us whenever we can serve you.

NATIONAL FFA WEEK

1928 - 33rd ANNIVERSARY - 1961

— February 18-25 —

PURPOSE OF NATIONAL FFA WEEK

National Future Farmers of America Week seeks to focus attention on the work of the Future Farmers of today, who will be the successful farmers of tomorrow.

This nation must have many thousands of NEW farmers every year to replace those who die, retire, or otherwise leave the farm. These must be men with experience and training enough to become successful farmers. Generally, they must be men who have begun farming at an early age, so that by the time they are ready to marry and start a family they will be firmly established in a farming program that promises a good future.

Vocational Agriculture and the FFA constitute the most effective program yet developed for training boys to be good farmers and helping them to become established in the farming occupation of their choice.

In view of the nation's need for NEW farmers, it is fitting that recognition be given these young men who are preparing for careers in farming. Encouragement at this time will do much to stimulate them to harder work and greater achievement.

WHY FFA WEEK IS OBSERVED DURING FEBRUARY

National FFA Week comes every year during the week of the anniversary of the birthday of George Washington. Although usually considered first as a great general, our first president, and an engineer, George Washington's first love was the farm he called Mount Vernon. There he was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotations, and other soil conserving methods. Probably no other man in America of his day spent more time seeking new agricultural information, either by experimentation on his own farm, or by correspondence with agricultural scientists in England. The title of America's first "scientific farmer" might be applied to Washington. It was more than a century after his death that many of the sound agricultural practices he advocated found general practice.

It is out of deep respect and admiration for George Washington, the farmer in whose progressive ways they seek to follow, that Future Farmers annually observe their National FFA Week at the time of his birthday.

WE SALUTE OUR FUTURE FARMERS

THE FFA MOTTO:

"LEARNING TO DO, DOING TO LEARN;
EARNING TO LIVE, LIVING TO SERVE"

WHAT IS THE FFA?

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA is the national organization of farm boys studying vocational agriculture in rural high schools of the nation. FFA is an extra-curricular activity, having origin and root in the instruction program for boys who wish to prepare themselves for a successful career in farming. Among other things, members learn, through active participation, how to conduct and take part in public meetings; to speak in public; to market farm products; to solve their own problems; to finance themselves; to use improved farming methods; and to assume civic responsibility. Classroom training is a supervised farming program under the direction of the vocational agriculture teacher who is an agriculture college graduate employed on a 12-month basis.

WHY WAS FFA FORMED?

Vocational Agriculture in the public high schools was given its first big boost by the Smith-Hughes Act passed by the Congress in 1917, providing for Federal Funds on a matching basis with the States, to promote a program of education that would help to prepare those who intended to enter the occupation of farming. Many schools throughout the nation established vocational agriculture instruction in the early 1920's. Teachers, recognizing the need for some kind of organization to stimulate more interest in farming by the boys, provide them with additional incentive, give leadership training, and provide an opportunity for wholesome organized recreation. Many local "clubs," with a wide variety of names, were established to meet that need. The local units, in turn, organized county and state associations, and by 1928 the movement was so widespread that a national organization was formed. The national organizational meeting was held November 20, 1928, in Kansas City, Mo. About 35 vocational agriculture students attended the first national convention. Now, 10,000 or more members attend the national conventions held each year in Kansas City.

Fertilizer Must Be Right Type

Soil Test Can Show
Correct Plant Food
For Every Farm

By JOHN HENDERSON
Asst. County Agent

Fertilizer is the key which can unlock the power of your soil. It is an investment in greater profits and a more abundant living from the soil. However, fertilizer is not a "cure-all" and it must be used wisely or it can be wasted. This is the reason why farmers in Lauderdale County are being urged to take the guesswork out of fertilization practices by having soil tests made on their individual farms.

Just as the turbine and generator convert the once wasted power of falling water into useful electricity, so can the proper use of fertilizer and lime combine with the forces of water, air, and sunlight to produce greater crop yields.

The same amount of rain, air and sunlight falls on a poor soil as on a nearby field of fertile soil with high-yielding corn or cotton. The major difference is the fertility level of the two fields. Many fields in Lauderdale County are producing poor yields because of infertile soil. To overcome this problem, farmers need to take soil samples to determine the kind and amount of fertilizer and lime to use for greater crop production at lower unit cost.

The recommendations which you receive on your soil test reports are backed up by many years of research by soil scientists. Soil test recommendations are based on hundreds of greenhouse and field experiments conducted on many different soils. These experiments have shown what yield can be obtained from certain levels of applied fertilizer.

In addition to research knowledge, well-trained personnel of the Auburn University College of Agriculture interpret the soil tests and make the recommendations. These highly trained men use this chemical analysis of your soil, your past management and fertilizer practices as reported on your information sheet, together with knowledge of local soil conditions to make recommendations to you.

Boxes and instructions for taking soil samples can be obtained at the County Agent's office in the Co-op building at Florence. A truck, originally scheduled to take soil samples to the laboratory on February 21 has been re-scheduled to March 3 in order to give farmers more time to get samples since many have been delayed by bad weather. The ASC Office will accept soil test recommendations for crops to be planted under the cost-share program.

So take your soil samples now and bring them to the County Agent's office by March 2 so they can go down on the truck to the laboratory. This will save trouble and expense of mailing the samples. Remember "Don't guess, Soil Test."

Hundredth Book For W. H. Martin

Memorial To Former Florence Resident Has Now Been Completed

A novel library memorial project which began in 1946 has just been completed with the placing of the 100th book in the Florence-Lauderdale Public Library "in memory of William Hope Martin."

The memorial books for the former Florence farmer, carpenter and small merchant were given by three descendants, none of whom have lived here for some years. They are Mrs. Velma Martin Browne, a daughter who lives in Arkansas, Lt. Col. William Fred Martin, a son and retired Army chaplain who lives in Lompoc, California, and grandson, William Douglas Browne of Los Angeles, California.

Although the largest group of the 100 books had religious overtones, many other subjects were covered ranging from gardening to psychiatry.

The decision to give the books was made in the thought they would provide a "living memorial," Mrs. Browne wrote, pointing out that "good books are eternal."

Miss Ethel Pearson, librarian, said a substantial portion of the new books purchased each year for the Muscle Shoals Regional Library system were given as memorials. Usually, she said, they reflect some special interest of the person in whose name they are given.

Charter Presented To Charles Peery At NABAC Meet

Members of the Tennessee Valley Conference of NABAC, The Association for Bank Audit, Control and Operation heard a talk on "Profitable Banking" by Sam F. DiCara, director of the organization division at NABAC headquarters, at their meeting Feb. 9 in Athens.

In addition, DiCara presented an official conference charter to Conference President Charles Peery.

"Your Health" is presented by the physician as a health service of the Medical Association of the State of Alabama.

THE ALCOHOLIC

The patient whom the physician has been treating for asthma could also be the victim of another disease that needs treating—alcoholism. Many alcoholics are under medical care for other reasons than drinking. The physician may suspect excessive drinking even though he has not discussed this problem with his patient.

Individuals who are alcoholics often have no one to whom they can talk, no one who will take the time to understand their discomforts and miseries. It is in this situation that the family doctor can play an important role. The general public is likely to picture an alcoholic as one who has lost all control or as a derelict of the skid-row type. As a matter of fact, scarcely three per cent of alcoholics fall into this category. The great majority of people who become alcoholics are patients whom the family doctor already knows.

The physician's suspicions should be aroused when a patient begins to use alcohol, not as an occasional beverage, but as a drug to produce definite effects. A history of excessive drinking over a period of time which has caused an adverse reaction in the patient or his family and others in his environment, can be considered the problem of alcoholism. If there is a consistent adverse effect with drinking, the physician should caution his patient, just as he would with any other illness which is suspected when early unconfirmed signs are noted. The physician can help his patient gain insight into his problems and help him to recognize where his conflicts lie.

One of the greatest contributions the family doctor can make to such a patient is to listen as he airs his troubles. Full discussion with members of the family is also important so they will cooperate in understanding the patient, not as a weak or willful person but as one who is ill and needs help.

State Steps Up Highway Plans

Florence Is Included In Surplus Food Program
For Labor-Surplus Areas

Highway construction is being stepped up in Alabama in another effort to relieve high unemployment in the State.

The State Highway Department is rushing plans for new roads and bridges to take advantage of the early release of $12½ million in Federal funds. President Kennedy has ordered the funds for the April-May-June period to be released immediately.

Earlier, President Kennedy announced a stepped-up surplus food program and plans for new forestry projects in depressed areas.

Five areas in Alabama having a substantial labor surplus were designated for the proposed program—Birmingham, Talladega, Jasper, Gadsden and Florence-Sheffield. The State Department of Conservation has recommended a five-month emergency program employing about 1,000 persons.

Included would be the construction of new fire towers and tower access roads, thinning and hardwood control in state forests, reforestation programs including interplanting and underplanting, stabilization of roadbanks, new fishing lakes and wildlife refuges.

With top-quality cotton seed scarce again this year, it is suggested that you: 1) Buy seed early, 2) read the tag and carefully check germination, and 3) increase seedling rate to insure good stand.

A medium-sized sweet potato will give you more than all the vitamin A you need for the day and about one-third of the vitamin C. This potato also gives you some iron and several calories.

CONGRATULATIONS FFA ON YOUR ANNIVERSARY

It is a pleasure for us to extend our sincere good wishes to Lauderdale County FFA Boys and their splendid Chapters. We congratulate all of you on your fine programs and assure you of our assistance at all times.

The future of Agriculture in Lauderdale and other counties throughout the state and nation are in your hands. We know that you will not fail.

World Day Of Prayer

At the First Presbyterian Church at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, February 17, the churches will meet together for the observance of the World Day of Prayer. You are urged to join in this service.

Birthday Surprise

Joyce Boston, Music Director at the Baptist Church, whose home is in Muscle Shoals City, was quite pleasantly surprised on Monday evening when some twenty-five friends from Rogersville called at his home to wish him the happiest returns of the day.

Mrs. Boston, assisted by Dennis and Jan, served delicious refreshments and a very pleasant birthday party resulted.

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss Linda Bedingfield, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bedingfield whose marriage to Raymond Davis is an event of February 18 at the Baptist Church, was complimented with a gift tea on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Gerald Waddell.

Linda chose a dark green matte jersey with which she wore gold daisies in corsage for the occasion. Mary Lou Waddell registered the guests.

From a refreshment table, overlaid with white madiera cutwork cloth with a centerpiece of pink roses and with silver and crystal appointments, Mrs. Hubert McKee served the cake and Mrs. Essie Goad the punch.

Assisting with the party were Mesdames J. A. Waddell, Olga Harvey, Travis McKee, J. L. Barnard and C. J. Pennington.

Mrs. Bobby Ingram of Huntsville was a guest.

School Of Missions

The Rogersville Baptist Church will participate in a School of Missions beginning February 19 at the morning service when Rev. James G. Phelps of the Home Mission Board will speak. In the evening Miss Addie Cox, missionary to China and now retired will be speaking.

During the week mission classes for all age groups will be taught beginning at 7:00 p.m. with a missionary speaking at 8:00.

Speaking on Monday will be Rev. Clyde Presley of the State Mission Board; on Tuesday Rev. Daniel R. Contreras of Clovis, New Mexico; on Wednesday, Rev. Milton Martinez who works with the Spanish speaking people in that area and on Thursday Miss Merna Jean Hocum of Brazil.

The public is urged to attend these services.

Personals:

Visiting Miss Edna Warmack, who was ill last week, were Mr.

and Mrs. Jack Patterson of Decatur.

Mrs. Thelma Barnes of Ypsilanti, Mich., has been a guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. H. R. Myers, and Mr. Myers.

Guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rithmire on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Willie Rithmire of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Shelton of Pulaski and Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Rithmire of Florence.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurn Hudson and children of Birmingham were guests for the week end in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Otha Rose.

Brother and Mrs. Tom Estes and children have been in Memphis because of the death of Bro. Estes' father.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rithmire visited Mr. and Mrs. Milton Luffman at Gravelly Springs. Miss Myrtle Herring of Rogersville visited last week end in Montevallo with her cousin, Dr. Katherine Vickery, who is head of the psychology department at Alabama College.

Church:

Worship services at all the churches Sunday. There will be services at the Baptist Church next week.

Prayer meeting was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Newman with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hagood in charge of the program.

School:

The adult meeting met again this month in the vocation department, with a large crowd. A film was shown by Mr. Johnson, on High Analysis Fertilizer.

It's granulated, it's homogeneous, it's good for anything that grows.

Mr. Wilson also talked about the water system; he encouraged everyone to hurry and sign so we can start to work. Forty-eight have already signed up.

Personals:

Visitors in the home of Jessie Franklin this week end were Mr. and Mrs. Buford Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Deward Franklin from Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Haddock and son from Oak Ridge, Tenn visited Mrs. Ada Higgins and Miss Mary Pickens this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Culver and Janet visited relatives in Waterloo Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Culver, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Culver of Florence visited their mother Sunday, Mrs. Virginia Culver.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. White this past week end were Mrs. Thomas Gigandet, Miss LaVerne Minniehan, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel White.

Mrs. E. L. Culver visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Newman Sunday.

Mrs. Gertie H. Daley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hutson and children and attended church at Walnut Grove, Tenn.

Games were enjoyed by the following children present: Janet Gray, Debra Smith, Patty Montgomery, Susan Perkins, Debra Perkins, Jimmie Oakley, Jeana Oakley.

PTA:

The Cloverdale P.T.A. met Thursday night. Lacy Waynick was in charge of the program. Harley Kerby presided over the business meeting. The annual spring supper was planned at the meeting and will be March 3 in the school cafeteria. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Club News:

The Cloverdale Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. L. C. Simmons for the February meeting. A very interesting program was given and several members attended. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Oystershell or limestone grit must be available at all times for layers, either in the ration or in separate hoppers.

Waterloo FFA Is Active Chapter

Father-Son Banquet Set For April; Many Fine Projects Planned

The Waterloo Future Farmers of America are having a very successful year. There are 62 members in the Waterloo Chapter that are taking part in various activities this year. The observing of National Future Farmer of America which is February 18-25 is just one of these various activities.

The Waterloo Chapter is being led this year by officers as follows: President, Lynn Lard; Vice-President, Sam Daniel; Secretary, Jimmy Barrier; Treasurer, Paul May; Reporter, Donald Heupel; Assistant Advisor, David Haynes and Sentinel, Ronnie Murphy.

Immediately after school opened the President appointed each member to a committee for the year. Committees are as follows: Activity, Social, Program, FFA Sweetheart, Livesock, National FFA Week, and Father-Son-Mother-Daughter. Much of the chapter work is done through committees and each boy is placed on at least one that is active some time during the year.

The chapter holds two regularly scheduled chapter meetings each month. These are held the second and fourth Thursdays and there is a planned program for each. The last meeting was held jointly with the FHA with Mr. Houser from the Employment Office as guest speaker.

Early in the school year the chapter selects a number of state sponsored contests to enter, thereby, aiding members to have special opportunities for training in different things. This year contests selected are as follows: Speaking, Land Judging, Livestock Judging, Tractor Driving, String Band, Quartet, Corn Growing and Forestry.

Pete Watkins won the chapter and County Corn Growing Contest. He produced 136 bushels per acre. He will receive his award later this year at the annual Father-Son-Mother-Daughter banquet.

Robert McDaniel won the chapter Speaking Contest but lost in the county. Jessie Robertson won the chapter Tractor Driving Contest and will represent the chapter in the county.

Other contests which the chapter will enter later are: Land Judging, Quartet, String Band and Forestry.

The highlight of the year's activity is always the Father-Son-

Mother-Daughter Banquet. This affair is usually held in April. The chapter will begin committee work on this activity soon.

Through the many varied activities of the Waterloo FFA the members are living by their club motto which is Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, Living to Serve.

Seven out of every 10 Alabamians are dependent upon agriculture for their livelihood. These people either farm or process, handle, or sell farm products.

PRODUCTIVE YEARS

Every member of the Future Farmers of America who had a part in this great program has the right to be proud of the record of the past 33 years. We firmly believe that the FFA has meant more to the success of agriculture than any like agency.

A Salute To Our Splendid FFA Chapters

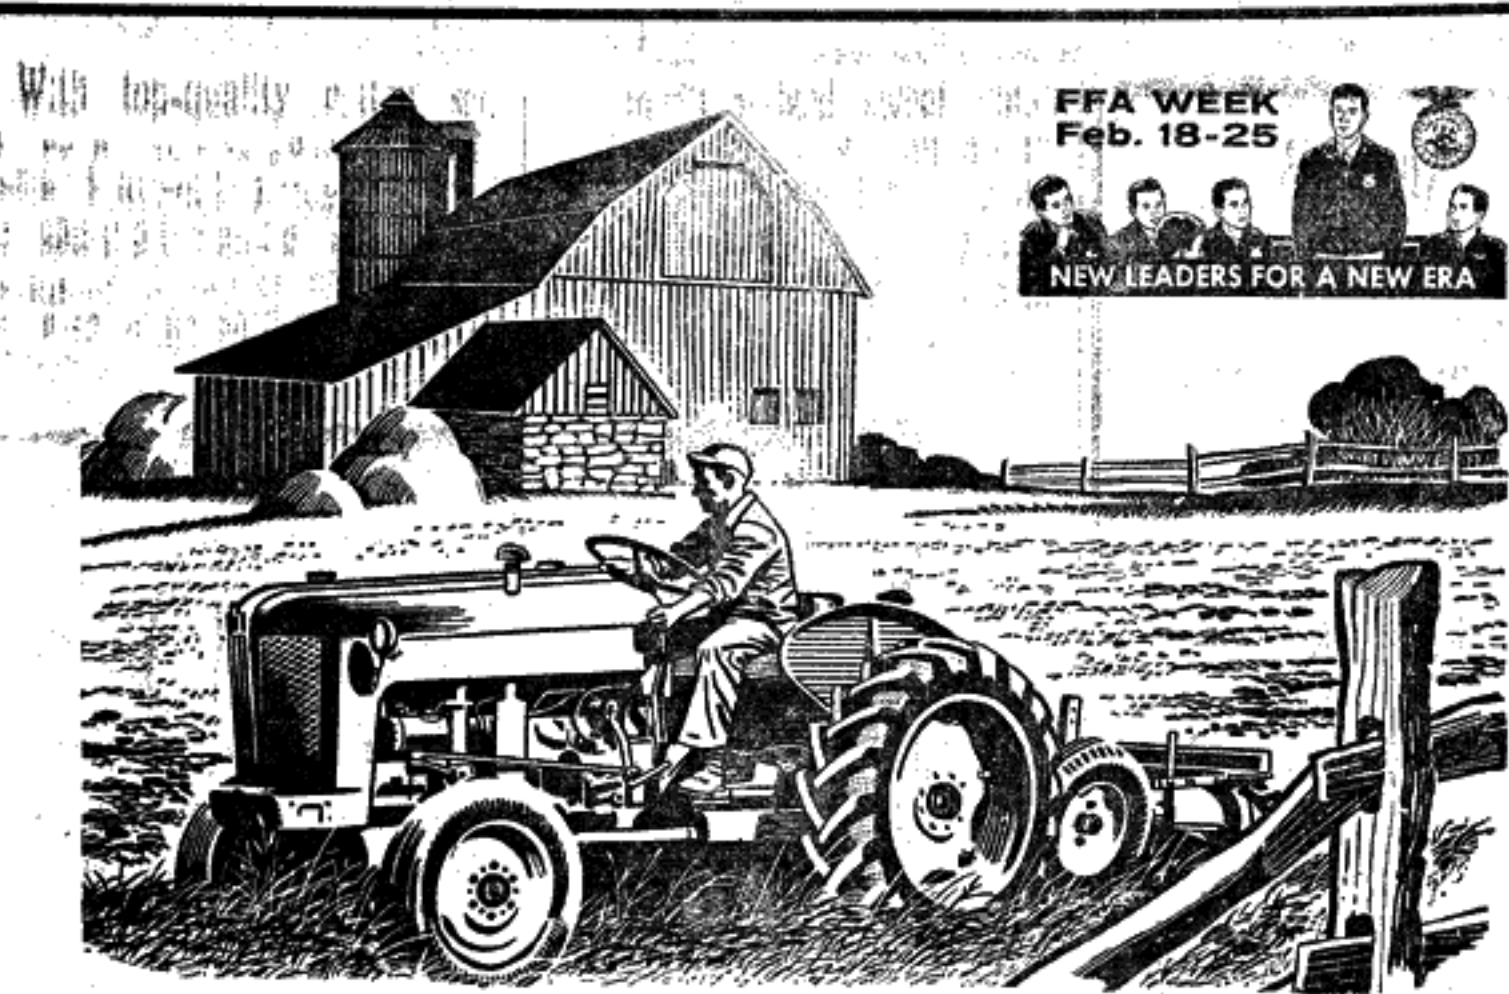

The record of the Future Farmers of America in this county, state and nation, is one to be proud of. We are especially proud of our association with the Lexington High School FFA Chapter and the other chapters of the county which have demonstrated the excellence of their training, not only as scientific farmers but as future citizens who will one day guide the destiny of this great country.

We Appreciate Your Efforts And Pledge Our Continued Support
